DEDICATION

DAVID DINWIDDIE TRAYNHAM

This North Carolina Conference Journal is dedicated to Reverend David Dinwiddie Traynham, one of our faithful and conscientious retired pastors. D. D. became a member of the Conference in 1930 and served faithfully in the pastorate for 40 years. In 1953 he was elected Conference Statistician and continued in this office until June, 1988. His genial demeanor, his patient attention to duty, and his quiet humor have won for him the respect and admiration of his peers and his parishioners. He has remained active in the past 24 years of retirement. Early in his career, one of our bishops remarked that D. D. Traynham had a "D.D." on the wrong end of his name, to which D. D. replied, "No sir, it's on the end where it means something!" At the age of 89, he has attended every session of the Annual Conference for the past 64 years.

VISION: GOD'S GIFT

Our 1994 North Carolina Annual Conference Emphasis

Vision is the gift to see beyond things as they are to what they might become. We hear the struggles of paying apportionments, the cries of a declining membership, the brokenness of a suffering people. In the midst of weeping and mourning, the Church today looks up to claim the new vision for the people called Methodists. We carry forth that rich heritage of Moses, Miriam, Ruth, Paul, John Wesley, Mary McLeod Bethune, Harry Hosier, and Harry Long, who received the gift of seeing the future in a different way. "...one thing (we) do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (we) press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:13-14).

May Annual Conference 1994 enable us to claim God's vision for our future.

Clergy and diaconals long for a closer bond of fellowship among ministers;

Laity seek spiritual enrichment;

The Church cries out for vibrant worship.

Some say it can never happen, others quickly remember the barriers of past failures. Faithful discipleship means opening eyes to see the hopes and promises of tomorrow.

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

Section I: Rules of Order

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these rules.
2. A member may speak out only once on any one motion until all who desire to speak have done so; and then he/she may speak only one additional time.
3. The chairperson of an agency (or someone designated by him/her) shall be allowed to speak last on his/her report even though the previous questions have been ordered.
4. Speeches shall be limited to five (5) minutes except by consent of the Conference.
5. If any part of these rules conflict with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the Discipline shall prevail.
6. The Rules of Order and Procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall apply to the Annual Conference as regularly scheduled and to all called sessions of the Conference.

Section II: Voting

1. Voting shall be by "yes or no" or by a "show of hands" or by "standing" at the discretion of the chair.
2. A count vote may be ordered or called by any member of the Conference supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present and voting. The results of a count vote shall be printed in the Journal. The chair may call for a count vote if he/she is in doubt as to the outcome of the vote.
3. All votes shall be cast in the bar of the Conference. The bar of the Conference shall be determined by the Conference at the beginning of the first session.

Section III: Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences

1. The election of clerical delegates shall be by secret ballot. (Each person eligible to vote shall indicate his/her choice of names for the places ordered by the chair on the secret ballot without prior nomination, with balloting to continue until a majority is received by sufficient persons to fulfill the needed number of delegates.)
 - a. Any lay person who is a member of The United Methodist Church of the North Carolina Conference who wishes to be a nominee may submit a resume, not to exceed 200 words. Resumes may also be submitted on behalf of a prospective nominee.
 - b. Consent of the nominee should be obtained after the nominee has been informed of the duties of a delegate.
 - c. Any lay member of the Church may be voted for whether a resume is submitted or not.
 - d. Resumes should be mailed to the Conference lay leader by April 1 of the year prior to the upcoming General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
 - e. The list of nominees and their resumes will be prepared and distributed by the Conference Board of Lay Life and Work at the District Briefings or be mailed with the Book of Reports.
 - f. The election of lay delegates shall be by secret ballot as above. Electors may vote for any eligible person, whether nominated as above or not.
3. All votes shall be cast upon the official ballots authorized by the Conference.
4. Ballots shall be numbered consecutively and only ballots with the number announced by the chair shall be valid. Defaced ballots will not be valid. (If a member defaces a ballot, he/she may exchange it for a new one at the secretary's desk.)
5. Each member will place his/her own ballot in the ballot box held by a teller.
6. Different colored ballots will be provided for lay and clerical members.
7. The names of persons receiving less than ten votes shall not be reported to the Conference.
8. Five alternates to Jurisdictional Conference shall be elected.
9. A ballot will be considered invalid in the following cases:

- a. Any electronic ballot which is not marked clearly and darkly with a number 2 lead pencil. (Any the scanner will not read.)
- b. More or less than the maximum number of votes permitted on that particular ballot.
- c. Voting for a person already elected.
- d. Voting for someone not eligible.
- e. Voting twice for the same person.

Section IV: Conference Structure

1. The Bishop and Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Conference, except in those cases where the Discipline or the Annual Conference directs otherwise.
2. Near the end of each quadrennium, the heads of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees shall submit a list of qualified, suggested nominees to the Bishop and the Cabinet for their consideration in the formation of new Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees.
3. Recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.
 - a. At the beginning of each quadrennium all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees shall elect their officers only after all their members have been notified of the organizational meeting. A member of the Cabinet or the Conference Staff (designated by the Cabinet) shall serve as the convening officer for the organizational meeting.
 - b. All elections in the Boards and Agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be by written, secret ballot of those present and eligible to vote. Nominations from the floor may be made.
 - c. The presiding Bishop shall be requested to announce the Cabinet assignments to the various Boards and Agencies at some point during the Annual Conference.
 - d. Tenure for membership for all persons on boards, agencies, commissions, and committees shall be eight years.
 - e. At the end of each quadrennium, an item of business at the annual conference shall be the presentation of awards to retiring chairpersons, staff members, and such other persons as the board/agency desires to recognize. At this session "personal privilege" will not be allowed for plaque presentations.
5. The membership is to be as outlined in the complete Lay/Clergy Equalization Plan found in the latest Journal.
6. The Conference structure shall be as determined by the charter of the Conference Council on Ministries. In addition there shall be a coordinator of ministerial relations/administrative assistant to the bishop with such duties and responsibilities as determined by the Annual Conference or assigned by the presiding bishop.
7. The Secretary: The secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Conference after the meeting of the General Conference; and on nominations arising from the floor.
 - a. The position of Conference Secretary shall be continued on a part-time basis with adequate funding provided.
 - b. The responsibilities of the Conference Secretary shall be defined as follows:
 - 1) To fulfill the duties and functions of the Conference Secretary as adopted by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.
 - 2) To edit the Conference Journal.
 - 3) And such other duties as are stipulated by the Annual Conference.
 - a) Provides for the Local Entertainment Committee any necessary information pertinent to Conference entertainment, and to provide the names and addresses of all persons (guests, delegates, and reserves) to be invited and entertained, including early arrivals.

- b) Provides delegate registration cards with complete information, by districts,
 - c) Serves as a member of the Annual Conference Program Committee and responsible for the printing and the distribution of the Conference Program as planned by the Bishop and the Program Committee, also the Book of Recommendations,
 - d) Serves as chairman of the Annual Conference Committee on Memoirs and is responsible for the compiling and the printing of the memoirs and the Memorial Service as prepared by the Bishop and the Memoirs Committee,
 - e) Arranges with the Local Entertainment Committee plans for all special luncheons or banquets,
 - f) Provides a packet for each delegate with necessary materials, including name tags,
 - g) Responsible for proper preparation of ordination credentials and other documents, and securing the class photos,
 - h) Provides necessary office equipment and supplies during Annual Conference for the following offices: Bishop, Conference Secretary, Cabinet, Cabinet Secretary, Conference Statistician, Treasurer, and United Methodist information,
 - i) Nominates secretarial staff, assigns and supervises their work,
 - j) Compiles list of lay delegates and reserves for Journal,
 - k) Serves as editor of Conference Journal with responsibility for printing and distribution,
 - l) Keeps accurate alphabetical and chronological rolls of ministers, including career records, widows and children of ministers,
 - m) Provides required statistical information for General Church Agencies,
 - n) Serves as Conference archivist and custodian of historical artifacts and information of antecedent conferences,
 - o) Receives and retains surrendered credentials.
- c. The position of Conference Secretary shall be limited by a tenure of eight years, effective at the beginning of the 1972-1973 Conference Year.
 - d. Proper provision shall be made in The United Methodist Building in Raleigh for the protection and the preservation of all records, historical data, etc. of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and (and any antecedent conferences) dating prior to the Union of 1939 now being held by the Conference Secretary and the Conference Statistician.
 - e. Assistant Secretaries: The Secretary shall nominate his/her assistants and the Conference shall elect.
 - f. Conference Stenographers: The Conference Secretary shall employ the Conference stenographers.
8. The Conference Statistician:
 - a. The position of Conference Statistician shall be continued on a part-time basis with those duties stipulated by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, with adequate funding provided.
 - b. The position of Conference Statistician shall be limited by a tenure of eight years, effective at the beginning of the 1972-1973 Conference Year.
 9. Compensation: The Council on Finance and Administration shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also, the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The Conference treasurer shall pay these amounts.

10. The Conference Lay Leader: The Conference Lay Leader shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Annual Conference following General Conference on nomination by the Bishop and Cabinet and the Executive Committee of the Board of Laity. Should the vacancy occur at any other time it would be filled by the same procedure. The Conference Lay Leader shall serve as the chairperson of the Board of Laity.
11. Committees and Boards:
 - a. The Conference Board of Trustees shall meet periodically at times and places designated by the Board at least twice a year. The annual meeting shall be held either at Annual Conference or within 30 days prior thereto.
 - b. There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the resident Bishop, the Conference secretary, the host district superintendent, the chairperson of Local Committee on Entertainment, the Conference lay leader, the Conference president of the UMM, UMW, the UMY, and the director of the Conference Council on Ministries. They shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers and this shall be paid from the Conference expense fund.
 - c. There shall be an Entertainment Committee composed of three ministers and three laypersons. The Committee shall be elected at the session of the Annual Conference after the meeting of the General Conference. The Committee shall receive invitations and recommend to the Annual Conference the place and method of entertaining the Annual Conference. A local church or other institution may host the Annual Conference upon acceptance of the invitation of the Annual Conference.
 - 1) When no invitation has come from the local church or other institution, the Annual Conference will be held at Methodist College and North Carolina Wesleyan College on alternating years (held at Methodist College until Wesleyan has an auditorium).
 - 2) The Cabinet will designate a district each year on a rotating basis as the host district (when the Conference is held at Methodist College and North Carolina Wesleyan College) which will be responsible for ushers, flowers, and other related items of hospitality.
 - d. There shall be a Committee on Memoirs composed of the Conference secretary, and the district superintendents. They are charged with the responsibility of providing for all details of the memorial service. The Conference secretary shall serve as its chairperson.
 - e. There shall be a Committee on Daily Minutes elected each year to examine the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference and report to the Conference.
 - f. There shall be a Committee on Appeals appointed quadrennially, composed of five members whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Buildings, or any other questions that may properly come before it.
 - g. There shall be a Committee of Rules which shall provide to the Conference a document of Rules of Order and Procedure and the policies and standing rules and structure that the Conference from time to time shall adopt for its functioning. This document shall be presented to each Annual Conference.
 - h. There shall be constituted a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions annually, at the first session of the Conference.
 - i. There shall be a Committee on Resolutions and Reference which shall schedule all resolutions for consideration by the Annual Conference, including resolutions from boards and agencies printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports. This scheduling will not constitute a recommendation for approval, disapproval or referral of such a resolution. Any resolution not in Conference publications will be reviewed by this committee, which shall recommend to the Annual Conference approval, disapproval, or referral to another board or agency. With each report the committee shall state the rationale for the recommendation.

- j. There shall be a North Carolina Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. which shall have the responsibility, upon consultation with the Conference Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry, the Conference Commission on Health and Human Services, or the Conference Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, as appropriate, for nominating and electing forty (40) percent of all voting members of each of the boards of trustees of the affiliated institutions with the exception of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. The North Carolina Annual Conference shall elect the trustees of the North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. in staggered four-year terms. (See 1992 Journal, page 320.)

12. No person may serve on more than one board of trustees of an institution to which trustees are elected by the Conference.

Section V: Financial Administration

1. The Conference treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from our Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, and to print the same in the Journal.
2. The Council on Finance and Administration shall present the budget for adoption by the Annual Conference only after all other committees, commissions, boards, and agencies having claims on the budget have presented their report.
3. Each district superintendent shall furnish the Conference treasurer as early as possible following the completion of the Charge Conferences an official copy of the amounts budgeted by each local church for Conference apportionments; and a schedule of salaries of clergy as budgeted shall be sent to the presiding bishop.

Section VI: Reports, Resolutions, Motions, and Amendments to Reports

1. All reports, recommendations, and resolutions to be included in the Book of Recommendations shall be sent to the Conference secretary, typewritten or in some other form acceptable to the Conference secretary, on or before the date approved for such by the Council on Ministries and published in the Conference calendar.
2. Resolutions presented to the Annual Conference, other than those printed in conference publications, shall be submitted in writing to the Conference secretary with copies for all members of the Annual Conference. Such resolutions shall be presented to the Annual Conference on one day and considered the next day. A resolution is considered "presented" to the Annual Conference when it is distributed in Conference publications or distributed to members on the floor of the Annual Conference after authorization by the Conference secretary and chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference. All copies distributed shall indicate the source of the resolution. No resolution shall be distributed later than the second night of the Annual Conference session. All resolutions shall be referred to the Conference Committee on Resolutions and Reference. The committee shall report to the Annual Conference daily.
3. Motions presented to the Annual Conference and amendments to motions shall be in writing and placed in the hands of the Conference secretary prior to or when presented or immediately following.
4. Any report, recommendation, resolution, or motion requiring funding over and beyond the Conference budget as presented by the Council on Finance and Administration shall be submitted in writing to the Conference secretary with copies for all the lay and clergy members of the Conference. Such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be presented to the Annual Conference on one day and considered the next day. No such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be distributed later than the second night of the Conference. All such reports, recommendations, resolutions, or motions shall be referred to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

Section VII: Pastor's Report to the Annual Conference - Statistics

1. Final remittances for the current calendar year shall be made to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.
2. Each table of the report shall be filled out by individual churches.
3. Table II shall be made out in even dollars only.
4. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the Conference statistician from the pastor's reports.

Section VIII: The Conference Journal

1. The Conference secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.
2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal shall be sent to each of the following: the Conference claimants, lay members of the Conference boards, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Conference, and lay members of the Annual Conference. The Conference secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church as he/she may deem advisable. Three copies shall be sent to each pastor without charge. All other copies shall be sold at $10.00 each. Monies accruing from the sale of the Journal shall be deposited with the Conference treasurer and credited to the Journal Account.
3. That the Conference shall publish a one volume Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference each year.

Section IX: Districts

1. The number of districts shall be twelve.
2. Any motion to change the number of districts must be presented in writing, and must be considered no sooner than the day following its introduction. Any change in the number of districts shall be approved at one annual conference to take effect at the next annual conference.
3. A district conference may be held annually in each district.
4. The district president, sub-district presidents, and the local church presidents of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship shall be delegates to the District Conference, in addition to those named by the 1972 Discipline.
5. The district lay leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the district superintendent and the Conference lay leader.

Section X: Displays at the Annual Conference

Display tables and similar matters shall be allocated by the Conference secretary only to those agencies directly related to or a part of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Section XI: Amendments

These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day after a proposed amendment has been presented in writing.

Section XII: When the Rules Become Effective

These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the Conference.

James H. Coile, Secretary

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS (Daily Minutes)

EXECUTIVE SESSION

OF THE 1994 ANNUAL CONFERENCE, Wednesday, June 8, 1994

The Executive Session for All Ministers in Full Connection: Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., called the executive session to order at 10:30 a.m. on June 8, 1994 in Reeves Auditorium.

Worship: The Bishop invited everyone to stand and sing hymn 553, "And are We Yet Alive." Bishop Minnick then asked that the gathering sing "Spirit of the Living God, Fall Afresh on Me," hymn 393. Bishop Minnick prayed for the guidance of the Lord in the business of the church.

Passing of the Character of the Clergy: The Bishop briefly gave an overview of the business of the Executive Session. Bill Sherman, chairperson, presented the 1994 Annual Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Bishop Minnick asked that, in accord with paragraph 705.6 of The Discipline, the character of the clergy be passed. He asked each individual district superintendent to respond for the clergy in the districts. All the clergy in all districts were found to be "blameless in their life and official administration."

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Sherman, chairperson, made corrections to the report. The Bishop asked questions to be voted on in the report. The Probationary Members were introduced. The Bishop affirmed these candidates met all requirements for probationary membership in the Annual Conference. The Bishop asked question 38. Sherman read the names of the clergy to be elected to full connection and ordained elders. He asked them the historical questions in Paragraph 425 of the Discipline. After the questions were answered, the Bishop asked the ordinands to face the executive session and be recognized with applause. Bishop Minnick called for the official vote to receive the candidates. The vote was unanimous to elect.

Sherman asked the Executive Session to move to Question 30; Gregory Lynn McGarvey was welcomed as a member from another denomination. The Bishop asked Question 36, Victor Lewis Galipi has transferred from another Methodist denomination - the Wesleyan Church. The Bishop asked for the approval of these transfers by hand vote, and they were admitted.

The Executive Session moved to Question 25 regarding clergy in ecumenical appointments within the bounds of our Annual Conference. Question 26 concerned affiliate members. The Bishop asked for a 2/3 vote, and the affiliate members were approved. Question 49 regarding ordained ministers on leave of absence were read and approved with the exception of Paul D. Granger who required a 2/3 vote. The Bishop asked for a show of hands and he was approved. Under Question 73, C. McGee Creech and John E. Williams required a 3/4 vote. He asked for a show of hands and both were approved. Sherman read the remaining names. The Bishop asked for approval by a show of hands, and they were approved.

Sherman asked Reverend Sam Loy to present the report of the Joint Committee on Disability. Question 53, Section A, regarding those on disability leave were approved. Loy read all the names under Section C, Question 53, concerning the persons who are granted disability leave this Annual Conference session. The Bishop asked for approval by a show of hands and they were approved. Under Question 50, Joanna C. Stallings requested family leave, and it was approved.

For Question 54, concerning the list of retirees, Bishop Minnick asked them to stand as their names were read. He asked the executive session to express their appreciation to these retiring members of the Conference. He also asked for a vote to approve their retirement and they were approved.

Sherman directed attention to page 3, and asked the executive session to elect the Administrative Review Committee and new members to the NC Pastor's School Board of Directors. Question 43 concerning honorable location was addressed. J. Harvey Estes was granted honorable location and those previously located were approved. The executive session moved to Question 42 concerning those discontinued as probationary members. They were approved. The requirements for ministry found on Page 2 were put before the Executive Session and approved. Page 24, Question 76.c, concerning ordained members appointed beyond the local church for the ensuing year under paragraph 443.1d was presented. A correction was made from the floor regarding Carla Scanlan which was agreeable to Sherman. This question was approved by a hand vote.

Sherman directed the session to page 19, Question 47. The Bishop asked all to stand for the reading of the deceased members of the Conference. He led in prayer. Question 46 was addressed for details. Sections a - f were approved by a show of hands. Sherman presented the report as a whole for approval. The Bishop asked for any corrections or items to add. Robert Pullman added Scott Russell Smith to the list of candidates for Ordained Ministry. His name should be listed under Question 19. This was received as information.

Bishop Minnick called for a vote on the whole report. It was approved. Bishop Minnick expressed gratitude to the Board of Ordained Ministry for their hard work and dedication. The Board of Ordained Ministry was asked to stand, and everyone demonstrated their appreciation by applause.

Bishop Minnick invited Reverend Bill Braswell to address the session concerning enlistment. Braswell spoke in regard to the recruitment of people to become clergy in the NC Annual Conference. He especially encouraged clergy to share their own call with UMYF groups and with others in their churches.

Cabinet Statement on Pension Program: Roger Elliott, Sanford District Superintendent, gave a statement from the Cabinet. The matter he discussed was the pension program, specifically the unfunded liability which totals approximately $27,000,000. Elliott advised that "we presently have approximately $10,000,000 on hand, but must raise the remaining 17,000,000 by the year 2021. This will require an increase of approximately $200,000 every year until the goal is reached. The pension fund would have an impact on all the programs of the Conference. The clergy need to be aware that this will be a constant concern for the Conference."

The Cabinet's next item of concern was the Conference Claimants Fund, from which medical insurance is paid for retired persons. Elliott referred everyone to a handout. He informed the session that a Cabinet Committee had been appointed to address the issue of the pension liabilities. Elliott asked if there were questions for clarification. Reverend Charles Michael Smith raised the possibility that a capital funds campaign might be the answer. He asked Kermit Braswell to address this question or concern. District discussions with clergy will be part of the committee's duties in the fall.

Policies & Procedures/Clergy Sexual Misconduct: Reverend Carl Frazier discussed the policy regarding sexual misconduct. Frazier referred to the Book of Nominations and Handouts, pages 27-30. Page 30 lists task force members. It was mentioned that this discussion will take place in full Conference on Thursday afternoon.

Proposed Definitions: Sherman spoke on the proposed definition of the terms "self-avowed homosexual" and "status." This report is found in the Book of Nominations and Handouts, pages 21-26. The term "status" was addressed first. The Bishop asked for questions or amendments. Reverend Tommy Faggart responded and asked that the Bishop report what the Judicial Council and College of Bishops had done with this document. The Executive Session was asked to adopt this definition and it was adopted by hand vote.

The definition of "self-avowed homosexual" was addressed. Because there are no General Conference definitions, each annual conference is required to establish its own definition. The Bishop asked for questions or amendments to the homosexual definition. Reverend Bob Shields addressed the Conference and asked a question concerning the laity's input on the issue.

Shields moved the definition of "homosexuality" be referred to the entire Conference. Reverend Todd Krueger made a statement against the motion. Dr. John Bergland addressed the session. Reverend Carla Scanlan made a cautionary statement concerning legal use of any proposed definition. Dr. John Bergland made a statement against the motion. Reverend Malloy Owen asked a question. Reverend Stuart Tucker raised a point of order. The Bishop ruled the statement out of order. Bishop Minnick called for a vote on the motion to refer and it failed.

Previous Question: The previous question was called and it was approved.

The Bishop asked for support of the model definition of homosexual and it was adopted.

The Bishop thanked the executive session for its participation and their discussion of the critical issues before them. He expressed some concern about dealing with the NC Council of Churches issue, and encouraged the clergy to address it as brothers and sisters in the love of Christ. He informed the session that during his state of the church address he would express his own desire that we reestablish a financial relationship with the NC Council of Churches. He asked for clergy and laity alike to discern God's will in this issue of the NC Council of Churches and the relationship of the NC Annual Conference to it. Everyone was encouraged to be back in their place by 1:25 p.m.

Announcements: The Secretary made necessary announcements. The Bishop dismissed the executive session at 12:11 p.m. with a word of peace.

ORIENTATION FOR LAY MEMBERS

OF THE 1994 ANNUAL CONFERENCE, Wednesday, June 8, 1994

Greetings and Introductions: Gwen Henderson, Conference Lay Leader, greeted the lay members at 11:00 a.m. in the March F. Riddle Center at Methodist College, and called for the singing of "Blessed Assurance, Jesus is Mine." She asked for special prayer petitions and many names were lifted up. She offered a prayer of thanksgiving, asking God to hear the concerns that were lifted, and to guide this Annual Conference.

She asked for a show of hands from those attending Annual Conference for the first time and asked those who have attended before to give guidance to the newcomers as needed. She introduced the UMYF President Jason Carter, UMW President Tibbie Roberts, UMM President Tom Walden, and Chairperson of the Board of Diaconal Ministry, Rob Huckaby. Each addressed the session in turn.

Orientation: Henderson pointed out several items of interest from The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994 and the Book of Nominations and Handouts 1994. She lifted up the names of District Laypersons of the Year. She noted the various resolutions that will be presented to the Conference and the definitions regarding homosexuality and status that have been proposed by the Council of Bishops. She pointed out nominations to agencies and also the report of the Task Force on Mission and Service Giving. She asked if there were questions. A lay member spoke about the displays that will be outside Reeves Auditorium. Henderson made special mention of the Run/Walk to be held on Saturday morning.

The Laity orientation ended with a reminder that the afternoon plenary session for laity and clergy will begin at 1:25 p.m.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Wednesday, June 8, 1994

Communion Service: Reverend Rick Clayton introduced the program, "Proclamation of God's Vision." Reverend Charles (Chuck) Cook led the congregation in singing. Bishop Minnick preached a communion message and celebrated the eucharist. Holy Communion for all Annual Conference members and visitors began at 1:26 p.m. The service concluded with the singing of "Be Thou My Vision."

Plenary Session: The 169th session of the NC Conference began at 3:25 p.m. Bishop Minnick asked the Conference to stand and sing "Blessed Assurance, Jesus is Mine." At 3:28 p.m. the Bishop called the Conference to order. He expressed thanks to the committee that put together the opening presentation.

State of the Church Address: Bishop Minnick delivered his state of the Church address in which his theme was "The Vision of the NC Conference of The United Methodist Church." He reported a net gain of over 700 new members. He reported that the people of this Annual Conference gave more than $10,457,454 to ministries beyond the local church in 1993, an increase of $100,000 over 1992. He expressed his opinion on the relationship of the NC Conference to the NC Council of Churches. He asked the Conference to seek God's will, but he encouraged the Conference to reinstate the financial support that this Conference has given to the NC Council of Churches. He concluded his address by challenging the church to be the Church.

Organization of the Conference: James H. Coile, Conference Secretary, made appropriate motions for roll call and motions of order for the organization of the Conference. The bar of the Conference was accepted as the main floor and stage of Reeves Auditorium, Records kept by the registrar were accepted as the official roll. The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994 was recognized as the official program of the Conference. Persons on the agenda who are not members of the Conference and others recognized by the president will be allowed to speak. Coile referred to pages 7 and 8, and moved that after corrections to the names of members of the Conference officers and staff that the entire list be elected. It was done.

Report of Committee on Rules: Charles (Chuck) Cook, chairperson, was asked to present the report. He moved adoption of the report on page 12 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994. The rules were approved.

Report of Committee on Nominations: Dr. Bob Baldridge, Conference Council On Ministries executive director, presented the report on pages 30-34 in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994. He presented amendments to the charter of the NC Conference Council on Ministries, the first being a statement that the purpose of CCOM shall be to "help prepare and empower local congregations to be strategic centers of ministry and mission." The second amendment concerned the organization of a Commission on Congregational Development.

He pointed out the Conference Program Recommendation for 1995, and called attention to the Conference Calendar for 1995. He especially pointed out the change of date of Annual Conference for 1995 to June 5-8, Monday - Thursday.

Baldridge explained the terms of service for members of the commissions and committees on the CCOM. He offered changes in the report. Ruth Harper, Wilmington District Superintendent, rose to make a correction. Arthur Warren made a correction on Archives and History. This report was received as information and action will be taken on Thursday.

Presentation of Editor of NC Christian Advocate: Baldridge reported the NC Conference and the Western NC Conference will continue to produce one statewide Methodist newspaper. The Board of Publications voted that the new editor must be a United Methodist and have a strong sense of calling. The Board chose Kevin Rippin. Baldridge presented Mr. Rippin to the Conference, and he was greeted with applause. Rippin addressed the Conference and pledged to be ready to change, but not to do so simply for the sake of change. He promised to support the church with his skills and interest.

Report of Conference Council on Finance and Administration: Dr. Bill Simpson, chairperson, introduced the members of CFA. He reported eight of the 12 districts increased their giving last year. He referred to page 61 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994, pointing out that changes in policies are in italics. He commented specifically on the formula for computing apportionments for new churches. He referred to pages 62.E and 63.J. He also commented on the district superintendents salaries, page 63.V. There is a change in line item 52 of the budget, from 0 to $1,500 for 1996. This is due to concern over the lack of students entering the ministry in the NC Conference. This makes a total percentage increase of 3.98% for the whole budget. The Conference will vote later on the budget for 1996: money to be raised in 1995 to be spent in 1996. The entire report is found on pages 54-66.

CFA provided a media-graphic presentation. Handouts of the graphs presented on the screen were distributed as the members departed. Simpson introduced Dr. J. Allen Norris, the Conference treasurer, and Ms. Sharon Strother, the controller. Simpson moved adoption of the CFA report except the budget. The Bishop called for the vote and the report was approved. The Bishop thanked Simpson, Norris, and Strother for their work and leadership.

Special Recognition: Ben Rouse, Rockingham District Superintendent, was recognized and asked George Johnson, Burlington District Superintendent, to bring Mrs. Mary Ann Minnick to the podium to be recognized. She received an orchid corsage.

Report of Board of Diaconal Ministry: Robert L. Huckaby, Jr, chairperson, noted corrections beginning on page 45: the addition of Brigitte Ann Freeman Morris to 69.b. along with Elizabeth G. Taylor, at St. James UMC, who received certification as a new Diaconal Minister. On page 48, Steven Vaughn should be listed as Diaconal Minister of Music, not Education. Brigitte Freeman Morris is in the second year of study leave; and Ms. Stocks is in the fourth year. Frances Louise Browne and Jane Dru Brannock were presented for election as diaconal ministers. They were elected.

Report of Commission on Laity: Gwen Henderson, Jason Carter, Tibbie Roberts, and Tom Walden brought the report. Henderson referred the Conference to page 107 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994 for the Laity report. Jason Carter gave the UMYF report. Tibbie Roberts gave the report for UMW. Tom Walden gave the report for UMM. The UMM were presented an award from the Meals for Millions program by Susan Clark from the Society of Saint Andrew. Jason Carter presented the Bishop with a Youth Service Fund T-shirt, which said "Youth Serving the Father." Henderson asked the Conference to participate in giving canned goods to the Food Bank of NC.

Lay Person of the Year Award: Conference Lay Leader Gwen Henderson introduced each District Layperson of the Year, and all were greeted with applause from the Conference. They are Joseph D. Davis from Prospect UMC in the Burlington District, Helen Turner from McMannen UMC in the Durham District, Lois Brown from Zion UMC in the Elizabeth City District, Bernice D. Johnson from John Wesley UMC in the Fayetteville District, Ellen T. Brubeck, M. D., from Mt. Olive: First UMC in the Goldsboro District, Harold A. Lane from Washington: First UMC in the Greenville District, Gordon Crossman from Northwoods UMC in the New Bern District, Lib Campbell from Hayes Barton UMC in the Raleigh District, Lucinda Kosak from Snead's Grove UMC in the Rockingham District, Lucy Hinson from First UMC in the Rocky Mount District, Guy R. Sproles, Jr., from Page Memorial in the Sanford District, and Brent Hood from Whiteville UMC in the Wilmington District.

Bernice Duffy Johnson from John Wesley UMC in Fayetteville was selected the Conference Layperson of the year. Mrs. Johnson addressed the Conference and graciously received her award.

Announcements: Bishop Minnick asked the secretary to make announcements. The Bishop urged everyone to attend the ordination service tonight at 7:30 p.m., and dismissed the Conference for the afternoon.

FIRST DAY, EVENING SESSION, Wednesday, June 8, 1994

The Service of Worship for Consecration and Ordination: At 7:30 p.m. an ordination and consecration service was held in Reeves Auditorium. Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., presided, and Bishop H. Hasbrouck Hughes, Jr. was the preacher. Special music was provided by the choir of St. Paul UMC, Goldsboro. Mr. Robert Huckaby presented the diaconal ministers for consecration, and they were duly consecrated. Dr. Bill Sherman presented the deacons and elders for ordination, and they were duly ordained. (For synopsis of entire service see worship bulletin, A Service of Worship for Consecration and Ordination, Wednesday, June 8, 1994.)

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION, Thursday, June 9, 1994

Bible Study: Bishop Minnick led the Conference in singing three hymns. His Bible Study was on Colossians, and he focused on Paul's message of Jesus Christ as the all-sufficient Savior of the World. The Bishop closed the study with a hymn and a prayer.

Point of Personal Privilege: Bishop Minnick called the plenary session to order at 9:31 a.m. He recognized Dr. John Bergland for a point of personal privilege. Bergland introduced Shabtai Levanon who is a tour guide in Israel for Educational Opportunities. Mr. Levanon spoke to the Conference concerning Bible study in the Holy Land.

Continuation of Report of Nominations and CCOM Recommendations: Dr. Bob Baldridge, CCOM executive director, informed the Conference of proposed changes in the charter of the CCOM. The Bishop asked for questions or discussion. There being none, the Bishop called for a show of hands, and the changes were accepted.

Baldridge presented Vision 2000. He then added a statement from page 219 of the 1993 Journal to the bottom of page 38 under Advance Specials of the CCOM recommendations.

Henry Jarrett of Raleigh: Fairmont UMC asked a question regarding the date change of Annual Conference to a time earlier in the week. The Bishop sets the date of Annual Conference.

Bishop Minnick asked for approval of the changes to the CCOM report. This was done. Baldridge presented the nominations to the camp boards. The Bishop asked for questions. There being none, he called for a vote, and they were approved.

Baldridge then directed attention to pages 105-106 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994, regarding editorial changes to the charter of the State Commission on Campus Ministry. Bishop Minnick asked the Conference to approve these changes, and they were approved.

Baldridge directed the Conference to page 12 of the Book of Nominations and Handouts for the nominations to the Board of Diaconal Ministry. He offered the name of Elizabeth G. Taylor as a replacement for Marshal R. Old as a member at large in order to be consistent with the disciplinary guidelines for inclusiveness on this board. Baldridge offered these nominations to the Conference, and they were approved.

He offered the CCOM Nominations report as a whole for consideration. Bishop Minnick called for questions or discussion. Reverend Claire Clyburn requested the substitution of Polly Taylor in place of Christian J. Nobles II as Greenville District representative on the Board of Social and Ecumenical Ministries. The Bishop called for a show of hands. As the show of hands was unclear, he called for a standing vote. The change was supported.

Bishop Minnick called for a vote on the CCOM nominations as a whole, and they were approved.

Introduction of New Duke University President: Bishop Minnick introduced Dr. Nan Keohane, president of Duke University. Keohane spoke to the Conference and gave an overview of the vision for Duke University that she shares with the faculty and staff of the university. She received much applause at the conclusion of her address.

Report of Board of Institutions: Reverend James Coile, substituting for Wilson Hayman, chairperson, referred the Conference to page 93 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994 to amend Article V, Section 1 of the By-laws of the Board of Institutions. Coile moved adoption of the report. The Bishop asked for the vote, and the amendment was approved.

Connectional Issues Study/Survey: Coile directed attention to the Connectional Issues Study. He gave directions to the Conference regarding the completion of the survey. Tom Fleck rose to ask two questions regarding the codes for the survey. Coile answered the questions.

Election of Trustees: Reverend Roger Cope, chairperson of the Board of Health and Human Services brought nominations of Retirement Home Trustees. Cope moved the election of the trustees listed on page 45 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994. The Bishop called for a vote, and the nominations were approved.

Report of Peru Covenant Task Force: Dr. Mark Wethington directed the Conference to page 50 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994. He introduced the Task Force team that went to Peru this past year. He introduced Reverend Luis Reinoso, pastor and district superintendent in the Methodist Church of Peru. Wethington then introduced Para Drake from Duke Memorial UMC to read the script for the slide presentation. Wethington read the words of the covenant statement on page 50 with the Peru Methodist churches, and asked the Conference to renew the covenant. Bishop Minnick asked for a vote to renew the covenant with the 5000 members of the Iglesia Metodista del Peru, and it was renewed. Wethington presented a hand-made blanket tapestry to the Bishop from the Peru Methodist churches.

Report of Armenia Mission - Project Agape: Dr. Sam W. Dixon, Jr. addressed the Conference concerning the Mission to Armenia covenant. Dixon brought thanks and challenges to the Conference. He introduced Reverend Sam Brown to make specific remarks regarding the mission to Armenia. Brown shared a number of his personal experiences from his last visit to Armenia. He ended with greetings from the Bishop of the Apostolic Church of Armenia with whom we cooperate. Dixon returned to the podium for a final remark concerning specific things that Conference and church members can do to help in Armenia. Bishop Minnick reminded the Conference of Reverend Charles Davis, this Conference's missionary to Armenia. The Bishop directed Dixon to prepare a message of greeting from this Conference to be sent to Reverend Davis in Armenia. The Bishop reminded the Conference of the two offerings to be taken later during worship services at Annual Conference, one for Peru and the other for Armenia.

Announcements: The Bishop noted that the Conference was on time and asked the Conference secretary to make arrangements for the Order of the Day. Conference Secretary Coile made announcements and gave reminders for the morning.

Bishop Minnick spoke to the Conference of the tragedies in Burundi and Rwanda. He shared with the Conference that the Roman Catholic archbishop and 12 of his other clergy were massacred in Rwanda. The Bishop dismissed the Conference at 10:45 a.m. for a brief intermission to prepare for the Order of the Day at 11:00 a.m.

All Saints Celebration - Memorial Service: The Memorial Service was led by Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., Bishop Hasbrouck Hughes, and Reverend Peg Witt. Bishop Hughes entitled his sermon, "We're Reminded of a Story," and spoke of the great cloud of witnesses, the Communion of the Saints. Bishop Minnick read the roll of the honored dead, both clergy and spouses. Family members and friends of the deceased lighted candles for each person who had died. Four sons of the late Reverend Henry F. Pollock rendered special music. (For synopsis of entire service, see worship bulletin, The Memorial Service.)

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Thursday, June 9, 1994

Report of the North Carolina Brother-Sisterhood: At 1:25 p.m. the NC Conference Brother-Sisterhood was called to order by Reverend Murry DeHart with the singing of "Blessed Assurance." He presented a slate of officers to be elected. They were elected. Reverend Jerry Smith presented the Financial Report and other recommendations as follows:

Recommendations to the General Meeting: I. Name of the NC Conference Brother-Sisterhood be changed to the "NC Conference Partners in Caring." II. In extenuating circumstances ministers 50 years of age or older could be admitted into the Brother-Sisterhood on the following conditions: A) Admission into membership shall be subject to review and approval by the Board of Trustees on a case by case basis. B) Those approved for membership in this category shall 1) pay the normal admission fee, 2) pay all calls at the current rate since their 50th birthday, provided that a minimum of one year of calls will be paid, and 3) receive regular benefits. C) admission into membership is not applicable to retirees. III. The benefit payment for the coming year will remain at $4100. Active members will continue to pay $15. Retirees will pay $5. Disabled members will pay $7.

Discussion began. After clarifications, votes were taken item by item, and the recommendations passed. Smith thanked all members of the "NC Conference Partners in Caring." DeHart closed the meeting with a thank you to everyone who attended.

Clergy Retirees Recognition: The Order of the day began at 1:57 p.m. with Bishop Minnick asking the Conference to sing "The Old Rugged Cross." He invited Reverends Claire Clyburn and Lisa Cole to sing hymn 349, "Spirit Song." The Bishop recognized Mr. Laney Funderburk, chairperson of the Conference Board of Pensions, for the recognition of retirees. Retirees present to speak were, P. D. Midgett, Franklin Lee Alexander, Billy Carden, Claude Thomas Wilson, Helen Gray Crotwell, Albert Fleet Fisher, Charles Franklin Grill, Samuel Sunghwan Lee, J. C. Loy, Robert Bruce Pate, Harvey Worth Pearce, Harold Thurman Pickett, and Vernon Cephas Tyson. Bishop Minnick then offered gratitude and thanks for the stories and the lives of ministers and spouses who had retired.

Report of Board of Pensions: Funderburk proceeded with other business of the Board of Pensions. He thanked the members of the Board of Pensions and directed attention to page 77 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994. He made the following corrections to the report: Under surviving spouses, B, Mrs. Aileen Blue Dunn died and was removed from the list of claimants. Under Disability Leave, Section II, the names of Wilson Edward Barber 7/1/94, Eugene Addison Collins, Sr. 7/1/94, and Donna Susan Moore 7/1/94 were added. Under Section III, the names of Aileen Blue Dunn and Marguerite Jenkins Townsend were added to the list of those removed from responsibility roll by death. Under Section V, Samuel Sunghwan Lee was added to the list of retiring pastors. Funderburk directed the attention of the Conference to Report B, page 80, I.C., concerning a recommendation to increase the per service year rate to $336. The Bishop asked for a vote, and the Conference approved the recommendation. Funderburk also called the attention of the Conference to the $27,226,017 unfunded pension liability. He noted a typographical error in Report B, 1.e: 1994 should read 1995. He also noted the change in projections of the actuarial study of the unfunded liability on page 81, II.G. He directed attention to page 83, Item C, regarding the right of the Conference to terminate or amend health and life insurance contracts at any time. He stated that this is standard Board of Pensions policy, Funderburk pointed out on page 87 the proposed change in the Minister's Transition Fund Constitution pay-out calculations and asked for approval.

The Bishop asked for a show of hands, and the recommendation was approved. Funderburk pointed out the record of pension credits on page 89. This was approved by a show of hands. He offered the report as a whole for approval. The Bishop called for a show of hands and the Conference approved the report.

Report of Methodist Board of Publications: Dr. Belton Joyner addressed the Conference on behalf of the Methodist Publishing House. He encouraged Conference members to use United Methodist curriculum. He informed the Conference that for our computing pleasure, The Book of Discipline, Hymnal, and Book of Worship are now on computer disk. He also promoted the new Interpreters Bible. He noted that the Raleigh Cokesbury Store has expanded by 2,500 square feet. He presented the annual check from the Methodist Publishing House for the pension fund to Bishop Minnick. This year's check is $16,669.16. The Bishop asked Joyner to send thanks from the Conference to the Publishing House.

Report on Commission on Equitable Compensation: Reverend Alvin Horne, chairperson, presented the report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. He directed the attention to pages 68-69 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994. He pointed out the salary schedule on page 69 which shows a minimum salary of $25,270 for pastors under full time appointment and $16,425 for student pastors for 1995.

Amendment: Dr. Kermit Braswell offered an amendment at I.A.1., "We recommend that the minimum full-time salary level equal the percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for all full time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference. Student minimum salary shall be 65% of the pastor's full-time salary plus utilities." Reverend C. M. Mitchell spoke against the Braswell substitution. Reverend Julia Webb-Bowden spoke for the Braswell substitution.

Motion: Dr. Bill Simpson offered clarification from CFA. He moved "to postpone the Braswell motion until CFA can calculate the cost and indicate this to the Conference before passing the budget for 1996." The Bishop asked for a vote, and the Conference voted to postpone until the CFA Report.

Report of Minister's Moving Expense Committee: Reverend Alvin Horne, chairperson, directed attention to pages 75-76 and addressed item C, page 76, which concerns the need for receipts to substantiate moving expenses and the arrangements of compensation due to damage or wear and tear beyond normal in parsonages. The Bishop called for a vote on the changes in Item II.C, and the Conference approved the changes. He then called for a vote on the report as a whole, and the report was accepted.

Report of Joint Committee on Disability: Reverend Sam Loy, chairperson, brought the report of the Joint Committee on Disability on page 67 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994 and made several corrections. The Bishop asked for approval from the Conference, and it was done.

Report of Pastoral Care Committee: Reverend R. Carl Frazier, Jr., chairperson, directed attention to page 48 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994. He encouraged parsonage families and clergy to take advantage of the marriage enrichment opportunities offered by the Committee. The report was offered to the Conference and was received.

Report of Task Force on Sexual Misconduct: Frazier shared the history and the intent that the committee had in mind and the directions given to them by the Bishop. The primary goals were to protect those who are innocent, victims, or those accused, and to seek to restore those who have made false claims along with those who are guilty of misconduct.

Amendment: Reverend David Banks was recognized to make a friendly amendment that would affect page 24. He moved "to strike 'To harass or abuse another person sexually is to deny that value' and replace it with, 'To sin sexually against another through lust, harassment, or abuse degrades that God endowed dignity,' and to amend the fifth sentence to read: 'Sexual misconduct is behavior that represents the sinful and selfish use of God's good gifts through uncontrolled lust and/or the unjust use of power, by persons in positions of power and authority, to exploit persons who are vulnerable and helpless.'" The Bishop called for discussion and then asked for a vote. The amendment was approved.

Amendment: Reverend Banks offered a second amendment referring the Conference's attention to page 26 of the Book of Nominations and Handouts. He moved "to strike the first paragraph and replace it with, 'Sexual misconduct is any sexual behavior that violates the standards of our Church and takes advantage of the vulnerability of a parishioner, client, church staff member, colleague, student (adult, youth, child) or any other person. Such misconduct attacks the integrity of another person and may cause that person to engage in sexual activity with that clergy or diaconal minister;' to change the first line of the third paragraph to read: 'Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to;' and to insert a new Number 1 with previous numbers 1 and 2 becoming 2 and 3, so the third paragraph reads: 'Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to: 1) Illicit sexual intercourse, both pre-marital and extra-marital, 2) Sexual Harassment (as per document), and 3) Sexual Abuse (as per document).'" The Bishop called for a vote on the second Banks amendment, and it was approved. The third amendment creates a new heading Number 1, under the new heading, sexual misconduct is not limited to sexual intercourse, rather it includes sexual intercourse. The Bishop asked for a show of hands and it was approved.

Amendment: Dr. Henry Ferrell from Jarvis Memorial asked a question about why an unsubstantiated complaint might be left as part of the permanent record of a pastor. He moved "to strike final paragraph 4.b.3, page 27." Reverend Ellen Metcalf spoke against the motion and on behalf of the victims of sexual misconduct. Reverend Charles Michael Smith spoke for the motion. Reverend Tom Faggart spoke against the motion.

Reverend Steven Ling moved to substitute that a note without prejudice shall be filed in the episcopal office indicating that potential. Reverend Tony Collier spoke against the substitute motion. Reverend Brent Laytham spoke for the substitute. Reverend Mike Weber asked what kind of pastoral permanent records are kept in the Bishop's Office. Dr. Kermit Braswell explained the files kept on pastors. Braswell also mentioned that he had a confidential file which would relate to the sexual misconduct issue. Tom Holtsclaw, New Bern District Superintendent, pointed out the liability issue if the Bishop had a file containing information about pastoral misconduct. The Bishop called for a vote on the Ling substitute motion, Victor Galipi spoke against the substitute and in favor of the original motion to delete. Rufus Stark asked a question. The Bishop asked if the Conference was ready to vote. A vote was taken, and the substitute motion was defeated.

The Bishop directed the Conference's attention back to the original motion. Ferrell addressed it.

Amendment to Ferrell Amendment: Reverend Charles Michael Smith made a substitute motion to replace all text under the title, When Sexual Misconduct is Alleged on page 27, to read: "When sexual misconduct is alleged, procedures shall be followed as stipulated in The Book of Discipline, 1992 par. 454." Discussion ensued. The Bishop called for a vote, and the Smith substitute motion passed after a standing vote was taken.

Amendment to Smith Amendment: Mr. Ken Ripley offered an amendment to be added to the Smith motion on page 27 to "amend paragraph to include Item 1." The Bishop called for a vote and the Ripley amendment passed.

Eddie Hill asked a question about page 30 under the heading "Records" as to who would insure confidentiality. It was explained and the Bishop offered the entire document.

Reverend David Woodhouse offered an amendment but his amendment failed.

Thomas Nichols of Bridgeton moved to refer the document back to committee. It was seconded, but the motion to refer failed in vote.

The entire document as amended was offered for a vote. A question was asked as to whether this would affect the legal status of the document, and Frazier said that changes thus far would not. The vote was taken, and it was approved. In a final statement, Frazier suggested that all churches seriously consider a policy for church employees not covered in the document. The Bishop expressed his appreciation to the Task Force.

Report of Clergy Living Committee: Reverend Charles Pollock, chairperson, directed attention to page 27 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994 and mentioned one change on page 28. The change in Item 14 will read "the outgoing pastor shall leave the fuel tank empty beginning June 1, 1995."

Reverend Quinton Covington asked whether utility allowances were equal and moved that the Committee encourage congregations to use an equal pay system for parsonage utilities and offered a motion. The Bishop called for a vote, and the motion was defeated.

Mr. Howard Harrell from St. Mark's spoke to move that the outgoing pastor be responsible for leaving fuel tank serviced but he withdrew his motion. Pollock accepted the word "may" in place of "shall" in the proposed Item 14. Conference UMM President Tom Walden spoke against the motion.

Reverend Stan Smith offered a substitute motion for the fuel tank to be "assessed." Reverend Woody Wells asked a question. Mr. Jimmy Clemmons from Laurinburg spoke against the word "may." Dr. Bob Frazier of Wilson spoke against the Smith motion.

Amendment: Dr. Reggie Ponder made a motion to "substitute for proposed Item 14 the present Item 14" and to leave things as they are without any changes.

Smith withdrew his motion. The Bishop asked if the Conference was ready to close debate, and it was done. Pollock received the Ponder amendment gladly. The Bishop called for a vote on the Ponder amendment, and it was accepted. The report as a whole was offered to the Conference, and it was approved.

Announcements: At 5:06 p.m. the Bishop called for an evening business session to follow the Thursday evening Worship service. Conference Secretary Coile made announcements. The Bishop dismissed the Conference for supper at 5:08 p.m.

SECOND DAY, EVENING WORSHIP SESSION, Thursday, June 9, 1994

Bicentennial Celebration of the Camp Meeting in North Carolina: In a service of historical background notes, reenactment, testimonies, and hymns, the Conference celebrated the heritage of Camp Meetings. Following closing reflections, the Bishop ended this exhilarating service with a benediction. (For synopsis of entire service, see worship bulletin, Bicentennial Celebration of the Camp Meeting in NC.)

SECOND DAY, EVENING BUSINESS SESSION, Thursday, June 9, 1994

Plenary Session: The Bishop called the Conference to Order at 8:50 p.m.

Continuation of Report of Clergy Living Committee: Reverend Roger Cope made a follow-up motion regarding parsonage fuel tanks.

Amendment: Cope moved "that the Committee on Moving Expense direct that if the fuel tank is not filled, and that provision has not been made with the church or provider to have it filled, then the moving expense reimbursement will be held by the district superintendent until such provision has been made or the fuel tank filled." Roger Elliott, Sanford District Superintendent, made a statement. The Bishop called for a vote and the Cope motion was supported.

Continuation of Report of Task Force on Sexual Misconduct: Mr. Ken Ripley moved that the Task Force on Sexual Misconduct develop a model policy for lay employees of local churches. Reverend Tom Faggart suggested that persons who have sexual misconduct complaints could go to the local Office of Equal Opportunity Office. The Bishop called for a vote on the Ripley motion, and the motion failed on a standing vote.

Report of Task Force on Mission and Service Giving: Reverend Robert L. Wallace pointed out information on page 42 of the Book of Nominations and Handouts, comparing average local church spending to Conference spending. Task I was to increase the sense of ownership in Mission and Service Giving. Task II was to look at the equitableness of the current apportionment formula: the Task Force's conclusion was that the formula is equitable but complicated. Task III was to look at current levels of giving and the effect of diminished contributions to Conference Institutions. Task IV was to look at anticipated Conference-wide capital funds campaigns: the Task Force concluded that none be done in the next five years. Task V was to look at Pension Funding and Health Insurance: the recommendation was to continue to operate on a pay-as-you-go basis regarding pensions and health benefits for retirees. Task VI was to analyze the Peele/Stark motion from the 1992 Annual Conference. Task VII was to study the fiscal responsibility of the Annual Conference. The Task Force found several concrete examples of fiscal responsibility.

The Bishop called for discussion. Reverend Tommy Smith expressed his concern about very small churches that cannot pay any apportionments and noted that this was not addressed by the Task Force.

Dr. Bill Simpson, chairperson of CFA, stated that he would like more time for the Conference to study the report and moved to refer the report to CFA to be brought back to the 1995 Annual Conference. Reverend Tom Faggart noted that some recommendations of the task force had already been put into place with the development of the 1996 budget. Reverend Rufus Stark, president of Methodist Children's Home, spoke in favor of the Simpson motion. Conference Youth President Jason Carter spoke in favor of the Simpson motion.

Dr. Sam McMillan offered a substitute motion to refer the document back to the Task Force for consultation with CFA. Simpson withdrew his motion.

Previous Question: Dr. Roger Elliott called for the previous question on the McMillan motion. Wallace asked to respond. Bishop Minnick called for the vote. The motion was reread by the Conference secretary, and the motion failed on a standing vote.

Dr. Bill Simpson moved that the Task Force Report be referred to CFA. Mr. Ken Ripley rose to make a substitute motion regarding referral. The Bishop ruled the motion out of order. Mary Forbus of Wallace, asked for clarification. Reverend Keith Thomason spoke against the referral, urging the Conference simply to receive or reject the report. Reverend James Weaver of Evergreen Church asked for clarification. Conference UMYF President Jason Carter spoke for the referral.

Previous Question: Mr. Henry Jarrett moved the previous question. The Bishop asked for a vote, and the previous question was called for.

Wallace made a closing statement reminding the Conference that if it refers the report to CFA it will be giving up the right to address the issue on the floor. The Bishop called for the vote on the motion to refer, and the motion failed.

Motion: Dr. Roger Elliott spoke to Task IV of the report on page 38 and moved "that the limitation on any Capital Funds Campaign be no longer than up to 1997."

Reverend Quinton Covington moved to have CFA prepare two budgets next year, one following the recommendation of the task force and one not. The Bishop ruled the motion out of order. Mr. Mickey Stokes of Havelock suggested that CFA consider this idea. Mr. John Tracey spoke for the Elliott amendment.

Previous Question: The previous question was called for and the Bishop asked for a vote. The previous question carried.

The Bishop called for a vote and the Elliott motion passed.

Reverend Tommy Faggart referred to page 37 and moved a dollar for dollar reduction in the specific administrative line items for every dollar that is taken away from program areas. The Bishop encouraged Faggart to put his motion in the form of a recommendation to CFA without a demand for cuts in specific areas. Faggart made a statement against the total report. Following further discussion, Faggart withdrew his motion.

Amendment: Reverend David Harvin moved to "delete recommendation III.2 on page 37 which will insure a cap of 27.5% as mentioned in Number 1 on page 37."

Motion: Bill Presnell, Elizabeth City District Superintendent, moved "to postpone the issue until tomorrow morning." The Bishop asked for a vote and the motion carried.

Point of Order: Reverend Todd Krueger rose to a point of order and noted that the report of the Committee of Resolutions needs to be presented this evening for vote tomorrow.

Report 1 of Committee on Resolutions: At 10:30 p.m., Reverend Alan Swartz, chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference, referred the Conference to the Book of Nominations and Handouts. The Committee recommended concurrence with Item 1 on page 49 - Resolution on Caring for God's Creation, Item 2 on page 50 - Resolution on Crime Prevention, Item 5 on page 53 - Resolution on Ministries to Unwed Mothers and Unborn Children. Item 4 on page 52 - Resolution on Institutional Racism was recommended for referral to CFA. The Committee recommended a change in the last paragraph of Item 3 - Resolution on Hunger and Human Need on page 51. Swartz completed the Committee's introduction of resolutions.

Reverend Todd Krueger asked whether there would be a business session on Saturday. Reverend David Woodhouse asked when Resolution Items 6 & 7 would be presented. They may be dealt with the following day because they are properly before the Conference. The Bishop asked for questions before leaving. Several questions were asked. Bishop Minnick adjourned the Conference until Friday morning at 8:30 a.m.

THIRD DAY, MORNING SESSION, Friday, June 10, 1994

Bible Study: Bishop Minnick continued his Bible Study on Colossians.

Plenary Session: Bishop Minnick called the Conference to Order at 9:25 a.m.

Continuation of Report of Task Force on Mission and Service Giving: The Bishop asked for someone to speak to the Harvin amendment deletion.

Motion: Reverend Bob O'Keefe made a substitute motion "that the Conference adopt and begin to implement the entire report of the Task Force on Mission and Service Giving, except for Section III on pages 36-38, and that Section III be referred to the Task Force for further study." The Bishop made a statement of clarification, noting that the recommendations of the Task Force are not binding on next year's Annual Conference. Reverend Todd Krueger spoke against the motion, saying that parts of Section VI were misleading. The Bishop called for a vote, and the O'Keefe motion passed.

The main motion was then brought to a vote and it passed. Reverend Bob Wallace thanked the Bishop and the Conference on behalf of the Task Force.

Bishop Minnick thanked the Conference for a good debate and their expression of vision.

Point of Personal Privilege: Reverend Rufus Stark asked for a point of personal privilege and it was granted. Stark brought greetings from Margaret Ann Biddle, a diaconal minister and new member of the Methodist Home for Children staff, who was absent due to her mother's illness. Stark thanked the Conference UMW for participating in the Food Lion drive to raise money for MHC.

Continuation of Report of Commission on Equitable Compensation: James Coile, Conference Secretary, reminded the Conference of the two motions that were under consideration in regard to equitable compensation. Reverend Alvin Horne presented the dollar amounts that were requested to be given to the Conference. Reverend David Woodhouse asked a question, and made a recommendation to leave the formula, "We recommend that the minimum full-time salary level be raised by a percentage equal to the percentage of raise enjoyed by all pastors in the Conference year in 1994, or the Consumer Price Index, South, whichever is less," but to change the word "less" to "more." Dr. Braswell satisfactorily answered Woodhouse's concern.

The Braswell amendment was brought to a vote and it passed.

Horne noted that paragraph 6 needs to be changed to match the language and the intent of the Braswell motion. It was accepted and the report as a whole was accepted.

Report of Committee on Insurance: Reverend Wilbur Jackson, chairperson, stated that this would be his last report due to his rotation off the Insurance Committee. He called the Conference's attention to a display sponsored by the Insurance Committee in the lobby of Reeves Auditorium. Jackson pointed to page 72 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994, II.A.3. He reminded the Conference of health screenings that were available. Jackson reported that Section III is a disclaimer because the insurance benefits are not an entitlement. Section V, the rate structure, was presented. The Bishop asked for a vote on the report, and it was approved.

The next item was a preferred provider benefit that was assembled by the Insurance Committee. Jackson explained the mental and nervous disorder benefits. Another program described was the basic protection plan. The rationale for disability coverage also was addressed by Jackson.

The Insurance Committee proposes a 20% increase in disability benefits. Current benefits set at 40% of the denominational average will increase to 60% of Denominational Average Compensation. There are no proposed changes to life insurance rates. 1995 rates reflect a 10% increase which the committee deems necessary. The program needs the proper amount of reserves and funds to maintain the program. $415.91 is recommended for 1995 as the church portion for health insurance. Jackson encouraged the clergy to maintain good health habits and moved the adoption of the report.

Reverend Ben Sharpe asked a question concerning going to a non-preferred hospital. Caroline Buckland, from the Conference treasurer's office, answered the question. Reverend Susan Harsh-Cafferty asked a question about how the cost of the Basic Protection Plan coverage was covered. The total cost of $33,000 is covered by the insurance budget. Jackson responded. Reverend John Crowe urged pastors to take better care of themselves and referred to the resolution of 1991 concerning health insurance.

The Bishop asked for a vote and the Insurance Committee's report was passed. A lay member from the Elizabeth City District asked a question concerning the list of preferred hospitals, and informed the Conference that many persons from the Elizabeth City District go to Virginia hospitals. Her concern was satisfactorily addressed. The Bishop called for a vote on the report as a whole and the report was approved.

Jackson asked the members of the Insurance Committee to stand. He thanked the Conference for the privilege of serving on the Insurance Committee. Bishop Minnick thanked Jackson and the Committee.

Introduction of College Presidents: Reverend Edward F. Hill II, chairperson of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, brought the Colleges Composite Presentation and introduction of college presidents. Special greetings were given to Dr. Ron May, new President of Louisburg College for his outstanding work thus far. Hill stated that The UMC has established more colleges and universities than any other group in the nation. He introduced Dr. Elton Hendricks of Methodist College, Dr. Leslie Garner of NC Wesleyan College, and Dr. May of Louisburg College. He expressed appreciation to them on behalf of the Conference for their leadership.

Conference Colleges Composite Presentation: Dr. Ron May led the presentation of the Conference Colleges Composite Presentation. He introduced a video presentation entitled "Different by Design." May introduced student representative, Miss Cathy Barnes, graduate of NC Wesleyan. She stated that NC Wesleyan had helped her form and maintain her values as a Christian. She participated in the adult degree program. Rainbow's End Choir of Methodist College presented a musical production. May thanked the Bishop for the opportunity to make the presentation and told the Conference that the video is available to local churches. Hill announced that Dr. Leslie Garner of Wesleyan College would be leaving to take a position at another United Methodist college. He announced that Dr. Herman Collier will serve as interim president of NC Wesleyan. Ground will be broken soon on a new auditorium and fine arts complex there. The Bishop thanked Garner for his work in this Conference.

Point of Personal Privilege: Hill asked Reverend Tommy Smith to come forward for a point of personal privilege. Smith presented the $14,000 check to Methodist College which is part of the endowment fund that he and other ministers set up to benefit the college programs. Dr. Hendricks received the check and thanked the Conference and the benefactors. The Bishop cautioned Hill that time was short.

Francis Asbury Award Presentation: Hill presented the Francis Asbury Award to Dr. William P. Lowdermilk in recognition of his service to Methodist College. Dr. Lowdermilk graciously thanked the Conference.

Greetings: The Bishop invited Dr. Craven Williams, president of Greensboro College to address the Conference. Williams made very brief remarks of greeting.

Bishop Minnick asked the Conference to greet the clergy spouses.

Orientation of Avenues of Opportunity: Reverend Robert Flynn, coordinator, introduced the outdoor display "Avenues of Opportunity." The Bishop informed the Conference that lunch will be served outside. He adjourned the Conference to prepare for the order of the day Baptismal Renewal Service at 11:00 a.m.

Baptismal Renewal Service: The service of Baptismal Renewal began with Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., presiding and Bishop H. Hasbrouck Hughes, Jr., preaching. The order of worship for the renewal of baptism was followed in the United Methodist Hymnal. After Bishop Hughes preached, the congregation was invited to come by rows to the front of Reeves Auditorium and touch the water held in shells. First verses of hymns were sung by all as everyone took part in renewing their baptism. This inspirational Baptismal Renewal Service ended at 12:12 p.m.

THIRD DAY AFTERNOON SESSION, Friday June 10, 1994

Avenues of Opportunity: At the conclusion of the Baptismal Renewal Service the Conference adjourned to lunch on the "Avenues of Opportunity." This was an outdoor presentation of the ministries of the NC Annual Conference. A grilled chicken breast sandwich and fruit lunch was served. The delegates were able to wander among a number of tents and visit with persons involved in the various and important ministries of The UMC. The light, misty rain did not dampen any of the spirits present. Many boards and agencies provided information and entertainment.

Session Called to Order: At 2:03 p.m. the Bishop called the Conference to order with the singing of hymn 544, "O Young and Fearless Prophet." Conference Secretary Coile reminded clergy members to have their pictures taken.

Motion: Reverend Charles (Chuck) Cook moved "to create a special order of the day to allow the Annual Conference to consider the proposals concerning CFA and all matters related to them at 3:00 p.m. today." The Bishop asked the members to vote, and the order of the day was approved.

Reverend George Speake moved to limit debate to two minutes and to allow only one speech per person. The Bishop reminded the Conference that this would be a change of the rules and would require a 2/3 vote. The Bishop called for a vote, and the Speake motion failed.

Motion: Reverend Larry Crane moved "that the Conference secretary be directed to send a letter to Duke University President Keohane outlining The UMC's stance on homosexuality and expressing our concerns over her commission to investigate the possibility of extending benefits including health insurance, pension plans, and access to university facilities to partners of homosexual university employees." Reverend Chris Humphries spoke in support of the Crane motion. Reverend Joe Mann spoke against the motion, noting that Dean Dennis Campbell was already in consultation with the university president on the matter. Reverend Malloy Owen spoke in favor of the motion in order to give support to the Dean. Reverend Vickie Pruett spoke regarding paragraph 71.G in the Discipline. Bishop Minnick asked for a vote and the motion passed.

Report of Committee on the Episcopacy: Cashar Evans, chairperson, emphasized the need for the Bishop to continue to bring spiritual direction to the Conference. He highlighted the fact that the Bishop had visited with the clergy and laity of all 12 districts, that three cross-racial appointments have been made, that the Bishop had led a study group for clergy and laity in the Holy Land, and that he had led us in a commitment to Africa University. He concluded by noting that Bishop Minnick had brought honor to our Conference by recently completing a term as president of the Council of Bishops. Evans also praised the efforts of Vivian Mitchell as the secretary in the episcopal office for many years. He asked the Conference to stand as he led the Conference in prayer for the Bishop and in thanksgiving for his presence here. Bishop Minnick thanked Evans for the prayer and for the report. He also expressed his joy at being in ministry among the people of the NC Conference.

Report of the Black College Fund: Reverend Edith Gleaves introduced the summer intern sponsored by the Black College Fund, Calvin Jerome McFadden, who attends Bethune-Cookman College. McFadden encouraged the Conference to increase its support of the Black College Fund. The Bishop thanked McFadden for his words.

Report of the General Council of Ministries: Dr. Reginald Ponder presented the mission statement of the GCOM. He encouraged the Conference to seek a vision. He mentioned the creation of a task force to study the missional needs of the Conference in general and encouraged members of the Conference to complete the survey form.

Report of Southeastern Jurisdiction Administrative Council: Dr. Gordon Goodgame, new executive secretary of the SEJ Administrative Council, spoke on the topic of individual Christians banding together to transform the world into Christ's likeness. His written report is included in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994, pages 119-121. He thanked the members of the Conference for their participation in the SEJ Administrative Council. He offered the services of the Council in the area of congregational development.

Scholarship Presentations: Reverend Tom Loftis read the names of the four persons, two of whom were present, who have been presented scholarships. Miss Heather R. Sherlock of Elizabeth City who plans to attend NC Wesleyan received the Blackburn Scholarship. The Cannon Scholarship was given to pre-ministerial student Kenneth J. Westbrook of Raleigh who will attend Louisburg College. J. Taplie Coile, son of Reverend and Mrs. James H. Coile of Bethel, was awarded the Student Day Scholarship and will be attending Methodist College. Mr. Taplie Coile thanked the Conference for his scholarship. Conference UMYF President Jason Carter from Graham received the United Methodist Foundation Annual Conference Scholarship and a Student Day Scholarship. He will attend Methodist College. Mr. Carter also expressed his appreciation to the Conference.

Board of Communications Service Award Presentation: Reverend George Speake presented a plaque to Dr. Kimsey King in honor of his contributions to the Conference through his 21 years of service and his writing for the NC Christian Advocate. King received a standing ovation.

Key Taylor Town and Country Mission Award Presentation: Reverend Hope Morgan Ward presented the award to Gatesville UMC. The pastor, Reverend Laura Early, and several members of the congregation came forward to receive the award. Early introduced Mr. Terry Evans, member of Gatesville UMC, who spoke on behalf of the Church.

Bishop's Award of Excellence in Scouting: The Bishop asked for a motion to suspend the order of the day long enough to present the Bishop's Award for Excellence in Scouting.

Motion: Reverend Charles M. Smith moved that "we set aside the order of the day long enough to present the award to the Boy Scout Troop." By a voice vote the Conference approved the suspension.

Dr. Steve Compton presented the Bishop's award to representatives of Troop 226, Mount Tirzah, to Troop 30 and Pack 30 of Bethel Church on the Burlington Circuit. Compton and Bishop Minnick presented certificates and congratulated the representatives, presenting them with banners as well.

Report 2 of the Committee on Resolutions: Since resolutions regarding funding for the NC Council of Churches must be dealt with before the CFA report as a whole could be heard, Bishop Minnick called on Malloy Owen to present a statement from the Cabinet. Reverend Owen and Dr. Belton Joyner read the joint statement of the Cabinet to ask for Christian understanding as the issue of funding was discussed.

Conference UMYF President Jason Carter rose to make a motion. Bishop Minnick ruled the motion out of order.

Reverend Ken Singley moved that the Conference vote by paper ballot. Reverend Claire Clyburn spoke against the motion. Reverend Carla Scanlan rose to speak but was ruled out of order. Reverend Gene Tyson spoke in favor of the motion. Bishop Minnick asked for a vote, and the motion to have a written ballot failed on a standing vote.

The Bishop stated that he would ask the tellers to count the vote to assist him in his determination of the outcome. Reverend Alan Swartz, Resolutions Committee chairperson, directed attention to the Book of Nominations and Handouts, pages 55-57, for the two resolutions regarding restoration of funding to the NC Council of Churches. The Committee recommended Section C of Item 6 on page 56 (1st resolution) be removed and Item 7 on page 57 (2nd resolution) to become the new Section C of the combined resolution. The Committee recommended concurrence with the combined resolution. Reverend Jack Crum informed the Conference that there are now 78 sponsors to the resolution. The Bishop stated that reading all the names was not necessary. Reverend Malloy Owen spoke against the resolution, saying that it was not in accord with "true ecumenism" to allow the Metropolitan Community Church to be a member of the NCCC.

Conference UMYF President Jason Carter offered a motion. Bishop Minnick ruled the motion out of order.

Reverend David Banks spoke against the resolution and in favor of the current Conference policy. Reverend Susan Pate Greenwood spoke in favor of the resolution, saying that it would be wrong to single out any one sin as worse than another. John Martindale of Goldsboro spoke against the resolution based on the view of the Metropolitan Community Church that homosexuality is simply an alternative lifestyle. Henry Jarrett of Raleigh spoke in favor of the resolution. Reverend Ben Sharpe spoke against concurrence. Reverend Stan Smith spoke in favor of the resolution. Reverend Gene Tyson spoke against the resolution. Reverend Gregory Minnick spoke in favor of concurrence.

Previous Question: The previous question was called. Reverend Brian Wingo raised a point of order regarding those who were eligible to vote. Reverend Bill Jeffries rose to a point of order. The Bishop asked the Conference Secretary to remind the Conference of who was eligible to vote. The Bishop asked for a show of hands on stopping debate, and the motion to stop debate passed.

The tellers were asked to be in place. Conference Secretary Coile instructed the Conference on who were eligible to vote. Reverend Roy Terry asked a question regarding the eligibility of student pastors being able to vote, and the Bishop said that they were not. The ushers directed those standing in the wells to be seated. A count vote was taken and counted by the tellers. Voting was completed and the tally was calculated. The Bishop announced that the Conference had voted non-concurrence with the resolution.

Reverend Claire Clyburn moved that the NC Conference delegates to the NC Council of Churches study the theology of the Metropolitan Community Church to see if they are a part of the one holy, catholic and apostolic church. Reverend Malloy Owen spoke against the motion. Reverend Steven Ling spoke in favor of the motion. Reverend Quinton Covington spoke against the motion.

Motion: Reverend Ben Sharpe offered a substitute motion: "In order to facilitate Christian conference on matters pertinent to our relationship with the NC Council of Churches; I propose that the Commission on Social & Ecumenical Ministries provide for a discussion, inviting Steve Long of Duke Divinity School as convener. The venue for this discussion being a UM camp within the bounds of this Annual Conference. The discussion to occur within the next six months and funding arranged by the Commission on Social & Ecumenical Ministries with participant involvement." Reverend Chris Noble spoke against the substitute. A point of order was raised by Reverend David Banks.

Previous Question: The previous question was called. The Bishop asked if the Conference wished to cut off debate and it was done.

Conference Secretary Coile read the Sharpe motion. A point of order was raised by Reverend Gene Tyson. The Bishop called for the vote, and the motion passed on a standing vote.

Some conference members asked for a count vote on the Sharpe substitute. A vote was taken on whether to have a count vote, and the request for a count vote failed. A point of order was raised by Mr. Gary Barker.

The Bishop then called for a vote on the Sharpe substitute as the main motion, and the motion passed.

Resolution on Ministries to Unwed Mothers and Unborn Children: Swartz directed attention to page 53 of the Book of Nominations and Handouts. The Committee made no recommendation since the resolution came from a Conference commission. The Bishop asked for debate. There being none, the Bishop called for the vote and the resolution passed.

Continuation of Report of Conference Council on Finance and Administration: Dr. Bill Simpson, chairperson, asked for applause for the Conference treasurer's staff. They were received. He directed attention to page 14 of the Book of Nominations and Handouts. He stated that Cashar Evans as a member of GCFA also serves as a member of CFA. Simpson addressed changes in the budget found on page 55. Based on Conference action so far, line item 47 of the Conference Budget was changed from $150,000 to $166,000. Line item 52 should be changed from 0 to $1,500. The sub-total for ministerial support is now $4,770,258. The corrected total is $12,141,047; this is a 4.12% increase as opposed to the originally proposed increase of 3.97%. The budget then was placed before the Conference for discussion.

Reverend Tom Faggart moved to restore one-half of the reductions to Conference agencies that would receive less money. His motion was seconded. Ruth Cade of Fayetteville spoke against the motion. Simpson asked for a clarification from Faggart. Reverend Malloy Owen spoke against the Faggart motion. Mr. Howard Harrell of St. Mark's spoke. Reverend Powell Osteen spoke against the motion. Reverend Bob Baldrige spoke to the motion.

Previous Question: The previous question was called. The Bishop asked for a vote on the call for question, and the motion to end debate passed.

He then called for a vote on the Faggart motion, and the motion failed.

Reverend Tony Collier asked for a point of clarification about the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign Funds. Dr. Steve Compton answered that of the $4,000,000 from the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign most has been spent, but approximately $300,000 has been invested with the Methodist Foundation. All has been used as designated.

The Bishop called for a vote on the budget, and the budget was accepted. He then called for a vote on the CFA report as a whole, and it was approved. The Bishop thanked Simpson and CFA for their work.

Reverend Arthur Warren was recognized. He requested a point of privilege, but the Bishop asked him to wait.

Report of Conference Board of Trustees: Reverend Jerry Lowry, chairperson, directed attention to the report found on page 90 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994. The Bishop called for a vote, and the report was approved.

Report of the Conference Statistician: Reverend George Speake referred to pages 122-123 in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994 for Table I and Table II. He made special note of item 9 on page 122 which indicated a net increase of 711 in full members. He also noted that the number of people enrolled in confirmation classes showed a net decrease of 228, and also noted the decrease of leaders and classes in Sunday School. He presented the report for questions. The Bishop asked if the Conference would receive the report with gratitude, and it was done.

Orientation for Saturday Run/Walk: Reverend Randy Maynard, coordinator, gave instructions on the run/walk for Disaster Preparedness. Reverend Woody Wells and Reverend Randy Maynard did a skit to promote the run/walk. They impersonated various well-known bishops past and present. They encouraged everyone to participate in the run/walk in some way.

Proposed Definitions: Reverend Bill Sherman, Board of Ordained Ministry chairperson, presented proposed definitions regarding homosexuality as found on page 21 of the Book of Nominations and Handouts. The Bishop asked for discussion. Reverend Vickie Pruett expressed concern with the language "sexual acts" in the model definition. After further discussion, the Bishop called for a vote, and the model definition was adopted.

Sherman presented the model definition for "status." Bishop Minnick suggested that the word "sex" be changed to "gender" in the model definition for "status."

Amendment: Reverend Charles (Chuck) Cook moved "the Conference agree without objection to change the word "sex" to "gender." It was approved. Sherman offered the model definition for approval.

The Bishop called for a vote on the entire definition, and it was approved.

Report of Committee on Minutes: Reverend Gayla Estes, chairperson, requested adoption of the minutes as they have been read thus far, and asked permission to correct the minutes that have not been written or read. The Bishop called for a vote, and the Estes request was approved.

Announcements: The Bishop recognized Henry Jarrett of Raleigh to speak about the vigil on June 14 at Central Prison concerning the victim, and the person who will be executed on the 15th. Conference Secretary Coile was asked for further announcements. Bishop Minnick adjourned the Conference for the afternoon on Friday, June 10 at 5:26 p.m.

THIRD DAY, EVENING SESSION, Friday, June 10, 1994

Vision 2000 Worship Service: At 7:30 p.m. a service was held to commission the Vision 2000 teams. Reverend James T. Webb, Jr. from the WNC Conference was the preacher for the service. After Bishop Minnick commissioned the teams, he invited the congregation to participate in the service of Covenant Renewal. Special music for the service was provided by the ensemble "Wilson Brass."

Plenary Session: Following the worship service, Bishop Minnick called the Conference to order for a brief business session at 8:59 p.m.

Point of Personal Privilege: Reverend Arthur Warren read a statement of appreciation for those persons who successfully led the Camp Meeting on Thursday evening.

Point of Personal Privilege: Dr. Belton Joyner was recognized. He led the Conference in prayer for Reverend Riley Hamilton, whose mother has died this week, and for Reverend Jerry Cribb, whose grandmother has died.

Report 3 of Committee on Resolutions: Reverend Alan Swartz, chairperson, directed attention to a handout entitled "Resolution Concerning the International Year of the Family." The Resolutions Committee recommended concurrence.

Resolution Concerning the International Year of the Family: The Bishop asked for a vote, and the Conference approved the resolution.

Resolution on Caring for God's Creation: Reverend Swartz called attention to the resolution on page 49 of the Book of Nominations and Handouts. The Committee recommended concurrence. Mr. Richard Duncan spoke against the resolution, saying that the resolution had a "too-secular" orientation. Bishop Minnick called for a vote, and the resolution was approved.

Resolution on Crime Prevention: Swartz directed the attention of the Conference to page 50 of the Book of Nominations and Handouts. The Committee recommended concurrence. The Bishop asked for discussion. David Russell spoke indicating the need for more efforts at correction of criminals. Reverend Claire Clyburn spoke to explain the intent of the resolution, she noted that the resolution was aimed at lifting up the Children's Home as a model of prevention. The Bishop asked for a vote, and the resolution was approved.

Resolution on Hunger and Human Need: Swartz addressed page 51, Item 3 - Resolution on Hunger and Human Need, in the Book of Nominations and Handouts. Swartz read two recommended paragraphs to replace the last paragraph of the resolution. The Committee recommended concurrence with the resolution as amended. Reverend Eckie Lancaster spoke against the resolution, saying that it would take money away from the Vision 2000 Launch Event. Reverend Charles Litzenberger spoke for the resolution. Mr. Stuart Nelson, Chairperson of the Finance Committee for Vision 2000, spoke against the resolution. Dr. Mark Wethington, author of the resolution, pointed out that the money to be collected at the Launch Event would go to local hunger projects.

Reverend Gray Southern moved to refer the resolution back to the Resolution Committee to iron out the differences between the concerned parties. The Bishop called for a vote on the motion to refer, and the motion lost.

Previous Question: Reverend Gene Tyson called for the previous question. The Bishop called for a vote, and the Conference indicated its readiness to vote.

The Bishop called for a vote on the Hunger resolution, and it failed.

Motion: Reverend Lawrence Johnson, member of CFA, spoke of his concern for the lessening monies allocated to Hunger and Human Need. He moved "that hunger and human needs be reconsidered by CFA for supplemental appropriation for the fall." Dr. Bill Simpson, chairperson of CFA, explained the decision to cut Hunger and Human Need funds and he welcomed the Johnson motion. The Bishop called for a vote and the Johnson motion was approved.

Resolution on Institutional Racism: Swartz called attention to the Resolution on Institutional Racism. The Committee recommended referral to CFA and consultation with the author, Dr. Mark Wethington, who is a member of Methodist Federation for Social Action which is an unofficial group of Methodists. Conference Secretary Coile noted that the resolution was not offered by an official UM Commission, so that CFA would have to consult with Wethington rather than with MFSA. The Bishop ruled that the consultation would indeed be with Wethington. This resolution requires only consultation and does not bind CFA to a specific course of action. Wethington referred to Section F on page 62 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994, and noted that CFA's policy statement should make it easy for them to entertain his resolution. Mr. David Russell of Good Shepherd Church in Durham spoke against the resolution. Conference Treasurer Allen Norris requested that his office have the opportunity to study the resolution. Wethington spoke to clarify the intent of the resolution. He stated that the resolution is needed because at least one bank within the bounds of the Conference denies Black families loans even when they have the same income level as White families who get loans.

Previous Question: The Previous question was called for and was supported.

The Bishop called for a vote on the motion to refer the Resolution on Institutional Racism to CFA for consultation with Wethington and it passed.

Swartz indicated that the work of his Committee was complete and asked the members of the Committee to stand. The Conference thanked them with applause.

Reverend Kevin Baker moved reconsideration of the Resolution Concerning Hunger and Human Need. The Bishop called for a vote and the motion to reconsider failed.

Point of Personal Privilege: Mr. Henry Jarrett of Raleigh rose to a point of personal privilege, reminding the Conference again of the vigil in opposition to capital punishment at Central Prison on June 14-15.

Motion: Dr. Robert Pullman moved "that the Conference statistician provide, in the packets of forms for the local church 1994 Annual Conference reports, a clarification as to how one counts in 9AF the race of a person who is a child of parents of different races." Conference Statistician Speake suggested that pastors consult with the persons to be counted as to how they wish to be classified. Speake will include guidelines on the matter in statistical instructions next year to pastors. The Bishop called for a vote and the motion passed.

Reverend Roger Cope referred to page 63.1 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1994 concerning Golden Cross Sunday. Dr. Bob Baldridge was called to consult with Cope.

Motion: Baldridge moved "that the Golden Cross Sunday offering be included in the list of approved exclusions from the apportionments as found in III.A.2 on page 61 of the CFA Report." The Bishop called for a vote and the motion was approved.

Point of Personal Privilege: In a moment of levity, Era Mae Rickman of Southern Pines UMC spoke. She said that she had a vision problem but had brought her monocular to Conference and realized that the Bishop was better looking than she had thought. The Bishop responded that it was obvious she had a vision problem. Rickman expressed her appreciation for the Bishop's patience and tolerance all week. She asked for clarification regarding individual payments to the NC Council of Churches. The Bishop replied that individual giving would still be possible through advance specials.

Business Questions: Conference Secretary James Coile moved that "with fixing of appointments tomorrow, the disciplinary questions be considered answered." The Bishop called for a vote and the motion passed.

Point of Personal Privilege: Dr. Bill Simpson recognized Mr. Mack Parker, vice-chairperson of CFA, who had driven a great distance to be at Conference.

Point of Information: Ms. Phyllis Horton of St. Paul UMC in Rocky Mount offered a point of clarification regarding the above Pullman motion.

Adjournment: The Bishop adjourned the Friday evening session with the singing of the Doxology at 9:57 p.m.

FOURTH DAY, MORNING SESSION, Saturday, June 11, 1994

Run/Walk for Committee on Disaster Preparedness: The two-mile run/walk began at 7:30 a.m. In spite of drenching showers, several hundred persons, with excitement and joy, walked and/or ran to provide funds for the Disaster Preparedness Committee to enable this committee to respond to disasters that may occur. Some participants chose to walk the two-miles around the basketball court of March F. Riddle Center while others used the traditional two-mile course around Methodist College campus. Winners of the run/walk were: Women's Division: 1) Elizabeth Tyson, 2) Carol Goehring, 3) Donna Smith; Men's Division: 1) Mark Van Buren, 2) Rick Hanse, 3) Larry Robinson; Honorary Finisher: Bishop C. P. Minnick.

Love Feast: The love feast began at 9:30 a.m. Reverend Al Simonton, Jr., presided over the traditional service and delivered the devotional message. New deacons and elders assisted. Reverend Bill Jeffries led the congregation in prayer. Bread and water elements were distributed to the congregation. Testimonies and singing of hymns were shared with spirit and excitement. The names of God and Jesus Christ were praised with joy. During the testimonies, the Conference stood silently to pay tribute to those who died in the Normandy Invasion 50 years ago, and then sang "America."

Special Recognitions: Following the singing of "Trust and Obey," Bishop Minnick invited retiree Malloy Owen, Goldsboro District Superintendent, and his wife, Pat, to greet the Conference. Owen expressed his gratefulness for being allowed to preach the gospel these many years, and expressed appreciation for prayers offered for him.

Caswell Shaw, Rocky Mount District Superintendent, was recognized as he is leaving the Cabinet for an appointment to First UMC in Rocky Mount.

The Bishop introduced new district superintendents, Tom Loftis, Rocky Mount District, and James Lee, Goldsboro District.

Recognition of Vivian Mitchell: Bishop Minnick invited Mrs. Vivian Mitchell to come to the podium for special recognition as she is retiring after serving 22 years as secretary in the episcopal office. He expressed appreciation for her excellent qualities as secretary and for her wisdom and knowledge that enhanced the work of the entire Conference. "Miss Vivian" began work for the Conference in the Conference secretary's office with the late W. Carleton Wilson. The Bishop also recognized her family and presented her with a love gift from the Conference. She expressed appreciation for the help of many persons over the years.

Further Recognitions: The Reverend George Speake presented a plaque of recognition to Al Simonton for 18 years of service as editor of the NC Christian Advocate.

Dr. Sam Dixon presented plaques to Reverend Wilbur Jackson for service as chairperson of the Insurance Committee and to Reverend Virgil Huffman as Conference Missionary Secretary.

Reverend Mark E. Lykins and Good Shepherd UMC in Durham. The Reverends Leonard Fairley, Norman Fitzgerald, and Kenneth Hall received honorable mentions.

Mr. Joe Moran of Church World Service presented an award to Reverend Steve Hickie for his outstanding support of CROP walks.

Dr. Kermit Braswell presented plaques to Laney Funderburk, Board of Pensions chairperson, and Al Horne, Commission on Equitable Compensation chairperson, for their service.

Bishop Minnick presented a Crusade Scholarship on behalf of the Board of Global Ministries to Regina Henderson who is serving as US-2 Missionary in California. Regina's mother, Amy Henderson, accepted in her absence.

Closing Worship and Sending Forth: The Bishop led in the closing worship and covenant service with the hymn, "Crown Him with Many Crowns." He fixed the appointments of pastors and diaconal ministers for the 1994-95 Conference year. Clergy and lay members pledged mutual support for the "mission God has given to the Church." Following singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the Bishop commissioned the Conference to go forth and serve. He thanked Charles (Chuck) Cook, Commission on Worship chairperson, for the excellent worship experiences during Conference.

Adjournment: The 1994 and 169th Session of the NC Annual Conference, held in Reeves Auditorium at Methodist College in Fayetteville, NC was adjourned by Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., at 11:45 a.m.

LEGISLATION

CONFERENCE CLERGY LIVING COMMITTEE

A. A Parsonage Guide

INTRODUCTION

It is the policy of the North Carolina Annual Conference that every pastoral charge shall provide a parsonage (or an adequate housing allowance, on a temporary basis, set by the charge conference but recommended by the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in consultation with the pastor) for the senior pastor and his/her family. Housing shall also be provided for associate pastors.

It is recommended that in each pastoral charge having a parsonage committee, which shall be elected by the charge conference upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations and Personnel, that said committee shall be amenable the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee and work closely with trustees in providing adequate housing for the pastor. (Reference is made to The Parsonage Committee in ¶ 2533 of The Book of Discipline, 1992.) This Committee should meet twice yearly at the parsonage. In charges of more than one church, each church should be represented on the Committee according to the percentage of ownership. Ex-officio members of the Committee should include the pastor, the pastor's spouse, chairperson of the trustees, and chairperson of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.

The following suggestions are standards toward which to work. They are given so that the pastoral charge shall know what is expected of it, and that the parsonage family may know what to expect.

REPAIRS, FURNISHINGS, AND/OR SALE OF PARSONAGE

1. Repairs and furnishings should be divided among churches on a multiple charge by percentage of ownership.
2. When no interest is owned in a parsonage on a multiple church charge by one or more churches, each church having no ownership should pay its pro-rata share of the fair rental value of the parsonage and furnishings. Rental money should be placed in a savings account for furnishings and repairs. The church or churches which own the parsonage should repair and furnish the parsonage.
3. When a parsonage is sold, the principal proceeds resulting from the sale may not be used for the operating budget. (¶ 2543, The Book of Discipline, 1992)

THE HOUSE

1. Minimum of three bedrooms (four are preferable) with ample closet space in each. One of the three bedrooms should be on the first floor.
2. A family room with book shelves, preferably separate and apart from the kitchen
3. Kitchen with ample built-in cabinets and large enough for family eating space, or a breakfast nook
4. Area large enough for washer, dryer
5. Two full baths
6. Living room, large enough for parsonage entertaining
7. A dining room is desirable, but where there is no dining room, the dining area should adjoin the living room in a living-dining room combination.
8. A home study in the parsonage is a desirable option in addition to the church office-study. It should have an outside entrance and be suitably equipped.
9. Garage with electric doors or a carport
10. Dry storage space
11. Adequate heating and air conditioning equipment and insulation, including storm or thermal pane windows and doors
12. Adequate rotary TV antenna or cablevision hook-up, if available. The purpose of this recommendation is to save the roof of the house from excessive wear due to moving antennas.

13. Uninterrupted utilities (electricity, water, gas, phone) in the name of the charge
14. The outgoing pastor is responsible for leaving the parsonage fuel tank full. If the fuel tank is not filled, and provision for has not been made with the church or provider to have it filled, then the moving expense reimbursement will be held by the district superintendent until such provision has been made or the fuel tank filled.
15. The chairperson of the Pastor/Staff Relations Committee and the chairperson of the Trustees are responsible for reviewing all items on the "So You're Moving Check Sheet" to be certain that each item has been completed.

THE FURNISHINGS

The pastoral charge should provide:

1. All heavy furnishings, including electric or gas range, refrigerator with freezer compartment, water heater, washer, dryer, and a dishwasher. (A garbage disposal and a freezer are desirable options.)
2. Bedroom, dining room, den and living room furniture. (One bedroom should be left unfurnished, so as to allow the pastor to have his/her own bedroom suite. This should be done no later than July 1, 1993.)
3. Good mattresses, floor covering, shades, blinds, curtains or draperies in all rooms
4. Some lamps and occasional tables
5. Discarded furniture should not be used in furnishing the parsonage
6. The minister's family should provide linens, blankets, pillows, baby beds, dishes, china, crystal, silverware, cooking utensils, radio, TV, and other personal items which they desire.
7. The storage and payment thereof of unused parsonage furnishings and the pastor's furnishings is to be negotiated between the pastor and the charge.
8. An up-to-date inventory of furnishings which includes dates of purchases and costs. This should be reviewed and updated at each Committee meeting. Pictures or video tapes are recommended and should be kept in a safe place other than the parsonage.

PARSONAGE GROUNDS

Parsonage grounds should have foundation shrubbery, shade trees, adequate yard space for children, paved driveway and walks, and power mower.

CARE OF PROPERTY

A clean parsonage is much to be desired by all. It is urged that a parsonage family keep the home clean and attractive.

Any abuse of the furnishings or house beyond normal wear should be the responsibility of the parsonage family.

The following pet policy consistent with the standard policy for rental property is established.

1. The pet owner is responsible for any property damage caused by pet(s).
2. The pet owner must conform to all state and local ordinances.
3. The pet owner is responsible for liability for any injury caused by the pet(s).
4. The pet owner is responsible for professional pest extermination of the parsonage when moving.

Walls, woodwork, and exterior should be painted as needed. The expense of painting, sanding and refinishing floors, repairs, periodic pest extermination, cleaning of carpets and draperies, are expenses to be borne by the church.

It is the responsibility of the parsonage family to leave the parsonage clean and in good condition when they move to another charge. As close to moving time as possible, each family should wash windows, screens and window sills, and leave curtains, draperies, carpets, shades, and blinds clean. Special attention should be given to closets, cabinets, and drawers. Bathrooms, kitchens, storage rooms, and attics should be clean. Refrigerators and stoves as well as all other appliances should be clean and in working order. Check light fixtures, exhaust fans, hot and cold air ducts to assure cleanliness. The parsonage yard should be well groomed.

The following information should be left by the pastor for his/her successor: All warranties, repair parts lists, instructions for use of equipment belonging to the parsonage, and an inventory including dates of purchase and cost of parsonage furnishings. The pastor should indicate when and from whom equipment was purchased, and whom to call for service. The pastor should leave, also, a list of persons to call for various reasons, where to find various items, and when and by whom various improvements are made.

THE PARSONAGE COMMITTEE

The persons responsible for the parsonage should have a current inventory of parsonage furnishings. A copy of the inventory should be given to the minister and the trustees of the parsonage property. This inventory should include date of purchase of each item listed, its cost, and dates of renovations and repairs.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should meet with the pastor and his/her spouse twice annually. Furnishings should be evaluated at this time to decide the condition of pieces, to discard unacceptable items, check for needed repairs, and replace items if needed. The charge shall maintain adequate insurance for the replacement of parsonage and furnishings. The pastor is responsible for insurance on the family's personal possessions.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should recommend to the Finance Committee an amount to be set aside each year, or included in the budget, for repairs and maintenance. A special parsonage maintenance fund should be established. A minimum of 1% per year of the replacement value of the parsonage should be placed in this fund, and this should continue to accrue until the fund reaches a minimum of 5% of the replacement value of the parsonage and then be maintained at that level. Each charge conference is urged to designate the chair of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee, chair of trustees, or chair of parsonage committee to make decisions for emergency replacements and/or repairs. The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor/Staff Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance.

BUILDING OR RENOVATING A PARSONAGE

In all matters pertaining to the location, renovation, and building of a parsonage, the Discipline should be consulted. The required legislation related to the above is found in ¶ 2536-2545 of The Book of Discipline, 1992.

Parsonage sites should be selected that will hold their value and be a wise investment, preferably in a sub-division. Whenever a new parsonage is built, its many uses should be considered.

Churches building new parsonages should be responsive to the handicapping procedures in the state building codes. Congregations receiving parsonage families with handicapping conditions should be responsive to their housing needs.

(Guidelines may be secured by writing: Director of Ministerial Relations, NC Annual Conference, P O Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.)

B. Arbitration Policy - Clergy Living Committee

The 1987 NC Annual Conference Session created the Clergy Living Committee whose responsibilities include "to hear unreconciled problems regarding parsonage usage and to recommend solutions and alternatives" (1987 Conference Journal, page 326).

The following is a proposed policy for the Clergy Living Committee to carry out this Annual Conference mandate:

1. Provision for clergy housing is the responsibility of the local church.
2. Issues regarding housing should be resolved between the clergy family and the local church.
3. If housing matters cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of all involved parties, the respective District Superintendent should be invited for mediation by the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.

4. The Arbitration Sub-committee of the Conference Clergy Living Committee may only be invited to arbitrate clergy housing issues at the initiative of the District Superintendent. Travel expenses will be borne by the Clergy Living Committee.
5. The sub-committee shall come to the local church or charge to hear the concerns of all interested parties, and offer recommendations and/or solutions that shall be mutually binding.
6. Recommendations and solutions offered by the sub-committee shall be consistent with the parsonage standards of the North Carolina Conference.

C. Clergy Living Committee

1. The Committee will be composed of at least 50% lay membership. A lay person and a clergy person will alternate as the chairperson each quadrennium.
2. The Committee will meet as necessary, at least once a year, to review policy, to hear unreconciled problems, recommendations, and solutions from the Arbitration Committee.
3. The newsletter has been discontinued.

CHARTER OF

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

PURPOSE: In The North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church an Annual Conference Council on Ministries shall be organized which will be referred to hereafter as The Council. PURPOSE - The purpose of the structure, staff, and programs of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be to help prepare and empower local congregations to be strategic centers for ministry and mission. The Council shall: (a) receive program recommendations from local churches, district agencies, Annual Conference agencies, and the Jurisdictional and General Council on Ministries; (b) develop these recommendations into a coordinated program to be recommended to the Annual Conference program, and (c) provide implementation for and administration of the coordinated program as adopted by the Conference.

MEMBERSHIP - the membership of The Annual Conference Council on Ministries shall consist of the presiding bishop, the district superintendents; representatives of Conference agencies as determined by the Conference; the Conference Secretary; two representatives of the Conference youth organization; two representatives (one to be president) of the United Methodist Women; the Conference Lay Leader; two representatives of the Conference United Methodist Men, one of whom shall be the president; two young adults; one lay person from each district, members of General Council on Ministries. (Up to five (5) members at large, if necessary to make the membership of the council representative of the various constituencies of the Annual Conference.

The following agencies shall be represented in the Conference Council by the chairperson.

- Commission on Archives and History
- Commission on Congregational Development
- Commission on Education
- Commission on Evangelism
- Commission on Health and Human Services
- Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry
- Commission on Laity
- Commission on Missions and Outreach
- Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries
- Commission on Religion and Race
- Commission on Social and Ecumenical Ministries
- Commission Status and Role of Women
- Commission on Stewardship
- Commission on Worship

Committee on Budget
 Committee on Communications
 Committee on Conference Staff Relations
 Committee on Disaster Preparedness
 Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns
 Committee on Prison Ministry and Prison Reform
 Council on Youth Ministries

OTHER MEMBERS - The following shall be members of the Council without vote: Salaried and volunteer Annual Conference Staff, Conference Treasurer - Business Administrator, President of the Council on Finance and Administration, Director of Rural Church Affairs of the Duke Endowment, Executive Director of United Methodist Foundation, Administrative Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Ministerial Relations.

(Persons serving on General Agencies would serve as ex-officio members on the appropriate Commission or Committee.)

OFFICERS - The officers of the Council shall be a Chairperson, a Vice Chairperson, and a Secretary. They shall be elected by The Council.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE shall be composed of the following: Chairperson of the Council on Ministries, Vice-chairperson of the Council on Ministries, Secretary of the Council on Ministries, Bishop, Director of The Council, one Superintendent, Member (s) of General Council on Ministries, Lay Leader, President of United Methodist Women, President of United Methodist Men, President of Conference United Methodist Youth Fellowship, the Chairperson of the Committee on Budget, and two At-Large Members to be appointed by the Bishop. Approximately one-half of the members of the Executive Committee shall be lay persons.

The Executive Committee shall be amenable to The Council and shall exercise administrative, counseling, and research and planning functions for The Council. The Chairperson of the Executive Committee may appoint any of The Council Staff Members to serve in a counseling relationship with any Agency responsible to The Council.

COMMITTEES - The Council shall institute the following committees: Committee on Communications, Committee on Budget, and Council on Youth Ministry. It may institute other committees as may be deemed essential for the effective discharge of its responsibilities.

DIRECTOR - The Council shall elect, upon nomination by the Committee on Conference Staff Relations, in consultation with the Cabinet, an executive officer to be known as the Conference Council Executive Director. The Director shall be in consultative relationship to the Cabinet on matters relating to correlation, implementation, and administration of the Conference Program and other matters as the Cabinet may determine.

STAFF - All Annual Conference Program Staff shall be amenable to the Council, and shall be known as the Conference Council Staff. The Staff shall be under the supervision of the Council Director. Ordained ministers on the staff are subject to being appointed by the presiding Bishop.

The council shall be authorized to recruit adequate and qualified personnel to implement the work of The Council on Ministries.

RELATIONSHIPS - The Council shall have the following relationships, including the amenities indicated.

1. All Annual Conference program commissions and committees shall cooperate with and be amenable between sessions of the Annual Conference to the Council on Ministries of the Annual Conference in matters relating to the development, implementation, and administration of the program.
2. All Annual Conference agencies shall submit the elements of program which are to be promoted in, supported by, or implemented by the local churches of the Conference to the Council for consideration, coordinating, and calendaring prior to presentation to the local churches. The Council may request District or Annual Conference agencies to implement a program for the entire conference.

3. The Council staff shall be responsible, in cooperation with the district superintendents, for the implementation of the Conference program.
4. The Council may develop and carry out a program of Conference Advance Special Giving.
5. For the purpose of having the most effective leadership at strategic administrative levels, each district shall have a District Council on Ministries composed of the following: the District Superintendent, District Lay Leader, District President of United Methodist Women, District President of United Methodist Youth, District President of United Methodist Men, Coordinators (for Adult and Family Life, Young Adults, Youth, and Children's Ministries), and the district directors of the Annual Conference Commissions and Committees, the district representative on the Conference Council on Ministries, and others deemed necessary who shall be selected by the District Superintendent unless otherwise provided for by The Discipline. These persons shall be expected to work closely with the District Superintendent in providing effective leadership for the entire Conference and District Programs as they relate to district promotion and cultivation.
6. Adequate secretarial service for staff functions shall be provided by the Council. However, even though a secretary is aligned to a particular office, all secretaries are employees of The Council, not a particular Commission or Staff Person.

FUNCTIONS - The functions of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries are:

1. To study the mission of the Annual Conference and the local churches of the Conference, and to determine program emphasis which will assist the Conference and the local churches to perform their mission.
2. To describe, coordinate, and organize opportunities to serve within the mission.
3. To receive program recommendations from the local churches, the District and Annual Conference agencies, and the Jurisdictional and General Council on Ministries; to evaluate these recommendations; and to formulate a coordinated Conference program to be presented to the Annual Conference for consideration.
4. To provide for implementation and administration of the program adopted by the Conference.
5. To provide program resources and assistance in program planning implementation for local churches.
6. To provide staff personnel for implementing and administering the conference program, in conjunction with the various commissions and committees of the Annual Conference.
7. To promote principles of good communication within the Conference to provide two-way channels of communication between Annual Conference agencies, District Councils on Ministries, and local churches, and to lead the Conference in making creative use of communications and opportunities offered by modern mass media, including Conference and General Church periodicals and resources and to offer counsel in public relations activities for the Conference.
8. To provide communications training opportunities for leaders in the Annual Conferences and the local churches.
9. To interpret the programs of the General Church and the Annual Conference to the local churches and to promote all General and Conference benevolent causes in cooperation with the standing General Commission on Communication.
10. To give leadership in research and planning for the Conference and to cooperate with other research and planning agencies.
11. To cooperate in ecumenical projects and events which have been approved by the Conference.

12. To study and coordinate the budget asking of the Conference agencies as they relate to the Conference program and to make recommendations regarding the same to The Council on Finance and Administration.
13. To interpret the Conference program to the local churches with a view toward gaining the financial support needed in order to implement that program.
14. To provide for relationships with the media within the Conference, including newspapers, radio and television; take initiative in television programming at the Conference level, and give counsel to districts and local churches concerning television, utilizing the resources of the General Commission on Communication; provide for the use of videotape within the Conference; perform public relations functions for the Conference and assist in the public relations of agencies and institutions of the Conference.
15. To provide guidance and training for district leaders and groups to support their various tasks with local churches and in their district and/or Annual Conference responsibilities.
16. To inform the general program agencies of the names of those Annual Conference agencies that provide for program responsibilities related to the objectives and scope of the general program agencies.
17. To provide for leader training at the Conference, district, and local church levels through the work of the various agencies, to be facilitated by the Conference staff person assigned to the agency and funded by a line item in its budget.

MEETINGS - The Council shall meet at least two times during the church year with such additional meeting as may be called by the Chairperson or Executive Committee.

Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held as deemed necessary by the Chairperson or the Council Director.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES

A COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATION, twelve (12) persons elected to insure that the total membership of the committee is representative of the various constituencies of the Annual Conference.

Areas of Concern: Public Relations, Media Center, News Media, Telecommunications, Publications and Interpretation

Funds for this Committee shall be provided by the Conference through the Council on Ministries budget.

A COMMITTEE ON BUDGET of six elected members, plus the Director as an ex-officio member shall be organized by and be amenable to the Conference Council on Ministries.

It shall receive budget asking from commissions, committees and other agencies for program implementation and after coordinating them shall make recommendations to the Council on Ministries concerning budget asking. The Committee shall submit the Budget as approved by the Council on Ministries to the Council on Finance and Administration. After receiving and considering staff salary recommendations from the Committee on Conference Staff Relations, the Budget Committee shall recommend to the Council on Ministries at its last meeting of the calendar year a salary schedule for the staff for the following calendar year. In the case of new staff persons the salary must be approved by the Budget Committee in consultation with the Cabinet. Upon recommendation of the Director of the Council on Ministries, the Committee shall consider and set the salaries of the support staff.

THE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES STAFF WILL RELATE TO THE COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS.

COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES - twelve (12) district directors of youth ministry, five (5) elected Conference youth officers, seven (7) at-large members chosen by the five elected Conference youth officers, twelve (12) persons, one from each district elected at district caucuses at ACS, four (4) junior high youth chosen by participants at junior high events.

Officers - A chairperson and such other officers as deemed necessary shall be elected from the group. The chairperson shall be a member of the Council on Ministries.

Meetings - Not more than two Council meetings and two additional meetings of an executive committee (to be selected by the Council) may be held annually.

Funding - Expenses incurred in Council meeting shall be paid by the Council on Ministries. Expenses of the Executive Committee are to be paid by the Council on Ministries.

Revised 1994

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES PROGRAM, CALENDARS, AND ADVANCE SPECIALS

From The Book of Discipline, 1992:

"All Annual Conference agencies shall submit the elements of programs which are to be promoted in, supported by, or implemented by the local churches of the conference to the council for consideration, coordinating, and calendaring prior to presentation to the local churches. The council may request district or Annual Conference agencies to implement a program for the entire conference."

"The council staff shall be responsible, in cooperation with the district superintendents, for the implementation of the conference program."

1995 Conference Advance Specials

Advance Special: That each local church should all consider giving to at least one project in each lane of the Advance: World, Missionary Salary Support, National, UMCOR, and Conference, thereby becoming a Rainbow Covenant Church.

A. Lane One: World Missions

- 1) Special Emphasis: Ganta UM Elementary School. Liberia, Africa (#011001-7RB - scholarships) Scholarships for students are needed - since without them many parents could not afford for their children to go to school. Needs have been made more urgent by events of the recent civil war in Liberia, during which the school was looted and the area economically devastated. Currently, Operation Classroom has moved to Monrovia, Liberia because of the civil unrest.
- 2) Special Emphasis: Developing Theological Community for Evangelism - Peru (#010638-ORA). The church in Peru, desperately in need of pastors, is training laity to carry out pastoral duties, especially in evangelism, outreach, and congregational development.
- 3) Special Emphasis: Ministries to Street Children, Rio de Janeiro (#011276-7RA). Advance gifts will help supplement salaries of Christian workers who have the talent and commitment to work with the growing numbers of street children and help many of them find a better alternative to their dangerous lives.
- 4) Andean Rural Health Care Program. Bolivia. (#010158-2 RA) To provide vaccinations, nutritional monitoring of children, prenatal care, and other preventative health care services. Funds given under this Advance number are divided equally between the Andean Rural Health Care Program and other health care programs of the Bolivian Methodist Church, as per agreement made between ARHC and church leaders in Bolivia.

Any other World Advance Special as listed in Partnership in Missions.

B. Lane Two: National Missions

- 1) Special Emphasis: Red Bird Mission, Inc., Beverly, KY (#773724-0) A comprehensive mission program provides education for hundreds of pre-school through high school children in a remote area poorly served by the public system, as well as outreach programs for the community.
- 2) Special Emphasis: Red Bird Missionary Conference, Beverly, KY (#773978-4) This conference program facilitates the development of local churches and local lay leadership in isolated rural mountain communities.
- 3) Robeson County Church and Community Center, Lumberton, NC (#791742-0) An ecumenical ministry in a tri-racial community which is designed to help local churches meet emergency needs, literacy tutoring for adults, home repairs and building new, transportation.
- 4) Society of St. Andrew Potato Project, VA. (#801600-0). Office at 504 W. Chapel Hill St., Durham NC 27701. Salvages millions of pounds of unmarketable potatoes and other produce, and distributes the food to hungry people nationwide.
- 5) Southeastern Jurisdiction Agency for Native American Ministries, Lake Junaluska, NC. (#791842-4). To help meet the needs of 194,000+ Native Americans living in the 16 annual conferences of the Southeast.
- 6) National Native American Family Camp, Fayetteville, NC. (#982602-8). Provides an annual opportunity for Native American church leaders to attend or lead workshops in outreach ministries and evangelism.

- 7) Hinton Rural Life Center, Hayesville, NC. (#731372-2 - program; #731374-4 - renovation and expansion). Provides for training needs and development of churches in town and rural settings.

Any other National Advance Special as listed in Partnership in Missions.

C. Lane Three: Missionary Salary Support

The missionaries listed below are assigned to the NC Annual Conference by the General Board of Global Ministries. Biographicals are available in the Conference Office of Missions. They are listed below according to their need for support, with those listed first having the greatest need.

Bruce Bjork, North Carolina, USA. Currently Bruce is assigned to the Robeson County Church and Community Center which has ongoing programs in emergency services, literacy, housing and transportation.

Vickie Sigmon, North Carolina, USA. (#982919-8) Vickie works with the Yokefellow Prison Ministry in NC. Currently, in conjunction with her Yokefellow work, she is resourcing the prison MATCH (Mothers And Their Children) Committee.

Richard Connelly, North Carolina, USA. (#982919). Richard is the Housing Director for Robeson County Church and Community Center in Lumberton, NC.

Brenda Connelly, North Carolina, USA. (#982937-4). Brenda serves as Executive Director of Robeson County Church and Community Center which has ongoing programs and services in emergency assistance, housing, literacy and transportation.

Herbert and Mary Zibguo, Liberia, Africa. (#010721-4). The Zibguos are working with the Ganta Mission School. They will be going into Monrovia, Liberia, with Operation Classroom and work with workteams.

Ruth Ann Robinson, Bolivia, South America (#003778-2). Ruth Ann works with the conference in Bolivia in the areas of promotion and development of resources.

Any other missionaries sent out by the General Board of Global Ministries.

D. Lane Four: UMCOR

- 1) Special Emphasis: UMCOR Disaster Response (#901670-1) Enables UMCOR to respond to persons in need after natural disasters in the United States.
- 2) Special Emphasis: Bread for the World (#982325-3). Educates and influences people to work for government policies that address the basic causes of domestic and world hunger.
- 3) World Hunger/Poverty (#982920-4). Provides both short-term crisis relief and long-term developmental assistance to eliminate the root causes of hunger.
- 4) Heifer Project International (#982530-8-General Program; #982532-1-Living Gift Program). An inter-faith project that provides animals and other assistance to rural families.

Recipients agree to pass on the firstborn female offspring of their animals to someone else in need.

- 5) CROP/Church World Service Community Hunger Appeal (#982380-1) Funds raised by a local church in a CROP event can receive UMCOR credit. For necessary forms contact: Carolinas CROP Office, 1006 Lamond Ave., Durham, NC 27701.

Any other UMCOR Advance Special listed in Partnership in Missions or any UMCOR emergency appeal.

E. Lane Five: Conference Advance

- 1) Special Emphasis: Project AGAPE (Armenia-Georgia-America Partnership Endeavor). Project AGAPE helps coordinate relief efforts in Armenia, is seeking to provide educational and medical assistance, and is working with Armenian Orthodox Church to help revitalize the church. Will use Volunteers-in-Mission to accomplish many of these tasks. Rev. H. Charles Davis is also conducting English-language worship services at the American Embassy in Yerevan.
- 2) Special Emphasis: Prison MATCH (Mothers And Their Children) An interfaith program, provides mothers and their children with the support and resources necessary to maintain and strengthen family relationships and to help break the cycle of children following their parent to prison.

- 3) Volunteer Emergency Families for Children (VEFC). A private non-profit organization with the purpose of helping communities develop and utilize local resources by providing emergency shelter care to children-in-crisis.
 - 4) Conference Mission Work Teams. A fund which provides help for short-term volunteers on work teams in the US and abroad.
 - 5) Ethnic Minority Church Projects in Rockingham District. Funds will be used to assist ethnic churches with critical needs. Churches to be lifted up for assistance in 1995 are Mt. Olive UMC (major needs in parsonage and church buildings) and Hickory Grove UMC (general needs relating to its program and ministry).
 - 6) Chatham County Hispanic Ministries. A ministry to fast growing Hispanic population in Siler City and Pittsboro, served by full-time Spanish-speaking pastor.
 - 7) Food Bank of North Carolina. Distributes food at minimal cost to hunger ministries throughout eastern NC.
 - 8) NC Council of Churches. Gives witness to the unity that God has given, through Christ, to the churches in NC. It is an instrument for cooperative study and action, especially on matters of justice; child and family advocacy; violence against women; public policy advocacy; rural crisis and farm workers advocacy; disaster relief; criminal justice; workplace safety; peace-making; AIDS ministry; and Christian unity.
 - 9) Caswell County Parish, Inc. Providing services to elderly and low-income families through Meals-on-Wheels, outreach program, fuel and rent assistance, clothing, food. In addition, Family Violence Prevention Program provides services for families who are suffering from domestic violence.
 - 10) Walnut Terrace Child Development Center. Offers a unique program of child care for children aged six weeks to five years. Serves children primarily from low-income families.
 - 11) Yokefellow Prison Ministries. Educates church people concerning Christian responsibility for persons affected by crime and brings Christians into direct service ministries with prison inmates and their families.
 - 12) Isa Grant Scholarship. Provides workteam scholarships for persons who could not otherwise participate, especially young adults.
 - 13) Youth Service Fund. Supports mission projects within the annual conference and beyond, which have been selected by youth of our conference.
 - 14) District Board of Mission. Funds should be sent directly to the District Board and reported at year-end on Table II as Conference Advance.
 - 15) All human need projects, church extension projects, and special offerings approved by District Board of Missions/District Council on Ministries as Conference Advance Specials.
 - 16) NC Conference Disaster Appeals.
 - 17) Conference Evangelists. To provide support for NC Conference approved evangelists.
 - 18) All new churches less than five years old.
 - 19) The following UM institutional programs and projects:
 - a. UM camps
 - b. Member Groups of The UMC Campus Ministry Association
 - c. General Scholarship Funds at Methodist, Louisburg, Wesleyan Colleges and Duke Divinity School
 - d. Benevolent Funds of the Methodist Retirement Homes
 - e. Benevolent Funds of the Methodist Home for Children
 - f. Asbury Homes
- F. That the annual conference approve district projects for advance specials in accordance with ¶1727.4 of The 1992 Book of Discipline. This insures that local churches making advance specials on a district level and reported to the annual conference as conference advance specials will receive credit.

DIACONAL MINISTRY, BOARD OF

The Board of Diaconal Ministry continues to nurture, support and recruit persons who have expressed a calling to a representative ministry of love, justice and service with The UMC in the NC Conference. During this quadrennium the Board of Diaconal Ministry is encouraging and working to build partnership among all areas of ministry both representative and general. We continue to be in dialogue with the Board of Ordained Ministry on issues related to both ordained and diaconal ministers, such as MEF Funds, pensions and retirement.

We also continue to maintain an active relationship with certified lay professionals within our Conference through the annual process of review and renewal of certification, related to the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.

We are pleased to present to the Conference two candidates for consecration as diaconal ministers. They are: Jane Dru Brannock and Frances Louise Browne. They have completed the candidacy process, have been examined by the Board of Diaconal Ministry and have been found to be spiritually grounded, psychologically fit, and academically prepared for representative ministry.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY 1995 SALARY SCALE RECOMMENDATION:

Title	Diaconal Minister			Lay Professional		Certified Professional
	A	B	C	D	E	F	G
Degree	Masters	BA	Masters	BA	BA	BA	Masters
Experience	1+	7+	4+	None	4+	4+	4+
Base Salary	$25,270	$23,324	$31,335	$16,425	$20,367	$21,846	$22,846
Housing	$4,800	$4,800	$4,800	$4,800	$4,800	$4,800	$4,800
Base Package	$30,070	$28,124	$36,135	$21,225	$25,167	$26,646	$27,646

Housing is calculated at an average of those within the NC Conference, equivalent to $400/mo.

ADDITIONAL SUGGESTED BENEFITS to be negotiated between Parish-Staff Relations Committee and the professional: (1) Continuing Education, (2) Life Insurance

(part of Conference program), (3) Health/Hospital Insurance (part of Conference program), (4) Retirement Plan, and (5) Travel Expenses.

THE EMPLOYING AGENCY IN WHICH A FULL-TIME DIACONAL MINISTER IS SERVING SHALL PROVIDE (§1315.1, 2, 3, THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE, 1992):

1. Adequate salaries plus pension benefits, with an opportunity to participate in the United Methodist pension and benefit funds, health-care insurance, and continuing education. It is expected that these will be guided by the Annual Conference standards for ordained elders.
2. Social security benefits as required by Federal regulation.
3. The local United Methodist church which employs a full-time diaconal minister shall provide the above mentioned benefits in entirety as part of the compensatory consideration.

DISABILITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate for those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1994 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference. The medical form should be completed and acted upon by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits prior to the submission of the application.

2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require psychological examinations of those seeking disability when deemed necessary by the Committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the Committee, and in such a case the Committee will bear the expense of the examination.
3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each new application for Disability Leave submitted by pastors of the Conference to determine the validity of the recommendation of the pastor's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the pastor's disability. All materials will be sent to the medical consultant of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, who will determine if the pastor is eligible for benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
4. We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan shall be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Joint Committee on Disability. The Ministerial Pension Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance and Life Insurance shall be paid also by the Joint Committee on Disability.
5. Those pastors on Disability Leave are reminded to investigate the penalties by the Social Security Administration if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65.
6. Disability requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date.
7. We recommend that a lump sum grant of $3,000 be made at the beginning of Disability Leave (effective July 1, 1993). This grant will be available only one time in a pastor's years of service.
8. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each pastor on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances. Those receiving aid from the Joint Committee on Disability will be reviewed at the end of their first six months of Disability Leave.
9. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Disability Leave.
 - A. George Franklin Blanchard, PO Box 1448, Fayetteville, NC 28302 (910/486-8756)
 - B. Clingman Carter Capps, 2101 Richardson Dr., Reidsville 27320 (910/349-2617)

 - M. George C. Smith, Rt. 1, Box 103C, Clarendon, NC 28432 (910/653-3336)
10. We recommend the following pastors to be placed on Disability Leave for the first time:
 - A. Wilson Edward Barber, P O Box 4931, Emerald Isle, NC 28594 (354-5635)
 - B. Eugene A. Collins, Sr., 738 Avenida Sexta, #105, Clermont, FL 34711 (910/866--5632)
 - C. D. Susan Moore, 6757 David Moore Rd., Elon College, NC 27244 (910/584-0034)
11. Who have been placed on Disability Leave since the last Annual Conference?
George Franklin Blanchard, Julian Brice Helms, Jr.
12. We recommend that pastors and congregations in the communities in which our disabled pastors reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Disability Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline gives the Commission on Equitable Compensation this mandate..."to support ordained ministry in the charges of the Annual Conference ..."(¶722.2) There are three broad areas of responsibility outlined in ¶722.2. These are "(1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to district superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations."

The purpose of the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to seek fairness both for pastors and for churches. Fairness is a complex matter which involves the values of each ordained clergy person and the lay persons who constitute the membership of each local church. The Book of Discipline is clear that "the primary responsibility for payment of pastoral base compensation remains with individual pastoral charges." (¶722.4 and ¶248.13).

The Commission on Equitable Compensation has spent considerable time in examining the situation of our clergy and local churches in light of the mandates of the Book of Discipline. We have also considered with much prayer and thought these historical and theological foundations for our work:

1. Jesus says, "the laborer is worthy of his hire," (Luke 10:7) and Paul reminds us "you shall not muzzle the ox when it is treading out the grain," (1 Timothy 5:18; Deuteronomy 25:4).
2. Wesley was concerned that clergy have a responsibility not to be "in debt so as to embarrass you in your work" (¶425).
3. The great commission to go into all the world, preaching, teaching, and baptizing brings with it a cost. Systems of clergy support which foster the use of the right pastor in the right place, hold up the hope of seeing the great commission bear its promised fruit.
4. The Commission on Equitable Compensation embraces the great commandment to love our neighbors as we love ourselves by wanting for each pastor what our members want for themselves - compensation adequate to free persons for the work of pastoral ministry.

Through our praying, thinking, and working together as lay and clergy from across this Conference, we make the following recommendations whose implementation, we believe, will help us move toward fairness for both churches and pastors as we support ordained ministry in the charges of the NC Annual Conference.

1. Recommended Schedule of Base Compensation for 1995.

A. Salary Schedule

1. We recommend that the minimum full-time salary level equal the percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference. Student minimum salary shall be 65% of the pastors full-time salary plus utilities. (Effective 01/01/95).

PASTORS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT	1994	1995
(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)
Salary	$22,510	$23,626
Utilities	2,000	2,000
	$24,510	$25,626

STUDENTS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)
Salary	$13,932	$14,657
Utilities	2,000	2,000
	$15,932	$16,657

2. We recommend that the full-time minimum base compensation levels be adjusted annually by the percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference.

B. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the charge as an item of pastoral expense, it is expected that the charge would provide at least $2,400 for travel expense. A charge receiving equitable compensation support may provide this $2,400 travel expense, but any travel allowance/reimbursement in excess of $2,400 will result in a reduction of equitable compensation support.

C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Compensation Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's cash salary (including funds from the Equitable Compensation Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources), and housing (percentage of cash salary designated by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits or housing allowance, if provided in lieu of parsonage). Cash salary plus housing is Plan Compensation.

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Compensation Funds:

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges of the North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Compensation Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

- A. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriations from the Equitable Compensation Fund. Salary support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time Conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.
- B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one-third of the total salary will come from the Equitable Compensation Fund on the first application from the charge. Charges seeking more than one-third supplement must provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendents regarding the term of Equitable Compensation support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.

When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Compensation Funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, of the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the cabinet.

In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of all apportionments.

1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and its proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Compensation provide more than one-third of the salary required for such a division.

- 2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay initially two-thirds of the pastoral support established by the division.
- C. Churches receiving Equitable Compensation Funds shall conduct an annual financial/stewardship campaign in the second year of receiving Equitable Compensation Funds to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.
- D. The Commission on Equitable Compensation further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Compensation Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten (10) percent each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum salary for their pastor each year and receive ten (10) percent less each year in aid from Equitable Compensation Funds than granted the previous year.
- E. Grants from the Commission on Equitable Compensation for Housing will be discontinued by the following method:

Date	Reduction
01/01/93	25%
01/01/94	25%
01/01/96	25%

- F. Any Equitable Compensation Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time secular employment. Such a charge may be reinstated at such time as its pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision may be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.
- G. Equitable Compensation Funds are sent to charges who have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum salary established by the Annual Conference. The monthly salary supplement checks sent by the Conference treasurer are to be deposited by the charge treasurer in the church or charge bank account. The checks are not to be endorsed and cashed by the pastor.
- H. Ethnic Minority and Women Ministers: Each ethnic minority or woman minister, who is an associate member or a member in full connection of the North Carolina Annual Conference, serving full-time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $200 per service year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for ten (10) years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities is equal to the Conference minimum salary, but less than the Conference minimum salary plus $200 per year up to ten (10) years of full-time service as an associate member or a member in full connection.
Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon recommendation of the cabinet, approval by the charge conference, and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for MPP and CPP payments on any incremental increase. This policy does not restrict the Equitable Compensation Commission, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.
- I. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Compensation Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form supplied by the district superintendent. The request shall be carefully analyzed by the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent. The form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and the request must have been approved by the Charge Conference.

The Commission plans further consultation and study with other Conference agencies and resources to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON

III. FINANCIAL POLICIES

The United Methodist Church is a connectional church, and all local churches participate in the mission and service giving of the larger church. The outreach and mission giving opportunities of the Connection are distributed to the churches of the NC Conference by means of a formula based on the financial performance in each local church. Every effort is made to develop a computation which is shared with fairness by all. Church leaders are encouraged to interpret the work of the Connection so that each congregation understands these funds to be a necessary extension of the ministry and mission of the church beyond its local organization.

A. APPORTIONMENTS:

1. The funds to be apportioned are:
 - World Service and Conference Benevolences
 - Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration
 - Episcopal Fund
 - Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
 - Black Colleges
 - African University Fund
 - Mission Initiatives Fund
 - SEJ Missional Growth Fund
2. Formula Effective January 1, 1994 (for all except SEJ Missional Growth Fund): The Apportionments for each year shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year, or on the most recent year less the approved exclusions, whichever is lower. The change in apportionments from the previous year shall not increase or decrease in excess of 15%. The exclusions are: Payments on World Service and Conference Benevolences, Ministerial Support and Administration, and Episcopal Fund; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $4,500 for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Preparedness Committee and the Resident Bishop.
3. Beginning with all new congregations started in the NC Conference after July 1, 1993, the following formula shall be used to determine a new congregation's base for setting apportioned contributions for mission and service giving:

BUDGET YEAR	BASE FORMULA	MAXIMUM % INCREASE
C	$4A + 4$	No Cap
D	$3A + B + 4$	No Cap
E	$2A + B + C + 4$	No Cap
F	$A + B + C + D + 4^*$	No Cap
G	$B + C + D + E + 4$	15% Cap

* Standard formula

 Maximum % increase cap shall be the percentage determined by Annual Conference

4. Upon action of SEJ, the SEJ Missional Fund shall continue based on a minimum goal of 50 cents per member per year ($2.00) over the four-year period 1993-1996 inclusive. This is based upon the membership at the close of the calendar year 1991 as reported in the 1992 Journal.
 5. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the CFA is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.
 6. Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 18, 1994.
- B. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace with Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.
 - C. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the CFA for all non-program budget items. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
 - D. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another without approval of the CFA.
 - E. All General Church Funds (World Service, Episcopal, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, African University, Interdenominational Cooperation, Mission Initiatives, General Administration) and College Sustaining Fund, College Debt Retirement, Past Service Liability Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, SEJ Missional Growth Fund, and Methodist Building Routine and Capital Maintenance Funds will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the CFA.
 - F. Investment Policy: The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
 - G. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 1994 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 1995.
 - H. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in the Discipline, ¶ 709.5.b.
 - I. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by ¶ 710.11 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or the Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Board of Missions, Inc., and Asbury Homes.

- J. All new programs or entities which would not be funded by an existing approved budget shall be referred to the CFA for review of budget needs and supplemental funds available prior to approval by Annual Conference. If the item is approved, the next year's budget shall be amended to include the necessary funds based on the CFA recommendation.

IV. APPROVAL TO SOLICIT FUNDS

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the District or Conference. The CFA continues to recommend that a moratorium on Conference capital campaigns be declared and 100% "Missional Service Giving" be the quadrennial priority. The Council also recommends that stewardship continue to be a missional focus, Conference priority.

- A. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
- B. The Board of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.
- C. The Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.
- D. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
- E. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken directly into local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists (either partial or in entirety), or contact with pastors without approval of the CFA.
- F. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- G. The Disaster Preparedness Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the NC Annual Conference.
- H. Asbury Homes, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- I. Golden Cross Sunday observance for optional offering.

V. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' SALARY

The percentage change in district superintendents' salary shall be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for the prior year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference. Following the action of the 1993 Annual Conference to change the formula for determining district superintendent salaries to one computed the same as the dollar amount of change in the recommended minimum salary and utilities of full-time pastors serving local charges, the CFA appointed a task force to study the matter to include a review of how other annual conferences determine district superintendents' salaries. This task force subsequently recommended, and CFA unanimously endorsed, a return to the above stated recommendation as originally adopted by the 1985 Annual Conference, which was based on a prior study. CFA affirms that a serious effort should be to maintain the level of compensation for superintendents at a level commensurate with the level of responsibility and dignity of the position. Further, CFA recognizes that concern over this matter may be related more to the discrepancy over the large number of minimum salary appointments than it is with 12 district superintendents, and affirms the work of our Commission on Equitable Compensation, which serves as an advocate for many local pastors and congregations.

Based on this recommendation, the 1995 salary for district superintendents will be $62,786.00, reflecting a 4.5546 percent increase over 1994.

VI. ORGANIZATION and PROCEDURE (presented for information only)

- A. The CFA uses McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC, as auditors.
- B. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the CFA shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect two additional members to the executive committee from its voting membership.
- C. The Conference treasurer will include in his monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in the office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
- D. The treasurer may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $1,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such overexpenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.
- E. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of The United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA for non-program agencies, or in the case of program agencies, by CFA upon recommendation of the Council on Ministries.
- F. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items.
- G. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.
- H. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

- Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Salary Funds, COM staff salaries, etc.)
- Programs authorized and mandated by the NC Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year (i.e. Office of Planned Giving, Vision 2000, etc.)
- Amounts required by the Past Service Funding Plan adopted jointly by the Board of Pensions and the CFA which are not raised by the Board of Pensions annual budget requests.
- Funds appropriated to the Task Force on Hunger and Human Need to assist various ministries across the Annual Conference.

Second Priority

- New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.
- Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

- Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

1. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.
 2. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee who will make a recommendation to the full Council.
 3. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action.
- I. Interest shall be paid to/from the Board of Pensions, Insurance Fund, Blackburn Scholarship Fund, Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign (until they are authorized to be transferred to operational funds), Camps Endowment for Maintenance, Church Extension Redevelopment, and Church Extension Salary Endowment funds using the rate of the conference interest bearing checking account, compounded monthly, on monthly average balances held by the Conference treasurer.
- J. Retroactive adjustments for transfer or posting delays will be made to the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Fund accounts for earnings calculations.
- K. Funds in excess of operational needs for the Board of Pensions and the Insurance fund are invested in the United Methodist Foundation.
- L. In order to prevent a loss of funds due to investment risk, and in order to have funds available for emergency use, the goal of the Council is to maintain reserve funds equal to 10% of the conference operating budget. Both cash reserves, realized, and unrealized gains/losses shall be considered as a part of the 10% reserve goal. Funds in excess of cash requirements shall be invested in the United Methodist Foundation in proportion to the percent of reserves on hand.
- M. CFA Meeting Schedule: The executive committee meets at the call of the President. Scheduled meetings are:
June 1994: There may be a called meeting in conjunction with Annual Conference if necessary to elect officers or conduct other business.
September 7, 1994: An optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the President.
November 9, 1994: A joint CFA/COM budget hearing. The purpose of this hearing is to receive a report from boards and agencies on funds spent and requested funds for future programs and activities.
December 7, 1994: To consider apportionment matters and supplemental appropriations for salaries.
February 1, 1995: To consider the operating budget for the current year. All payments on apportionments are due to the Treasurer by mid January. A report of receipts, amounts allocated to the budgeted boards and agencies, and supplemental appropriations are decided at the meeting.
March 1, 1995: To consider the budget to be recommended to Annual Conference which will be raised in the subsequent year and spent in the year following that. Additionally, the CFA policy recommendations to the Annual Conference are adopted.
- N. Dates to Remember:
July 18, 1994: Apportionments sent to the Districts.
December 30, 1994: General Church remittances must be received in the Treasurer's Office by 8:30 A.M. in order to receive credit for 1994.

January 10, 1995: Annual Conference remittances must be received by 8:30 A.M. in order to receive credit for 1994.

January 13, 1995: Requests for supplemental appropriations for the 1995 operating budget due in the treasurer's office.

January 31, 1995: Tables I and II due to the Conference statistician.

February 19, 1995: Requests for the 1997 budget, to be adopted at the 1995 Annual Conference, due in the treasurer's office.

VII. CUMULATIVE PENSION AND BENEFIT FUND, and BASIC PROTECTION PLAN

A. GENERAL

1. The lay employee's supervisor is responsible for making lay employees aware of these rules and procedures. Detailed information on the CPBF and the BPP is available from the treasurer's office. Supervisors will have lay employees who are eligible for these benefits contact the treasurer's office 60 days before they are eligible for participation, or sign a waiver form if they decline to participate in the CPBF and the BPP. The form will be kept on file in the treasurer's office for future reference.
2. The Conference treasurer's office will administer the CPBF and the BPP.
3. Contributions will be withheld from the employees pay and remitted to the General Board of Pensions by the treasurer's office.

B. CUMULATIVE PENSION AND BENEFIT FUND (CPBF)

1. The lay employee must be full time (at least 25 hours per week).
2. The lay employee must be an employee for 1 continuous year before becoming eligible for CPBF.
3. The conference contribution will be the same percent as it is for clergy (currently 12%).
4. The lay employee's required contribution will be the same percent as it is for clergy (currently 3%). The penalty for not making the contribution will be the same as it is for clergy.
5. Participants in the CPBF must be participants in the BPP.

C. BASIC PROTECTION PLAN

1. Participants in the BPP must be participants in the CPBF.
2. The conference contribution will be the plan document required amount less the lay employee's required contribution.
3. The lay employee's required contribution will be the same ratio as it is for clergy.

William C. Simpson, Jr., President

INSURANCE, COMMITTEE ON

I. Group Term Life Insurance

- A. The current life insurance program is provided by Blue Cross Blue Shield Medical Life.
- B. Our coverage is $25,000 for active participants, $12,500 for retired clergy up to age 72; $2,500 for clergy over age 72. Benefits for any clergy retiring prior to 1978 remain at $5,000. Current spouse and child coverage is $10,000 per person. The spouse's insurance terminates at age 65 or upon retirement of the subscriber, whichever comes first. Accidental Death and Dismemberment is provided to active participants in amounts equal to current life coverage but does not cover retirees, spouses, or children.
- C. The monthly premium for single coverage will be $12.50. The monthly premium for family coverage will be $15.00.

TOTAL BENEFITS PAID	$105,500.00

II. Blue Cross/Blue Shield

A. General

1. The Insurance Committee mails the health insurance proposal to the delegates immediately before each Annual Conference session. The rapid escalation in health care costs makes planning difficult. The committee considers the financial information that is available through April 28 before adopting their recommendations.
2. Insurance companies who make inquiries, for the purpose of submitting proposals, will be notified of a $200 processing fee. This fee will help cover the costs of preparation and processing of the information necessary for proposals.
3. Health Screening will be sponsored by the Insurance Committee on a biannual basis. The Insurance Committee encourages everyone to take advantage of this service in 1994. For each subscriber in the Conference plan who participates in the health screening, the Insurance Committee will donate $2.00 for handicapped camperships.
4. The Insurance Committee is made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2, Board of Pension and Health Benefits; 2, Commission on Health and Human Services; 2, Joint Committee on Disability; 2, Board of Ordained Ministry; 1, Board of Diaconal Ministry; 1, Board of Laity; 1, Conference Treasurer (without vote); 1, Director of Ministerial Relations (without vote). The representative should be elected at the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies.

B. Policy and Rules

1. The extent of the benefits provided by the insurance coverage is decided by Annual Conference action. Administrative rules and rates are adopted by the Insurance Committee. The specific carrier for insurance coverage is selected by the Insurance Committee.
2. Beginning January 1, 1994, the insurance plan will adopt a Preferred Provider Organization system with Blue Cross Blue Shield. Benefits will be paid at 90% for preferred hospitals and 70% for non-participating hospitals. Participants under the Medicare Supplement will not be affected by this change. Details may be obtained from the Treasurer's office.
3. Beginning January 1, 1994, the yearly maximum benefit for out-patient psychiatric services will be increased to $6000. all other nervous and mental services will remain the same.

4. Beginning January 1, 1994, eligible clergy will receive disability coverage through the Basic Protection Plan of the General Board of Pensions. This benefit will equal 20% of the DAC. This benefit will be in addition to the 40% of the DAC now covered under CPP.
5. Pre-admission certification is required for in-patient hospital services. Contact Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC at 1-800-672-7897. Contact Blue Cross Blue Shield within 48 hours following an emergency admission. A brochure outlining the details of this program is available from the Treasurer's office. Subscribers covered by the Medicare Supplement are not subject to pre-certification.
6. The penalty for failing to obtain pre-certification of in-patient hospital admissions will be as follows: The co-payment rate for in-hospital charges will be increased from 20% to 50% for non-certified days.
7. When an active subscriber reaches age 65 (clergy or lay), he/she should sign up for the Medicare program. As long as he/she is actively employed, there is no change in benefits. Medicare is the secondary carrier until retirement. At the time of retirement, the participant must be enrolled in Medicare parts A & B to be eligible for the Medicare Supplement.
8. The Insurance Committee provides an appeal process for any participant who feels that claims have not been adequately satisfied. A written appeal with all pertinent information should be made to the Insurance Committee chairperson with a copy to the Conference Treasurer.
9. A service fee of 1.5% per month for delinquent accounts is charged to help defray the cost of paying premiums for churches making late payments.
10. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Clergy personal checks cannot be accepted as payment for the church's portion. The life insurance premium is paid by the church/charge.
11. Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.
12. When there is a change of address, or a change in family status, it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-849-4433 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.
13. Health insurance for the subscriber may continue for 90 days after employment is terminated or credentials are surrendered provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.
14. Laypersons or clergy on maternity leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.
15. The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums. Insurance payments which are 60 days late (from the date of the bill) will result in termination of benefits. Termination will take place on the last day of the month in which the 60th day has occurred. Benefits may be reinstated without lapse in coverage if full payment is made within 30 days of the termination date. Thereafter, insurance coverage may be reinstated upon full payment and coverage will be effective the first day of the following month. The one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply to all reinstatements where a lapse in coverage occurs.
16. Clergy or laypersons who choose not to join the group within 30 days of becoming eligible, or clergy, or laypersons who choose to terminate their coverage in the group, shall be required to submit in writing 2 years in advance, a request to re-enroll in the group. Adding family members or changing the type of coverage while enrolled is not subject to this rule. A one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions after enrollment will continue to be required. Appeals to the two-year rule will be heard by the Insurance Committee on an individual basis.

17. Eligible students are excluded from the two-year rule, but not the one-year pre-existing period. An exception to this rule would be possible (by 2/3 vote of the Insurance Committee) when a subscriber is transferring from another insurance plan to the Conference plan.
18. At the time of retirement, clergy become eligible for coverage under the Board of Pensions group insurance plan currently administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC. The two-year rule does not apply to a retiring clergy who wishes to obtain coverage through this plan.
19. In case of termination of coverage, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.

III. Statement of Intent

The NC Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired clergy. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

IV. Eligibility Policies

Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to:

- A. Clergy who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary members, associate members, student local clergy, part-time local clergy, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full time or part-time under appointment in:
 1. One of the churches or charges of the NC Conference.
 2. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
 3. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
 - (a) Clergy shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, the two-year rule and a one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply before re-establishing the health insurance coverage.
 - (b) Clergy shall be responsible for payment of all health insurance premiums by the due date.
 4. Clergy eligible for life and health insurance through the Conference are entitled to these benefits.
- B. Clergy on Leave of Absence provided that a written request to continue the coverage shall be filed with the Conference treasurer within 30 days after the beginning of the leave of absence.
- C. Lay Employees:
 1. Each local church must have at least 75% participation of the eligible lay employees to participate in the Conference plan. Those churches who currently have less than 75% participation will be allowed to continue their current coverage of lay employees now under the Conference plan. Diaconal Ministers are not subject to this rule.
 2. The employee must work a minimum of 25 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment - this period being within 30 days of date of hire. The two-year rule applies to late applicants with a one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.

3. The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for clergy.

V. 1994 Health Insurance Rates

$250 Deductible/$750 Out-of-Pocket

	1994 Rates	1995 Rates%	% Inc/Dec	Annual Costs
Church Portion	$378.10	$415.91	10.00%	$4,990.92
Single Portion	$49.46	$54.41	10.00%	$652.92
Parent/Child	$91.56	$100.72	10.00%	$1,208.64
Family Portion	$126.03	$138.63	10.00%	$1,663.56
Medicare Supp.	$124.16	$131.43	5.86%	$1,577.16

The Insurance Committee is grateful to the members of the Annual Conference for the support it receives as the Committee strives to provide the best possible health and life insurance benefits.

MINISTERS' MOVING EXPENSE, COMMITTEE ON

Effective Date - January 1, 1995

The Ministers' Moving Expense Committee met to study moving expense needs and policies.

The Committee makes the following recommendations.

- i. Eligibility
 - A. Pastors of local churches continuing under appointment to local churches within the Conference, district superintendents, and Conference ministerial staff whose salaries are paid from the Conference treasurer's office.
 - B. Pastors in section I.A. who become Conference Evangelists upon moving from an appointment to new residence. Their moving expense to return to any of the above categories will also be paid.
 - C. Pastors in section I.A. who retire from serving appointment or who assume approved disability leave or return into active service from approved disability leave.
 - D. Widows or widowers of ministers in section I.A. upon moving from place of appointment to new residence.
 - E. Pastors moving into an appointment in the North Carolina Conference to assume full-time or student appointments under section I.A.
 - F. Interim Supply pastors
 - G. Persons moving who are not defined above will not be eligible to make claim.
- ii. Payment of Claims
 - A. Payment will be granted to all who are eligible to make claims as follows:
 1. Active ministers in section I.A., I.B., and I.F. (except retiring ministers, widows, widowers, and clergy couples) will receive a base payment of $125.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,100.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expense.
 2. Retiring ministers, widows, or widowers will receive a base payment of $125.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,780.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. The retirement amount may be granted upon request when taking disability leave in lieu of receiving the retirement benefit at retirement.
 3. Clergy couples will receive a base payment of $250.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,200.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. If only one minister of the clergy couple is re-appointed, section II.A.1. will apply.

- B. Travel Allowance: An allowance of $1.00 per mile will be granted to all who are eligible to make claim. The mileage will be computed from appointment to appointment, or from the appointment to the Conference boundary, or the appointment to the residence/Conference boundary (in case of retirement) whichever is less. Clergy couples will receive $1.00 per mile as defined above.
 - C. The Conference treasurer will make payment to eligible ministers as soon as the district superintendents have received the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist properly signed along with all appropriate receipts to substantiate expenses. This will fulfill the 1992 Discipline, ¶1270.2f(4), which states "The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and pastor shall make an annual review of the church owned parsonage(s) to assure proper maintenance." The district superintendent may have moving expense funds withheld by the Conference treasurer if the district superintendent determines that the parsonage was inadequately cleaned or was damaged beyond normal wear and tear. If an inspection by the district superintendent and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee or the Parsonage Committee reveals monetary needs for cleaning or repairs, the remaining balance of the moving expense due said pastor shall be made payable to the respective district to pay for needed cleaning or repairs. If the district superintendent or the moving pastor is NOT in agreement with said Pastor-Parish Relations Committee or the Parsonage Committee, the superintendent may request the Arbitration Committee of the Clergy Living Committee to inspect the parsonage involved and give an impartial recommendation.
 - D. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to $600.00 to eligible ministers to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendents. Any money that is left over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer.
 - E. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district, or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.
 - F. The base payment of $125.00 is intended to cover incidental moving expenses. Therefore, the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, boats, mobile homes, etc., are not eligible for reimbursement.
- III. Review Committee
- A. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference treasurer, and the director of Ministerial Relations.
 - B. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

MISSION AND SERVICE GIVING, TASK FORCE ON HISTORY

This Task Force originated in the work of the Into the 21st Century Committee and was approved by action of the 1992 Annual Conference:

"The bishop shall name a long-range mission and service giving task force which will bring to the 1994 annual conference session a ten-year plan for the years 1996-2005.

1. Consider in this plan how members of local congregations can gain an increased sense of ownership in the connectional ministries they support through conference mission and service giving.
2. The task force shall determine whether or not the apportionment formula is equitable, and shall recommend to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CF&A) adjustments as necessary.
3. The task force should examine current levels of giving for the support of colleges, retirement facilities, children's home ministries and camps to determine if amounts contributed by the Conference can be lessened over time without harm to their function and mission.
4. Any anticipated requests for conference-wide fund-raising will be considered in the development of the ten-year mission and service giving plan.
5. The task force should consider issues related to pension funding and health insurance cost in its study." [p. 357, 1992 Journal]

Two additional assignments were referred to this Task Force:

6. The 1993 Annual Conference referred the following to this Task Force:
Peele Motion: Luther M. (Billy) Peele, Jr. moved "That Conference CF&A be directed to adjust the formula for computing Outreach Ministries Fair Share for each local church by deducting the current amount designated as 'Minimum Salary' from the total monies spent after the other approved deductions have been made." The motion includes in the exclusionary amount the salary paid up to the amount of the equitable salary amount.
Motion to Refer: Rufus H. Stark II proposed a motion to refer. After discussion of the substitute motion, Stark proposed that a model be run on the proposed adjustment based on the Peele Amendment and that it be presented by Friday. It was concluded that this could not be done within the time frame given. Stark moved "that the Peele Amendment be referred for consideration by the Task Force on Mission and Service Giving so that they may run a computer model of the formula proposed by Brother Peele and that the results of the formula be reported to the 1994 Conference for consideration." [pp.142-43, 1993 Journal]
7. In September 1993, Bishop C.P. Minnick, Jr. asked the Task Force to provide local congregations with clarification as to how the NC Conference demonstrates fiscal responsibility and how administrative/operational costs are kept as low as possible.

Abbreviated Summary of Recommendations

(This summary is offered for your reference. It should not be considered an integral part of the Task Force Report.)

1. Establish an ongoing educational process for all pastors about mission and service giving. (See DEFINING THE ISSUES, Item 1))
2. Conduct annual training events to inform laity about mission and service giving. (See DEFINING THE ISSUES, Item 2)
3. Present the budget to the Conference in a format which can be easily understood by local churches using categories commonly used in local church budgets (eg. missions, program, salaries, building, indebtedness, etc.). (See DEFINING THE ISSUES, Item 3)
4. CF&A shall make every effort to recommend a "zero increase" budget to the Conference whenever payments on apportionments in the previous year fall below 85%. (See Section I.4)
5. Consider it a standard policy that anyone representing the NC Conference in local churches requests and receives advance information about the local church to be visited. (See Section I.5)
6. Require Conference Staff and Pastors to report annually on the specific instances in which they have assisted local church members in understanding connectional ministry. (See Section I.6)

7. Design and distribute a table for use by local churches to compare their budget distribution with that of other churches. (See Section I.7)
8. Continue the current apportionment formula for now, but ask CF&A to find a simpler formula or way of presenting the apportionments. (See Section II)
9. No Conference-wide capital fund campaigns are recommended for five years. (See Section III)
10. Continue pensions and insurance allocations as done currently. (See Section IV)
11. Peele/Stark Motion not supported. (See Section V)
12. Significant fiscal responsibility evidenced. (See Section VI)

BACKGROUND/ANALYSIS

The NC Conference is not alone in searching for ways to increase ownership and support for shared ministries and connexional expenses. A review of the actions of Annual Conferences across the nation reveals similar concerns.

NC Conference churches paid a total of 87.2% toward apportionments* for Mission and Service Giving in 1993. The percent of the total paid has been declining since 1987; however, the 1993 dollar amount paid on apportionments is an increase of 2.4% over the 1992 amount paid on apportionments and represents a significant reversal of previous trends. (See Apportioned/Paid Graph, Exhibit A)

DEFINING THE ISSUES

1. Of the 839 NC Conference churches, 542 paid 100% of the 1993 apportioned* amounts of the shared ministries and connexional expenses. A perception exists, however, that there is declining commitment, or decreased desire, to be a connexional church. While this is obviously a minority phenomenon this perception does manifest itself at times as resistance to participation in the connection by some congregations and some pastors. This attitude seems to stem more from the process of apportionments and a lack of understanding of the apportionment formula than from the purposes for which Mission and Service Giving funds are generated - or from the amounts requested. This is demonstrated by the fact that special offerings, special appeals, and capital funds appeals often equal or exceed the amounts apportioned.
2. Similarly, a perception exists that Conference expenses are overbalanced toward administrative expenses and salaries. This is simply not true. The 1992 Expenditures Comparison Graph and Table on page 12 show that the Conference budget is considerably less salary-weighted and more missional than the expenditure averages of local churches.
3. Informative materials and persons to interpret Mission and Service Giving are readily available, yet significant numbers of local church members report that they "have never seen" those materials or heard the process explained clearly. When questions persist among clergy and laity such as, "Why do we use the number of members to figure apportionments?", despite the fact that membership has not been used to calculate apportionments for over 30 years, it is clear that communication has been woefully inadequate. This may also point to a lack of informed and connexionally committed pastoral leadership.
4. Lack of communication may also suggest that the available materials are not used or are not in a form (language, format) which is conducive to their use by local churches.
5. Some pastors and churches claim "undue pressure" to pay apportionments in full is placed upon them by district superintendents. This sometimes creates an "us" and "them" dynamic between local churches and the Conference, local churches and the district superintendent, or the local church and the pastor.
6. Many local church members do not seem to understand or appreciate the fact that "connexional ministry" means that every local church is a member of the NC Annual Conference and is represented by laity in the decision-making process.

THE PLAN OF THE TASK FORCE

This Task Force was asked to present a ten-year plan; however, the pace of social, political and economic change dictates that plans beyond five years are not considered to be prudent. Therefore, these recommendations are projected for a five-year period. A similar Task Force may be constituted in 1999 if conditions warrant.

RESPONSE TO SPECIFIC TASKS ASSIGNED TO THE TASK FORCE

I. HOW TO INCREASE THE SENSE OF OWNERSHIP IN MISSION AND SERVICE GIVING

General Recommendations: In considering how members of local congregations can gain an increased sense of ownership in connectional mission and service giving, the Task Force believes that the following perspectives are essential to accomplish the task:

- A. Creating a climate, attitude, and process by which local church members gain an increased understanding of the value of shared ministry.
- B. Increasing the awareness of local church members of the missional character of connectional ministry and the vital part each local church can have in that shared mission.
- C. Expressing the Conference mission as an extension of the ministry of local churches.
- D. Using language for Conference mission and service giving which communicates clearly in terms easily understood by local churches and pastors.

Specific Recommendations related to Task #1:

1. Beginning in 1995, establish an ongoing educational process for all pastors to insure that they are informed about the missional character of the Conference and are able to interpret the Conference budget and apportionment process. The responsibility for the development of this process is to be a shared responsibility of the Cabinet, the CF&A, and relevant Conference staff representatives. The Cabinet is to take the initiative.
2. Beginning in 1996, conduct annual (e.g., Conference-wide, tri-district, district) training events to assist laity in better understanding the structure of The/United Methodist Church, to better inform them of the Conference budget and apportionment process, and to emphasize the importance of the missional character of connectional ministry. These events are to be planned and implemented by the Commission on the Laity, the Cabinet, the CF&A, and relevant Conference staff representatives. The Commission on the Laity is to take the initiative.
3. Beginning in 1996, the Conference CF&A and the Committee on Communications are to compile and distribute the adopted budget to local churches in a format which can be easily understood, showing missional items prominently, clearly, concisely.
4. By 1996, the CF&A shall make every effort to limit the proposed Conference budget to a zero percent increase whenever payments on apportionments in the previous year fall below 85%. [For example: If payments on apportionments in 1995 are less than 85%, CF&A, within constraints set by the General Church and/or the Annual Conference, shall make every effort to present to the 1996 Annual Conference a budget (for 1998, to be raised in 1997) that shows a zero percent increase or is as close thereto as possible.]
5. Consider it a standard policy, beginning with this Annual Conference, that persons representing the NC Conference in local churches request and receive advance information about the local church to be visited, so that they can better communicate to that local church an awareness of its ministries, strengths and challenges. Evaluation questionnaires for local church response to a visit by a Conference representative are to be developed by the CCOM.

These evaluations are to be returned to and compiled by the relevant Conference department as feedback to improve future local church contacts. No later than December 31, 1994, the District Superintendents shall call the pastors and appropriate lay members of local churches in their districts which have been visited by a representative of the NC Conference to determine the effectiveness of the visit and to inquire as to how that visit could have been improved. This information is to be shared with relevant Conference department heads by March 1, 1995.

6. Encourage pastors, Conference staff, and trained laity to take every opportunity to inform local church members about The United Methodist Church, its structure, and missional character. Specifically:
 - a. Conference staff, especially when in local churches, should emphasize how local churches and staff members are part of a "connected" ministry throughout the world. In their annual evaluations, staff are required to report specific instances in which they have assisted local church members in understanding connectional ministry. These reports are to be directed to their respective department head.
 - b. Pastors are required to report specific instances in which they have assisted local church members in understanding the connectional ministry. These reports are to be made to their respective District Superintendents in conjunction with the pastor's annual evaluation.
 - c. Reports from pastors are to be compiled in each district by the District Superintendent. Staff reports are to be compiled by the CCOM Director, Administrative Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Ministerial Relations, or Conference Treasurer. A sampling of these reports is to be formulated into a summary report by a superintendent selected by the Cabinet and distributed to CF&A and Conference department heads. Helpful models are to be shared in each Charge Conference by District Superintendents as examples which can be used by local churches in their ongoing missional communications.
7. Request that by June of 1996, the CF&A design and distribute a table for use by local churches to compare their expenditures with those of other churches. This table should include a listing of low, average, and high amounts spent for administration, building operations, mortgages, mission giving, programs, and salaries.

II. THE EQUITABLENESS OF THE CURRENT APPORTIONMENT FORMULA

Analysis: There seems to be a perception among many churches, small and large, that the apportionment formula places an excessive burden on their church. After careful consideration and review of the various methods used by Annual Conferences across the nation, the Task Force believes the current formula is fair and equitable. While the current formula is fair and equitable - and fulfills the biblical injunction of expecting more from those who are able to do more, it does have two specific negative qualities: 1) it is somewhat complicated, and therefore, confusing, and 2) it is sometimes perceived as creating a "penalty" for doing a good job.

Recommendation: Therefore, it is recommended that CF&A seek to devise a simpler formula or way of presenting the apportionments, including consideration of a straight percentage formula based on expenses or funds raised. CF&A is to report their considerations and recommendations to the 1996 NC Annual Conference.

III. ANTICIPATED CONFERENCE-WIDE FUND RAISING

Analysis: The last two Conference-wide fund-raising campaigns were for pension support (1978) and church extension and camp improvements and additions (1988). This does not include campaigns conducted privately by the retirement and children's homes, or colleges.

Recommendation: That the Conference operate on a pay-as-you-go basis with no Conference-wide capital fund campaigns planned or conducted before 1997.

IV. PENSION FUNDING AND HEALTH INSURANCE FACTORS

Analysis: The NC Annual Conference funds a defined benefit pension plan for clergy with service prior to January 1, 1982. The plan pays a set amount per year of service rendered. The per service year rate (1994) is $320. (For example, a pastor retiring with 40 years of pension credit prior to January 1, 1982 receives a pension of $12,800.) Since the Conference has inadequately funded this plan, an unfunded liability of approximately $27,000,000 has accrued. Approximately $10,000,000 is on reserve with the Methodist Foundation, Inc. leaving a net unfunded liability of approximately $17,000,000. The Conference, upon recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions and CF&A, approved a payment plan in 1990 to fund this liability on a pay-as-you-go basis. In order to do so, it is necessary to increase the line item for unfunded liability in the amount of $200,000 per year through the year 2012. The unfunded liability must be paid in full by the year 2021. There will be a $300,000 increase in the year 2013. The net change from 2014 through 2021 will be variable and will result in a net decrease below the level in the year 2013. Following the payment of the unfunded liability in 2021, the contributions needed to fund the pension of those retirees with service prior to 1982 will decrease sharply and will continue to do so until the termination of the plan when the final pastor and/or spouse with pre-1982 service has deceased. In 1982 the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), a defined contribution pension program, was established by The UMC. The preceding analysis is based on the assumption of an annual 5% increase on the per service year rate and an earning of 9% per annum on pension funds invested with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. and the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The UMC. The Conference provides health insurance through a self-insured plan for the active and retired pastors. Premiums for the retired pastors and spouses are paid by the Conference Board of Pensions.

Recommendation: That the Conference continue to operate on a pay-as-you-go basis regarding pensions and retiree health benefits.

V. COMPUTER MODEL EXCLUDING EQUITABLE SALARIES (Peele/Stark motions to the 1993 Annual Conference)

Analysis: The computer model of the Peele/Stark motion was generated after all 1994 apportionment calculations were complete. The lower of average net disbursements or 1992 net disbursements (hereinafter called "net disbursements") is the amount on which all apportionments are calculated. It is the net of all exclusions listed in the apportionment formula and is the starting point for the computer model. The Peele motion requires that minimum salary be deducted from the net disbursements. Since no church could have an apportionment less than zero, all churches having net disbursements equal to or less than minimum salary are excluded. The minimum salary for 1993 is $23,396.

The Task Force found the following results if applied to our 839 churches:

- 463 churches would have no apportionment.
- 231 churches would have a decrease in apportionments.
- 145 churches would have an increase in apportionments.

The Task Force found the following for the 145 churches which would receive an increase:

- Their 1992 net disbursements are all greater than $60,500.
- 67 churches have 1992 net disbursements between $60,500 and $100,000.
- 78 churches have 1992 net disbursements over $100,000.
- These 145 churches would be assigned 83.45% of all apportionments.
- These 145 churches would be assigned apportionments ranging from 35% to 56% of their 1992 net disbursements.

- These 145 churches would experience up to a 120% increase in apportionments above the 1994 apportionment.

Conclusion: The computer model of the Peele/Stark motion shows that apportionments would be allocated only to large and medium-size churches.

Recommendation: The Task Force does not recommend this motion for implementation for the following reasons:

- a) The concept of connectionalism should encourage all churches to participate in the mission of the total church through apportionments.
- b) The motion would result in an unrealistic and unfair financial burden on too few churches.
- c) The apportionment formula is intended to be a fair and equitable distribution of the financial responsibility among all churches.

VI. FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY BY THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

In reviewing Conference financial policies and activities, the Task Force has found significant evidence of fiscal responsibility in both preparation and implementation of the budget. Some examples of this responsibility and related savings in administrative or operational costs include the following:

- A. The NC Conference policy of raising most of its monies one year to support the following year's budget is the envy of other Annual Conferences. This policy results in investment earnings which help reduce apportionments. It also controls expenditures by prorating most budgeted items to the actual percentage paid. Thus the Conference does not practice deficit spending.
- B. The budgeting process each year is well-defined with open participation by everyone involved. For example, in developing the 1996 Budget the CCOM began with a zero base rather than simply increasing line items by a set percentage, thereby achieving reductions in most line items. Then, as the budget progressed through committees to the full CCOM, further adjustments were made to present a budget request lower than that of 1995. Other entities, such as the Board of Pensions and Treasurer's Office, worked in a similar manner to present to the CF&A the lowest budget request possible. CF&A then made further refinements to present to Annual Conference a 1996 Budget showing a modest 3.97% increase over 1995.
- C. The Conference has an 800 number for long distance calls to the Methodist Building. The annual cost is $15,000 to $20,000, depending on usage. The WATS line represents greater savings to local churches than the cost of the service. In addition, the Conference negotiates with carriers for the best rates available.
- D. Staff positions for the CCOM, the Treasurer's Office, and other offices within the Methodist Building are evaluated annually for need and effectiveness. In 1993-1994, this evaluation process resulted in the reorganization of staff functions and made possible the elimination of the equivalent of two and one half staff positions--one and one half in the Council on Ministries staff and one in the Treasurer's Office. Annual staff salary increases are related to the average Conference-wide increase for pastors, thereby linking staff salary increases to those in local churches.
- E. Staff travel is by voucher for miles driven and sometimes results in less per year than the amount a person might receive for travel in a local church. While travel for staff and for attendance at commission, board, and agency meetings is reimbursed at the IRS established rate (CF&A policy), car pooling is encouraged to reduce costs. When staff use air travel, attempts are made to secure advance reservations or, when equitably possible, to remain over a Saturday night to qualify for lowest fares possible.
- F. Materials are often sent by coordinated mailing or are distributed to district offices and local churches by sending them with someone who is already going to that destination rather than by using the mail or a package service. Also, the Conference is in the process of obtaining equipment to enable bar coding and mail sorting, thereby qualifying for lower postage rates.

- G. Updates in computer hardware/software improve operational efficiency and savings on service and repairs. Having a full-time staff person in information management saves a considerable amount over what would be necessary if programming and service had to be accomplished by contracting with outside sources.
- H. Heating/air conditioning renovations in the Methodist Building have improved efficiency and have lowered annual operating costs.
- I. In recent years, the CCOM has leased printing and duplicating equipment. This reduced the need for large sums of money to purchase equipment. Lease payments are shared by Conference offices on a "paid for use" basis.

These examples of fiscal responsibility and cost-saving, along with others, reflect consistent attention to financial integrity and good stewardship of resources. The Task Force encourages the continuation of these policies and procedures regarding Conference finances.

NC CONFERENCE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR DEALING WITH CLERGY SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

Sexual misconduct is a violation of an individual's integrity. Such behavior is sinful, violates the teachings of the Church, and breaches the covenant relationships of marriage, ordination, and consecration. Scripture affirms that we are created in the image and likeness of God. To sin sexually against another through lust, harassment, or abuse degrades that God endowed dignity. Sexual misconduct is a behavior that represents the sinful and selfish use of God's good gifts through uncontrolled lust and/or the unjust use of power, by persons in positions of power and authority, to exploit persons who are vulnerable and helpless. We, as UM Christians, believe that sexual misconduct is dehumanizing and should not be tolerated.

PURPOSE

The following policies and procedures are intended to provide guidance to the local churches, Cabinet, and clergy and diaconal ministers of the NC Annual Conference regarding cases of sexual misconduct. It is hoped that the existence of such a policy, including procedures for complaints, will clarify sexual misconduct issues and serve as a deterrent against inappropriate behavior. This policy applies to the representative ministry of ordained and diaconal ministers and local pastors. The intended purpose of the policy is to describe and, under the provisions of the Book of Discipline, explain The UMC's approach to sexual misconduct by ordained and diaconal ministers. Incidents governed by civil law as opposed to church law are not addressed in this policy. It is recommended that local churches develop policies to address the civil law aspects of sexual misconduct by non-appointed staff or volunteers.

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION

As a community of disciples of Jesus Christ, one of our continuing tasks is to understand ourselves and our lives theologically. We act, as the Church, not in response to cultural norms nor out of fear. We act out of our convictions about God and God's claim on us. These affirmations inform us as we respond to and pastorally care for persons who may be involved in sexual misconduct among us.

We affirm, first, that God is the creator of life and that all persons, male and female, are created in the Divine image.

We believe that God was incarnate in Jesus of Nazareth. The Word became flesh and we have witnessed the glory of God in human form.

We believe that the body is the temple of the Holy Spirit and a good part of the divine creation. Thus, we may affirm with the Social Principles of The UMC

"...that sexuality is God's good gift to all persons. We believe persons may be fully human only when this gift is acknowledged and affirmed by themselves, the Church, and society. We call all persons to the disciplined, responsible fulfillment of themselves, others, and society in the stewardship of this gift... Although all persons are sexual beings whether or not they are married, sexual relations are only clearly affirmed in the marriage bond. Sex may become exploitative within as well as outside marriage. We reject all sexual expressions which damage or destroy the humanity God has given us as a birthright, and we affirm only that sexual expression which enhances that same humanity...." (The Book of Discipline, 1992, ¶ 71)

We confess that sin is a reality in human life - corporate and individual. Violation of the pastoral relationship by sexual misconduct is an expression of sin against God and a breach in the covenant relationship with God, the victim, and the faith community.

We believe in the forgiveness of sins. The church exists as a community of forgiven and reconciled people whose mission, empowered by the Holy Spirit, is to embody God's redemptive love as seen in Jesus Christ.

Central to our understanding of the mission of the Church is the conviction that our ministry is derived from and grounded in the ministry of Christ, the incarnate Word. All Christians are called to ministries of service and grace. Yet, from its inception, the Church has set apart from its members, people of particular gifts and graces for the representative ministry of the Church. Such persons must

"...for the sake of the mission of Jesus Christ in the world and the most effective witness of the Christian gospel, and in consideration of (their) influence as an ordained minister, be willing to make a complete dedication of (themselves) to the highest ideals of the Christian life...." (The Book of Discipline, 1992, ¶ 431.6)

This standard is lived out in the covenant relationship between the clergy and diaconate and the Church, as well as by the connectional covenant which exists in our UIM tradition. As clergy and diaconal ministers, our covenant with the Church is to:

"Nurture and cultivate spiritual disciplines and patterns of holiness....

"Be committed to and engage in leading the ministry of the whole Church in loving service to humankind....

"Be persons in whom the community can place trust and confidence.

"Be persons who accept the authority of Scripture and are competent in the disciplines of Scripture, theology, church history, and church polity, and in the understanding and practice of the art of communication and human relations.

"Be accountable to The UMC, accept its discipline and authority, abide by the demands of the special relationship of its ordained ministers, and be faithful to their vows as ordained ministers of the Church of God." (The Book of Discipline, 1992, ¶ 431)

Such a covenant relationship places upon the representative ministry a responsibility for the emotional, spiritual, and physical protection of persons who come to them for counsel or help, or over whom they have authority. Breach of this protective relationship is unethical and abusive. Recognizing that clergy and diaconal ministers often deal with individuals who are spiritually, emotionally, or psychologically fragile, or personally vulnerable, it is imperative that these ministers be spiritually, emotionally, and psychologically healthy. Further, it is imperative that they have adequate preparation and education for helping those individuals under their care and that they have adequate supervision to deal with the inherent risks caused by dependency or transference.

Further, in The UIM heritage, clergy and diaconal ministers are bound to one another in a ministerial covenant in the Annual Conference - a covenant of mutual responsibility and trust. To honor the ministerial covenant, representative ministers, having knowledge of a colleague's sexual misconduct, should confront that colleague with love and concern. These ministers have a responsibility to report knowledge of sexual misconduct to a district superintendent or the Bishop. At the same time, care should be taken neither to judge the validity of a reported grievance nor to gossip about such a grievance. The matter should be treated in the strictest confidence in order to ensure due and fair process and to assure that the least possible additional harm is done to the victim(s).

DEFINITIONS OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Sexual misconduct is any sexual behavior that violates the standards of our Church and takes advantage of the vulnerability of a parishioner, client, church staff member, colleague, student (adult, youth, child) or any other person. Such misconduct attacks the integrity of another person and may cause that person to engage in sexual activity with that clergy or diaconal minister.

Sexual misconduct exploits and violates another person's emotional, physical, and spiritual well-being. In cases where the parishioner, client, employee, student, or any other person initiates the sexual activity, it is the responsibility of the representative minister to maintain the professional boundaries of the relationship.

Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to:

1. Illicit Sexual Intercourse: both pre-marital and extra-marital

2. Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment is not exclusively a sexual issue. It is an exploitation of a power relationship through verbal and/or physical sexual abusiveness, and includes any attempt to:
 - a. coerce a person into a sexual relationship;
 - b. subject a person to unwanted sexual attention;
 - c. create an offensive environment through sexual innuendos, jokes, and comments;
 - d. retaliate against one who refuses to comply.
3. Sexual Abuse: Sexual abuse is a sexual invasion of the body by force or without consent. It is a deliberate, degrading, and hostile attack upon another person's emotional, physical, and spiritual well-being. Sexual abuse includes, but is not limited to, the following: rape, sexual assault, incest, indecent exposure, statutory rape, involuntary or voluntary deviate sexual intercourse with a child, promotion of prostitution, pornography with children, indecent assault, and aggravated indecent assault.

PROCEDURES

Assumptions Underlying Procedures:

1. Persons accused of sexual misconduct are to be considered innocent until the accusation has been substantiated.
2. The protection of those involved, including the victim(s), the accused, and the accused's family, congregation, or institution, shall be maintained until all facts have been carefully considered and appropriate actions determined.
3. The purpose of reviews and procedures outlined here shall be reconciliation, restoration and the strengthening of the Church.

When Sexual Misconduct is Alleged

An allegation is an unsubstantiated, incriminatory statement, made either verbally or in writing. Before due process can proceed, an allegation must be brought to a district superintendent, or the Bishop, by the offended party, or by someone who has verifiable knowledge and may be willing to pursue a resolution. When sexual misconduct is alleged, procedures shall be followed as stipulated in The Book of Discipline, 1992, ¶ 454.

After a Complaint is Formally Filed

For Ordained Ministers and Local Pastors:

When a complaint is formally forwarded to the chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry (¶ 454.1):

1. The chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry shall forward the complaint to the Joint Review Committee. The chair shall forward a copy of the complaint by registered mail to the accused clergyperson within ten days of receipt by the chair.
2. The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, or appropriate personnel supervisory body, shall be informed of the nature of the charges and the process being followed.
 - a. In sharing the nature of the charges, care shall be taken to protect the victim(s).
 - b. The explanation of the charges involved shall be sufficiently complete to provide a clear understanding of the charges and to protect persons from further misconduct.
3. In unusual circumstances in order to protect the rights of the accused clergyperson, and to protect the aggrieved person and the congregation from possible further harm, the Bishop, Cabinet, and Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry may suspend the clergyperson from ministerial responsibilities for a period not to exceed sixty days. During this suspension, salary, housing, and benefits shall continue at the level provided on the date of suspension (454.1b). The clergyperson suspended retains all rights and privileges stated in ¶ 423.
4. The clergyperson is encouraged to use due process accorded him or her by the Joint Review Committee. However, throughout the process it is the right of the clergyperson to withdraw from membership in the Annual Conference under the provisions of ¶ 453.4. The credentials will be inscribed "withdrawn under complaint of sexual misconduct" by the Bishop and deposited with the secretary of the Annual Conference. This action shall be reported to the Board of Ordained Ministry for confirmation by the Executive Session of the Annual Conference at its next session.

5. The judicial process of The UMC for clergy includes:
 - a. Joint Review Process: The Joint Review Committee is charged with the responsibility of seeking a resolution of complaints brought against the clergy. Its duties and procedures are outlined in ¶ 454.1c of the 1992 Book of Discipline. The Joint Review Committee is not a trial procedure, but a hearing. Those against whom complaints are filed are urged to use this avenue of resolution.
 - b. Disposition of Complaints: If the complaint of sexual misconduct is substantiated, the Board of Ordained Ministry shall develop a response based on the report of the Joint Review Committee. The Board may recommend remedial action (see ¶ 454.1e), discontinuance, leave of absence, administrative location, termination, or dismiss the complaint. In rare instances, the complaint may be referred as charges to the Committee on Investigations for possible trial.

The Constitution of The UMC ensures clergypersons the right to trial if they so choose. The presumption of innocence shall be maintained until the conclusion of the trial process. Trial procedures are outlined in ¶ 2622-2628 of the 1992 Book of Discipline.

If the complaint of sexual misconduct is not substantiated, or a verdict of not guilty is returned by a trial court, it shall be noted in the clergyperson's permanent record in the Office of Ministerial Relations.

For Diaconal Ministers:

When a complaint is formally forwarded to the chair of the Board of Diaconal Ministry:

1. The chair shall forward the complaint to a Committee on Review made up of three (3) members of the conference Board of Diaconal Ministry. The chair shall forward a copy of the complaint by registered mail to the accused diaconal minister within ten days of the receipt by the chair.
2. The Committee on Review will be in consultation with the diaconal minister's district superintendent, pastor or representative of the employing agency, and, when s/he is employed by a local church, the Staff-Parish relations Committee of that church.
3. The Committee on Review shall receive from the chair of the conference Board of Diaconal ministry, all written complaints and seek resolution. If resolution is not achieved, the committee shall refer the complaint, in writing, with any recommendations to the conference Board of Diaconal Ministry.
4. When a complaint has been received by the Committee on Review, the Board of Diaconal Ministry shall develop a response based on the needs of the Church and the diaconal minister. The Board shall recommend to the Annual Conference either the dismissal of charges; involuntary termination; or remedial action, choosing from the following:
 - a. program of continuing education
 - b. personal leave (¶ 313.1d)
 - c. early retirement (¶ 313.2b)
 - d. study leave (¶ 313.1c)
 - e. personal counseling or therapy
 - f. program of career evaluation
 - g. voluntary termination by surrender of credentials (¶ 513.3c)
 - h. peer support and supervision
 - i. private reprimand: a letter signed by the chair of the conference Board of Diaconal Ministry and the diaconal minister's district superintendent, addressed to the diaconal minister, with a file copy in the permanent file of the Board of Diaconal Ministry. The letter shall state the appropriateness of the complaint, the specific remedial action recommended, and the conditions under which the letter shall be withdrawn from the file and destroyed.

5. In rare instances, following its review process, the Board of Diaconal Ministry may refer the complaint as charges to the Committee on Investigation for possible trial. The Board of Diaconal Ministry shall notify the diaconal minister, the bishop, and the district superintendent of any recommendation to prefer charges. The notice to the diaconal minister shall inform him/her of the right to elect trial or surrender credentials. If the diaconal minister chooses trial, the procedures are outlined in ¶2623.

Responsibilities for Children and Others

Special responsibility and care must be provided for children who are victim(s) of abuse and sexual misconduct. All cases of abuse and sexual misconduct against children must be reported to both ecclesiastical and civil authorities. The greatest care must be taken to protect the confidentiality and privacy of children involved so as to insure their reconciliation and healing process.

Others, beyond the principals involved, are victims of sexual misconduct. Families of the victim(s) as well as the family of the accused minister bear unique spiritual, emotional, and psychological stress during this process. The Bishop and district superintendent shall do all possible to see that pastoral care is provided to others who are victims of sexual misconduct by clergy.

Churches are urged to take the utmost care in the selection of adult workers with children and youth in any setting.

Records

When credentials have been surrendered, the Executive Session of the Annual Conference shall receive a report and a brief description of the complaints and the disposition of them.

Full information of alleged sexual misconduct and subsequent actions taken shall be kept in the clergyperson's permanent record in the Office of Ministerial Relations.

Such information shall be shared with the successor pastor and previous, present, and future Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, or appropriate personnel supervisory body, as is wise and necessary. Confidentiality among all those concerned is expected.

CONCLUSION

In these pages, you have found the position of the NC Annual Conference on Sexual Misconduct. The best solution to the problem caused by such action is the self-discipline of each clergy and diaconal minister. Such self-discipline takes Christian standards and ordination and consecration vows seriously.

Personal integrity, maturity, and professionally responsible conduct must be brought to all relationships by every representative minister in the conference. The highest professional counseling practice prohibits inappropriate sexual behavior. We are all expected by God to develop healthy personal relationships. When relational and sexual difficulties are present, counselling should be sought.

The victim is defined as the person who has been involved in sexual activity against his or her will by a representative minister of the Church. Can we say just "victim?" There are many victims - spouses, families, congregations, ministers who are appointed to the same work later, and friends in the ministry. The credibility and practice of the Christian faith and ministry are compromised. All of these victims are hurt when sexual misconduct has occurred.

Those who take the connectional covenant seriously and who value the vows of ordination and consecration will assume responsibility for the whole Church in the way that they live with their sexuality. We have been called and set apart to a special service and life. This paper intends to provide clear guidelines which can strengthen the covenant and the ministry that we share together.

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

Introduction: We, the members of the NC Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, are pleased and privileged to present to the clergy session of the NC Annual Conference our report for 1994.

Our board is a strong, representative body from the clergy and laity of this Annual Conference that wrestles constantly with its responsibilities outlined so carefully in The Book of Discipline, 1992 (§1733.2). These duties require the board to exercise strong care in its examination of candidates for ordination which is both fair and diligent, seeking always to encourage and sustain those in the process and to provide resources for growth with those already involved with ministry to local churches and other places of mission.

To provide this report, your Board of Ordained Ministry members have given seven (7) full days in meetings and interviews along with innumerable times for committee assignments. All of this is summarized in the names and recommendations found in this submission of our work for your approval.

The duties of the Board of Ordained Ministry include:

- 1) To assume the primary responsibility for the enlistment of ordained clergy, with due regard for the inclusive nature of the Church. It provides guidance for these persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.
- 2) To examine all applicants as to their fitness for ordained ministry and their election as
 - a) Full-time Local Pastors, b) Associate Members, c) Probationary Members, and d) Full Members of the Annual Conference.
- 3) To interview and report recommendations concerning a) students to be appointed to attend school, b) candidates for ordination as Deacon, and c) candidates for ordination as Elder.
- 4) To interview applicants and make recommendations concerning changes in ministerial relationships: Leaves of Absence, Retirement, Sabbatical Leaves, Disability Leaves, Less-than-Full-time appointments, and Readmission to or the termination of Conference membership.
- 5) To provide support services for the ordained minister's career development, including personal and career counseling, continuing education, assistance in preparation for retirement, and matters pertaining to ministerial morals.
- 6) To provide a means of evaluating the effectiveness of the clergy in the Annual Conference.
- 7) To interpret the high ethical standards of ministry as set forth in The Book of Discipline, 1992, and to study matters pertaining to character.
- 8) To administer the portion of the Ministerial Education Fund for use by the Annual Conference.

Our report last year reflected some optimism in a larger class of probationary members as compared to the previous year. Unfortunately, our ability to rejoice has been cut short this year with one of the smallest groups in recent years. Only nine (9) persons will be recommended for probationary membership, while our pastors requesting retirement number eighteen (18). Although ten (10) will be recommended for full membership, all are presently serving appointments and do not constitute any new persons available to reduce the gap being created not only by retirement but also by pastors taking a leave of absence, seeking location, transferring to other annual conferences, or surrendering their credentials.

Several reports published some ten years ago seemed to indicate that about this time we would be experiencing an oversupply of pastors for the churches that would be available. This condition may exist in some areas of our denomination and in others as well, but the past few years have seen the need to reach out to other areas of United Methodism and to other denominations to fill NC Conference appointments. Some have said that our problem lies in the abandonment of a strong enlistment program among our youth for all full-time positions in the church in music and education as well as ordained ministry. In years past, the challenge for full-time service was offered at camping experiences, in college campus ministries, and at many youth gatherings. In whatever way these calls to commitment are still being offered, the response is not what we need to continue providing ministries to our churches in these vital areas - pastoral ministry, education, and music.

Renewed encouragement by pastors and laity of those who express an interest in committing their lives to service in the ordained ministry is the particular focus of our board. Some new opportunities for that focus will be developed in the coming year, and we invite your support...for the future of our Church!

Various committee reports follow this introduction and are significant for the various areas of concern they address. All of this material, as well as our supportive services during the year, have been provided through the Office of Ministerial Relations under the leadership of Dr. Kermit L. Braswell, Robbie Barrett, and Lynn Jefferson. We are indebted to all three of these individuals for their excellent work and dedication to the Ordained Ministry of our Annual Conference.

REQUIREMENTS FOR MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry reminds the Annual Conference and the ministerial candidates preparing for membership relationships to the NC Annual Conference that several actions of past Annual Conference sessions have established requirements that go beyond the basic steps found in The Book of Discipline.

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED ON OR BEFORE JUNE, 1988

Local pastors in progress or serving prior to 1988 must complete at least the five-year Course of Study.

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED FROM 1989-1993

The Board requires that ministers having completed the basic five-year Course of Study continue to attend the Course of Study School in the summer, enrolling in at least four years of Advanced Studies during any six-year period. These courses, offered on a seminary level, would increase the competency of our Local Pastors (1980).

OR

It is required that they complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED IN 1994 AND FOLLOWING

It is required that they complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

The academic requirement is a four-year Baccalaureate degree from a college or university listed by the University Senate. (1974)

PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP

Each candidate must complete the following seminary level courses to be eligible for interview, effective June 1988:

1. A course in preaching that includes a practicum, laboratory, or field experience in the preparation, delivery, and evaluation of sermons.
2. A course in public worship that includes the theory, theology, and practice of planning and leading public worship.

FULL CONNECTION

Only those persons who have completed the M.Div. degree (or its equivalent) in seminary shall be elected to full membership (1975). Attention is called to the course requirements contained in ¶424.3c of The 1992 Book of Discipline. Candidates must complete the Methodism courses PRIOR to the interview:

1. United Methodist Polity
2. United Methodist Theology and Doctrine
3. A History of Methodism

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has as its primary responsibility the assisting of any clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference. Changes in conference relationship may occur in any of the following ways: 1) discontinuation, 2) leave of absence, 3) retirement, 4) sabbatical leave, 5) termination of conference relationship (surrender of credentials).

The Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in conference relationship upon the request of that person, or upon request of the Cabinet or the Board of Ordained Ministry. The committee attempts to determine what is appropriate in each case by posing questions, offering counsel, and providing support. The committee then discusses the request and acts upon it by making a recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In any event, the person requesting the change and the Conference Relations Committee acting on the request must follow the requirements in The Book of Discipline.

The Book of Discipline provides specific guidelines applying to each of the categories of conference membership. All those persons in the various categories of conference membership (other than the effective relationship) should remember to familiarize themselves with and adhere to the disciplinary guidelines which apply to that category. The Committee on Conference Relations issues a yearly reminder of these guidelines through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting. Following the appropriate guidelines is particularly important for clergy on leave of absence; for these persons, exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is held. The Conference Relations Committee would take this opportunity to reiterate that pastors on leave of absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (both geographical and membership bounds) of that charge conference.

Every Spring (since 1987) the Conference Relations Committee has hosted a luncheon for those who will be retiring from the North Carolina Annual Conference at the June session of that year. At this luncheon, the retirees and their spouses are informed about various matters relating to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension benefits. This year's retirement luncheon was held in Goldsboro on May 3, 1994.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 1992 Book of Discipline, ¶445.1, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education and spiritual growth throughout their careers, including carefully developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational and spiritual growth activities." The Discipline, ¶445.2, further states, "In most cases the ordained ministers' continuing education and spiritual growth program should allow for such leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with their charges or other agencies to which they are appointed as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of the Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church has recognized this by requiring annual participation in a continuing education program by each ordained minister seeking appointment. (1992 Discipline, ¶423.2).

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education"; e.g., degree programs, recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar, or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) It sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) It establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) It seeks to insure their availability.

1. Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

2. Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

3. Insuring their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing education programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education. The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the local church:

1. Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

2. Provides study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time. The Book of Discipline, 1992, ¶445.2.

3. Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Minister: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution, and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of Conference acceptances. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the Conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, Conference staff positions, district superintendencies, Conference Evangelists, and Conference-related agencies and institutions, retired supply, and ABLC categories C and D (with total funding for all category C and D applications being no more than $1500) are eligible for grants from Conference funds provided:

1. The program does not lead to advancement from one level of Conference relationship to another.

2. The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.

3. The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal.

4. The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish Chairperson, and district superintendent.

In providing grants, the Conference will place limits as follows:

1. The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00.

2. For a one CEU event, no more than $100; a two CEU event, $200; a three CEU event, a maximum of $300 if the cost of the event merits it.

3. The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least ONE Continuing Education Unit.

4. Grants for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) can be given when the CPE program offers the required CEU credits. No more than $300 per CPE unit will be granted. Grants for CPE are given only for non-degree programs.

5. One CEU will be granted to interested persons who attend all sessions of the Bishop's Seminar. However, educational grants will not be available for this event.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1. The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation.

2. Ministers shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to his or her district superintendent.

3. It is the responsibility of each minister to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

IDENTIFICATION AND ENLISTMENT, COMMITTEE ON

The identification and enlistment of persons for ministry is a primary responsibility of the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (§1733.2a).

Identification and enlistment of prospective ministers for the church, specifically including ethnic groups and women, should be the result of continuous and intentional study of the short-, medium-, and long-term needs of the constituencies of the church. This responsibility necessitates a team effort of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, the Bishop and Cabinet, the Council on Ministries, the District Committees on Ordained Ministry, and the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations in the local congregations. Imperative in this team work is the encouragement and support of pastors of local churches. Response from Conference ethnic caucuses will prove helpful in addressing the particular needs of the ethnic groups within the life of the Conference.

As a means of encouraging identification of candidates for ministry within our denomination, meetings have been held with representatives of campus ministries within the bounds of our Annual Conference to seek their input into this task and to offer our support therein.

Our Conference Enlistment Committee is recruiting persons ages 16-25 to attend the national "Exploration '94" event to be held in Richmond, VA on November 11-13, a weekend which shall provide an opportunity for committed young people to hear God's call to ministry, to challenge them to explore their gifts for ordained ministry as a vocation, and to encourage response to God's call in their lives.

Our Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, upon the recommendation of the Committee on Identification and Enlistment, will sponsor and assist the implementation of Ministry Sunday in our Annual Conference in the spring of 1995.

The intention of the Enlistment Committee is to raise the consciousness of our constituency that identification and enlistment is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of our church. Therefore, we will be intentional in the next year to seek and to maintain and to register prospective persons for Ordained Ministry.

William E. Braswell, Chairperson

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

The purpose of the Ministerial Education Fund is to enable the Church to unify and expand its program of financial support for the recruitment and education of ordained and diaconal ministers and to equip the Annual Conferences to meet increased needs in this area (Discipline, ¶1921). The Ministerial Education Fund helps assure support for the United Methodist seminaries, for persons seeking degrees in theological schools, and for ordained and diaconal ministers in continuing education.

The local church contribution to the Ministerial Education Fund divides two ways. Seventy-five percent goes to the Division of Higher Education and Ministry in Nashville and is distributed among the United Methodist seminaries for operating expenses and for scholarship aid to minority and special students. The remaining twenty-five percent remains with the NC Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. These funds provide scholarship aid for ordained and diaconal ministerial training, continuing education, and recruitment for ministry. The Board of Ordained Ministry expends most of these funds to provide scholarships for ministerial candidates who meet eligibility requirements.

Please note one operational change. Ministerial Education Fund grants were formerly loans, which were paid back by years of service in the Annual Conference or by principal plus interest cash repayments. The Board of Ordained Ministry now makes these grants solely as scholarships. This action reflects two things: 1.) the vast majority of the former loans were repaid by years of service and 2.) those not repaid at all were almost impossible to collect. This situation was most unfair to persons who were conscientious and repaid their loans. The Ministerial Education Fund Committee now screens each applicant and feels that its judgment as to the fitness of the candidate for such a scholarship means that our Annual Conference supports our own candidates for ministry in a fair and helpful fashion.

The Ministerial Education Fund provides crucial financial support for the training and continuing education of ordained and diaconal ministers. The Board of Ordained Ministry thanks the churches for their support of the Ministerial Education Fund.

Activity of the Ministerial Education Fund:

NORTH CAROLINA PASTOR'S SCHOOL AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION

The 1993 Pastors' School and Convocation offered participants ways to rethink leadership and homiletics. Lovett H. Weems, Jr., President of Saint Paul School of Theology, presented the Franklin S. Hickman lectures on the theme of the contemporary leadership needs of the church. Thomas G. Long, Paton Professor of Preaching and Worship at Princeton, delivered the James A. Gray Lectures on preaching in terms of tradition, experience, and eschatology. Samuel D. Proctor, Professor of the Practice of Christian Ministry at Duke Divinity School and Ruth E. Harper, superintendent of the Wilmington District of the NC Annual Conference were Convocation preachers. The Pastors' School offered nine continuing education courses for clergy and laity. Bishops Minnick and Jones led a breakfast gathering on the future of the itineracy.

The 1994 Convocation and Pastors' School will be October 24-26 at Duke University. Another excellent set of speakers, preachers, and seminar leaders is being selected. Look for a brochure giving all the details later in the summer.

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Pastoral Care has, since 1971, served the NC Annual Conference by providing financial aid for confidential professional counseling and marriage and family enrichment. The Committee is comprised of four members from the Board of Ordained Ministry (one of whom serves as chair); one member from the Board of Diaconal Ministry; one representative from the Conference Clergy Living Committee; one representative from the Clergy Partners Association; one Pastoral Counselor; and two members from the Commission on Health and Human Services. Funding for grants and expenses of the committee is included in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the awarding of grants is dependent upon the availability of funds.

Financial aid is available to both clergy and diaconal ministers and their families. The financial grants, of up to $400.00 per family, is provided to cover one-half of the cost of counseling sessions. Ministers under the NC Conference Blue Cross/Blue Shield Health Insurance Program should review the Health Care Benefit Program Book as up to 80% of financial coverage is provided for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Pastoral Care Grants should not exceed 100% of fees charged.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events, including those focusing on the needs of single as well as married ministers. Grants of up to $100 per individual, or $200 per family or couple are available. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials, and verification of participation should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Whereas, conference clergy and diaconal ministers and their families are eligible for grants, a family is defined as dependents of the minister living in the minister's home or parsonage, including spouse, children, parents, and grandparents. Children of the minister are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home through the age of twenty-two.

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

1. Clergy who are members of the NC Annual Conference whose status is active, retired, or on leave in accordance with ¶¶ 448, 449, or 450 of The Book of Discipline (1992), OR any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent.
2. Diaconal Ministers, or candidates who are serving a local church, members of the NC Annual Conference, and whose status is active, retired, or on leave in accordance with ¶ 313.1 of The Book of Discipline (1992), or a dependent.

Special circumstances:

1. Grant eligibility is provided when ministerial couples undergo marital separation or divorce. The amount provided is $400.00 for each spouse for a maximum of two years following the separation.
2. Grant eligibility continues for two years for persons who have terminated their relationship with The United Methodist Church, and for surviving spouses of ministers.

COUNSELORS AND THERAPISTS WHO QUALIFY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Only counselors or therapists who meet the following criteria qualify to receive grants from the Committee on Pastoral Care:

Counselors: Clinical members of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT);

Pastoral Counselors: Members of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC);

Psychiatrists: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification;

Psychologists (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologists; and Social Workers: Association of Certified Social Workers (ACSW).

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The counselor or therapist, at the request of the qualifying client who is receiving the counseling, is to make application for a grant to the chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care in the following manner:

1. The counselor or therapist requests an application form, a Conference Directory, and instructions from the chairperson of the Pastoral Care Committee. This request should be addressed in care of the Office of Ministerial Relations, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.
2. Once the application, Conference Directory, and instructions for a Pastoral Care Grant are received by the counselor/therapist, and a determination is made that the client qualifies, the application should be completed and returned to the Office of Ministerial Relations. To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members shall be assigned the same case number.
3. The counselor/therapist will receive the financial aid grant on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund to the client if the account has already been paid. Clients should request from the therapist a statement showing the amount of financial assistance received from the Pastoral Care Committee and should request the therapist to contact the chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure if any problems arise concerning this process. The client, not the Pastoral Care Committee, is responsible for all contracts, negotiated fees, and payment of services that are provided.

1993 REPORT

In 1993, the Committee on Pastoral Care granted over $11,000 for counseling sessions. This represents 726 sessions with counselors and therapists during the calendar year. Grants were processed for 62 client units during 1993, representing 483 sessions for ministers, 51 for spouses, 89 for families and 103 for dependent children. Of these 62 units, 17 (or 27%) received the 1993 maximum of $300.00 in assistance.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND EVALUATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Board of Ordained Ministry of the NC Annual Conference requires psychological assessment and evaluation for all persons seeking membership in our Annual Conference. The Committee on Psychological Testing and evaluation is charged with carrying out this responsibility. Members of the committee during 1993-1994 have been Carl Frazier, Glenda Johnson, Milton Mann, Mark Kennedy, and David Banks.

The two-fold purpose of psychological testing and evaluation is to provide nurture for those seeking conference membership and to assist the Board of Ordained Ministry, acting on behalf of the Annual Conference, in the selection of candidates with optimum psychological adjustment for effective ministry. Our intent is personally to benefit candidates seeking conference membership by providing them information, feedback, and guidance toward psychological health and wholeness. At the same time, we seek to assist the Board of Ordained Ministry in their selection process through the early detection of behavior patterns which may pose potential barriers to effective ministry.

On a national level, psychological testing and evaluation of United Methodist Ministerial Candidates is increasingly coming to be seen as ONE part of an overall process of discernment of those persons' readiness for ordination and ministry.

For all persons seeking Probationary Membership and for all those applying for transfer to the NC Annual Conference from denominations where the candidate's status after transfer will be the Probationary relationship, the following tests are required: Personal Data Inventory, Incomplete Sentences, Personal Research Form (Values), Myers/Briggs Type Indication (Personality), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), and 18 PF (back-up to the MMPI). Probationary members of other annual conferences wishing to transfer into ours must release information on their psychological testing to the Transfer Committee of this board.

The cost of psychological testing and evaluation of those United Methodists from within the NC Conference is borne by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. The cost of the testing and evaluation for those seeking transfer will be borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry when such testing is done at the time our candidates are group tested. Those who choose testing other than through the above process will bear the expense themselves.

Testing services for 1993 and 1994 are provided by Dr. Gary Brown of the Methodist Counseling Center in Charlotte. The Career and Personal Counseling Service at St. Andrews Presbyterian College in Laurinburg also provides occasional assistance. With the expertise of these two centers, we hope to faithfully and effectively accomplish our work for the glory of God and the well-being of the Church.

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

¶117.3 in the 1992 Book of Discipline states:

"Each probationary member shall have an elder in full connection assigned by the Board of Ordained Ministry as counselor during the period of probation."

The NC Conference Residency in Ordained Ministry program meets this guideline. Probationers meet in small cluster groups throughout the probationary period. Every effort is made to keep each participant in the same cluster, and with the same leader, for the duration of the probationary experience. This arrangement provides a particularly important collegiality and support for the probationers.

In October, 1993, the committee sponsored an event at Duke Divinity School for candidates preparing for probationary membership. Phase I probationers, those in their first appointment after receiving the M.Div. Degree, meet annually for an overnight retreat. A resource person, selected by the committee, leads the group in exploring issues such as call to ministry, spiritual formation, etc.

Phase II Probationers are those in the second year under appointment, who work in their cluster gatherings to prepare for full membership. A retreat is held at Duke Divinity School each year to assist this group in their preparation. Phase III is designed to help probationers who must reappear before the board for elder's orders and full conference membership. The Residency in Ordained Ministry committee is committed to helping candidates for ordained ministry in every way possible.

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

- I. Past Service Liability
- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.
 - B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Compensation. The 1995 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $35,165.
 - C. The current rate is $320 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Compensation increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAC to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 1995 be increased to $336 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Compensation increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability of $27,226,017.
 - D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.
 - E. The Annual Past Service Deposit for 1995 required by the General Board of Pensions is $2,174,860 (Due Date December 31, 1995). The amount needed in 1996 to fund our total liability by the year 2021 is $1,100,000. Additionally, for other benefit plans; such as, health and life insurance, pension grants, administration, etc., the 1996 budget request is $1,308,000.
- II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)
- Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the 1983 and 1984 Journals of the North Carolina Conference. Thus we call to your attention only those guidelines that are relevant to these programs.
- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.
 - B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows:

Take Cash Income (salary ONLY) e.g.	$30,000.00
Add 25% of Cash Income or Housing Allowance	7,500.00
Plan Compensation will be	$37,500.00

 1. No travel or utility funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations since these are considered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be items of local expense.
 2. Clergy couples housing (Effective January 1, 1988):
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.

- b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 25% housing allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
 - c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.
 - d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
- 3. In accordance with the Plan Document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is: 20%-1990; 21%-1991; 22%-1992; 23%-1993; 24%-1994; 25%-1995.
- 4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document. (Effective January 1, 1988)
- C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)
- D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
- E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.
- F. We recommend 12% as the level of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan for the North Carolina Conference participants.
- G. Unfunded Liability Actuarial Funding Study (Third Year Study, 1990 - 1993)
 - 1. Interest assumption decreased from 9% to 8%.
 - 2. Past Service Rate assumption continued at a 5% increase.
 - 3. No change at the present is required in contribution pattern (new money).
- III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)
 - A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP.
 - 1. Death benefits provide 150% of the Denominational Average Compensation as the benefit paid on the death of an active minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 20% upon retirement at any age.
 - 2. Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Compensation in effect at the time the minister is placed on disability.
 - 3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 12% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.
 - 4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)
 - B. The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.4% contribution of actual Plan Compensation (up to 4.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation). The pastor shall be required to pay 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of DAC) and the church or charge shall pay 3.4% of Plan Compensation (up to 3.4% of DAC). (Effective January 1, 1990)

IV. Implementation of the Program

The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.

- A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.
 FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation for MPP and 3.4% of Plan Compensation for CPP (up to 3.4% of the DAC)
 STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
 LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
 INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility

- B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of the DAC) for CPP.
- C. The pastor will make regular monthly payments through the local church treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for his/her personal tax-paid or tax-deferred contributions of at least 3%.

V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

- A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.
 1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
 2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains age 65 or the dissolution of the marriage.
 3. A surviving spouse, who married the pastor after he/she retired, is not eligible to be covered by the Hospital Group Plan after the death of the pastor.
- B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference.)
 1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have their hospital and life insurance paid by the Conference Board of Pensions when the minister attains age 62, or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits, provided at least twenty of the thirty-five (35) years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference.
 2. A pastor who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay, when he/she attains age 62, or earns 35 years of pension credit and receives pension benefits, a portion of the premium by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers
18	90%	10%
17	85%	15%
16	80%	20%
15	75%	25%
14	70%	30%
13	65%	35%
12	60%	40%
11	55%	45%
10	50%	50%
9	45%	55%
8	40%	60%
7	35%	65%
6	30%	70%
5	25%	75%
4	20%	80%
3	15%	85%
2	10%	90%
1	5%	95%

3. [Paragraphs noted are from The Book of Discipline, 1992] Effective August 1, 1992, Pastors who discontinue as Full-time Local Pastors, ¶1410, or Probationary Members, ¶1418, as well as Conference Members who are retired involuntarily, ¶1452.3; who are granted Honorable Location, ¶1453.1; who withdraw to unite with another denomination, ¶1453.2; who surrender the ordained ministerial office, ¶1453.3; who withdraw under complaints or charges, ¶1453.4; and Conference Members who are placed on Administrative Location, ¶1454.3 are ineligible to receive health insurance benefits or life insurance when payments from the General Board of Pensions begin.
4. Ministers not covered under medicare shall receive an amount equal to the premium of the Medicare supplement paid for those covered under Medicare, provided the ineligibility is not due to a refusal to come under Part B. Payments will be prorated according to the schedule in V B2.
5. Clergy Couples' Insurance
 - a. When one member of a clergy couple retires, the insurance, medical and life, will be paid for the retired pastor according to schedule V B2.
 - b. Medical insurance will be provided for the spouse and dependent children of the retired clergy partner according to schedule V B2.
 - c. No life insurance is provided for the spouse or dependent children of the retired clergy partner.
- C. The North Carolina Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired pastors. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

VI. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under our Blue Cross supplement plan have dental insurance added. It is to be paid by the North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions and to become effective July 1, 1987.

VII. Maximum Lifetime Benefit Under Medicare Supplement

Maximum benefit under the Medicare Supplement for retired pastors and spouses is $1,000,000.

VIII. Special Provisions

The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in the MPP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (MPP Section 3.2 and CPP Section 3.2)

IX. Conclusion

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance (For Income Tax Purposes Only)

RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1993 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Report D - Ministers' Transition Fund Constitution

THE PRINCIPLE OF THE FUND

The Ministers' Transition Fund is established to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has usually been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his/her housing. The fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries - Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the Annual Conference that all ministers participate in the Fund. We do not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their ministers, but as a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he/she contributed to the Fund. We vigorously emphasize that the purpose of this Fund is to assist the minister's retirement transition, and not to be an emergency fund available for any other purpose. All participant elections available in the constitution shall be irrevocable.

The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this Fund. He/she shall promote this work, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of assessments received and benefits paid.

ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

Membership in this Fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who are appointed to serve at a North Carolina Annual Conference institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) shall be eligible to join. In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other appointment. A full time local pastor may continue as a member of the Fund only during the time he/she is serving under episcopal appointment. Students under episcopal appointment who have previously served full time and who intend to return to full time service are eligible to continue. Those ministerial members on disability leave, leave of absence, or Conference members with less than full time service, may continue to be active, participating members by meeting the provisions discussed hereafter.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total salary and utility allowances for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve month amount.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his/her membership becomes effective. The deadline for enrollment for all ministers is January 31 of each year.

APPORTIONMENTS AND ASSESSMENTS

Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This budgeted amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items. Each minister in a pastoral appointment shall be assessed and pay into the Fund one percent (1%) of all salary and utility allowances he/she receives each year from the charge he/she is serving and/or Conference sources. (Salary also includes Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources).

The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment equal to one percent (1%) of salary and utility allowances usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers appointed as Conference staff. District superintendents and Conference ministerial staff shall be assessed and pay one percent (1%) of their salary and utility allowances.

All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall be assessed and pay a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or two percent (2%) of the Conference average salary, whichever is greater.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF ASSESSMENT

The fiscal year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. No later than November 1 of each year, the Conference treasurer shall notify all members their assessment is due. Each member of the Fund shall submit payment for the required assessment no later than January 31 of each year. Assessments received after January 31 will be returned to the minister. If he/she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this lack of payment extends the period for one additional year before dividends can be received. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he/she will receive no dividends for the year involving lack of payment. If any member of the Fund fails to pay his/her required assessment for three consecutive years, he/she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

BASE BENEFITS

Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Transition Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$200.00
If retired at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If retired at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If retired at the end of four years of membership	500.00
If retired at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If retired at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If retired at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If retired at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If retired at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If retired at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00
If retired at the end of eleven years of membership	1,200.00
If retired at the end of twelve years of membership	1,300.00
If retired at the end of thirteen years of membership	1,400.00
If retired at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If retired at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00
If retired at the end of sixteen years of membership	1,700.00
If retired at the end of seventeen years of membership	1,800.00
If retired at the end of eighteen years of membership	1,900.00

If retired at the end of nineteen years of membership	2,000.00
If retired at the end of twenty years of membership	2,100.00
If retired at the end of twenty-one years of membership	2,200.00
If retired at the end of twenty-two years of membership	2,300.00
If retired at the end of twenty-three years of membership	2,400.00
If retired at the end of twenty-four years of membership	2,500.00
If retired at the end of twenty-five years of membership	2,600.00

DIVIDENDS

After ten years of membership, and beginning with the eleventh year, the base benefit to be paid is increased by dividends credited to his/her account

Any funds remaining after benefits have been paid to eligible members shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears for the previous year(s).

DEATH BENEFITS

When a participating member of the Fund dies, the treasurer shall pay to his/her designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, otherwise to his/her estate, the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the dividends added to his/her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the time that dividends are earned, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the assessments contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary/beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the minister's death than the member's assessments plus passbook interest.

DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY

Each member shall provide the Conference treasurer the name(s) of the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom these funds are to be paid in the event of death. The designation shall be indicated on a form provided by the Conference treasurer. In the absence of a designated beneficiary, benefits shall be paid to the member's estate.

IRREVOCABLE ELECTION REGARDING DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

Members actively serving must make, prior to attaining age 59 1/2, an irrevocable election to either terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund beginning with the Annual Conference following the attainment of age 60 or to defer termination from the Fund until retirement, as defined in the Book of Discipline, 1992, paragraph 452.1, 2a, 2b, and 2c. Such irrevocable election is the responsibility of the member and must be made in writing to the Conference Treasurer by age 59 1/2. Forms can be obtained upon request from the Conference Treasurer. Should the member fail to make the irrevocable election, the member will not terminate from this Fund until retirement.

PAYMENT OF BENEFITS

At retirement or early fund termination as defined above, members who have accrued the same years credit in the Fund (during the same years) will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund shall be paid immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which he/she retires or terminates, the base benefit as prescribed in the table for retired members.

A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund must make an irrevocable election to receive benefit payments under one of the following options. This irrevocable election must be made no later than ninety days prior to the retirement month. For either option selected, total benefit payments shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table plus the dividends credited.

A. Two payment option: The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The second payment shall be the balance in the member's account and is subject to income tax.

B. Six payment option: The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The remaining payments shall be five equal annual installments of the remaining principal balance and will be subject to income tax.

Under either option, the first payment shall be paid within 15 working days following the adjournment of Annual Conference. The second and subsequent payments shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. The second payment will draw simple interest from July 1 to December 31 computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., average quarterly dividend yield for the four quarters ending September 30 of the year in which the minister terminates or retires. Any remaining payments will draw simple interest annually at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., average quarterly dividend yield for the four quarters ending September 30 of the year prior to the January payment.

In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's assessments plus interest computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., average quarterly dividend yield for the four quarters ending September 30 of the year in which the member terminates or retires.

DISABILITY LEAVE

A minister who is approved for and placed on Disability Leave may elect to:

1. Continue as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources. Should Disability Leave be granted between sessions of Annual Conference, 2% of the disability pay received from all sources computed to a 12 month amount shall be paid.
2. Be treated the same as a transferring member.
3. Receive benefits the same as a retiring member.
4. Receive all benefits within thirty (30) days following the granting of Disability Leave.

The minister shall notify the Conference treasurer in writing of his/her choice of option within ten (10) days following the granting of Disability Leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's assessments plus passbook interest.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence may elect to:

1. Continue as an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Salary while on leave.
2. Be treated the same as a transferring member.

LESS THAN FULL TIME SERVICE

A Conference member who is approved for less than full time service may elect to:

1. Continue as an active member for no more than three years by paying 2% of the Conference average salary while serving less than full time.
2. Withdraw from the Fund according to the provisions discussed hereafter.

MEMBERSHIP TRANSFERRING

Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church cannot make any further payment to the Fund. He/she may leave his/her account (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the transition benefit will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with passbook interest added from that date to the date of retirement. If the account is left, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he/she may reinstate his/her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

WITHDRAWING

If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference treasurer, he/she shall receive the amount he/she has paid into the Fund, plus simple interest computed at the "passbook rate" which was in effect each year he/she was participating in the Fund.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference treasurer with a statement indicating that he/she has received funds for which he/she is eligible, and that he/she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the above formula.

REINSTATEMENT

A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he/she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund more than two (2) times during his/her ministerial career.

HEARING COMMITTEE

The chairperson of the Board of Pensions shall annually nominate and the Board shall elect a committee of five (5) persons, keeping a balance between clergy, laity, ethnic origin, and gender, to have authority to arbitrate on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, the Constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund.

NEW RULES AND CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

At the time these rules and guidelines are adopted, all previous legislation regulating this Fund shall be null and void. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the Constitution without the consent of individual members of the Fund. No amendment shall have the effect of modifying any benefit election of any member in effect at the time of such amendment.

The Annual Conference established this Fund with the intent that it will be maintained for an indefinite period of time. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the Fund, in whole or in part, at any time. No amendment, modification or termination of the Fund shall adversely affect the member's benefits accrued for his or her retirement at the time of termination of the Fund.

PERU COVENANT TASK FORCE

Since 1989, local congregations of the NC Annual Conference have been in relationship with the Iglesia Metodista del Peru (the Methodist Church of Peru). These local church relationships with our Methodist brothers and sisters in Peru eventuated in a Covenant relationship which was officially agreed upon by the 1990 NC Conference and the 12th General Assembly of the Methodist Church of Peru. This model relationship is one to which the General Board of Global Ministries has shown vested interest and to which it has given considerable support. It has become an example of the growing need in United Methodism to find alternative structures to serve our missional responsibilities.

This past March, a 9-member team of clergy and lay persons of the NC Conference traveled to Peru in order to reform and renew our covenant relationship. During this time the NC team visited churches in Lima and Callao, as well as in Cuzco, in the Andean mountains, where Methodism is especially growing among the Quechua and Amayra Indians. Time was spent visiting a number of the projects supported by local churches of the NC Conference as well as assessing new churches which are being built with monies from $10 Club contributions.

At our 1992 Annual Conference we enjoyed the visit of Bishop Pablo Mamani and since then have hosted the visit of two other members of the Peru Church. During the 1992-93 academic year, Americo Conde, a lay member of the Methodist Church of Cuzco, and an Amayra Indian, has been studying at Methodist College in Fayetteville. He has been supported by our Annual Conference offerings, by various local churches, and by a generous scholarship from the college. In addition, during this past year the Reverend Rosanna Panizo, one of our Methodist pastors in Peru and rector of the Comunidad Biblico-Teologica (our Methodist seminary in Lima), visited in our Conference. Part of the covenant bind between Peru and NC includes the continuing relationship between the Duke Divinity School and the Comunidad Biblico-Teologica.

After our recent visit to Peru and as a result of the dialogue in which we shared, the team strongly recommends that the 1994 session of the NC Annual Conference reaffirm the Covenant we share with the Iglesia Metodista del Peru. As first passed unanimously by the 1990 Annual Conference it reads as follows:

We, the members of the NC Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, in session June, 1994, hereby affirm our covenant in Christ with our sisters and brothers of the Iglesia Metodista del Peru. As an expression of that covenant bond, we will call upon the cabinet and agencies of this Annual Conference to encourage and lead the Annual Conference, districts, and local congregations to enter into a covenant/partner relationship with the Iglesia Metodista del Peru, for prayer and other forms of mutual support, engagements, and communication as determined by and agreed upon by the communities of faith entering into such a covenant/partner relationship.

PROPOSED DEFINITIONS FOR USE IN THE NC CONFERENCE

United Methodist Church law prohibits "self-avowed practicing homosexuals" from candidacy, ordination or appointment as clergy. The church's supreme court, the Judicial Council, ruled October 30, 1993 that the term must be defined before it can be used to exclude anyone. An amendment to the church's constitution was ratified by a sufficient number of votes this past year to add "status" to a list of attributes (gender, race, etc.)

in relationship to Inclusiveness in the Church. The proposers of the amendment have said that "status" refers to marital status but concern has been expressed across the denomination that "status" could refer to sexual orientation.

The Council of Bishops has proposed model definitions for the term "self-avowed practicing homosexual" and the word "status." These proposed definitions were developed after great research into the history surrounding the two terms, consulting legal terminology and practice, along with the intent of the General Conference. The same definitions are being proposed in each conference. The definition adopted by a conference will be used in that conference. The Council of Bishops hopes that the same definitions can be used in all conferences.

HOMOSEXUAL

Model Definition:

"A self-avowed practicing homosexual is a person who engages in sexual acts with a person or persons of the same gender which are either witnessed or openly acknowledged." Rationale:

This model follows lengthy discussion of the various definitions in use in various annual conferences and the materials related to the Judicial Council decision. We also studied the Journal of the 1984 General Conference to determine the original intent of the conference. We propose this definition based on the following considerations:

1. In reviewing the action of the 1984 General Conference it is clear that the understanding of the conference was that this legislation be related to "practice", not orientation. The prohibition has to do with behavior. The motion was linked to the Social Principles and practices incompatible with Christian teaching. When asked whether a "self-avowed homosexual who is not a practicing homosexual could be entitled to ordination", Dr. David Seamands, author of the legislation, told the General Conference, "Yes, they could because this does not address the question of orientation. We're talking only about practice and behavior, the same as the Social Principles." - 1984 Journal, page 322
2. In seeking words to define "practice of homosexuality" we considered various conference policies. Some refer to "genital sexual behavior." We felt that was too narrow. We considered terms like "homosexual activity" and felt that gave no further definition or clarity than what already exists.
3. Regarding "self-avowed," we asked if that meant only verbal statements, or if one could be "self-avowed" by their actions as well. Our conclusion was that if a person declares him/herself to be a homosexual, either verbally, or by witnessed homosexual behavior, this would be considered to be self-avowed.
4. The responsibility to determine whether or not a person's behavior fits this definition is still the responsibility of the annual conference through the Board of Ordained Ministry and the clergy session of the conference.

STATUS

Model Definition:

"Status" is defined as: "A legal relationship or legal condition of a group of persons based on race, gender, or national origin."

Rationale:

1. The term "status" was added to the denomination's Constitution at ¶ 15.14 in 1968 at the time of union between The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church.
2. The intent of ¶ 15.14 was to cause a clear prohibition upon racially segregated denominational structures such as the former Central Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church. The Interim Judicial Council and subsequent Judicial Councils of The UMC have, in a series of decisions, interpreted the term "status" to prescribe mandated preference to groups of persons based upon race, marital arrangements, conference affiliation, or ordination.

3. The various interpretations noted above indicate the intention to define "status" in terms of the legal relationship or legal condition of groups of persons, consistent with secular law. Secular laws use the terms "status" and "standing" to identify legal conditions or relationships involving a particular group. There is no evidence that the amendment to ¶ 4 in the 1992 Book of Discipline was intended to relate to behavior or orientation.
4. Because of the prior history of the term "status" as used in the Constitution, there is no evidence of intent to use this term as it now appears in ¶ 4, differently from how it was used previously in ¶ 15.14 and subsequently interpreted by the Judicial Council. In interpreting legislative intent, one principle is that conflicting legislative interpretations of similar provisions should be avoided unless there is clear intent on the part of the legislative body to define terms differently. If possible, to carry out the intent of the legislative body in enacting the potentially conflicting provisions, an interpretation should be sought which will preserve the validity of both provisions. The legislative history of the amendment to ¶ 4 does not demonstrate an intent in the General Conference to define "status" differently in ¶ 4 and ¶ 15.14, so interpreting ¶ 4 in light of prior decisions on ¶ 15.14 seems appropriate.
5. Additional research into the intent of the authors of the amendments to ¶ 4 has revealed that their intent arose from concerns regarding discrimination on the basis of marital status. The Judicial Council has dealt with this issue as it relates to potential discrimination in terms of housing, salary, and other benefits made available or unavailable in the appointment process to clergy couples. We note further that this explanation of the intent of the amendment was provided to annual conference sessions. It was read in response to several questions on whether this amendment to ¶ 4 was an attempt to alter the denomination's position prohibiting ordination of "self-avowed practicing homosexuals," and that the conference votes on ratification of the amended ¶ 4 were made in light of these assurances.
6. The denomination's positions concerning the practice of homosexuality (¶ 71(F)) and the prohibition of candidacy, ordination, or appointment of "self-avowed practicing homosexuals" (¶ 402.2) are clear and were reaffirmed by the 1992 General Conference. We do not find any evidence that the intent of the amendment to ¶ 4 was to alter that position. In fact, these positions were directly challenged and upheld at the 1988 and 1992 General Conferences. Nothing before this subcommittee indicates that a construction of the term to include reference to behavior or orientation is in accord with the legislative intent of the ¶ 4 amendment or the General Conference and Annual Conferences that ratified it. Since this subcommittee's charge is to reflect what it feels is the intent of the General Conference in adopting the amendment to ¶ 4, we conclude that the General Conference did not intend to override its established position about the candidacy, ordination or appointment of self-avowed practicing homosexuals by recommending the amendment to ¶ 4 herein discussed.

STAFFING AND STRUCTURE, TASK FORCE ON

Interim Report to the Conference

The Into the 21st Century Committee report to the 1992 NC Annual Conference, among other items, called for "Further Strengthening Staffing and Structure redefining the roles and responsibilities of district superintendents, Annual Conference staff, and Conference boards and agencies so that the major attention can be given to resourcing and equipping local congregations for their ministry and mission." Bishop C. P. Minnick formed the Staffing and Structure Task Force to accomplish this work.

Our basic instructions are to report to the 1995 Annual Conference with our recommendations of the roles, responsibilities and number of district superintendents and Annual Conference staff persons after having carefully addressed the related issues. It also was stated that a valid judgement on this matter can only be made after these persons have been involved in their redefined roles (as outlined in the Into the 21st Century Committee report) for at least two years.

At this point, we continue to collect data from current and former district superintendents, all persons at the Conference office, local churches, and other conferences. While we are too early in the process to report recommendations, we have found issues which affect the work being done or the effectiveness of persons involved. Some of these are presented here.

Concerning the District Superintendents' Duties:

1. District superintendents and local churches have been surveyed to determine their current feelings about the plan requiring "120 days directly in local congregations of the district..." We all know that ministry is an individual enterprise. Even within a system as well defined as the UM connection, heterogeneous approaches are to be anticipated.

2. In brief, consensus with regard to the implementation of the 120 days plan is not much in evidence. However, consensus was highly evident with regard to the time demands of the 120 days. All are obviously burdened under enormous administrative work loads. All feel strongly that the local church should be a priority. The question is whether or not this particular plan is the best way to strengthen it.

3. It is encouraging to see the wide range of applications for the 120 days. Great creativity has been exercised in implementing this area of work. The 120 days plan requirement and the administrative duties required by the Discipline seem to be competing for the same hours.

4. At this time, we believe it to be clear that superintendents have been very faithful in attempting to implement the 120 days plan but question its validity. While the intent is good, implementation has been largely untenable. Therefore, this is an area requiring prayerful continued review before recommending continuation, revision or dismissal.

Concerning the District Superintendents' Assignments:

1. The number of charges in a district is of special concern because that relates directly to the amount of time required in consultation or pastoral care. The number of student or part-time pastors is a part of this factor as they require more time than for other clergy.

2. Information related to projected church growth whether in current churches or new churches is vital to our work. At this point, we are staying abreast of projections being made of growth by district through the year 2003. Comparison with other conferences also is being collected.

3. A decision regarding the continuation or modification of the 120 days plan implemented by the Into the 21st Century Committee is very important. At this time, we continue to experience a significant problem with the dilemma of administrative time required by the Discipline versus the pastoral time mandated in the 120 days plan.

For the 120 days plan to continue, we believe the district superintendent must have help in some manner with administrative duties.

Concerning the Conference Staffing:

1. All Conference program staff as well as support staff have been surveyed for information relating to their work. In this process we have come upon concerns not directly relating to our mission, but which directly impact staff morale and possibly productivity. These concerns are being communicated to others for their action.

2. We do have interim recommendations regarding Conference staff at this time dealing with the process rather than how many people and in what positions: (a) All positions need to have written job descriptions. (b) There is a written policy manual for support staff, and there is a need for a policy manual for program staff.

3. Before we can finalize our work, we still have before us much prayerful consideration of the work to be done by program staff and how they are to interact with the cabinet and local churches. We encourage and welcome comments and suggestions from throughout the Conference.

RESOLUTIONS

CARING FOR GOD'S CREATION

WHEREAS, we, as United Methodists, subscribe to the words in Psalm 24:1 that, "The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world and those who dwell therein"; and

WHEREAS, the gifts of creation nurture our bodies and our souls from birth and are vehicles through which God's love is communicated to us; and

WHEREAS, we are making the land, air and sea so toxic that the very conditions of life are being destroyed; and

WHEREAS, "the power of our technologies is now such that nature cannot prevent us from doing whatever we decide in diminishing the splendor and vigor and variety of life upon the earth" (Thomas Berry); and

WHEREAS, we are in the process of consuming until there is nothing left to consume without regard to the future of our great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, we are quickly bringing about the extinction of species--an absolute and final act for which there is no remedy; and

WHEREAS, The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that, "All creation is the Lord's and we are responsible for the ways in which we use and abuse it... we repent of our devastation of the physical and nonhuman world ... we recognize the responsibility of the Church toward life-style and systemic changes in society that will promote a more ecologically just world and a better quality of life for all creation";

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Annual Conference expresses its collective sense of urgency for the healing of our dying planet by recommending that each district hold, highlight and promote at least one class or workshop on "Caring for God's Creation" during the year 1994-1995;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that each local congregation, church camp and the Methodist Building be encouraged to create a model environment using step-by-step methods such as those described in the Action Manual Eco-Church by Albert Fritsch ($14.95 from ASPI Publications, Route 5 Box 423, Livingston, KY 40445) and the booklet Caring for God's Creation, a collection of environmentally-focused material, worship resources and sermons by the Reverend Peter G. Moore-Kocklacs of the California-Pacific Annual Conference, available by writing the author at 1725 Sunnypark, Redlands, CA 92374;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that each group meeting within the Conference, including but not exclusive of pastors, councils on ministries, boards and commissions, conference and local units of United Methodist Women, Men and Youth be encouraged to develop programs and worship moments around the theme, "Healing the Planet", using the above-mentioned materials or others of their choice;

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that each church in the Conference that has not done so be actively encouraged to give up the use of all forms of styrofoam because Freon escapes into the atmosphere during the manufacturing process and destroys the ozone layer that protects us from the harmful rays of the sun. A few minutes of dish washing by men, women and youth could be a reminder of the vital earth we are desecrating so casually and could help restore our personal integrity as well as our sense of community.

CRIME PREVENTION

WHEREAS, many people are urging the building of more prisons as the centerpiece of our State policy yet fail to recognize that most prison sentences are and must be such that the criminal will at some point return to the street; and

WHEREAS, The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that, "...we support measures designed to remove the social conditions that lead to crime, ...we urge the creation of genuinely new systems for the care and support of the victims of crime, and for rehabilitation that will restore, preserve, and nurture the humanity of the imprisoned"; and

WHEREAS, the Methodist Home for Children of the North Carolina Conference is a model system for family restoration and early crime prevention and graphically illustrates the success of community-based programs and facilities where youth can be held accountable together with their families and in contact with their school communities; and

WHEREAS, leaders such as Rufus Stark of the MHC and Charles Dunn, a fifteen-year veteran of the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation, and other church and community leaders have pointed out that more prisons and training schools are a poor dollar investment and usually do not work; and

WHEREAS, designing a system to prevent criminal activity in children and youth would be more effective in the long run than simply building more high-priced facilities;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that a description of the Methodist Home for Children model system in all its diversity be commended to Governor Hunt, our North Carolina legislators and heads of the Departments of Correction and of Crime Control and Public Safety, and sent to each pastor and lay leader so that local church members can share this information with their own legislators and with the general public, through personal conversation and through letters to officials and newspapers and through presentation to local church and civic groups.

INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF THE FAMILY

WHEREAS, the United Nations General Assembly, in a resolution on 8 December 1989, proclaimed 1994 as the International Year of the Family (IYF); and

WHEREAS, the theme chosen for the IYF is "Family: Resources and Responsibilities in a Changing World;" and

WHEREAS, the IYF encourages family life education and programs to support and strengthen families with increased awareness of the issues facing today's families; and

WHEREAS, a framework for spiritual, emotional and material support and care is a natural outgrowth of strong families; and

WHEREAS, the quality of life in a society depends to a large extent on the quality of family life in that society; and

WHEREAS, we are all members of God's family and God's church is the ideal environment for family nurture and support;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the NC Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, in session in Fayetteville, NC, June 8-11, 1994, does hereby strongly encourage its member churches to voice the importance of the family and to show support for all families; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the importance of family life, including its strengths, its unity and the mutual respect generated by a wholesome family life, receive additional emphasis in Christian education for the children, youth, and adults of the constituency of The United Methodist Church; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Worship Committee in consultation with the pastor plan a day to emphasize the importance of wholesome family life and to recognize the family units in the church; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 1994 NC Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church designate the 1994-1995 Conference year as the Year of the Family in United Methodist Churches in NC.

UNWED MOTHERS AND UNBORN CHILDREN

WHEREAS, the official United Methodist position on Abortion (paragraph 71H, The Book of Discipline, 1992) confirms our respect for the "sacredness of life," the "well being of the mother" and the "sanctity of unborn human life" giving "reluctant" approval of abortion only in "tragic conflicts of life with life" and emphasizes that abortion should never be used as a "means of birth control" or "gender selection;" and

WHEREAS, the 1993 NC Annual Conference resolved to encourage all local churches to develop active ministries to unwed mothers within their communities by providing information and opportunities for alternatives to abortion; and

WHEREAS, the 1993 NC Annual Conference mandated the Commission on Social Concerns and Ecumenical Ministries to investigate and recommend potential tangible ministries to unwed mothers for the NC Annual Conference to consider implementing on a conference level;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. Local churches who wish to be involved in ministries to unwed mothers become a part of the "Sheltering Church Movement." This is a non-political, ecumenical ministry that will assist local churches who wish to reach out with practical love and compassion to pregnant women and their children.
2. That the Bishop, in consultation with other annual conference leaders, appoint a task force of up to 12 members who shall study the feasibility of establishing a NC United Methodist Home and/or other type of viable abortion alternative ministry.
3. That the Conference Council on Finance and Administration provide reasonable funds for the expense of this task force from contingency funds.
4. That this task force report its findings and recommendations to the 1995 session of the NC Conference.

REPORTS

ANNUAL CONFERENCE ADDRESS VISION - GOD'S GIFT

Vision - God's vision for The United Methodist Church in the NC Annual Conference is indeed a gift to be discerned and claimed. That vision, accepted with gratitude and obedience, is God's will for the life and mission of the Church here, now and into the future. That vision is as varied as the 828 local congregations of this Annual Conference. Yet, in every variation it is centered and focused in Jesus Christ, who incarnates that vision for use, individually and corporately.

With joy and gratitude we praise God for the gift of vision in the past...for the wisdom and strength which God has granted to enable us to live toward that vision...for goals reached and dreams filled...for forgiveness and new beginnings when we have failed...and for fresh discernment of the vision when we have earnestly sought it.

Thanks be unto God for all those pastors of local churches, for those clergy in appointments beyond the local church, and for diaconal ministers who have been drawn by that vision of ministry described by the Apostle Paul in these words, "servants of the gospel;" and thanks be unto God for the more than 220,000 lay persons, members of the 858 local congregations that make up this Annual Conference, who daily live toward the vision of faithful discipleship to Jesus Christ.

God's vision for our Conference calls us to evangelism, mission, Christian education and all those outreach ministries that touch the world with Christlike compassion. By their faithful witness for Jesus Christ the laity and pastors of our local churches led 3,235 persons to make their confession of faith in Jesus Christ and to assume the responsibilities of church membership during 1993. We thank God that our Conference continues to grow in membership with a net increase last year of 711 persons. But our prayers of thanksgiving must be joined with prayers of confession because we know that we have not given to evangelism the time, energy, resources, and commitment called for by our Lord who still says to us, as He said to those disciples in the first century. "You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you shall be my witnesses...Go and make disciples of all people..."

We offer our thanks to God for all those outreach ministries which have been done locally and connectionally by the United Methodist people of the NC Annual Conference. Hungry persons have been fed...homeless ones have been given shelter...those suffering from natural disasters have received caring aid...students have received Christian higher education at our colleges...children and families with special needs have been served by our children's home ministries...residents have found caring love and fellowship in our retirement communities...many who were not disciples have had the good news of God's saving love through Jesus Christ shared with them...children, youth and adults have been nurtured in settings for Christian education...and the list of ministries goes on and on! To cover the cost of these outreach ministries to the ends of the earth, the people of this Annual Conference gave $10,457,454 in 1993, an increase of $197,000 over the previous year. But again with our prayers of thanksgiving, we would offer our prayers of confession, acknowledging that corporately our stewardship of financial resources falls far short of the Biblical standard of the tithe; and we regret that our Conference gave only 87.2% of the cost of identified missional needs.

During the months since the 1993 session of our Annual Conference many persons have been involved in bringing to reality certain dimensions of our "into the 21st century" vision for the life and mission of this Conference. That vision was the result of a long period of seeking to discern God's will through prayer, Biblical study, reflection and Christian conference. The definition and dimensions of our mission set forth in that vision were adopted by this Annual Conference and necessary actions are in process to make the vision a reality.

Our statement of mission for the Conference says "that as the NC Annual Conference approaches and enters the 21st century, the goal of its structure, staff and programs shall be to help prepare and empower local congregations to be the strategic centers for ministry and mission..." In response to this goal, district superintendents and staff persons of the Conference Council on Ministries have arranged their schedules to allow a significant number of days to be spent on site consulting with and resourcing local congregations as they seek to advance their strengths for effective ministry. Consultative evaluation has been initiated to assist pastors in enhancing their competencies as missionary pastors. A long-range mission and service giving task force has been at work and will report its findings and recommendations to this annual conference session. A task force seeking to determine the optimum number of district superintendents and conference staff persons needed to accomplish our mission will make a progress report on its deliberations and work.

A major movement emerging from our vision for mission into the 21st century is Vision 2000 which was approved at our 1993 Conference and will be celebrated in a great service of worship and commissioning here on Friday evening. An official Annual Conference launch event will be held at the Raleigh Civic Center, with an anticipated gathering of 8000 United Methodist people, on October 22, 1994. Vision 2000 will invite, encourage and urge every local congregation in the NC Annual Conference to seek through corporate prayer, reflection, Bible study, and worship to discern God's will for their life and mission and to avail themselves of those resources that will empower them to make the vision a reality. This movement, Vision 2000, compliments and builds on our Vitalization Project which has already set in motion a process of evaluation, vision, goal setting, and ministry programs that has impacted more than 200 local congregations.

As we move into and through the second half of this current quadrennium, Vision 2000 will be a major emphasis; but other ministries and commitments will not be neglected.

We shall continue to address and implement the call issued to the appointment cabinet by this Conference to make pastoral appointments without regard for race, gender, or age. A forum in January on inclusiveness and cross-racial appointments was extremely successful in increasing our sensitivity to all the issues involved and our commitment to resolving them in the spirit of Christ.

In response to the recommendations of the Task Force on Mission and Service Giving and with the guidance of the Cabinet, the Council on Finance and Administration, the pastors and lay leadership of our local congregations, we shall seek to move closer each year to the giving of our full fair share of adequate support for those identified and needed ministries, the cost of which is met through our apportioned mission and service giving.

In closing these remarks, I would like to comment on a matter that is of great concern to me and to you; and that is the relationship of the NC Annual Conference to the NC Council of Churches. A year ago this Annual Conference voted to remove support for the NC Council of Churches from the Conference budget and to allow support for the Council by advance special giving only. This action was taken as a strong protest to the admission of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches to membership in the Council and to affirm the stand of our denomination on homosexuality.

My personal conviction is that we have made our protest loudly and clearly in opposition to the membership in the Council of the Metropolitan Community Churches; and we have taken a strong unmistakable stand that we believe in our denominational position that homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching. I do not believe that the position of this Annual Conference on these issues will be weakened in anyway if we decide now to share fully with our UM brothers and sisters of the WNC Annual Conference, and sisters and brothers in other denominations in this state in doing cooperatively with the Council of Churches those ministries of compassion which Christ calls us to do and which no denomination can do as effectively alone. And I believe that our witness concerning homosexuality can be made more convincingly from a position within the Council of Churches than from outside that group.

I know that wherever you have taken your stand on this matter of participation in and support of the NC Council of Churches, you have done so seeking to understand and to do the will of God. My hope is that we shall address this matter here this week in prayerful reflection, seeking to discern God's will for us in this moment and to do it. And God grant that in our deliberations, in our attitudes and in our personal conversations with each other, we shall express the spirit of Jesus Christ, remembering always that we are the church, His body, His community of faith and love.

BOARD OF INSTITUTIONS, INC.

In 1992 NC Annual Conference called for the creation of a new corporation, the North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. ("BI"). The purpose of this action was to define more accurately the relationship between the Conference and its affiliated institutions, which include the three colleges, retirement home, children's home, group homes for the handicapped (which are still in the planning stage), and Conference camps. It presupposed that the Conference wanted to maintain its past close ties with those institutions whose programs remain consistent with the Conference's policies and The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church. However, the Conference also wished to protect its broader objectives by modifying its legal relationships with the institutions by the creation of the new corporation, BI. This corporation was designed to provide technical and legal oversight concerning institutional governance and the financial health of the affiliated institutions.

By its action, the Conference directed BI to have the following substantive duties:

1. After consultation with the appropriate Conference commission, to nominate and elect 40 percent of the members of the boards of affiliated, incorporated institutions. The exception to this is the Methodist Retirement Homes. In that instance, the BI Board would nominate 100 percent of the board after receipt of the recommendations from the Retirement Homes board, and the Conference would continue to elect those board members.
2. To review any financial statements provided to it by the affiliated institutions and thereafter advise the appropriate commission on the apparent financial health of the institution.
3. To review the liability insurance policies of each affiliated institution to determine the sufficiency of director's coverage for the 40 percent of the members elected by BI.
4. To review the materials used by each affiliated institution to determine whether it might adversely reflect on the legal relationship between the institution and the Conference. In this regard, any material representing a relationship with the Conference or The UMC must be approved by the Bishop or his designee.
5. To perform such other duties as the Conference might direct.

The Board of BI submitted the articles of incorporation and by-laws to the 1993 Annual Conference, which approved those documents. As required by those governing instruments, BI now submits a technical amendment to its By-laws to the Conference for approval. At the meeting of the Board of BI on December 6, 1993, the Board amended the By-laws of BI, subject to confirmation by the Conference, as follows:

That Article V, Section 1 the By-laws of the N.C. Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. be amended to make the fall meeting rather than the spring meeting of the Board of Trustees the annual meeting.

The reason for this amendment changing the time of the annual meeting was that under the original By-laws, the BI officers were to be elected for one year terms at the annual meeting, which was held in the spring. This was inconsistent with the fact that new board members were elected in June at Annual Conference. Changing the annual meeting to the fall would permit board officers to be elected at the first meeting held after Annual Conference. The Board of BI requests that the Conference approve this technical change.

This year the Board of BI has functioned smoothly to accomplish its purposes as set forth by the 1992 Annual Conference, while attempting to minimize the intrusion into the activities of the affiliated institutions. Based upon the amended corporate articles of incorporation and by-laws of each institution, the board of BI continues to elect forty percent of the board of each institution on the Conference's behalf. BI has also explored a number of other issues with the presidents of the affiliated institutions, including the adequacy of each institution's directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, the institution's use of the name and logo of the Conference or The UMC, and any language in deeds which could in any way be construed as affecting the institution's relationship with the Conference or the Conference's liability.

In carrying out its purposes, the Board of BI has also established a Financial Review Committee of BI, which includes members of the BI Board and several independent certified public accountants. This committee met last May with the chief financial officer, accountant or other appropriate representative of each affiliated institution (which has finances independent of the Conference) to review its audited financial statements for the preceding fiscal year. The findings of this committee regarding the financial status of the institutions were shared with the institution's president and with the appropriate Conference commission. The affiliated institutions were most cooperative in this regard and where appropriate have taken action based upon the recommendations of this committee. The Financial Review Committee and institutions appeared to agree that this dialogue was beneficial to all parties concerned.

The Board of BI has also worked with the appropriate Conference and camping personnel in attempting to clarify the respective roles of the Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries of the Conference and the NC United Methodist Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. Forty percent of the members of the latter corporate board is elected by BI. In order to be consistent with the spirit of the original Conference action creating BI, however, BI believes that the corporation needs to be more analogous to the other affiliated institutions and serve more as the agency responsible for the programs than has been true historically. After considerable discussion, those camping bodies have shown a readiness to move toward a structure whereby the corporation as opposed to the Conference commission undertakes the principal responsibility for the operation of the camping program. Under this plan, the Conference commission would serve largely as the liaison with the Conference Council on Ministries and as a public relations instrument with the communities and churches. BI will continue to work with these bodies as they attempt to protect the Conference from potential liability with a minimum of disruption or expense to the camping program.

The trustees of BI have appreciated the privilege granted to them by the Conference to serve as members of this Board and have attempted to be faithful to the intent of the Conference in creating BI. The Board will continue to assist in protecting the Conference from potential legal liability, while monitoring the appropriate stewardship of resources by those institutions supported in part with Conference funds.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES, REPORTS OF

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Archives and History celebrated - the 25th Anniversary of the Uniting Conference of The UMC at Dallas, Texas on April 23, 1968 - at the last Annual Conference. A dramatization of Francis Asbury, by Rev. Denny C. Wise, sharing about the Christmas Conference of 1784 was interrupted by Mrs. Vivian P. Mitchell, a participant at the Uniting conference of 1968, to tell about this special event in the life of our Methodist heritage. We continued the celebration with a birthday cake and with Bishop C. P. Minnick's assistance sang "Happy Anniversary" to our Church and shared the cake with those in attendance. All this took place at the "Fishing Village" created by the commissions and boards of our Annual Conference on the grounds of Methodist College. Our commission with help from Mrs. Ethel Twiford, Reverend Simeon Cummings and others shared information and examples about preservation of history in the local church and conference at our display in the "Fishing Village."

The Spring meeting of the Commission was held at Grace UMC in Wilmington on April 17, 1993.

The 1993 SEJ Historical Society meeting was held July 13 -16, 1993 at Simpsonwood Conference and Retreat Center, Norcross, GA. The theme was "Methodist Marching through Georgia". Those in attendance from our Conference were Reverend and Mrs. C. Maness Mitchell, Mr. John Mitchell, Mr. William B. Frye and myself. The presentations and tour of Oxford, GA were outstanding. The next meeting of the SEJ Historical Society will be July 12 - 15, 1994 at Emory - Henry College, Emory, WV in the Hoston Conference.

I attended, along with Mr. William B. Frye, the General Commission on Archives and History meeting September 17 - 19, 1993 at Xavier Center, Convent Station, NJ near the Commission offices in Madison. Annual Conference commissions and Historical Society representatives are invited once a quadrennium to attend the annual meeting. Participation at business sessions and our tour of the General Church Archives at Drew University were very educational and delightful.

Two historical Church Grants of $125 each were given to Whitaker's Chapel of Enfield and to Rehoboth Church of Plymouth. The General Commission gave $750 to Whitaker's Chapel from the 1993 Shrines and Landmarks Grants.

Our fall meeting was held at Jerusalem UMC at Johns on September 25, 1993. We were all saddened at the death of Reverend Clifford E. Shoaf on August 9, 1993. Reverend Shoaf will long be remembered for his interest and work toward the preservation of history for future generations.

The NC Conference UM Historical Society held meetings at Grace UMC in Wilmington on April 17, 1993 and at Page Memorial UMC in Aberdeen on November 13, 1993. Reverend Denny C. Wise, 2331 LaVista Dr., Burlington, NC 27215, was elected president at the fall meeting. Annual dues are $7 and include a subscription for our newsletter "Saddlebags" edited by Mr. Grady L. E. Carroll, Sr. Dues may be sent to Reverend Bill Cummings, P O Box 693, Red Springs, NC 28377 or at our display table at Annual Conference.

Our Commission and Historical Society members wish to express appreciation for the fine work done by the congregations we visited this past year with their preservation and presentation of their history.

The Commission hosted a "Document Preservation Workshop" at the UM building in Raleigh on April 23, 1994. Dr. Bill King, archivist for Duke University and member of the SEJ Commission on Archives and History, presented hands on training for preservation of church and personal records.

"Celebrating our Heritage of Christian Perfection" was the theme for Heritage Sunday, April 24, 1994.

Celebration of the 200th Anniversary of the Camp Meeting in NC at the 1994 Annual Conference will be a highlight for our Commission.

Each local church must equipt themselves for the work of preservation of their history. The Commission wishes to encourage and support you in this ministry.

W. Arthur Warren, Jr., Chairperson

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS, COMMITTEE ON

This year, disaster had a new name, Emily. Some years we escape a major disaster in our conference; this year a minor hurricane caused major damage on our Outerbanks.

When Emily hit, our Committee, the Interfaith Disaster Relief Committee and UMCOR responded quickly, effectively, and in unison. The day after the storm hit, four representatives, (one from Interfaith, one from UMCOR and two from our Conference Committee) traveled to the Outerbanks and set up an office to handle human needs. We also visited local pastors to help us assess damages, and recruit local help. Interfaith and our Committee employed Margie Easley, a member of the Hatteras UMC, to manage the office in the Little Grove UMC and coordinate relief efforts in the area. Margie did a wonderful job and because of her devotion and skills we learned much about disaster relief. Special thanks go to Margie Easley, Little Grove UMC and the devoted pastors on the Outerbanks who, although victims themselves, did a special job of ministering to the community.

Our Committee spent $2,000.00 to help run the Interfaith Relief Office. We disbursed $50,000.00 to the churches on the Outerbanks for human needs and to rebuild damaged facilities. We used our Committee budget to train committee members. Special thanks to all those who gave money so that we could do this relief work on the Outerbanks.

The Committee still has copies of training helps and guidelines for disaster relief teams available to VIM workteams and to other teams coming to assist our Conference. We will continue to work closely with the NC Volunteers in Mission, Interfaith Disaster Relief Committee, the NC Dept. of Emergency Management and The United Methodist Committee on Relief. Working together it is our prayer that we will be prepared to manage relief efforts when another disaster hits our Conference. The Disaster Preparedness Committee has had to meet so many human needs recently that it finds itself in a state of financial difficulty. There are not enough reserves to respond to a major disaster. We have asked Bishop Minnick for help, and thankfully he has asked that the Run-Walk funds for 1994 go to the work of our Committee. We also thank Randall Maynard for his work in putting together this event. With the help, prayers and support of many persons we hope to be ready to serve our Conference in any time of disaster.

G. Ronald Patton, Chairperson

EDUCATION, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Education adopted as its theme for this year, "Sowing Seeds: A Quest for Quality." The parable of the sower reminds us that some seeds are devoured, others spring up quickly but wither, still more fall among thorns and are choked. Others seeds fall on good soil and reap quality results. Our commission wishes to be intentional in sowing quality seeds on good soil to enable much educational growth in our Conference.

We identify our needs to be: a call to prayer; a call to conversion and nurture; a faithfulness to God, to one another and to the church; a recovery of the teaching ministry of the church; a call to faithful discipleship and spiritual awakening. Our covenant prayer has become: " 'O Spirit of the Living God, descend upon thy church and make it thine again.' Engage us in prayer and teachings that will nurture our lives and quicken our hearts to faithful discipleship. Help us to reclaim Scripture as the foundation of Christian Education and spiritual formation." The Commission on Education makes a plea for the church to exercise prayer and basic Bible teaching so that God can transform the lives of the people of the NC Conference. We trust that the seeds to address these needs will be included as part of our Vision 2000 movement.

Our Ministry Training Teams and Curriculum Consultant Teams continue to provide local churches with trained people to offer creative avenues to enhance educational ministry and guidance in selecting effective curriculum.

The Methodist Home for Children has employed a Child Care Consultant that will broaden our Conference outreach in the area of optional child care and nurture. We see this position as a positive response to the "State of the Child" conferences that have been held in our area over the past three years.

The Singles Task Force continues to address the needs of this avenue of ministry. Two events are being implemented annually to provide opportunities for nurture and support.

Our greatest Vision is to have District Directors of Christian Education to equip and empower local churches for faithful Christian Education. A pilot district will be selected for June 1995 with two additional districts for 1996 since a majority of our churches are unable to employ Directors of Christian Education, this collective use of a position would utilize our connectionalism at its best.

"Sowing Seeds: A Quest for Quality". We believe the ground is fertile and ready for new seeds to be sown. May we be faithful to nurture and care for that which God has entrusted to us. God expects the best that we have to offer.

Richard T. Clayton, Chairperson

ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS, COMMITTEE ON

The Ethnic Minority Local Church Concerns Committee is happy to see a small increase in the area of cross-racial appointments. Currently, four Native Americans are senior pastors at predominantly Anglo-American charges; one Anglo-American is pastoring a Native American church; one African American is associate at a white church, and one Hispanic American is pastoring a white church. We give God the glory for each progressive step.

We are concerned about the snail's pace in cross-racial appointments, especially across the African American/Anglo-American charges and the Anglo-American/African American charges. We are still concerned about our African American, Native American, Hispanic, and Korean American clergy women in the area of inclusiveness in appointments.

We have not and will not loose faith in our Church, because we still serve a God who said in I Corinthians 12:13 through the pen of Paul, "in the same way, all of us, whether Jews or Gentiles, whether slaves or free, have been baptized into the one body by the same Spirit, and we have all been given the one Spirit to drink."

Our Ministry and Missions Equipping Teams are in place and ready to serve all the churches within this great Conference. We have taken steps to make them more visible. We were involved with Mr. James Hunt of the Fayetteville District in their program for "Homeless and Family Crisis." We were able to minister to our Asian brothers and sisters by helping to fund the ministries of the SEJ Asian American Federation. This included support for the Asian American summer retreat at St. Simon's Island. We supported the work of the SEJ Native American Ministries, including the Summer Conference which canvasses annually at Lake Junaluska.

We want to thank the Annual Conference for deleting Items 3 and 4 of Section V.B. Reprioritization of Goals, Objectives and Strategies of the Comprehensive Plan and accepting the two revised items, which now read:

"3. Each program commission or agency will seek to develop at least 20 percent of its programs, beginning in 1993, specifically for continued development and strengthening of ethnic minority local churches."

"4. Each program commission or agency will seek to employ at least 20 percent of its budgeted program funds, beginning in 1993, specifically for the continued development and strengthening of ethnic minority local churches."

This Committee promises to present to you a completely revised Comprehensive Plan at the 1995 Annual Conference.

We thank you for your prayers and support throughout the 1993-94 conference year and solicit them even more in 1994-95. Come by and visit with us in the "Avenues of Opportunity" at Annual Conference and witness the EMLC display, "The Cutting Edge Ministry."

William E. Cummings, Chairperson

EVANGELISM, COMMISSION ON

The 1993/94 conference year began with the enthusiastic adoption of VISION 2000 at the June 18 session of the Annual Conference. Members of the Annual Conference quickly saw how VISION 2000 offers each local church a comprehensive process for capturing God's will for their future ministry in bringing people to Christ, to church membership, and to deepened discipleship. Members of the Commission have played an integral role in bringing VISION 2000 to life.

The Commission has also continued its work in emphasizing the ministry of evangelism in churches of all sizes in all settings. The Commission participated in a training session for pastors serving their first appointments and in a major cross-racial evangelism training event sponsored by the Commission's Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee. The Commission also offered scholarships for participating in the February Church Growth Seminar at Frazer Memorial United Methodist in Montgomery.

The teachings of Christ call us to respond to God's great love for us by reaching out in love to others. It has been said by many that the greatest mission field in the world today is the US. In every community approximately one out of every two persons is nonchurched. There is much to be done. Won't you reach out to your neighbors, friends, coworkers, or family members and invite them to your church?

Ecwood C. (Eckie) Lancaster, Chairperson

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, COMMISSION ON

The work of Health and Human Services is a ministry of love. The work of the various agencies of our Health and Human Services Commission, and those related to our Conference by faith, are in fulfillment of the command of our Lord to minister to those in need.

Each church is encouraged to have a Health and Human Services chairperson. This individual can enhance and strengthen the church as they lead the church to minister to those in need in our communities and world. This person is a very necessary contact person for Golden Cross, both to receive applications as well as to promote this ministry.

Golden Cross is an opportunity to help those who are in need of financial assistance for medical expenses. The maximum grant for aid is $1000.00. The district chairpersons of Health and Human Services may assist you with application forms. This year we are also asking the Annual Conference for permission to receive an offering on Golden Cross Sunday for those churches which elect to do so. This will come as a part of the Conference Council on Ministries report. Churches are invited to receive this offering in order to increase the number of grants which we are able to give during the year.

Accessibility for all churches is a continuing need. Many churches were constructed prior to much consideration given for accessibility. Yet, if we are to be an inclusive church which is open to all people including those with handicapping conditions, we must not avoid addressing this need. SEMAR has a packet of information and guidelines to help a church do an accessibility audit to determine needs. Churches are encouraged to obtain one of these packets and to do all that is possible and feasible toward making our buildings and services available to all people.

The Asbury Homes is continuing to search for suitable sites for a group home. Continue to pray that God will open doors for this ministry to progress. Unfortunately, persons with mental handicaps are often "warehoused" instead of being given active ministry in love and caring.

The Chaplaincy Program at Duke is one which reaps dividends for the local church. We have a UM chaplain who is available to make pastoral calls when a church member is hospitalized and their local pastor is unable to call in person. This is another ministry of Health and Human Services.

The Methodist Retirement Homes and Methodist Home for Children are ministries which have a long and rich heritage. Yet these ministries are more viable and active today than at any time in their history.

The MRH is presently in the process of relocating the Durham Campus and making much needed additions to existing facilities. This expansion and relocation will enable MRH to minister more effectively to our elderly. In addition, MRH has embarked on the EAGLE program with the goal being full recognition as an EAGLE institution. This program is one which the Annual Conference recognized in it's relationship statement with both MRH and MHC. I attended the Health and Welfare Association meeting in March to receive information and training in the EAGLE organization.

The MHC is currently in the New Century Campaign. This campaign is to help position MHC for continued and expanded ministry. Ministry to families and youth are growing needs which we have an opportunity and obligation to address.

I urge and encourage churches to be involved in health ministries. There are a myriad of other possibilities which we could use in ministry. Other conferences utilize programs such as: parish nurse program, community based day care, adult day care, hospice volunteer ministry, and other ministries which directly address the needs of people with health care needs.

The various ministries on the local level within the Conference are numerous. Ministry is being given in the areas of alcoholism, drug abuse, senior citizens, handicapping conditions, Alzheimer and aging problems, and various local ministries of outreach and caring.

I urge each church to support our Thanksgiving Offering for the Methodist Home for Children; the Mother's Day Offering for the Methodist Retirement Homes; and to receive an offering for Golden Cross. These opportunities for giving will reap dividends over and beyond the gift given.

The work of Health and Human Services is the love of Christ made real in ministry to those in need.

Roger D. Cope, Chairperson

The Asbury Homes, Inc.

The board of directors of The Asbury Homes, Inc. has been following up on many possibilities for developing alternative housing options for persons with developmental disabilities. The State of NC and the various mental health agencies at the county level have determined that there are adequate group homes and are seeking to assist in developing independent living opportunities for persons with developmental disabilities. Our agency has met with the Eastern Region Directors of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse and discussed our interest in establishing alternative living for persons with mental handicapping conditions. The directors have taken our proposals under advisement.

Due to budget restraints at the state level additional funds are extremely limited for the development of new facilities. In 1993 there were funds available for startup of only 10 new alternative living facilities. Much effort is being concentrated in the area of the elderly person with mental handicapping conditions.

The Asbury Homes Board has met with other UM Agencies and discussed the possibilities of a joint effort in the development of living facilities. This is being discussed at this time.

The Asbury Homes Inc., has been given a lot at Carolina Trace south of Sanford. This property will be sold when the real estate market in that area improves and the proceeds used to start up facilities in other areas. We are eager to develop a more inclusive residential form of alternatives that would provide an even less restrictive environment for adults with mental retardation in which they would have the opportunity to make a conscious choice of where they want to live and in which they would live in a more normal situation than that of a "group" home.

We are also concerned about seeing residential facilities developed specifically for geriatric persons with mental retardation. This would not be just another "home" like the present Developmentally Disabled (DDA) type homes but one designed to provide specific accommodations for geriatric residents including programs that are specifically designed for the target population that will serve to maximize their mental, physical, emotional and spiritual needs. Another concern that is being considered is that of providing Respite Care for both emergency and planned care. There are so many families with family members with mental retardation living at home that almost desperately need this kind of supportive care that we feel keenly that this is an area of ministry that we need to develop. The possibility of trained volunteers providing respite care in their homes can and is working in some areas. SEMAR Inc., (Southeastern UM Agency for Rehabilitation), an agency of the SEJ Administrative Council of The UMC has provided much assistance in our planning efforts. Dr. Robert Pitzer, Director of SEMAR serves as a consultant to our agency. He works with agencies throughout the jurisdictional area in such projects. It is through his wise counsel and advice that we are making progress in the goal of the agency. A special thanks to him for his assistance.

The Asbury Homes, Inc., is in a position to receive donations of property and funds to see that alternatives in residential living is made available through Federal Housing and Urban Development grants as plans are developed. They are awarded on a competitive basis to various agencies such as Asbury Homes.

The members of the board are available to discuss the goals and possibilities of The Asbury Homes, Inc., to churches and other interested groups and individuals.

Tom Walden, President

Golden Cross

The Golden Cross Ministry is one means by which our Conference reaches out in love to the laity within our Conference who are experiencing difficulty in meeting demands of excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross, we United Methodists care for members of our local church families in times of greatest emotional stress and financial need.

This past year (1993) was a record year for Golden Cross. On January 1, 1993, we increased the grant available to the laity from $600.00 to $1,000.00 annually. This led to an "avalanche" of requests. By March we had exceeded the amount of request and grants made in 1992, and by June we had exhausted our "promised" funds! We had budgeted $28,529.00 for 1993. As of January 1, 1994, we had disbursed $27,612.31, and there were still several outstanding bills totalling $916.69 that we had promised to cover. During 1993 we assisted 38 families from 11 Districts in our Conference. This could have been much higher if we had more funds available. If your church chooses to take a special offering for Golden Cross, please send it to Golden Cross, c/o The Treasurer's Office, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605. Golden Cross is a very special ministry.

Therefore, as you encounter those in need of financial assistance to help meet medical expenses, encourage them to contact their pastor for additional information and an application form.

With God's help and your generosity, we will try to meet each eligible request with the funds we have. In the past we United Methodists in the North Carolina Annual Conference have been gracious in making these funds available to all United Methodists.

The church and its members are grateful for your support in times of extreme need. God bless you.

The Methodist Home for Children

In 1993 Methodist Home for Children (MHC) experienced the largest annual growth in our 95 year history. Since June, 1993 our staff has more than doubled from 72 to 168 and our operating budget has likewise, more than doubled.

This growth has been occasioned by three developments:

- 1) The Division of Youth Services of the NC Department of Human Resources chose MHC to operate five new community-based multipurpose juvenile homes. These homes are located in Edenton, Goldsboro, Lumberton, New Bern and Winton. Each home serves 8 juveniles placed by the courts. The youth may be placed for detention or, after adjudication, be assigned to the multipurpose home as an alternative to training school.

Each home is staffed by 10 staff. One is a full time family worker who contacts the family of the juvenile the very day of his/her placement. In addition, a full time certified teacher keeps youths engaged in their schooling while in the multipurpose home. By intentionally keeping each youth engaged with family and school during a bad time in their lives, we increase chances of successful intervention.

The intent of this program is to provide a means for holding youthful offenders accountable for delinquent behavior while avoiding vengeful methods and attitudes.

- 2) The second development has resulted from our response to requests from several county Mental Health programs which asked MHC to provide high risk intervention to disturbed youths to avoid hospitalization or re-hospitalization. Medicaid provides the funding for this program. It has enabled us to increase our staffing ratio and training in our Youth Homes and our Foster Care Program so as to provide a more intensive service to the youth in our care.
- 3) Family Preservation Services has expanded at the request of the Division of Social Services with three additional family preservation specialists serving Brunswick, New Hanover and Wayne Counties.

STATISTICS

Program Services reflect unprecedented numbers of persons receiving services. In 1993 there were 1312 persons who received direct services from MHC. 260 children and youth were served in out-of home care. That is a 62% increase over 1992. A total of 450 families received therapeutic care. 761 persons were enrolled in family life education events and 6923 persons participated in interpretation events done by our staff.

OUTREACH PROGRAM SERVICES

MHC did program outreach services for 6 child and family service agencies across the nation. Outreach Broward in Fort Lauderdale, FL, achieved full certification as a Teaching-Family Sponsor Site. That site is the first to be certified as a result of Outreach Program Services. We continue to work with the Methodist Children's Homes in Jackson, MS and Little Rock, AR; The Georgia Industrial Home in Macon, GA; Kids in Distress in Fort Lauderdale, FL; and Family Resources, Inc. in Beaufort, SC.

In late 1993, MHC opened its most recent Outreach Program Service agreement with the NY State Department of Mental Health. MHC will provide consultation and training services to 7 sites in NY: 3 in NY City, 1 on Long Island, and 3 in up State NY. These sites expect to use Teaching-Family in the homes they operate.

CHILD DAY CARE CONSULTANT

We are pleased to announce that Margaret Anne Biddle has become MHC Child Day Care Consultant. Consultation is now available to local churches who wish to develop child day care programs. This position has resulted from partnership between MHC, the Annual Conference and the Duke Endowment. This initiative recognizes the need for quality day care as one way of addressing the issue of family support in out times.

NEW CENTURY CAMPAIGN

The MHC New Century Campaign to raise $7,000,000 investment in child and family services was launched in 1993. The first $1,000,000 has been raised in cash and pledges. The Campaign is gaining strength as it moves community by community across the area served by MHC. Directors and staff fully expect to achieve the goal by the new century.

In March, 1994, MHC was recognized as a finalist in the International Health and Welfare Ministries Award given by the General Board of Global Ministries. The recognition was for significant leadership in child and family services in consultation with the National Children's Home in England and with the Russian Orthodox Church in Russia. Harris Methodist Health Care Systems of Fort Worth, TX was chosen to receive the award for their medical work in Russia.

Rufus H. Stark II, president of MHC, has been appointed to represent the UM Association of Health and Welfare Ministries on the Inter-Agency Church Task Force on Supportive Policies for Family and Children of The UMC. He also has served as Program Chairman of the Children, Youth, and Family Section of the annual meeting of the UM Association in Williamsburg in March.

95 YEARS

MHC is in its 95th year of services. On Thursday, December 29, 1898, the Orphanage Committee, chaired by the Reverend John Wesley Jenkins, met at Edenton Street Church in Raleigh. The Committee has been authorized by the NC Annual Conference in November, 1898. The Committee set out to gather contributions for their purpose and on February 2, 1899, they met again at Edenton Street Church and reported that $1,050.00 had been subscribed.

That initial investment seems small by today's standards, but it was large enough to yield great dividends. The magnitude of this report is the return for 1993 on that beginning investment.

The directors and staff of MHC are appreciative of the partnership we share with the NC Annual Conference. The extent MHC's reach of ministry to children and families is unprecedented. We want to do all that we can to make this flourishing partnership continue.

Rufus H. Stark II, President

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

What a challenge it is to be a part of the exciting ministry of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated. I believe that there is no ministry of the church, nor any issue confronting our culture, more important than that of adequately caring for the elderly.

It is the mission of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated to "serve United Methodists in the NC Annual Conference and others who desire to live within a Christian retirement community and to extend support services beyond our campuses and to ensure to the elderly the respect and dignity that is their right as members of the human community."

In the year that I have been at Methodist Retirement Homes I have been greatly affirmed by the high level of commitment on the part of the Board of Trustees. I have never worked with any Board that was more dedicated to its ministry and mission.

With the support of this Board and a competent and caring staff, we have begun to address several critical needs facing the corporation. The first of these needs was to "re-connect" MRH to the NC Annual Conference of The UMC. Members of the staff have visited hundreds of clergy and lay persons. We have attended District Pastors Meetings and preached in scores of our churches. These opportunities are allowing us to share with United Methodists how we at MRH are extending the hospitality and grace of God.

As critical as this ministry is today, it will become increasingly more important in the years ahead as a larger and larger proportion of the population becomes elderly. The demographic data is staggering when one realizes that there are more persons living over 75 years of age today than have lived to be 75 years of age in all of the centuries prior to this.

As we look to the future for ways to enhance the ministry of MRH, we know that we will need to develop more residential facilities to care for the population demand. We already have begun to address this with the proposed expansion and relocation to the new site at Croasdaile Farm of the Durham campus, to be completed by September 1996. In addition, the Trustees are planning to expand the health care facility and add additional independent living facilities at Cypress Glen in Greenville, where the demand is much greater than our capacity to cope with the needs. Wesley Pines has been refurbished, encouraging increased occupancy at the Lumberton facility. The Strategic Planning Committee is also looking at other potential sites for expansion of the ministry based upon the needs of the Annual Conference and the population pressures.

While we realize that providing more residential facilities for the elderly is our primary task, we believe that we have a much larger task in seeking to ensure that all older adults experience a full and meaningful life. We have sought to project a "new image" of offering "the abundant life" that Jesus promises (St. John 10:10) to the older adults of eastern NC. We believe that Jesus came to offer abundant life to all persons, and that includes the elderly. As we seek in the future to provide non-residential ministries that will enhance the life of all older adults, we believe that we will be serving to our fullest capacity. In the years ahead we will be looking at providing senior adult day care, respite care to caregivers of the elderly, home care, therapy and fitness programs for non-residents, and other ministries not yet conceived.

Many lay and clergy members of the Conference have told me that MRH needs to make an intentional effort to provide more benevolent care to United Methodists. At the present time we are providing benevolent care for about 6% of our residents; we would like to increase that number by 1% per year until we reach 10%. This is important for the fulfillment of the mission statement of the corporation as well as our sense of Christian mission as a ministering arm of the NC Annual Conference and The UMC. Our commitment is to offer this benevolent care without jeopardizing the financial stability of the corporation.

We are developing a Foundation to receive gifts and endowment funds to support our ministry-benevolent care and special ministries. Our goal is to increase our endowment by $1,000,000 each year through gifts, trusts and annuities.

One of the ways the Board is seeking to measure and to evaluate our ministry is through the EAGLE Program (Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading toward Excellence), a service of the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries. The self-assessment process is very comprehensive and exacting. All of us at MRH - Board members, staff, and residents - are learning greatly as we are going through the EAGLE process.

Of course, we plan to complete the assessment successfully and be able to say to the NC Annual Conference of The UMC and to all of our residents that we provide the very best possible care for the senior adults we serve.

At the end of my first year of service here, I and the entire staff of The Methodist Retirement Homes renew our commitment to you, the UM laity and clergy of the NC Annual Conference, to make The Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated the very best retirement homes in the state of NC and ultimately in our nation. I trust that you will join us in this ministry of providing the "abundant life" for older adults in eastern NC.

Reginald W. Ponder, President/Chief Executive Officer

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, COMMISSION ON

Those of us who have the pleasure and opportunity to frequently be on the campuses of United Methodist related colleges and campus ministry units come to this Annual Conference with concerns over eroding financial support. The voluntary reduction of $30,000 and the additional $150,000 reduction mandated by the budget constraints of the Annual Conference will not go unfelt by the colleges. It may be helpful for us to be reminded of what we are funding when we give (or don't give) to our colleges.

For example, Louisburg, North Carolina Wesleyan and Methodist Colleges give through scholarship/financial aid to UM students far more than the total dollars given to them by this Annual Conference! In some cases it is nearly $2.00 being given to UM students for every $1.00 we give the colleges.

All three of these colleges have UM ministers who are full-time employees of the college (under special appointment by the Bishop) to serve as chaplains. Their salaries and the related costs are fully absorbed by the colleges even in years like this when we significantly reduce our financial support.

In addition to these very tangible and visible ways, our colleges minister in the name of The UMC in far more intangible and immeasurable ways. They open their facilities to a variety of groups, youth and adult, throughout the Annual Conference. Their classrooms are places where issues of faith and values are explored. Each campus is committed to an active religious life program and to providing opportunities for students to develop their faith through service to the community and world.

Trust me, the list could go on. Our colleges give to us in ways that far exceed the financial support we give to them. We, who come out of the Wesleyan tradition, have a historic commitment to higher education. Though many other areas of ministries of the Annual Conference demand our attention and should receive our financial support, let us not turn our back on "old friends." These colleges, which we called into being, deserve our continued and unwavering support.

And so too, do our campus ministries on university campuses! Wesley Foundations and cooperative interdenominational ministries bring The UMC's presence to campuses across the state. These campus ministries are jointly sponsored by our conference and the WNC Conference.

By sharing with you one sentence from each of two Wesley Foundation mission statements I may best illustrate the loftiness of their goals as well as the realities of the places where they seek to minister to college students.

- "The Wesley Foundation at UNC-Chapel Hill exists as a response to the life and work of Jesus Christ." (from "A Mission Statement", 1993 Annual Report)
- "To provide an alternative to the bars and other places of amusement along Hillsboro Street where people may gather in a smoke-free environment for "Fun and Spirit." ("Mission Statement," Raleigh Wesley Foundation).

These mission statements become a visible reality whenever UM students gather in Christ's name and a community is born. Our campus ministries are real places from which work teams travel to local, national and international destinations. Spiritual disciplines are practiced in these places. And in our UM campus ministry units students grow in faith while also finding on occasion the needed place of refuge.

The Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry counts it a privilege to have the opportunity to see our church at work in small colleges and major universities. We need to remain present and to continue to make our presence know. We can do that only with the renewed commitment of this Annual Conference.

Campus Ministry, State Commission on

UM campus ministry in the state of NC continues to be a vital and challenging mission of our denomination. At every campus ministry unit there are significant ministries of corporate worship, spiritual growth, and outreach offered to and by students.

State and regional student conferences, which were a dimension of earlier campus ministry days, have returned with renewed popularity and resourcefulness. Many of the campus ministry units support these events with both strong attendance and gifted leadership.

We have welcomed seven new campus ministers this year: Kathy Campbell (UNC-C); Ronald Dietrich (Pembroke State); Cecil Donahue (UNC-A); Walter Mack (NCCU); Gary Richardson (Appalachian State); Gail Porter-Nelson (Winston-Salem State); and Laura Spangler (Salem College).

The part-time ministry at UNC-Asheville is underway. Its local board has been appropriately constituted, and its initial program emphasis is developing around covenant discipleship groups. The UNC-Greensboro campus ministry unit will soon occupy a new cooperative ministry facility on campus, sharing space with the Presbyterian, Lutheran, Baptist, Roman Catholic, and Jewish student communities.

The Commission currently is perfecting its on-site campus ministry review (evaluation) plan in hopes that in the near future two teams can conduct one review each per year. The existing model is implemented over two days by a Commission-appointed team of seven persons. The maintenance of our aging Wesley Foundation buildings is a growing concern of the Commission. Presently, the Commission is working with the campus ministry unit at Appalachian State University at Boone in securing financial support for some much-needed major building repairs. A new facilities inventory form for assessing building needs has been developed and will be remitted annually by the campus ministries which occupy UM-owned buildings.

The Commission will be represented by four campus ministers at a regional training event on stewardship and fund-raising for campus ministry to be held in April 1994 in Maryland. Upon returning, these representatives are to offer assistance to the Commission and local campus units for developing strategies in raising funds.

The Commission Handbook for campus ministry operating procedures has been revised in accord with the 1992 Book of Discipline. The Commission Organization and By-Laws, which are a part of the Handbook, also reflect these changes. A vote of both Annual Conferences is required to effect change of the organization and by-laws. The changes, approved by the Commission, are as follows:

AMENDMENTS TO: ORGANIZATION AND BY-LAWS

THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE COMMISSION ON CAMPUS MINISTRY

ARTICLE VI - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Amend by addition of "Property and Program" Committees to the Executive Committee
Now reads:

The membership of the Executive Committee shall consist of the elected officers of the Commission, the Chairpersons of the Finance, Property, and Program Committees, the Cabinet Representatives of both Annual Conferences, the Executive Directors of Campus Ministry in each Annual Conference, and one Campus Minister without vote on personnel matters selected annually from the two Campus Ministers on the State Commission on a rotating basis.

ARTICLE VII - STANDING COMMITTEES

Amend by substitution of "financial examinations and statements of all assets" in place of "audits . . . of all funds."

Now reads:

It shall also be the responsibility of the committee on Finance to see that local Campus Ministry officers handling funds are properly bonded, that annual financial examinations and statements of all assets are made and reported, and that the State Commission Treasurer's books are audited annually.

ARTICLE VIII - MEETINGS

Amend by deletion of "ensuing" before the word "quadrennium" in the first sentence.

Now reads:

The State Commission for the quadrennium shall meet during October of the last year of each quadrennium, on a date set by the preceding meeting of the State Commission, to elect officers and necessary committees, including the Standing Committees, to assume office on the following January 1.

Amend by substituting "in" for "the first Monday of" in the second sentence of the first paragraph.

Now reads:

Upon organization, the State Commission shall meet annually in October at a place designated by the State Commission or Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IX - LOCAL CAMPUS MINISTRY ORGANIZATIONS

Amend for the purpose of designating the proper title from the current faulty reading: "Executive Director of the State Commission of the Annual Conference" to the "Executive Director of Campus Ministry in the Annual Conference where the ministry . . ."

Now reads:

(e) Ex-officio members shall include the members of the State Commission residing in the community and the Executive Director of Campus Ministry in the Annual Conference where the ministry is located.

The State Commission members are honored to be associated with our UM campus chaplains and their ministry units. This historical linkage with the Annual Conferences, the campuses, and the local churches is essential to the growing discipleship of our student population.

The Candler School of Theology

Since its founding in 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has helped to equip men and women to live out God's call to ministry. Candler graduates have distinguished themselves as bishops, preachers, pastors, teachers, scholars, chaplains, and church administrators, and as lay leaders in all walks of life. The largest seminary of The UMC, Candler has become known for its strong faculty, a curriculum combining the theological study with the practice of ministry, and innovative joint-degree programs with other Emory schools and divisions.

Faculty at Candler continue to take an interdisciplinary approach to research and problem-solving that helps move the church to new levels of understanding. For example, Dr. Nancy Ammerman, associate professor of the sociology of religion, is working on a research project titled "The Congregation in Changing Communities." Funded by a grant from the Lilly Endowment, the project examines the dynamics of congregational and community change by studying how congregations make sense of new situations and how they develop new strategies for action.

In the classroom and through research like Dr. Ammerman's which benefits local congregations, the Candler faculty seek to educate creative and faithful leaders of the church's ministries. More than ten books were published by Candler faculty authors in 1993-1994. In fall 1993, we welcomed Dr. Belle Miller McMaster, former director of the Social Justice and Peacemaking Unit of the Presbyterian Church (USA), as acting director of the Program for Women in Theology and Ministry. Bishop W.T. Handy, Jr., recently retired from the active episcopacy in the Missouri Area of The UMC, also joined the faculty as Visiting Arthur J. Moore Professor of Evangelism.

Fifty-eight rising high school seniors from across the country gathered at Candler last summer to explore the meaning of religious faith and how that faith relates to the world around them in the first annual Youth Theology Institute. The month-long program was directed by Dr. Don Richter and funded by a grant from the Lilly Endowment. Participants used Atlanta as their classroom, and guest speakers from a variety of theological backgrounds enriched their study. Another session will begin in July 1994.

We continue to ask for support from local churches through the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF) and through prayers for our faculty, students, and staff. Increased support of the MEF will directly reduce student debt and assure that the church of the next millennium is served by pastors who are committed and effective. We are grateful for the trust that you have placed in Candler School of Theology at Emory University as with you we share the work of preparing creative and faithful leaders for the churches of this conference.

R. Kevin LaGree, Dean and Professor of Divinity

The Divinity School of Duke University

"Thinking of the Divinity School as a pilgrimage along the road of Christian life reminds us of the corporate character of our life and work. Christian ministry is a corporate reality," said Dean Dennis M. Campbell in his sermon for the Divinity School's 67th Opening Convocation on August 31, 1993. In the past year of its journey, the Divinity School has continued to live out its longtime commitment to educating ministers in the context of a vital Christian community.

At the Convocation, Dean Campbell dedicated $1.5 million in recent endowments as well as renovations to the Divinity School facilities. The new Weldon Student Lounge, centrally located in the Old Divinity Building, features kitchen facilities, an improved student mail system, and works by NC artists. It was named for the Reverend Dr. Wilson O. Weldon ('34), who pastored in the WNC Conference for 29 years and served as world editor of The Upper Room. Weldon was special assistant to the dean at the Divinity School for eleven years, retiring from this position in 1992. The Centenary Lecture Hall, a new 130-seat hall in the New Divinity Building, was largely funded by a gift from Centenary UMC in Winston-Salem. Also refurbished were the J.M. Ormond Center and, with funds from the UM Publishing House, Cokesbury Bookstore.

Over the past year, the Divinity School gained new faculty, and some present faculty members were honored. Continuing its commitment to Wesley scholarship, the Divinity School appointed Richard P. Heitzenrater as professor of church history and Wesley studies. Acknowledged as the major Wesley scholar of his generation, Heitzenrater is known for discovering the "key" to Wesley's Oxford diaries. He is general editor and director of the Wesley Works project. Joining the faculty in 1994 is Priscilla Pope-Levison as assistant professor of the practice of evangelism. An ordained elder in the West Ohio Conference, Pope-Levison has taught contextual theology at North Park Theological Seminary since 1989. Among her books is Evangelization from a Liberation Perspective. In 1993, two faculty members received distinguished professorships. Ormond Center Director Jackson W. Carroll was named Ruth W. and A. Morris Williams Professor of Religion and Society, and James L. Crenshaw was named Robert L. Flowers Professor of Old Testament. In addition, George Washington Ivey Professor of New Testament D. Moody Smith received The UMC's University Scholar/Teacher Award.

While celebrating its present faculty's achievements, the Divinity School also mourns the loss of a past faculty member and leader, Dean and Research Professor Emeritus of Systematic Theology Robert Earl Cushman, who died June 9, 1993. Cushman, who served on the Divinity School faculty for 26 years, was dean from 1958 to 1971. During his tenure as dean, he was responsible for the planning and development of the New Divinity Building. A longtime member of the NC Conference, Dean Cushman was actively involved in ecumenical affairs and was a Protestant observer at the Second Vatican Council in 1964.

The Divinity School was again part of efforts to strengthen ecumenical relations, as Robert Earl Cushman Professor of Systematic Theology Geoffrey Wainwright preached at a joint Methodist-Episcopal service of baptismal renewal on May 24, 1993, at Trinity UMC in Durham. The service, commemorating John Wesley's Aldersgate experience, was the fruit of a 1992 meeting hosted by the Divinity School. "Episcopalians believe, as did John Wesley, that in baptism God actually does something, actually washes away sin sacramentally," Dr. Wainwright said. Bishop C.P. Minnick was one of the celebrants for the service.

The Divinity School Office of Admissions reported a 9% increase in the number of applications in 1993, over the previous year. The total enrollment in the fall 1993 semester was 467 students (362 M.Div., 13 M.R.E., 47 M.T.S., 30 Th.M., and 15 Special).

Carter S. Askren, Director of Communications

LAITY. COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Laity provides for the ministry of the laity in the NC Annual Conference. This year the Commission reviewed its purpose and revised the mission statement thusly:

The MISSION of the Commission on laity of the NC Conference of The UMC is to make known the Good News of God's love and salvation through Jesus Christ to all people by helping prepare and empower local congregations to be strategic centers for ministry and mission.

The Commission on Laity will:

1. Encourage the Laity in the local congregation, their homes, the workplace, and community in their ministries in the name of Christ.
2. Develop and promote programs to cultivate an adequate understanding of the theological and biblical basis for lay life and work among the members of the churches of the Annual Conference.

3. Develop and promote stewardship of time, talent, and possessions among UM's in cooperation with the CCOM.

4. Provide training for lay members of the Annual Conference.

5. Provide support and direction for such lay programs as Lay Speaking, January Workshops, the observance of Laity Sunday, and the Lay Person of the Year program.

6. Provide support and direction for the work of lay leaders on the local, district, and Conference levels.

7. Encourage the work and ministries of the UMY, the UMW and the UMM.

8. Assist in the communication of the work, programs, and ministries of the laity.

January Workshops, District Lay Rallies and the Lay Speaking Program continue to be an integral part of the ministry of laity in the Annual Conference.

Again this year January Workshops were held in all districts and as in the past, excellent training opportunities for local church leaders were provided via these sessions.

The Lay Speaking Program has had far reaching results in our districts and in at least one district, pulpits were supplied by Certified Lay Speakers more times than not. This program continues to provide opportunities for ministry by the laity in our districts. Local churches are encouraged to continue to recommend persons for lay speaking certification.

Nomination forms for Lay Person of the Year, Fall 1994, will have a few revisions that the Commission hopes will be helpful to local churches as they make their selections of lay person of the year and make these presentations at District Lay Rallies.

The Commission on Laity continues to be excited about what God is doing through the laity in our Annual Conference and it is our prayer that the Spirit of God will continue to dwell with each of us.

Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on us, make us, mold us, fill us, use us. Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on us.

Gwen C. Henderson, Conference Lay Leader

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

Since this is my final report on the status of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, I will focus my attention on the future of the Advocate as well as give a brief summary of its circulation and endowment fund.

There seems to be a renewed enthusiasm for the Advocate after a rather exhaustive study was done by a research committee made up of members from both of our annual conferences which unanimously concluded that the two conferences should continue in their joint support of the publication.

It is unrealistic to think the Advocate can ever be self supportive without the continual promotion of its circulation by the leadership of the two conferences and an active Advocate representative in each local church. But with this kind of support it is amazing what results can be achieved. For instance, through the years we have had as many as 500 churches that have consistently sent in an excellent list of subscribers. If the leadership of our conferences can convince every local church to give the Advocate this kind of support, the Advocate would be self-supporting with a readership double its present 30,000 readers - a reader survey revealed each subscription represents at least two readers.

I have felt that every report should emphasize the fact that the Advocate is the ONLY regular means of communication our local churches have with one another from Murphy to Manteo, sharing their outreach ministries and evangelistic zeal with one another. The Advocate, and its new editor, deserve the best efforts of all of us to see that this ministry receives top priority in our prayers and financial support.

Our circulation as of this writing is 14,759 with the NC Conference having 5,647 and the WNC Conference having 9,112. Our endowment total in its two funds is $410,533.43 with $210,431.69 being in our Finch Fund and $200,101.74 being in the Methodist Board Fund.

In closing I would like to thank everyone for their support and say once again what a high privilege and honor it has been for me to serve these many years as the Advocate's editor. May the future of the Advocate continue its past role of providing a many faceted ministry of communication in the service of our Lord Jesus Christ.

C. Alison Simonton, Jr., Editor/Manager

Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. Proposals

The Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. proposes:

- A. That a subscription campaign for the North Carolina Christian Advocate be conducted in the Conference in February 1995.
- B. That each local church be asked to accept as its minimum goal of Advocate subscriptions 10% of its membership.
- C. That the Advocate offer special subscription rates for churches in which every resident family subscribes to the Advocate, for churches in which every family on the Administrative Board/Council subscribes and for churches which reach 5% of their membership as subscribers.
- D. That each local church be asked to report to the 1994 fall Charge Conference the number of its subscriptions and a brief statement of its plans for the 1995 February Subscription Campaign.
- E. That each local church be urged to nominate to the 1994 fall Charge Conference a person to be its Advocate representative and that this person be a member of the Administrative Board/Council of that church.
- F. That the Advocate continue seeking funds for its endowment portfolio.

Richard B. Jarrett, President

MISSIONS AND OUTREACH, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Missions and Outreach invites every layperson, pastor, and local congregation to celebrate and embrace John Wesley's declaration, "The world is my parish." The members of the commission and the district secretaries have led the way in promoting mission in every district as churches responded to disasters around the world and human need near and far.

In 1993, the work of the Commission included:

1. Volunteers-in-Mission, a face to face mission partnership program. John Wesley said, "The reason we so little understand the poor is that we so seldom visit them." Through Volunteers-in-Mission, teams organized on the local, subdistrict, district and conference level have visited friends in many locations, including Costa Rica, Belize, Honduras, the Dominican Republic, Mexico, Armenia, Appalachia, and inner cities. Hearts and souls have been touched by love offered and received by people experiencing natural disaster; workteams have labored in the wake of hurricanes in SC, FL, and NC, and in response to the Midwest Flood of 1993. Volunteers-in-Mission were celebrated at the November rally and reunion, and leaders were equipped for workteam organization at the local, district, and conference level. Volunteers-in-Mission include youth, young adults, older adults, dentists, dental hygienists, teachers, doctors, musicians, engineers, pharmacists. Your gifts are needed, and you are invited to participate in a workteam project soon!

2. Education and cultivation, promoting generosity to people in need and increasing understanding of connectional opportunities for giving. Churches were invited to become a part of the growing number of Rainbow Covenant churches, paying in full conference apportionments and then going a second mile by contributing in each of the five lanes of the Advance - World Division, National Division, UM Committee on Relief, Conference Advance, and Missionary Salary Support. Giving to the General Advance in 1993 totaled $513,101.60, and giving to the Conference Advance totaled $160,238.63 - a significant increase over the 1992 giving totals.

3. Church and community, assisting and encouraging the mission of local churches. Grants were made in 1993 to local churches and to locally-based helping agencies accomplishing significant missions to people in need. Among the agencies helped through Church and Community grants in 1993 were Interfaith Hospitality Network of Wake County, Interfaith Hospitality Network of Durham County, and the Society of St. Andrew Potato Project.

4. Construction assistance to local churches. Gary Smith, conference construction coordinator, continues to give direction and expertise to small church building needs. In 1993, major projects were underway at Locust Hill and Evergreen in the Burlington District, Wrightsboro in the Wilmington District, Bethlehem in the New Bern District, and Bascom's Chapel in the Sanford District. In addition, smaller renovation projects were completed at other churches.

5. Ten Dollar Club. Grants were given in 1993 to Good Shepherd (Durham), Elon College (Burlington), Covenant (Greenville), and the church of Peru.

6. Liberia, Peru, and Armenia. The loving concern of our Annual Conference grows in partnership with Christians in these three areas of our world. Herbert and Mary Zigbuo and their family continue to serve in west Africa, living in Monrovia and working with Operation Classroom, an effort to restore the Ganta Mission School in Liberia. We join with the Methodist Church of Peru as prayer partners, giving and receiving love and wisdom and support.

Project AGAPE, an exciting partnership with the church and the people of Armenia, was highlighted during 1993. Charles Davis went to Armenia with a team of medical and education specialists in May. Needs were assessed, and Charles returned to Armenia in November to resume the work that he began in 1992. Three tasks were before him: the distribution of thousands of coats collected for the Armenian people, the teaching of Bible studies to Armenians who long for Christian nurture, and the establishment of an English-speaking church for embassy personnel and staff people helping Armenia through CARE, HOPE, and other agencies. The NC and WNC Annual Conferences have made a covenant to raise $100,000 in 1994 for support of the work in Armenia.

7. Faith promise. The commission, through the committee on education and cultivation, is working to interpret the concept of faith promise for mission. Wherever the opportunity is presented for a faith promise to helpful mission, people respond. In each district, the mission secretary offers help in using the faith promise process in each local church.

Contact any member of the Commission on Missions and Outreach for help in the development of mission through your local congregation. We are ready to assist in any way possible as together we claim again, "The world is our parish."

OUTDOOR AND CAMPING MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

This vital ministry of our church is continuing to grow and meet the needs of campers of all ages. The camp setting is the perfect place to "plant the seeds" of faith that will grow and develop with the care of the local congregation. Every member of the Conference is encouraged to explore again, or for the first time, the wonderful opportunities that await you at our camps. Everyone can benefit from a time apart in the great outdoors as a time and place to slow down and be reminded of who we are, whose we are and what we are about.

In 1993, we had 2,449 persons involved in the summer camping program. Over 31,000 persons enjoyed the camp setting throughout the year for a "camper day" total of 61443. All of our camps have seen increased usage by retreat groups. Camp Don Lee has developed a significant school groups program. We look forward to the future with great expectation as our facilities grow at Camp Chestnut Ridge with the completion of the Morris Center; the new memorial Don Lee cabin at Camp Don Lee; and the additions of yurts, an archery range and new vesper dale at Camp Rockfish. The 1994 theme of "Hidden Promise" holds true for this spirit of expectation and growth.

We are indeed blessed with outstanding manager/directors and other personnel at each site and dedicated local committees to further the mission and ministry of the camp. A dedicated Commission and Board of Directors have worked diligently as well to provide leadership for the camping ministry. We say thanks to everyone contributing numerous hours of volunteer service to the camps. Without these our program and facilities would not be able to function as well as it does.

Our camps continue to have very real needs. Many of the buildings are aging. There are needs for adult retreat facilities. Program needs and opportunities are on the rise. As we move into the next century may this Conference continue its loyal support of camping ministry, continue to have visions of moving forward with our ministry and provide for those visions to become reality.

PRISON MINISTRY AND PRISON REFORM, COMMITTEE ON

The topic of crime continues to occupy many headline stories in all news media. Untold amounts of energy and time are being focused toward problem solving in and around this major social issue. One theme that seems to be popular is the "Get Tough" trend, which inevitably would lead to having more persons incarcerated for longer periods of time. If any phase of this trend is enacted into law, it will certainly be a call for more volunteers in this area of ministry. Our committee is dedicated to enhance our congregation's educational opportunities in this arena, and in 1993 we packaged and piloted an easily repeatable district workshop.

The workshop is designed to address four areas:

How to get prison ministry started in your church

Ministries available INSIDE Prisons/Jails

Ministries available OUTSIDE Prisons/Jails

Justice and Reform needs

After a successful pilot workshop in the Raleigh District, we immediately began to promote its use across all districts. By the end of January 1994, five districts had taken the initiative and presented some form of Prison/Jail Ministry workshop. We intend to continually update, enhance and encourage the use of this type of educational opportunity for our congregations in the coming year.

Our displays at Annual Conference were widely attended, especially at the Fishing Village where a touch of reality took many to the local jail to hear a plea for mercy.

Our committee strives to provide opportunities for our leaders to maintain a sense of awareness to those incarcerated. Our committee schedules one meeting per year at an institution where we can tour and meet with inmates. The Bishop and his Cabinet again toured the facilities at Central Prison, and exchanged the spirit of God with previous death row inmates, who willingly shared their life stories and faith. Through these experiences behind bars, many of our leaders and our churches should strengthen their commitments to this much needed ministry.

Our committee also continues to expand our support for new ministries to inmates. This year we agreed to assist and support an Emmaus Walk program for inmates, known as KAIROS. This is an entirely new program to our State and we are committed to its success.

We continue to support our UMC women's prison MATCH program, now well underway, at NC Correctional Institution for Women.

We also support those involved in the Justice Fellowship Task Force who are actively providing positive influence on our State Legislature. We pledge our support to the many persons who are actively laboring in this mission field with little to no support structure. Please let us know how we may be of help to you.

We continue to ask for God's blessing in our efforts.

RELIGION AND RACE, COMMISSION ON

More than ever racial and ethnic troubles have torn lives around the world, calling our attention to the urgency of our work as Christians to show the way, especially within our local UM churches, districts and conferences.

We commend the many who have done what they could to improve race relations in their churches and communities. We are grateful to the leadership who have struggled to advance the cause of openness in our churches and open itineracy. We celebrate the good work of those responsible for the outstanding program on open itineracy held at Methodist College January 15, 1994.

Our Commission's priority for 1994-95 is Local Church and District Workshops on Racial and Ethnic Relations. We pray that every district superintendent and district Counsel on Ministries will help the district chairperson of Religion and Race promote these workshops. Hopefully, some ideas for action will emerge. We have to begin with these conversations and exchanges of views before real progress can be made. In many churches there is no chairperson of Religion and Race, and apparently still no readiness to try to change racial and ethnic attitudes. We regret that many pastors seem unwilling to risk controversy, and wait for their people's attitudes to be changed by the mass media or other social influences.

Our Commission is ready and willing to conduct workshops or lead worship services in any church in the Conference when invited.

We hope to present at Conference in June an annual award for Notable Efforts to Improve Race Relations in the community, school, or church. Criteria for judging the nominees have been in the NC Advocate, and are available from the Reverend Edith Gleaves' office in the Methodist Building.

Our Commission has responsibility to monitor our NC Conference boards, agencies, and institutions, which is done routinely. Some members doubt that it is a significant contribution to progress in our Conference. We pray that it is. Yet, there is no doubt that "Conscience Raising" events at the local church would do much more. Both are needed.

Our various boards, agencies and institutions make an effort to be racially inclusive but some are much more successful than others.

Affirmative-action recruiting has proven to be a necessary procedure in achieving anything near a balanced ethnic representation, and it is expensive and time consuming. We appeal to our ethnic churches to assist in these efforts.

Our Commission members are helping in the evaluation process when ethnic projects in our area apply for funding to the General Commission on Religion and Race. Thus, we are part of a national network of United Methodists involved in assisting worthy minority groups doing ministry. One such project is the Native American Assistance Program operating out of Grace UMC, Fayetteville District.

There is no agreement on where racial and ethnic matters belong in the priorities of Christians. Some wouldn't even place it on the list, and others would put it at the very top. Some would say evangelism and missions are our basic ministry; others would say we can't present Christ to anyone until we begin to practice Christian love for all people. Every United Methodist needs to struggle with this in 1994.

SOCIAL AND ECUMENICAL MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

"Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, or naked, or in prison?... When you have done it to the least of these members of my family, you have done it to me." We hear these words so often and wonder how we can make a difference in the lives of those who are often thought of as the least of these. Part of the work of the Commission on Social and Ecumenical Ministries is to help identify and be in ministry with those who are seen as people on the fringes of society. Through the work of this Commission, NC United Methodists are involved in ministering to the homeless through supporting Habitat for Humanity, ministering to those in prison through supporting Yokefellow Prison

Ministry, ministering to migrant workers, and ministering to those in Central America who suffer from political oppression. Through the work of this Commission, NC United Methodists support Native American ministries and the Land Stewardship Council. All of these are "Avenues of Opportunity" for tangible ministries to persons with real needs.

Through your special offerings for Peace with Justice Sunday, we are able to support the Workplace Reform Mission, which works for better job safety for workers, Seeds of Hope, which helps local farmers create farmers' markets to sell their crops, and the Pilgrimage for Peace, which helps persons witness to the life of peace to which God has called us to in Christ.

This year, in response to a resolution from the 1992 Annual Conference, the Commission sponsored a Forum on Pornography in the local community. Don Wildmon and Lenea Smith joined together to let concerned persons know how to fight pornography in the local community. The Commission is thankful for the leadership of the Reverends Stuart Tucker and Tony Collier, who were instrumental in helping the Hillsborough religious community come together against pornography as the possibility of PHE's relocating in their area became a reality. The second Prophetic Ministry Award went this year to Orange Citizens Against Pornography, (OCAP), an ecumenical organization, for its efforts to stop pornography from being manufactured in Hillsborough.

Also in response to a resolution passed in 1993, the Commission is looking at ways our local churches can be involved in ministries with women facing unwanted or unplanned pregnancies. We hope to help congregations encourage these persons to find creative and Christ-centered alternatives to abortion.

The other avenue of opportunity afforded the Commission on Social and Ecumenical Ministries is our relationship to the NC Council of Churches. Last year's decision by the Annual Conference to suspend funding to the Council of Churches to protest their decision to grant membership to the Metropolitan Community Church has been a catalyst for the Commission to look at what membership in an ecumenical body means. While many persons have varied opinions on the wisdom of this decision, it has been an opportunity for us to think about our ecumenical life and witness. While we have traditionally been ecumenically active in regards to social issues and concerns, like migrant ministries or opposing gambling, we have not spent as much time thinking about ecumenical issues in terms of shared doctrinal or ecclesial matters. The Commission sees these issues as vital to our continued ecumenical witness.

In April, a delegation from the Commission attended the National Workshop on Christian Unity in Providence, RI, where ecumenism in faith, order, and witness was the topic of discussion. The General Conference in 1996 will be studying the Council on Church Union document and hopes each annual conference will consider it before then.

We continue in confession, prayer, and watchful openness for the Spirit's leading in regards to our relationship with the Council of Churches. We also continue to provide avenues of opportunity for Christians to minister to those persons for whom the broken world is an everyday reality. Join us in witnessing to the power of the risen Christ to bring healing to broken lives.

God's peace,

M. Claire Clyburn, Chairperson

STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church (1992) outlines two major functions for The Commission on the Status and Role of Women: fostering an awareness of the meaning of the Church's continuing commitment to the full and equal responsibility and participation of women in the total life and mission of the Church; and recommending program opportunities for worship, fellowship, witness, study, nurture, and service with persons and groups which confirm anew the liberating message of Jesus Christ that recognizes every person, woman or man, as full and equal part of God's human family (§1262.9). Certainly this passage from the Discipline coupled with the overarching goal of our Council on Ministries: "to help prepare and empower local congregations to be the strategic centers for ministry and mission" describes the work of the NC Conference COSROW during the 1993 church year.

Two new members joined us this year: Rev. Mary Trum from the Greenville District and Rev. Kathryn R. Johnson from the Rockingham District. Both members have been an added plus to the Commission. Mary attended the training sessions for COSROW members at Lake Junaluska in August of 1993 and brought back a report that enhanced our knowledge of the role of this Commission. Three key words have come to signify the major work of the Commission: ADVOCATE, CATALYST, and MONITOR.

Our biggest challenge and accomplishment in 1993 was the planning, implementing and evaluating of the Spiritual Formation Conference. The conference was held on September 10, 1993, at Campground UMC in Fayetteville, where Rev. Charles Jones is the Pastor. Mrs. Lynn McMillan chairs the COSROW there and along with members of the local commission worked on basic details to make this one of the most successful conferences that NC has held; over 120 women and men attended. The theme for the conference was "Feeling the Hunger: Feeding the Soul: Sharing the Feast."

Our spiritual leader for the day was the Rev. Rosemary Brown of Nashville, TN. Rev. Brown led us through one spiritual experience after another as she told stories of her early church appointments and persons un-accepting of women initially who learned sometimes at the point of death to accept women and appreciate the talents they bring to God's ministry. Her creative communion consisted of her becoming (in dramatic portrayals) many of the women that followed Jesus as He ministered to people in His day. The elements in the sacrament were red seedless grapes and loaves of whole wheat bread, placed in linen cloth inside smartly-woven straw baskets.

Edna Duffy Murphy, liturgical dancer, choreographer, from Shaker Heights, OH, lifted spirits as she danced to the music of "The Lord Has Given Me A Song" and "Give Us This Day." In her workshop, Mrs. Murphy involved participants in creative movement. Mrs. Willie Mae Jones of John Wesley UMC was the pianist for the day and played with great fervor and spirit as we sang songs familiar: "Morning Has Broken;" "Sweet, Sweet, Spirit;" "Woman of the Night;" "Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore;" and "Here I Am, Lord."

We felt the hunger, but our souls were fed throughout the entire day. Workshop leaders fed our souls through: Storytelling and Drama - Hope Morgan Ward; Practice of Prayer - Carol Hayes; Spirituality of Movement - Edna Duffy Murphy; Teen Women and Spirituality - Sue Ellen Nicholson; Spirituality and Sexuality - Jimmie Shuler; Churches in Solidarity with Women - Bernice Duffy Johnson; and Women of the Bible - Rosemary Brown.

A panel moderated by Rosemary Brown with Jimmie Shuler, Sue Ellen Nicholson, Carol Hayes and Edna D. Murphy provided "Our Daily Bread." Each panelist reviewed what we need in order to follow the example of Jesus Christ in our daily lives. We ended with Holy Communion described earlier in this report.

This conference took a lot of planning and work. The Commission on the Status and Role of Women wishes to thank each one of you for your participation in the Spiritual Formation Conference. It was a great success! The conference was funded by COSROW, a supplemental gift from the NC Annual Conference and a gift from the Sanford District as well as participants' fees. Participants left Campground with a renewed sense of faith and trust in God. A video tape of the afternoon session, which included Holy Communion, will be made available to the public at some future time in the Methodist Building's Resource Room.

The Commission must now focus on other major issues facing our Conference and many other conferences across the US: issues of sexual harassment and salary policies and structure in the NC Conference. We urge all of our churches to participate in the "Clergywomen in the Pulpit Sunday" during the months of April, May, and June of each year and to provide child care services for district and Conference meetings. Members of the Commission promoted "Women of the Church" during the month of March in their districts in various ways. Rev. Gleaves encourages us to carry forth the mandates of the Commission.

The love of God has been with us as we have planned and carried out programs to promote peace and understanding among men, women and youth in this Conference. District representatives are promoting mission studies, setting up Self-Defense Workshops for women, establishing issue-oriented seminar classes during the Sunday School hour, sending news to district newsletters, providing child care during choir rehearsals and monitoring child care at January Workshops. All representatives are to participate in the Teleconference "Healing Broken Lives" to be downlinked May 10, 1994. The Spirit of God calls us with sighs too deep for words. The Spirit of God calls us, claiming us, summoning us to become more than we now are.

Bernice Duffy Johnson, Chairperson

STEWARDSHIP, COMMISSION ON

Stewardship has to do with what we have, not with what we hope to get. There is an old saying:

"It's not what you'd do with a million, If riches should e'er be your lot,

But what you are doing at present, With the dollar and quarter you've got!"

As stewards we are responsible for what we have been entrusted - money, talent, time, and creation gifts. Perhaps we too often think of stewardship as gaining more and more. While we are to be good stewards in investing that which has been placed in our care, we must not be careless in our investments. We are all stewards, but there are both wise and foolish stewards.

One of the main tasks of the Commission on Stewardship is to offer stewardship education and training in many various forms to leaders and churches within our Conference. Stewardship education is an on-going task that the Commission takes seriously.

The Commission on Stewardship has provided resources to each District Stewardship chairperson for the express purpose of making it available as a tool in their work on the district. It also makes possible that it is immediately available to local persons to examine for their use. One of the resources provided to each director has been a "Toolbox" that helps district directors develop specific intentional methods and programs on the district level. In October, Herb Mather, the Associate Director of the General Commission of Stewardship led our Commission in the use of the "Toolbox." Each district person also has the video, "Foundation For Discipleship," which is a very effective tool for interpreting the stewardship program of The UMC.

Some districts chose to use resource persons of the Commission to offer an additional January Workshop, "It's About Time," which was designed to teach stewardship of time, talent, and spiritual gifts. The Commission will join with other Commissions in a moratorium on new recommendations for 1995, but will support fully the Vision 2000 endeavor. The resources of Stewardship Specialists are available to any church who requests their leadership. The first two visits are at no cost to the local church and further visits are mutually agreed upon. This can be a valuable resource for small churches who have limited resources and leadership. Churches interested should contact Mr. Bill Norton at the United Methodist Building, who will make the assignment of a Specialist.

For those churches who may have interest in Gifts and Wills or areas of planned giving, the Reverend Douglas Byrd through the United Methodist Foundation can give invaluable service to local churches.

Carson Olin Wiggins, Sr., Chairperson

WORSHIP, COMMITTEE ON

As we begin a new quadrennium, the Commission on Worship is excited about its task of shaping the worship of the NC Annual Conference. The commission is continuing its work in interpreting two documents pivotal in the history of the worship of the people called Methodists. The first document, The Book of Worship, was addressed through January Workshops held at the district level, at the Bishop's Seminar on Ministry in March of 1994, and through Worship Training Teams available upon request. The other document, By Water and the Spirit, stands as the most important attempt to clarify the Methodist understanding of the sacrament of Holy Baptism since the days of Mr. Wesley.

An additional ministry offered by the Commission on Worship is that of its sponsorship of a Clergy Family Retreat held at Camp Don Lee in April, 1994. Families of diaconal and ordained ministers will be offered the opportunity to "come apart for a while," as Jesus invited his disciples, for spiritual refreshment and renewal.

Perhaps the central privilege of the Commission on Worship relates to its responsibilities to provide ethnic and gender-inclusive worship resources for the various sessions of the NC Annual Conference and for other Conference meetings. The commission's representative on the planning committee of the Bishop's Seminar, Dena McFarland White, served to help choose worship as the theme for this year's seminar and to invite its worship leaders, Dr. J. Lawrence McClesky, and the Reverend Thomas A. Langford, Jr. Plans are underway for the commission to plan and conduct an unprecedented number of worship services for the 1995 Bishop's Seminar, with worship styles reflecting both the free-church and the sacramental traditions.

The goal of the Commission on Worship as it plans the worship services for the NC Annual Conference session is to offer services with variety, integrity, and inclusiveness, which will bring worshippers into the presence of the risen Christ. In the creation of these services, we seek to follow the example of Wesley himself in uniting experiential and sacramental piety. At the same time, we are sensitive to the current budgetary restraints facing the Annual Conference, and we strive to serve as an example of good financial stewardship.

The Commission on Worship thanks the NC Annual Conference for its support, and is delighted to continue to offer itself in service to the Conference and to our risen Christ.

Charles M. Cook, Chairperson

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, COMPOSITE REPORT OF

"We, the Cabinet of the NC Conference, are encouraged by the recent good news that after eight years of decline, our mission and service giving is up 2.4 per cent, and we express appreciation."

With these words, the Cabinet began its letter to the pastors in Epiphany 1994. After eight years of declining contributions, our Conference showed an increase. Evidently something happened at Conference in June 1993 which sent out a word of encouragement to our people. We only pray that we will continue an upward curve.

The 12 districts continue to be a stage on which the great drama of Christ's Kingdom in NC is played. Every member of every church is a part of the cast. Every church, large and small, is important. Our Lord Jesus gave His great commission to all of His people for every generation. We will answer to Him, especially concerning our faithfulness to the script - the Holy Scriptures.

VISION 2000 is a movement begun in the WNC Conference and now spreading all across American Methodism. VISION 2000 now becomes our battle plan for the 90s. A giant convocation of the church in the Raleigh Civic Center is planned for October 22. Each church will be challenged to select its own emphasis for 1995, from a menu of suggestions. "Where there is no vision, the people perish." May God give us a vision of what He wants us to be and to do as we prepare to enter the 21st century. Let us be much in prayer for our local churches and for our NC Conference!

Meanwhile, back home in your church and district, what's happening? Here are the reports as sent to me by the eleven other district superintendents, and my own report from the Goldsboro district.

BU: West Burlington UMC has renamed itself First UMC of Elon College, relocated to the town of Elon College and begun construction of its new building. Evergreen UMC has begun construction of its first unit. Amity UMC and Locust Hill UMC have both consecrated new fellowship halls. Camp Springs UMC has begun construction of a new fellowship hall.

DU: Asbury Temple UMC has a new parsonage. Rehoboth Harris Chapel UMC renovated its parsonage adding two bedrooms and Oxford UMC completed its renovations. The Christmas offering was given to Good Shepherd UMC for the purchase of land. A Habitat House is under construction in Person County. There was 20%+ church membership growth at Resurrection, Asbury Temple and Aldersgate. A 10%+ membership growth was reported at McMannen, Duke Memorial, Epworth and Good Shepherd.

EC: In addition to the $50,000 in disaster relief our Annual Conference sent to the Hatteras and Kinnakeet charges for parsonage and church repair after Hurricane Emily, individuals generously lavished care and concern directly on the area. The results of those acts of Christian care included homes being cleaned up, people being fed, and structure being repaired. The story of open-handedness has been over-whelming to the people of the area. Examples:

$60,000 funnelled through the Hatteras Charge UMC assisted over 120 families in home repair, with the average being about $500 per family. Most of these funds came to the men's group in $10, $15, and $25 donations. These contributions came from Sunday School classes, Bible Study groups, and individual families across the Conference and the state. Some families wrote that they were contributing to relief in lieu of exchanging gifts at Christmas.

Littleton UMC sent $10,000 to repair the churches of the Hatteras Charge. A Work Team from the Elizabeth City District spent one day in Avon removing the brick from the Kinnakeet parsonage in preparation for "raising" the building above flood levels. A Youth Group from Mount Olivet UMC assisted with clean-up immediately after the storm. P. D. Midgett, from Southport, prepared a video tape, "Aftermath of Hurricane Emily," to distribute throughout the Conference. It is available to those who wish to use it. Windsor UMC held a fund raiser dinner with proceeds going to the Little Grove UMC repair fund.

FA: The people at Sandy Grove on the Raeford/Hoke Charge are enjoying their new fellowship building. The Fayetteville district is raising money to give to Methodist College for a scholarship to some deserving student from the Fayetteville district. Our goal is $1 per member from each church in the district. St. Matthews Church has continued to grow with morning worship reaching an average of 150. The district came closer this year by about 5% in raising their missional giving.

GO: The DCOM authorized a Wayne County Crusade with a Billy Graham team evangelist. Thirty UM churches have joined 35 churches of other denominations in extending an invitation to Ralph Bell. Bethel (Wayne County) dedicated its new fellowship hall on January 31 and burned the note. Buckhorn (Wilson County) built a new fellowship hall with a beautiful stone exterior. The 1993 District Lay Rally held at Mount Olive College heard Margaret Jensen, Wilmington Presbyterian author. The 1994 speaker, Dr. Dennis Kirlaw, is a former president of Asbury College. Eureka UMC has appointed a building committee for a new fellowship hall in cooperation with Conference builder, Gary Smith, using volunteer work teams. Mount Carmel has named a building committee for a new fellowship hall also to be built in cooperation with volunteer work teams. A new Eureka Charge is formed with Eureka, Yelverton, and Labanon. Woodland Church in the Kenansville Parish met the District Board of Church Location and Building developing plans for a new fellowship hall. Wallace Church has built a new fellowship hall completed March 13. Zion leaders have met the District Board of Church Location and Building preparing to build a parsonage.

GR: Greenville district in the past year improved their overall giving to Outreach and Missional causes by 6.7% in 1993. Several of the congregations have made physical improvements to their facilities. Epworth on the Swan Quarter Charge has made some great improvements in its building. Robersonville is about ready to occupy its new educational space and enlarged fellowship hall. Covenant, our newest congregation, with a membership just over 350, has had four consecutive Sundays in which attendance at worship exceeded 500! They are looking into acquiring more land and are getting ready to begin work on their second unit. Salem is planning to enlarge its worship space to accommodate its growing congregation. Lane's Chapel is planning a new fellowship hall and renovations of some facilities. Ayden is in the planning stage of a new parsonage. Woodington is adding ramp space to make the sanctuary and fellowship hall handicap accessible. Several churches have started new groups for young adults and they continue to grow. Jarvis Memorial Church had its largest number of Professions of Faith in its history in 1993.

NB: The New Bern District has just completed the second Habitat for Humanity House, and is now contributing monies toward the building of a third house. The first was built in Craven County, the second in Carteret, and the third will be built in Onslow County. The Oak Grove UMC in Hubert will have completed an eight room parsonage, plus garage and study, by May 1. Garber UMC recently consecrated their new Conderman Youth Center. Bishop Minnick was the speaker for the service. The Bethlehem UMC on the Midway-Bethlehem Charge is building a 4300 square feet fellowship hall with an educational wing. They expect to have this completed by summer.

RA: Over 300 persons from across the district took part in Neighbor Day and restored 23 houses and a community center in Warren County. Apex has completed a new parsonage. Genesis in Cary broke ground for its first facility; Shiloh began an education/fellowship building; Benson Memorial began a new parsonage and Peace Christian Community began construction of its first facility. At least three congregations had Sundays when the worship attendance exceeded 1000: Cary: First; Cary: White Plains; Raleigh: Edenton Street.

RO: First Church in Pembroke moved into a new fellowship hall. First Church in Rockingham has approved significant renovations. The Rockingham district had a 10% increase in apportionment giving in 1993. Appreciable increases were taken in 1994 pastor's salaries and apportionments.

RM: Littleton UMC presented a gift of $10,000 to the people on the Outer Banks after they suffered hurricane damage. Plans are being made for fellowship buildings at: Mt. Zion, Temperance Hall on the Edgecombe Parish, Rehoboth on the Northampton Charge and West Nash. The churches of the Halifax and Northampton Counties held a very successful sub-district revival in February.

SA: Ether UMC has completed its first year as a UMC after transferring from the UCC denomination. The church is served by a student pastor and has an average attendance of 50. A second Hispanic ministry has begun, meeting in Trinity UMC in Sanford. Average attendance is 30. Trinity Church was closed in 1992. The Rev. Charles Davis of the Sanford district is now serving in Armenia as director of Project AGAPE. This ministry is a joint venture of the two NC Conferences. Bascom Chapel recently completed a new educational building. The building was consecrated February 6, 1994. McQueens Chapel recently completed renovation on their sanctuary. The dedication service was held on March 13, 1994.

WI: A new 4,700 sq. ft. sanctuary was completed at Wrightsboro UMC; first service was Palm Sunday. Brunswick Circuit parsonage has added a two-car carport and two storage rooms. Wrightsville UMC parsonage has added two rooms and a bath. The parsonage at Mishop Springs has a new addition of a study and bath. Pine Valley UMC has added a family room to its parsonage and acquired 1.5 acres for an Activity Center. Jordan's Chapel has a new parsonage. Johnson Chapel in Garland Charge has closed. The Burgaw UMC sanctuary burned on February 11, 1993. Two districts events were Gun Buy-Back Program and the Migrant Ministry Program.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

On December 11, 1924, James Buchanan Duke established a charitable trust known as The Duke Endowment. The expressed purpose of The Endowment was "...to make provision, in some measure, for the needs of mankind along physical, mental and spiritual lines..." The Indenture was a legal document that established a $40 million endowment, named trustees to manage it, and defined the organizations or individuals which were to be the beneficiaries of the trust's income. Within a year after signing the trust James B. Duke Died, but he left an additional $67 million to The Duke Endowment, $11 million of which was to go to the construction of Duke University. One December 31, 1993, the assets of The Duke Endowment were $1,441,000,000. Since its inception in 1924, The Duke Endowment has made grants totaling $1,085, 266, 078.

The idea of helping people in North and South Carolina began much earlier in the life of the Duke family than when James B. Duke signed the Indenture. Washington Duke and his two sons, James Buchanan and Benjamin Newton, started a family tobacco business soon after the Civil War. In 1884 the small firm gambled on an innovation - automation - and the cottage industry rapidly grew into a giant tobacco company. In 1902 the family began investing in hydroelectric power development, a move which eventually led to the founding of Duke Power Company. Throughout the years of growth and prosperity, the Duke family contributed generously and privately to selected hospitals, orphanages, the Methodist Church and Trinity College. Even though the Indenture was not signed until 1924, the general trends of the family's philanthropic interests had been well established. The Duke Endowment simply systematized and strengthened what already existed. Today The Duke Endowment is one of the largest philanthropic foundations in the US.

In establishing The Duke Endowment Mr. Duke specified who the recipients or beneficiaries would be. Income from the trust was to assist four institutions of higher education not operated for private gain - Duke University, Davidson College, Johnson C. Smith University and Furman University. Other beneficiaries included not-for-profit hospitals in North and South Carolina and not-for-profit child care institutions in North and South Carolina. In the Indenture Mr. Duke also named as beneficiaries the Methodist Church in rural NC. The Methodist Church or its successor, now The United Methodist Church, was to receive grants in three areas: building rural churches, maintaining and operating rural churches and retired Methodist Pastors and widows and children of deceased pastors.

The Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment has the responsibility of making grant requests to the Trustees of The Duke Endowment in the three areas related to The United Methodist Church. The first area of the work of the Rural Church Division is in Superannuate Grants whereby retired pastors who served in either of the Conferences in NC, or who have served five years in either of the NC Conferences and the subsequently transferred to and retired from another Conference, will receive a check each December of each year of service. Presently each pastor receives $30 per Service Year. Widows of deceased pastors receive 75% of what the pastor would have received if alive and children of deceased pastors receive 25%.

A second area of responsibility in the Rural Church Division is the Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches Program. A variety of programs is supported, with a major recipient being Duke University Divinity School. Grants to be applied to tuition are made to student pastors as well as students in summer and winter field placements. Grants also are made to Duke University Divinity School to assist pastors attending continuing education events and to churches who are needing help starting new and innovative programs.

For the last two years, under the continuing education aspect of Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches, The Duke Endowment has assisted pastors and spouses on a Holy Land tour. The Duke Endowment has paid roughly one-half the cost of the pastor and the pastor's spouse on the tour.

The final area under the Rural Church Division is that of Building Rural Churches. Grants are made to churches who are involved in either new construction or renovations. One of the concerns of the Committee on Rural Churches of The Duke Endowment is that many churches are not accessible to the physically disabled. Consequently, a strong emphasis of the Rural Church Division is to help churches become accessible to persons with physical disabilities.

The grants made by the Trustees of The Duke Endowment between January 1 and December 31, 1993 are listed below:

EPISCOPACY, COMMITTEE ON

Writing in his Journal 210 years ago, Francis Asbury gives a terse account which belies the true significance of the occasion. The date was December 24, 1784, in Baltimore, the organizing Conference of Methodism in America and the account was how the Methodist Episcopal Church and our system of government came into being: It was agreed to form ourselves into an Episcopal Church, and to have superintendents, elders, and deacons. When the Conference was seated, Dr. Coke and myself were unanimously elected to the superintendency of the Church, and my ordination followed, after previously being ordained deacon and elder. ... We spent the whole week in conference, debating freely and determining all things by a majority of votes. ... We were in great haste, and did much business in a little time.

That first Discipline in 1784, asked the question, "What is the duty of a bishop?" The answer it supplied was the following,

To preside as moderator in our conferences; to fix the appointments of the preachers for the several circuits; and in the intervals of the conference, to change, receive, or suspend preachers, as necessity may require; to travel through as many circuits as he can, to direct in the spiritual business of the societies; and also to ordain bishops, elders, and deacons.

Much has changed in our 200 year history as an organized church, but the responsibility of a bishop to provide spiritual direction continues to be central to our life as a people called Methodists. How blessed we are to have Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr. beginning his eleventh year as our chief pastor and leader in North Carolina United Methodism. We are equally blessed by the supportive and compassionate ministry of Mary Ann Minnick. Her charm and grace is a great witness among us.

Let me mention a few of the accomplishments of the past year that your committee would like to note. In May of this year, when we met, it was reported that Bishop Minnick has visited with clergy and laity in all 12 districts. We sense a growing positive attitude and one of understanding for the work we do through the Connection. Three cross-racial appointments have been made in the past Conference year, a visible expression of our inclusiveness in Christ. Earlier this year, Bishop Minnick led a study trip for clergy and laity to the Holy Land. He also attended the formal opening of Africa University in Zimbabwe, a commitment of our church toward training future leaders on that continent.

One of the honors that has come to Bishop Minnick is one which brings distinction to our Conference as well. He has just completed a term as President of the Council of Bishops. This is a clear indication of the esteem in which he is held by his colleagues in the Episcopacy.

One additional word that we would like to share is appreciation for the service of Vivian Mitchell in the Bishop's Office. "Miss Vivian," as many of us referred to her with sincere affection, gave of herself in a very devoted way to this office for over 20 years. We want to express our sincere gratitude for the gracious and effective leadership she gave to those who led our Conference through these years.

Today, as we present to you our report, we offer our gratitude to God for sending C. P. Minnick our way. Would you please stand as I lead us in a prayer for him and his ministry.

Dear God, You have given us leaders endowed with gifts and graces for ministry. Today we offer our thanks for your servant, C. P. Minnick. We thank you for his patient and compassionate leadership, for the depth of his spirituality, for his knowledge of the Word, and for what he means to the churches and people of this Conference. Continue to pour out your Holy Spirit upon him. Equip him for the ministry and the diversity of tasks that challenge the church in our day. Make him wise in his administration, exemplary in his life, and fervent in lifting the standard of Christ among us. Through Christ our Lord, we pray. Amen.

Cashar W. Evans, Jr., Chairperson

LAY PERSON OF THE YEAR PRESENTATION

As you know, lay persons of the NC Conference bring much to the life of our churches and communities. I am pleased to present the district lay leaders and the district lay persons of the year found in the Book of Nominations and Handouts 1994.

Our District Lay Persons of the Year are: Joseph D. Davis from Prospect UMC in the Burlington District, Helen Turner from McMannen UMC in the Durham District, Lois Brown from Zion UMC in the Elizabeth City District, Bernice D. Johnson from John Wesley UMC in the Fayetteville District, Ellen T. Brubeck, M. D., from Mt. Olive: First UMC in the Goldsboro District, Harold A. Lane from Washington: First UMC in the Greenville District, Gordon Crossman from Northwoods UMC in the New Bern District, Lib Campbell from Hayes Barton UMC in the Raleigh District, Lucinda Kosak from Snead's Grove UMC in the Rockingham District, Lucy Hinson from First UMC in the Rocky Mount District, Guy R. Sproles, Jr., from Page Memorial in the Sanford District, and Brent Hood from Whiteville UMC in the Wilmington District.

The theme each year for the last several years has been "Disciples - Servants Extraordinary." I assure you that this year's election/selection process was not different from previous ones. Again the executive committee of the Commission on Laity worked diligently. However, I am pleased to say we feel that again this year we came out on top.

I encourage laity to continue to seek spiritual enrichment as is so evident in the lives of each of our district lay persons of the year and it goes without saying, certainly in the life of our Conference Lay Person of the Year.

The Lay Person of the Year not only serves our Annual Conference well, but also serves her local church and community. As a Sunday School teacher of a class that increased 20% in membership and provided 80% of the offering, our honoree is thorough in her preparation of all that is done. She loves to inspire and communicate her faith in God to others.

Our honoree drives from 120 miles on a given choir rehearsal night. She serves as a support and consultant to UMW at her church and to the Women's Division. She is a full-time professor at NC Central University, serving the family resource management and home economics education area. Our honoree also serves as the chairperson of the Faculty Senate at NCCU.

This past year, she spearheaded a drive with her vocation students at NCCU to provide 100 bottles of water for the victims of Hurricane Andrew. She was elected as a delegate to the 1992 General Conference and presently serves on the SEJ Administrative Council.

In November of 1992, you may have glanced at her picture as she was featured in Newsweek, assisting children in the Child Development Center with a birthday party for Mrs. Hillary Rodam Clinton.

Her influence and leadership reaches beyond the borders of the US. She along with 19 other persons in her profession were selected to travel on the 1993 Citizens Ambassadors Team as consultants for the Vocational Home Economics Curriculum in Russia and Lithuania.

Involved locally, nationally and internationally, because of her sincere dedication and commitment to MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN SOCIETY, she was elected by her local church and district.

A devoted wife, a nurturing mother and a devout Christian woman educator and mentor, yet a willing, but humble Christian spirit, I invite the 1994 honoree, her family, the district superintendent, and the district lay leader to join us here on the stage. Congratulations Dr. Bernice Duffy Johnson.

Please join me in receiving the 1994 Conference Lay Person of the Year, who along with each of us, LOOKS UP TO CLAIM THE NEW VISION FOR THE PEOPLE CALLED METHODISTS."

Gwen Henderson, Conference Lay Leader and Board of Laity Chairperson

THE NC CAMP MEETING

In 1994, we are celebrating the bicentennial of the camp meeting in North Carolina. Since some of these outdoor assemblies were simply called revivals, historians differ on just when the first camp meeting took place. Documentation exists that such an event was held by Presbyterians and Methodists in 1794 in a large open field in Lincoln Co. where Rehoboth Church was later built. Leaders Daniel Asbury, William McKendree, Nicholas Watters, William Fulwood, and James Hall reported that "300 souls were converted."

Open-air religious services began among Presbyterian, Methodist, and Baptist folk in Kentucky, parts of Tennessee and Ohio, and spread into Western NC. Although camp meeting was not an authorized Methodist institution, it met a specific need and spread eastward, becoming so popular that it became a Methodist feature in nearly every district. The presiding elder became the manager for camp meetings, selecting sites, dates, and recruiting ministers within his district. Local preachers exhorted after general preaching services, and circuit leaders held several prayer meetings daily at the stand, and in the tents where families "camped out."

The reason camp meetings succeeded among the Methodists was a combination of the desire of frontier families to socialize and circuit leaders to extend the Love Feast of the standard Quarterly Meeting held for each circuit. As the Great Revival in the West spread eastward between 1797 and 1805, the spark ignited desires so that no church could hold crowds who wanted to gather, and camp meetings became so vital and numerous that Francis Asbury commended the spiritual renewal that resulted. He wrote, "Our camp meetings, I think, amount to between 400 and 500 annually (1811), some of which continue for a space of six or eight days."

The theme of the preaching was exclusively evangelistic, and the exhortation that followed each sermon appealed to sinners to seek salvation. So mighty was the Spirit of God among the people that mourners cried aloud with praise when they felt spiritual relief and testified to their new-found salvation. The righteous reacted with involuntary "jerks" and "dances" as sinners cried for mercy (all of which was suspect to some), but most agreed the excitement was a revival of true religion. Those few who came to disrupt the meeting often came under conviction, and were converted by the power of God so evident in the camp.

"From 1804 to 1824 camp meetings were begun in most of the districts in Eastern NC."

Earliest Camp Meetings within the bounds of our NC Conference, 1802 - 1813:

- Scarborough Meeting House, Montgomery Co. near Mt. Gilead, led by James Jenkins, 1802
 - Five camp meetings, New Bern District, reported by Johnathan Jackson, 1803
 - Pee Dee Circuit, Camden District near Rockingham, led by James Jenkins, PE, 1803
 - Town Creek, Brunswick Co., told by Asbury (Samuel Richardson converted), late 1803
 - One at Gautier's in Bladen Ct., and one "Ten miles from Wilmington," by James Jenkins, 1804
 - Partridge's, New Bern District, led by Philip Bruce, PE, November, 1804
 - Ebenezer's MH, Halifax Co., 12 mi. above Halifax, selected by Philip Bruce, October, 1804
 - Fry's Camp Meeting, Caswell Circuit, by Thomas Mann, circuit preacher, 1807
 - Smith's Camp Meeting, Wake Co., under leadership of Sihon Smith, August, 1813
- (See Early Methodist Meeting Houses in Wake County, NC by Grill, p. 51.)
- Hunley's, Chatham Co., a popular preaching place, a camp meeting began August 3, 1813

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

We begin this report with appreciation to Dr. Reginald Ponder whose vision, energy, skill, and commitment to Christ's church provided the Council leadership for seven years.

Now, as the Council moves forward, we recall Lake Junaluska's Assembly founding "...for the help of preachers and [laypersons] and the general upbuilding of the Church...in our onward movement for the evangelization of the world;" remember the work of previous councils; and restate our mandate: (a) To coordinate and help make effective the work within the jurisdiction of boards and agencies of the UMC, (b) To study changing missional needs of the jurisdiction, (c) To give oversight to jurisdictional programs and agencies, (d) To give oversight and care to Lake Junaluska Assembly and the Atkins House.

The mission of 3.2 million United Methodists in the Southeast is to join God in Discipling the World into Christlikeness, while a motivating vision for the Council is to be a servant center in which spiritual nurture and growth is experienced and from which Christian witness and service flow as lay and clergy are equipped for faithful discipleship through information, communication, leadership training, and resources.

The Program Division provided ministry with and to 11,000 persons from all 16 SEJ Conferences, while eight Agencies assisted over 16,000 persons with training, outreach and consultation.

Ongoing Council programs in faith development, leadership training, missions, and justice advocacy combined with new offerings by the Centers for Lay Ministry and Congregational Development to equip more than 4900 Sunday School teachers, pastors, and lay leaders. Another 6100 persons, including 4987 youth, were provided spiritual growth and Bible study experiences.

In Ethnic Concerns ministries with and to Afro-American, Hispanic, Korean and Native American persons were developed and annual conferences received consultation and resources to help draw strength from a more inclusive community.

A growing awareness of the relationship between physical wellbeing and spiritual wholeness summoned plans for a Family Health & Fitness Center to meet needs of conferees, Assembly residents and members of the wider community as well as to provide training for persons who will guide an increasing number of family life centers being developed throughout the Church.

A strategic portion of the SEJ outreach is carried on by our Jurisdictional Agencies with separate boards but common mission:

1. Archives & History and The Heritage Center emphasizes preserving historic materials and helps thousands remember and learn from our southeastern UM heritage.

2. Gulfside Assembly, designated as the national training center in the Bishop's Initiative to combat Drug Abuse, provided meaningful experiences for 2,200 youth, offered a School of Black Sacred Music and began an Elderhostel program. 1994 promises more emphasis on young adults.

3. Hinton Rural Life Center trained 2678 persons toward more effective ministries through Small Membership churches, distributed Planning/Visioning models to over 700 small membership congregations, and helped cabinets explore work with lay persons in pastoring roles and pastors who are ineffective. 15 annual conferences benefited from consultation and 822 volunteers from 16 states were engaged in ministry through Hinton.

4. The Intensive Growth Center's 46 events helped 2,620 persons grow spiritually and emotionally, enrich marriages, increase Bible understanding, enhance abilities to lead congregations and staffs, and develop stewardship ministries. Counseling services and Elderhostel programs are major components of this ministry.

5. The Protestant Hour completed its 49th year broadcasting inspiring music and preaching to over 2,000,000 persons.

6. SEJANAM helped establish two Native American congregations, conducted dialogues in eight annual conferences, trained and consulted with conference Committees on Native American Ministries, helped establish 10 summer internships in ordained diaconal ministry, and advocated on behalf of Native American communities.

7. SEMAR consulted with nine annual conferences seeking to develop residential alternatives for adults with handicapping conditions, five annual conferences to increase awareness of church facilities accessibility, and Lake Junaluska to secure equipment in hotels to accommodate persons who are deaf. Currently work is underway to assist in developing Intermediate Care Facilities for Mentally Retarded Persons in Western NC.

8. UMVIM networked over 5400 Volunteers in Mission overseas and among disaster victims in the US, sending the first all Afro-American teams in 1993. New initiatives assist individuals seeking to volunteer from one to twelve months of service as well as GBGM-approved candidates awaiting placement pending funding. Interest in mission to Cuba and former USSR countries grows.

The Lake Junaluska Division reports more than 77,000 participants in 1993 - 35,690 who resided in Assembly facilities and 42,400 others who participated in activities or attended events held in Stuart Auditorium. Staff and volunteers, with support from Junaluska Associates, Junaluskans, and others, made extensive improvements including: beautification of the grounds, work on the Terrace Hotel and Jones Cafeteria, development of nine additional holes on the golf course, paving of 175 parking spaces and three miles of street (cost equally shared by homeowners).

In 1994 priority will be given to children's and youth facilities, tennis courts, and swimming pool needs. In all, the Assembly will strive to be a spiritual renewal place for families and individuals, a year-round center for discipleship training, a school for leadership, and a model Christian community.

The Department of Public Relations, Marketing, & Development communicated our shared vision by sending quarterly editions of The SEJ United Methodist to over 13,000 church leaders, responded to 4,746 individual requests for information, developed and distributed brochures and program calendars to local church, district, and conference leaders, and promoted the planned Family Ministry Center for Health and Fitness, while seeking funds for this and other important causes.

The Business Department serves the SEJ Administrative Council, Lake Junaluska, the Agencies and Associations and provides Treasurer functions for the Southeastern Jurisdiction, while administering an annual Council Budget of $5,960,000, coordinating services to 645 homeowners, giving personnel support to 124 year-round part or fulltime and 225 summer employees, and maintaining an extensive data processing and communications network.

Essential to this ministry is the $908,787 contributed by local congregations to The SEJ Missional Fund. One-half was used to support: Archives & History ($30,000); Gulfside ($50,000) Ethnic Concerns ($25,000); Intentional Growth Center ($32,950); Hinton ($95,000); SEMAR ($52,000); UMWIM ($70,000); SEJ Associations ($40,300); Justice & Emerging Issues ($31,000); The Protestant Hour ($5,568); and New Programs including the Lay Ministry and Congregational Development Centers ($53,000). One-half was used at Lake Junaluska for Jones Cafeteria renovation ($51,102); street paving ($56,996); parking improvements ($40,000); pool study and escrow for pool improvements ($240,735). The balance ($65,558) went to a maintenance reserve for future improvements to youth and children's facilities.

Aware of your trust and our responsibility, the SEJ Administrative Council will endeavor to discern God's will and serve Christ's Church as together we journey forward in faith.

Gordon C. Goodgame, Executive Director

TRUSTEES, CONFERENCE BOARD OF

The Conference Board of Trustees was requested to receive the following closed church property:

JOHNSON CHAPEL-GARLAND CHARGE, Wilmington District

Since the 1993 Annual Conference, several church properties held by the Conference Board of Trustees either have been sold or are in the process of being sold:

ST. JOHN UMC, Goldsboro, Goldsboro District - The building and property have been sold to Praise, Prayer and Worship Revival Center, which had been leasing it for a number of years. Sale Price: $25,000

ST. MARK'S UMC, Kinston, Greenville District - An offer from Bibleway Church of God in Christ to purchase the church and property has been accepted, with closing date now pending. Sale Price: $40,000

The Parsonage has been purchased by another entity, with a sale price of $20,000.

LIGHTHOUSE UMC, near Aberdeen, Sanford District - An offer of $51,000, based on appraisal, has been received from The Lighthouse Baptist Mission Church, which has been leasing the property for more than two years. The Conference Board of Trustees has accepted this offer, with closing date now pending.

METHODIST BUILDING MAINTENANCE

Routine maintenance for the building has been on-going, and no major problems or concerns are noted. The new heating/air conditioning system is working quite well. The Board of Trustees has determined that the parking lot will need to be resurfaced in the near future, and sufficient funds will be available in the capital reserves. Also under consideration are some much-needed improvements to the interior of the building as funding is possible.

BUILDING TENANTS

All rental space in the Methodist Building is filled. One tenant who moved from the building prior to the expiration of its lease has refused to pay the rental owed for the balance of the lease. The Board of Trustees is trying to collect and may be forced to do so by legal action while continuing at settlement attempts.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The year 1993 was a year of record-setting growth as 62 new accounts were added to United Methodist Foundation, bringing the total number of accounts to 266 - an increase of 30.3% in 1993. (In 1992 the number of accounts increased by 24.7%.) These accounts all reflect the two basic stewardship services offered by the Foundation:

- (1) To provide an investment partnership for long-term and permanent funds of local churches, institutions, and causes of the Church;
- (2) To encourage and receive planned gifts in support of local churches, institutions, and causes of the Church.

For the year ending December 31, 1993, net income paid to unit holders was $1,779,200. This amount was down $140,269 from 1992 and reflected the lower interest rates on fixed income investments that have been prevalent in the financial markets for the last two years.

The decision by the Investment Committee to diversify into Global Investing in 1992 has proven to be an excellent decision. The 1993 results were very strong and helped the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. to achieve net realized and unrealized gains on investments of $2,316,876. The combined gains on investments and net income of $4,113,549 makes 1993 one of the strongest years in the history of the United Methodist Foundation.

Total net assets for the year ending December 31, 1993 were $39,780,182 and the net asset value per outstanding unit was $1.81. This was a $0.09 per individual unit increase. Overall, 1993 was an excellent year.

Oxford Mortgage Corporation of Raleigh is our investment counselor for mortgage loans. They have provided us with several good mortgage loan opportunities in 1993. We will continue to work with them and try to increase our mortgage loan portfolio as the commercial real estate market continues to improve. Our standards are very high for mortgage loans and that makes it difficult to sometimes find the right opportunity. We will not, however, sacrifice quality for quantity in this area.

One hundred forty-eight (148) endowment funds, one hundred three (103) revocable investment accounts, and fifteen (15) life income trusts touch a wide range of missional causes of the Church. Twenty-five (25) life insurance policies held by the Foundation benefit local churches and various other causes of the Church. While numerous churches and institutions across the Conference received bequests through wills during 1993, the Foundation files contain supporting data regarding many other persons who have included the Church in their estate planning.

Many churches of the NC Conference now have in place Permanent Endowment Fund Committees as provided for in The Book of Discipline, and planned giving and endowment programs in those churches are prompting a new awareness of the broader dimension of Christian stewardship called "planned giving." United Methodist Foundation continues to provide consultation and guidance to these churches as well as others which are considering planned giving and endowment programs.

Presentations such as Estate and Gift Planning Workshops, Creative Gift Planning Seminars, stewardship sermons, and special programs on planned giving have been made in churches across the Conference. The response to the stewardship services offered by the Foundation has been very cordial among churches and institutions, and requests for these services continue to be received.

A major focus of the Foundation is in providing counsel and assistance to individuals and families who want to include their local church, institutions, and other causes of the Church in their estate and gift planning. This service is provided without cost to the donor. In addition to the "LEGACIES" newsletter which is published and mailed quarterly, an extensive supply of planned giving resource materials is provided through the Foundation office.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and the staff of United Methodist Foundation, we offer our deep appreciation for the strong and faithful support of the NC Conference which has helped to write the success story of United Methodist Foundation. We are most appreciative for the warm reception we have enjoyed in the churches and institutions which we have been privileged to assist. And, we give thanks especially for those persons whom we have been able to assist in making generous gifts in response to God's gracious gifts to them.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

Evangelism, Missions and Spiritual Growth set the tone for the activities of the United Methodist Men of the NC Conference in 1993. Just a few of the many activities with NC Conference UMM are listed in this report. Several districts started 1993 with workshops during the January Workshops. This allowed men to be better equipped to handle their responsibility in the local church. The local church is the focal point of all projects and major activities for men. It is at the local area that money is spent from projects by the men. The local unit determines how and where it will be spent.

Some of the fundraising projects include the nearly $10,000 raised yearly by men at First Church in Mt. Olive. It supports needs in the community. The men of Carthage UMC presented a check for $3000 to the Habitat for Humanity to start a Habitat home in Carthage. Sanford District UMM continue to use their emergency kitchen trailer to cook for work crews and others during disasters such as the hurricane on the eastern shores of NC this year. It is available to be used in any emergency situation.

St. Paul UMM have an endowment fund to help college students with finances. The Raleigh District gives scholarships to be used at three Methodist colleges in the area. UMM at First Church in Cary raise funds for a scholarship for a student studying at one of the Methodist colleges. Bridgeton UMC raised money to feed the hungry by purchasing a heifer for the Heifer Project International. This project gives the heifer to a needy family, then helps them learn how to feed and care for their animal. In ten years, this initial investment will result in a herd of about 25 cattle, and a daily output of over 60 gallons of milk.

Sending youth to camp, as well as involvement in prison ministries, and helping local schools with a one-on-one involvement with troubled youth, are other areas of support. All three areas help individuals to focus on Jesus, and avoid possible problems later on.

Men in several areas support medical teams as they go to foreign countries to minister to the sick. Spiritual as well as medical help is offered to the people. Feeding the hungry people is a major project of the Conference, district, and local units of UMM. Beech Grove plants what they call "Heaven's Acre." The food is used to feed the hungry in their area. Part of the food goes to the food bank. In Burlington, a group plants potatoes to be given to the potato project. Through Meals for Millions Potato Project, thousands and thousands are able to have a meal of potatoes for a penny. Men have now gotten Sunday School classes, church, and civic groups interested in this project. The exciting part of the project is that the food is used in the area through food banks and soup kitchens.

About one-fourth of the UM members who move away from their local church are eventually removed from the rolls by charge conference action. Through the Moving Methodist Program, UMM are trying to reduce this number. A toll free line, 1-800-624-4130, is available to be used by the local church to send the name of families moving to new locations. Through this service, which is free to the local church, a church in the new area is alerted to the arrival of the new family. The men hope to stop this loss of about 200,000 people yearly by getting the family involved in the new area as soon as possible. This program is supported by the fees for charter renewal, and funds contributed on a voluntary basis to the EMS Fund. Yearly, the Conference presidents of the UMM raise over $5000 through an auction at their annual meeting. Items of all types are donated to be auctioned. This meeting is held in Nashville, TN, and attended by our Conference president.

September of every year, UMM meet with those senators and representatives who claim UM membership at a day long seminar in Washington, DC. A number of senators and representatives address the men. Floor votes as well as key committee hearings occasionally interrupt an address to allow the member to return for a vote. NC men attend and enjoy meeting in the Dirksen Senate Building for the day.

Scouting continues to be a project of the UMM across the state and the nation. Any group that has as it's pledge: "Duty to God, Duty to Country and Duty to Self" is worthy of our support. The UMC is the largest sponsor of Scouting in the US. Support at the local level is done by sponsoring a Scout group or as Edenton UMM have done, signing up to be merit badge counselors. They surveyed their members, and found many different men with expertise in areas that merit badges are offered.

Men from throughout the Conference attended the 6th International Congress of UMM held at Purdue University in West Lafayette, IN, July 16-18, 1993. They were joined by approximately 5000 other men from across the country, and from several foreign countries. "A MAN SENT FROM GOD" served as the central theme of the conference. The first day allowed men to attend a ministry fair. They heard first hand stories about mens groups that are making a difference in the world. Bill Mann of Dallas, TX was at his best as he served as soloist and song leader for the meeting. Music groups from across America, including the Junaluska Singers, provided the special music. Steve Green and others added special music and concerts to the program.

The Rev. Zan W. Holmes, Jr., of Dallas, TX issued opening worship marching orders for men to be "doers" of God's command. Ross Freeman set the stages for worship with his spiritual statements each session. Inspired by strong preaching, outstanding music, and a sense of urgency in the wake of the flood disaster in the US Midwest, participants at the conference contributed nearly $60,000 to help with the church's flood relief efforts.

The president of the UMM's Foundation announced that the fund net worth has passed the one million dollar mark. The money is used to support the Scouting program, the Upper Room Prayer Ministry, and the newly developed ministry in the former Soviet Union. This foundation is a national effort on the part of all conferences.

Also, during the International Mens Congress, men answered prayer requests through the Upper Room Prayer Center. This toll free prayer service receives approximately 100,000 calls yearly for prayer. Calls from across the nation are answered by volunteers. By dialing

1-800-251-2468, individuals can express their requests for prayer, and have a prayer with the volunteers who answer the phones.

G. Ross Freeman of Atlanta, GA was the keynote speaker for the NC Conference UMM Annual Meeting held in Goldsboro in November. Vern Sullivan provided special music, and men enjoyed fellowship and food with others from the Conference area. This day long conference continues to grow in attendance each year. During the meeting, Howard Britt, Conference Prayer Advocate for the men, had made arrangements to have the Upper Room Prayer Line forwarded to a line at St. Paul Church. UMM, along with several ministers, answered prayer requests from the across the country. Their report was inspiring to all men as they reported on their calls for prayer.

With a focus on Jesus Christ, and reaching out to those in need, the NC Conference UMM continue to move forward. The dedicated leadership at the local church, the district, and at the Conference level, make things happen for Jesus and His Church. Yearly, nearly one-half million dollars is spent at the local church level for support of local needs. Above this, EMS membership dues support many state and national programs such as Prayer Line, Meals for Millions, and Scouting. A special thanks from all the men for the support of Bishop C. P. Minnick, and his cabinet and staff. Also, thanks to the many Scout leaders as well as the 1993 Scouter of the Year, Richard Connelly. Richard interrupted a camping trip to come to Goldsboro to receive the award.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

GLIMPSES OF GOD - REFLECTIONS OF CHRIST is the quadrennial theme for NC Conference United Methodist Women. Each of the four years will have a special emphasis: 1993 In Ourselves, 1994 In Others, 1995 In Community, 1996 In the World. This is a challenging theme, that should expand our vision of God, and quest in search of reflections of Christ in new and unexpected places.

During 1993, the Conference sponsored events were received with attendance, enthusiasm, and financial support,

JANUARY: This was the month for District Training for local officers. This year there was an increase in participation. Four members of the Conference went to Chicago for Women's Division training. The Conference Executive, Program Planning, and District President committees met at NC Wesleyan.

FEBRUARY: The 13 Conference elected officers met for an overnight retreat at Atlantic Beach for renewal, recentering, and refocusing on ways to implement the 1993 plans and events. The first Sub-District meetings were held.

MARCH: The Women's Division led a weekend workshop on the "Charter for Racial Justice Policies." This will be our main emphasis on local participation in 1994. On March 26-27, the '39 and Under Event was held at Methodist College.

APRIL: The Finance Committee, plus District Secretaries for Financial Interpretation met at West Nash UMC, Wilson. Jan Blosser, Women's Division Staff in Region, met with the group for financial analysis and goal-setting.

MAY: The Scholarship Committee met and awarded $6,500.00 in grants. The Christian Personhood Retreat was held at Louisburg College led by Bernice Johnson and Judy Smith, using the theme, GLIMPSES OF GOD - REFLECTIONS OF CHRIST - IN OURSELVES.

JUNE: The 13 Conference elected officers attended Regional School at Virginia Wesleyan, Norfolk, VA. The 1994 Mission Studies were taught, and we received a myriad of ideas that were used at Conference Summer School and UMW events.

AUGUST: Our involvement at Conference Summer School included: Course UMW Basics, platform program on Saturday night, planning a special dinner, mini course - "Charter for Racial Justice Policies," registration. The Finance Committee met at Methodist College on the 21st for budget preparation.

SEPTEMBER: The Planning and Executive Committees met 9-10. Because we received 70+ more than we could accommodate at our one Mother/Child Retreat last year, we held two retreats this year with attendance of 350.

OCTOBER: Annual Meeting was held at Methodist College the 15th and 16th. This change was made to coincide with fall break. There were over 500 in attendance. The "Charter for Racial Justice Policies" was a highlight. The District Presidents were given a packet of material for each local unit. This is to be used by local units in 1994. Each District was to highlight the policies at their District Annual Meeting.

NOVEMBER: The District Officers met at First UMC, Wilson, for their annual training day. It was well attended.

Our total income pledge was $585,259.98. Sent undesignated to Women's Division was 400,516.89 - undesignated $47,241.45. The gifts to the Conference Project totaled $412,000.00.

Local units have been reaching out in special ways in their communities as tutorial and literacy volunteers, working with incarcerated women through Prison Match Program, a tape ministry to shut-ins, making health and school kits for migrant and needy children, participating in Church Women United health insurance for children, support for battered wives and abused children programs, sponsoring young women for '39 and Under Event. These barely scratch the surface of all the involvement.

All that we do is to fulfill our PURPOSE: The organized unit of UMW shall be a community of women whose PURPOSE is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

Tibbie Roberts, President

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

"Youth Ministry Alive!" is the title of one of the evangelism models to be offered at the Vision 2000 Launch Event in October, 1994. Youth ministry in the NC Conference is very alive and looking for a fuller life in the coming year. In addition to 10 Conference youth events a year, active districts in youth ministry, and local churches striving to increase the number of youth served in mission; youth ministry is moving forward with vision.

The 10 Conference youth events of 1993 boasted of over 1000 youth participating. These events included: Global Vision, Youth Rally Day, Appalachian Trail Hike, Junior High Breakaway, Senior High Breakaway, Annual Conference Session for Youth, Youth Mission Workteam, Human Sexuality Weekend, and Junior High Jamboree. The Conference youth events of 1994 offer three new events. Kaleidoscope is a weekend retreat for junior high and senior high youth. We will have a youth mission workteam to western Virginia in addition to a youth mission workteam to Costa Rica. November 11-13 will be a totally new Conference youth event called Pilgrimage. Pilgrimage is a weekend retreat for youth groups, youth and the adults who are in ministry with them, with an emphasis on evangelism and faith sharing among youth.

United Methodist Youth are also very involved with Vision 2000. Part of the Vision 2000 movement is a Transformation 2000-Youth committee. Under the excellent leadership of Chairperson, Reverend Ron Gonia, this committee is providing for leadership development among the youth ministries of our local churches. Our vision for youth ministry in every congregation is "empowering youth to unite in a caring, responsible relationship with Christ' Church." We hope each Vision 2000 church will include youth on their Vision 2000 team and consider youth ministry as their evangelism model for 1995.

Another avenue of mission and giving for youth is Youth Service Fund. Youth Service Fund is money raised by youth, spent by youth, to benefit youth. The 1993 Conference goal was $16000. We fell far short of that goal with only $9100 raised. The projects supported from 1993 funds include: Allied Churches of Alamance County, the Duke Cancer Patient Support Program (ethnic wig fund), Caring Christian Carpenters Workcamp, the Day Camp for Oxford Manor Housing Project, special outreach programs of Camp Don Lee, Durham County Mission Society, the Campership Fund, youth mission workteams, Harvest of Hope, the Open Door Community House of Columbus, Georgia, Appalachian Service Project, Carolina Cross Connection, SHARES, Inc. of Detroit, Michigan, and a camping program for wards of the court by the Evansville, Indiana youth home. Our goal for 1994 is $15,000. Youth groups in every church are encouraged to participate in giving to Youth Service Fund.

THE MEMORIAL SERVICE

Thursday, June 9, 1994 - 10:55 A. M.

Prelude Albert Zabel
Meditation on "How Great Thou Art"

Greeting:

We have gathered here to celebrate the lives of those who have served faithfully through the years and now share the triumph of Christ.

We affirm with praise and thanksgiving the goodness of our Lord.

Let us rejoice in God's presence with us, in death as in life, among those who mourn as with those who now see Christ face to face.

In the midst of our grief we sing for joy, for God's love is over all that has been made. Blessed be God's glorious name forever!

DANIEL CLIFTON BOONE

1902 - 1993

The Reverend Daniel Clifton Boone, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Porter Boone, a native of Northampton County, was born November 8, 1902 and died July 16, 1993 in Halifax Memorial Hospital in Roanoke Rapids. He was remarkably active for a man of his age, attending church and periodically laboring in his home and church yards. When friends predicted that he might live to be 100 years old, his simple reply was, "I am going to try." These words were in line with what he and his wife considered the most favorite sermon he ever preached under the title: "Keep on Keeping on."

Dan was a graduate of Elon College and he also did pastoral studies at the Divinity School of Duke University. His fine home library was evidence that he continued to be a student beyond his formal days of education.

Dan married Ruth Evelyn Cullipher of Williamston on October 24, 1940. Ruth continues to make her home among their friends in Halifax. Other survivors include two daughters: Patricia Britt of Rockingham, and Mary Tillery of Tillery; and two sons: Dan Boone, Jr., of Lake Norman, and James Boone of Raleigh. He is survived by three brothers: George Boone and J. P. Boone, both from Suffolk, VA, and Simon Boone of Portsmouth, VA. He also is survived by five grandchildren: Lisa Britt, Elizabeth Britt, Nechol Boone, Leigh Tillery, and John Tillery.

Dan served two years in the VA Conference before transferring to the NC Conference, where his charges prior to his retirement in 1968 included the following: Walstonburg, 1937; Robersonville, 1938; Littleton Circuit, 1942; Person Street, 1945; Bynum, 1946; Garland, 1948; Dover, 1949; Pink Hill, 1950; Pinetops, 1953; Bladen, 1955; Moncure, 1958; Norman, 1961; West End, 1963; and Halifax, 1964. However, even after officially retiring, his sense of calling was so strong that he served other charges: Stokes for six years, Bath for three years, and Jamesville for four years. He and Ruth finally gave up the itinerant ministry and settled in Halifax, where they purchased the old Halifax Methodist parsonage, renovating and beautifying it into a very attractive home, where Ruth continues to live.

A worship service for Brother Dan was held in the Halifax UMC with Rocky Mount District Superintendent Caswell E. Shaw presiding. The Reverend Charles M. Herrin, pastor of Halifax UMC, preached a most unique and appropriate sermon. The Reverends John Smith and Wade Goldston also assisted in the service. Interment was at the Halifax Cemetery.

The writer of this memorial first met Dan in the early 1930's in Rocky Mount. He assisted me in voluntary lay ministry at Clark Street Church. This was the beginning of a wonderful relationship with Brother Dan and lasted over his long life. He was an understanding shepherd of the people he served, a compassionate and challenging preacher of the Word of God, and a gentle but firm guide to his children. Of the 90 years he lived, he preached 45 of them. His wife Ruth, several years younger, was a most caring helpmate, especially during his latter years. Much of heaven was reflected in their lives, individually, and together.

Wade Goldston

WILLIAM OLIVER CONNOR

1911 - 1993

The Reverend William Oliver Connor was born May 2, 1911 near Fair Bluff in Columbus County. He was the son of Arthur and Mary Powell Connor, and he received his high school education at Rowland. He attended Louisburg College and was graduated in 1959 from Atlantic Christian College (now Barton College) in Wilson. He also studied at Emory and Duke Universities.

While Bill was living in Whiteville and working in the business world, he met his precious wife. On March 23, 1941, he married Frankie Jane Barefoot of Hallsboro. Together they had two children: a daughter, Mary Elisabeth, and a son, Charles Richard. Bill was a loving husband and father. He accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior at an early age, and responded to God's call to preach the gospel.

Bill served his Lord for 21 years as an active Methodist minister. He received his license to preach in 1950. He became an ordained deacon in the NC Conference in 1953, and an ordained elder in 1956. He was received into full connection in 1959.

The churches he served were Mattamuskeet, 1951; Warren Circuit, 1953; Salem (Goldsboro), 1957; Salemburg, 1958; Ebenezer-Westwood, 1962; North Gates, 1964; Lumberton Circuit, 1966; Asbury (Fayetteville), 1969; Roberdel, 1970; Bonlee 1971; Garland, 1973; and Harrells, 1974. Due to acute arthritis and inner ear difficulty causing severe equilibrium problems, he took disability leave in 1975 and retired in 1976.

Bill was a quiet man with a great love for people, an abiding concern for their spiritual welfare, and a deep insight into their nature. He had a strong desire to share the joys and sorrows of his fellowmen. He always expressed an earnest gratitude for the privilege of serving and he never tried to do anything that would make less effective his ministry. All who knew him had much respect for his wisdom and obedience to God. He was meticulous about the use of proper grammar himself and wanted others around him to do the same. He went about every task in the same manner, with a steadiness that enabled him to do the work of the Master to whom he had committed his life. He retained a great and sustaining faith that many wished to emulate.

This faith in God and his fellowman never wavered, even though there was much to endure. In the end, he suffered much hardship, but being the good Christian man he was, his strength and faith in God carried him peacefully all the way home on August 7, 1993.

His funeral service was held in Whiteville and interment was at Hallsboro in the Pierce Cemetery. Surviving are his wife, Frankie of Wilmington and Pineville; one daughter, Elisabeth Pope; one grandson, Eric Pope; three great-grandchildren, Erica, Brandi, and Jason Efird, all living in the Charlotte area; and one sister, Mary Lou Sullivan of Leland. Bill also leaves a host of family and friends who will continue to miss his presence and feel his love.

Lovingly submitted,
Elisabeth Connor Pope

EARLY CLIFFORD SHOAF

Early Clifford Shoaf was born in High Point on July 8, 1927, the son of Early C. Shoaf and Mary Elizabeth Moran. He died in Edenton on August 9, 1993. His memorial service was held on August 14, 1993 at Edenton UMC, where he had served as pastor from 1963 - 1968. The service was conducted by William M. Presnell, Elizabeth City district superintendent, and Thomas L. Sweeley, pastor. In addition, Albert F. Fisher, Edison Midgett, and G. Robert McKenzie gave witness to Cliff's life and ministry.

Cliff Shoaf was married to Jane Ruth Sarsfield on August 2, 1953, and to this union were born five children: David M. Shoaf of Raleigh; Eric C. Shoaf of Providence, RI; Andrew D. Shoaf of Edenton; Hillary L. Shoaf of Durham; and Mary C. Shoaf of Charlotte. He is survived by his wife, his children, his grandson, Daniel Matthew Shoaf, of Raleigh; his stepmother, Ruby P. Shoaf of Archdale, and two brothers, Leonard P. Shoaf of Marietta, GA (who died two months later on October 16, 1993), and Max R. Shoaf of Greensboro (who died six months later on February 7, 1994).

He held degrees from High Point College, Duke University Divinity School, and East Carolina University. He engaged in additional graduate study at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He served the following appointments in the NC Conference, beginning in 1952: Merritts-Orange; Lillington; Minister of Education, Duke Memorial; Minister of Education, Edenton Street; St. Matthews, Fayetteville; Fremont; Director of Field Education, Duke Divinity School; Mebane; Mt. Olivet, Manteo; and Associate Director, CCOM, where he retired in 1990.

Cliff Shoaf lived among us in a very special way and so it is not possible to capture in a few, simple words the span of years he lived so well. Among his highest professional attainments were his leadership at Mt. Olivet in Manteo, when that congregation remodeled and reshaped its place of worship, and his ministry as an associate director on the CCOM staff. He was at his best when he was teaching and enabling leaders to grow and to gain deeper understandings of the Christian faith and how to impart this faith to others.

His friends will remember his faithfulness to his associates and colleagues, his devotion to his calling and to his family. Cliff believed that our existence, like the rest of creation, is a fragile gift of grace and so he would certainly have agreed with George Elliot London, who said shortly before he died at 80, "Everything happens for the best to those who make the best of what happens." In 1964, Cliff wrote to the Anatomy Department at Duke University Medical Center, "It has long been a conviction of mine that a person's body, held in trust from his Creator, can continue to be of use to society upon his death.

I believe, and have so stated in my will, that this contribution can be made by giving my body to a medical center for its use in either teaching or research." Cliff's wish was carried out.

"Help us to live as those who are prepared to die.

And when our days here are accomplished, enable us to die as those who go forth to live, so that living or dying, our life may be in you, and that nothing in life or in death will be able to separate us from your great love in Christ Jesus our Lord."

In the spring of 1993, Cliff and Jane Shoaf proposed an endowment to provide funds to purchase materials on Methodist Studies for the Duke Divinity School Library. The development officer arranged for their dream to come to fruition, and many friends and former parishioners have joined them in bringing it to pass. Truly, Cliff's life and ministry and legacy will live long after his death.

VERGIL ERWIN QUEEN

1909 - 1993

Vergil Erwin Queen was born in Burke County on September 10, 1909. He died in Durham on August 26, 1993. The funeral service was conducted on August 28, 1993 at Epworth UMC in Durham. Officiating at the service were his pastors, the Reverends Bess Hunnings and Charles Morrison. Also participating in the service were the Reverend Dr. Wilson Nesbitt, the Reverend Dr. John Paschal, and the Reverend Ms. Margaret Saunders. Burial was at Raleigh Memorial Park in Raleigh.

Dr. Queen is survived by his wife, the former Frances Priscilla Sharpe, and three brothers, John L. and Guy Queen, both of Asheville, and Russell Queen of Yadkinville.

Dr. Queen was a graduate of Rutherford Junior College, Catawba College of Salisbury, and the Divinity School of Duke University. He was an ordained elder in the NC Conference of The UMC.

The following pastorates were served by Dr. Queen: Carrboro; Chapel Hill: Orange; Fayetteville: Haymount; Durham: Duke Memorial; Elizabeth City: First; and Southern Pines. He served as superintendent of the Wilmington District and was the organizing superintendent of the Sanford District. Under his able leadership, Haymount UMC in Fayetteville was organized. He also served as professor in the Duke Divinity School and following his retirement, he taught Methodist Polity at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest.

As a member of the NC Conference of The UMC, Dr. Queen served on the Commission on Worship and other Conference agencies. He was chairperson of the Board of Higher Education when the NC Conference established North Carolina Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount and Methodist College in Fayetteville. He was a member of the original board of trustees of Methodist College which bestowed on him its first honorary doctor of divinity degree.

Vergil Queen was an intellectual giant. He was thoroughly versed in the scriptures and always interpreted them with a sense of integrity. He was a church historian and his knowledge of Methodism - its history, doctrine, and polity, was outstanding. He was an authority on Wesleyan theology. In the area of Christian worship, Vergil Queen brought a sense of dignity and order to every service he conducted. He was an excellent preacher, and his sermons were always intellectually stimulating. He was a master story teller and he possessed a keen sense of humor.

There are many characteristics about Vergil Queen that stand out. He was considerate, thoughtful, appreciative, and morally above reproach. He lived his life with a sense of dignity and integrity. His word was his bond. He faced death, as he did life, with courage and determination to make the best of each day, and although he suffered much pain near the end of his life, he bore it with patience and quiet faith in the God he had served for so many years.

Perhaps the one characteristic that best sums up the life of Vergil Queen was his compassion - compassion for the church members he served and for the pastors who served under his leadership as district superintendent. He cared deeply for the laity and clergy alike and often shared their pain as well as their joys.

Vergil and Frances Queen, who married June 7, 1940, were deeply devoted to one another. She was a loving, caring helpmate, and he was a faithful, loving husband. One was always treated as an honored guest in their home. Their ministry was a shared ministry.

I have never had greater respect for any man than for Vergil E. Queen. He was my mentor and my friend. For me, Vergil Queen exemplified all that it means to be Christian. He also was the best example of what it means to be a Christian pastor.

By Christian faith, I know that Vergil Queen has received the "crown of life" that is reserved for the faithful disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ. He has "fought the good fight, he has finished the race, he has kept the faith!" In the words of Charles Wesley,

"Servant of God, well done! Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last.
With saints enthroned on high, thou dost thy Lord proclaim,
And still to God salvation cry, salvation to the lamb!
O happy, happy soul! In ecstasies of praise,
Long as eternal ages roll, thou seest thy savior's face.
Redeemed from earth and pain, ah! When shall we ascend,
And all in Jesus' presence reign through ages without end? Amen."

Thanks be to God who gives us the victory!

PERCY OWEN LEE

P. O. Lee was a fighter all of his 96 years. That fighting spirit enabled him to survive scarlet fever as a child even when it took the life of his sister, Stella. Even a period of blindness experienced while a student at SMU didn't stop P. O. Lee from his calling. He had very strong ideals of right and wrong and was never afraid to fight for what he believed.

During World War II, P. O. was a conscientious objector. This brought him a lot of criticism since it was such a popular war, but he believed that the Bible stood against killing and that is what he continued to preach from the pulpit.

In the pulpit, P. O. Lee was a dynamic speaker. Attendance increased in each church he pastored. He also was true to his belief that his congregation was his flock. He visited the hospital seven days a week. His love for the youth of the church was obvious as he took lots of time to develop activities for them. He was often seen playing softball with the youth. The Raeford Men's Bible Class was formulated by P. O. It soon became the largest men's Sunday School class in the state with attendance well over 100.

Although he supposedly retired to Raeford in 1962, he continued his service to God. He helped the churches of Parker and Sandy Grove in Hoke County. He gave them his support as well as serving as alternate pastor.

P. O. also continued his community work and at the age of 80, he led a tax revolt in Hoke County! He preached long and hard against having the taxes raised and won. He was that kind of fighter.

Percy Owen Lee was born in Faison on April 14, 1897. He was the son of Owen and Magie Darden Lee, one of nine children. P. O. Lee was married to Bernice Buck on November 25, 1920, and they had two sons. Bernice was a dedicated helpmate for over 54 years before she passed away on August 8, 1974. She preceded him in death by almost 20 years.

P. O. later married Helen Suzannah Buck Fields, a companion and relative of Bernice. After several retirement years together, Helen passed away on October 12, 1990.

He is survived by his two sons, Robert Edward Lee of Seven Lakes and Charles Owen Lee of Goldsboro, and one sister, Thelma Ericson of Franklin, VA. P. O. was grandfather to seven grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

P. O. attended Clinton High School and Trinity Prep School in Durham. He graduated from Trinity and Duke University. He received his Master of Divinity degree at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, TX.

His first appointment was in 1924 to Harlow in Carteret County. From there he went to Seven Springs, Windsor, Jones Circuit, Wallace-Rose Hill, Maxton, Clayton, Stantonsburg, Raeford, Weldon, and Whiteville.

P. O. Lee died on September 2, 1993. Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Joseph W. Forbes of Raeford UMC and was assisted by the Reverend Fred McCracken, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Goldsboro. Interment was in Raeford Cemetery.

GEORGE DURANT MILLER

George DuRant Miller was born in Columbia, SC on April 3, 1907. He was the son of George and Camelia Cumpsty Miller and was the eldest of three children. After a seven year courtship, George married Annie Lorene Poe on April 20, 1937 in West Columbia, SC.

George was in training for a nursing degree at Bellview Hospital in New York City, when he was forced to drop out in 1928 due to poor health. Following this, George was called to do his patriotic duty in the Army Medical Corps. He was sent to Panama, Central America. It was upon returning home that he married Lorene. During the years that followed, he held various jobs without finding financial success. Times were hard and life was not easy, but George learned many valuable lessons that helped him become the man he became.

Long feeling the need to respond to God's love, George answered His call to preach the Gospel. Well into his 40's, George found the challenge was tremendous and the preparation was often overwhelming. After long nights of study and intense determination, he finally completed his seminary work at Emory University and was accepted into the N. GA Conference in 1959.

After serving several rural charges in north Georgia, George transferred to the NC Conference and in 1966 was ordained deacon at Annual Conference in Raleigh. He served many rural charges all over eastern NC. His ministry spanned 14 years and 45 churches. The hearts he touched are innumerable. In 1973, he retired to Whiteville where he became an active member of the Whiteville UMC and did extensive volunteer work for the American Red Cross.

In 1982, George and "Bunny," as he lovingly called his wife of 46 years, moved to Dunedin, FL to be near his daughters and their families - and to enjoy the warmer climate. He continued his ministry by teaching Sunday School and singing in the choir at First Christian Church of Dunedin.

Following a long illness, George went to his heavenly home on October 13, 1993. A memorial service was held on October 21, 1993 at the First Christian Church of Dunedin, conducted by Reverend Curt Swann. George's favorite hymns were played on the organ. He was laid to rest in Serenity Gardens, Largo, FL.

George is survived by "Bunny," his wife of 56 years; two daughters, Barbara M. Price of Largo, FL and Jo M. Shriner of Union City, GA; two granddaughters, Debbie Price of Largo, FL and Tammy P. Masopust of Elgin, IL; a brother, Marion Miller of Bayonet Point, FL; and a sister, Mildred M. Broom of Burlington.

I wish I could have had more time to know George the man, rather than the man whom I called Granddaddy. By the time I realized just how interesting this man was and what a rich life he had lived, his illness began to erase memories and personality. I appreciate the time I did have as an adult to get to know George Miller. I always knew my Grandpa to be a special person, and to be touched by God's own hand. He and my grandmother are responsible for my seeking a closer relationship with our Lord. I shall always remember the lessons about God, family, and life learned from just their example.

Even on our last night together, he was teaching. This was a man who wholly loved the Lord. Truly, this was a "Man of God."

HENRY FULTON POLLOCK

1902 - 1993

Henry Fulton Pollock was born July 24, 1902, the only child of the Reverend Grant S. and Gertrude Pollock on the near north side of Pittsburgh, PA. From the moment of his conception, Henry was dedicated to God by his devout parents. Grant and Gertrude Pollock or "Trudie," as she was affectionately known, had a pastoral as well as music ministry. In fact, in Henry's childhood he traveled with his mother and father from revival to revival and camp meetings listening to the music ministry of his parents.

Little Henry would sit down at his parents' piano and play one tune after another after only hearing it. He never learned the notes, and until just before his death, he could be found playing one of the pianos of the Retirement Home.

Henry married Marguerite Florence on September 17, 1927. Following the call of God, he entered the ministry of the Methodist Church, returning to his home state with his faithful wife. To this marriage came five sons. Francis Asbury, the second son, died in infancy.

The other four sons, Henry M., Bob, Jim, and Charles, all under the influence of the faith of their mother and father, answered God's call and like their father, grandfather, and many ancestors before them, entered the pastoral ministry.

So many young people responded to the gospel message under the ministry of Henry F. Pollock. Several, like his sons, entered the pastoral ministry of the church.

After serving many years in the Western Pennsylvania area of the Methodist Church, he moved to and began serving churches in the NC Conference. In 1967, Henry and Marguerite retired from the pastoral ministry and began to pour their energies in the support of their sons.

What a faithful disciple Henry has been. How much influence for change in the world can one person do? In the case of this one man, only God knows. He was a planter of seed; he was a reaper of the harvest.

Often his sons and faithful wife, upon entering his study, would find him on his knees in prayer or sitting studying the Word of God. His only desire was to be in the center of God's will throughout his entire life.

He passed away October 23, 1993 and now has gone to join his wife, Marguerite, who left this earth, July 11, 1991.

Filled in this life with music, Dad now sings in the heavenly choir, joining his family who went before him.

But he leaves a legacy of faithful and powerful ministry to his sons, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. We, his family, ask your prayers as we now take up the mantle of our own ministries and now the witness of God's Spirit as exemplified through the life of Henry Fulton Pollock, whose spirit we submit to his heavenly Father whom he loved and served so well on this earth.

Let us grieve, yes, but let us give thanks for this man who had such an influence directly and indirectly on so many people. Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

CECIL DUBOIS SCHUTT

At the age of nine, Dubois requested of his minister that he be baptized and allowed to join John Wesley Methodist Church in Charleston, SC. This request came at a time of year when there were no confirmation classes in session and none planned. Having been a victim of the 1950 polio epidemic, this made us feel surely God was in command of his life. Dubois kept a close relationship with his church activities and church family and at the age of 18 was given an opportunity to deliver a sermon from the John Wesley pulpit. Dubois felt the ministry was his calling, but was discouraged by the lack of cooperation and encouragement from the district superintendent who was serving our district at that time.

Dubois married Eva Watts on June 30, 1968 before completing his undergraduate degree, went into business for himself, and bought a home in Charleston, SC. At age 28, he approached his parents and friends and stated that he had to sell his home and his business and do what God had called him to do. He worked at night as a dispatcher for the harbor pilots and attended school during the day. During this time he was under the guidance of Omega Newman, our first of two black district superintendents in the SC Conference, and was able to obtain his license to preach. His first appointment while a student in undergraduate school was at Folly Beach UMC in Folly Beach, SC.

Dubois attended the University of SC and received his B.A. degree from the Baptist College of Charleston (now called Charleston Southern University). He attended Duke Divinity School and received his Master of Divinity degree from Southeastern Baptist Seminary. In 1986, Dubois was ordained as an elder.

After transferring from the SC Conference in 1978, Dubois's first appointment in the NC Conference was at Broadway, followed by: Sardis, Parson's Grove, Melton's Grove, and Little River in the Sanford District; Calvary, Weaver's Chapel and Corinth in the Rocky Mount District; Grace and Newland in the Elizabeth City District; Daniel's Memorial in the Goldsboro District; Mt. Herman and Brooks Frizzell in the Greenville District.

Cecil Dubois Schutt was born in Charleston, SC on July 15, 1946. He was the son of Clayton Dubois Schutt and Juanita Ginn Schutt. He was dearly loved and esteemed by his family and those who knew him. He enjoyed people and spent his life trying to help guide and counsel them into a better life. He was a fun-loving, courageous person who accepted hardships in life with a positive attitude. He loved music and shared his talents as often as possible. He played piano, trombone, organ, and sang. He often filled in with the church choir when he was needed. Another talent he shared was through pictures he painted. Dubois was a loving husband, father, son, grandson, brother, and uncle. He had the wit and ability to lift our spirits and make our hearts feel lighter.

Dubois died on December 16, 1993 in his family home in Charleston, SC. On June 24, 1993, Dubois was told he had colon cancer. He chose to stay among his special friends in NC until the time came when he requested to come back home among his family. His life and gifts were celebrated at John Wesley UMC in Charleston and interment was in the Varnville Cemetery in Varnville, SC. The presiding minister was the Reverend Richard McAlister, assisted by the Reverend James Frazier.

Dubois is survived by his wife, Diane May Schutt, whom he married November 19, 1985, now residing in Littleton; his daughter, Jeanette Schutt; and son, Stephen Schutt; his mother, Juanita Schutt; his grandmother, Bernice Ginn; two sisters, Annette Bass and Alicia Schutt; one nephew and three nieces, all residing in Charleston.

"I am home in heaven, dear ones: Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, safely home in heaven at last..."

The Family

KELLY JOHNSON WILSON III

1946 - 1994

Kelly Wilson belonged to a family of Methodist preachers. His father, Kelly Wilson II; his brother, Jim Wilson; and his sister, Rebecca Dolch, are all ordained UMC ministers.

Kelly was ordained deacon in 1974 and an elder in 1978. He served the Browning-Smith Charge (Goldsboro); Wellon's Village; Oak Grove; as chaplain for the Methodist Retirement Home, and from 1986 until his death, Creedmoor UMC.

Kelly was born January 20, 1946 in Waynesboro, VA, and he died March 12, 1994 at Duke Hospital in Durham following a long illness with cancer. A memorial service, held at Creedmoor UMC on March 15, 1994, was led by Reverend Paul Wesley Aitken, Dr. Ken Lyles, Reverend Bob Wallace, and family members: Reverends Rebecca Dolch, Bud Dolch, and Jim Wilson.

Kelly is survived by his wife, M. Sharon Rennolds Wilson, whom he married November 30, 1968; and three sons, William Rennolds, Timothy Lough, and David Simmons; a foster daughter, Mrs. Janet M. Henderson; and his parents, Kelly (II) and Jean Wilson.

Kelly's ashes were lovingly placed and intentionally distributed as expressions of important aspects of his life. Some were placed in a lovely bird's-eye maple box (Kelly was a fine woodworker) and buried in the cemetery in Creedmoor. Others were scattered at a favorite private spot treasured by Kelly and Sharon. Still others were scattered "where the loons are" in the Adirondack Mountain wilderness (upstate NY) where Kelly went on retreat every year with a few close friends.

As I have observed Kelly's life, family, faith, ministry, illness and dying from the perspective of a close personal friend and trusted colleague, several key characteristics stand out:

- He disliked phoniness intensely, and he could see through it immediately. Even the thinnest layer of "put on" put him "off." Kelly was genuine.

- He was not impressed with status in the church or elsewhere, though he admired genuineness and competence anywhere.

- He was often frustrated with institutional machinery and meaningless red tape, so he prided himself on making himself look as if he were slightly out of step. Actually he was a deeply committed UIM minister.

- Kelly had a great interest in, a healthy respect of, and a huge compassion for persons of all walks of life, especially those who lacked status or did not receive much consideration or compassion.

- From our joint Bible Study, and our many conversations, I found Kelly to be a man of great depth. He took his marriage, his children, his extended family, his congregation, his life, his friends, his faith, his illness, and his dying, seriously.

- One of the exceptionally meaningful activities Kelly engaged in in recent years, besides his normal pastoral ministry, was teaching pastoral counseling in the Duke Course of Summer School each summer.

Kelly Wilson III was a competent professional, though his approach to persons was always personal, pastoral, and informal.

One of Kelly's remarkable qualities was his ability to maintain several close friendships simultaneously. I'm sure there are 25 to 100 persons who considered themselves his best friend; and we all were.

I know I speak for many in saying:

I have been proud to claim Kelly as a personal friend, a respected colleague, and an admired spirit and Christian presence. We will miss him greatly - especially his big "bear hug" greetings.

O God, thank you for Kelly Johnson Wilson the Third.

JAMES DOYNE YOUNG

James Doyne Young was born December 17, 1903 in Magazine, AR to the late Robert L. and Fannie High Young. He attended elementary and high school in Lonoake, AR. His A.B. degree was earned from Lambuth College in Jackson, TN, where he lettered for three years in baseball and football. While at Lambuth he participated in a play in which he had the role of a physician, thus he became "Doc" to the members of the cast and other students at Lambuth. When he and others from Lambuth entered Duke Divinity School, the name came to North Carolina and it became as much a part of him as Reverend.

While working to get his B.D. degree from Duke Divinity School he served in Trenton. The parsonage there became the home for Dad and Rubye Lucille Jackson whom he married on September 8, 1932. As the first child of this union, it became my home on September 18, 1933.

From Trenton he was appointed to the Pittsboro Circuit in 1935. The birth of a daughter, Edna Frances, on November 8, 1936 completed the family.

In 1939 Ellerbe became his next appointment, and while serving there, Dad volunteered to serve his country and his Lord as a chaplain in the US Army. So from 1942 to 1945 he ministered to our servicemen in the US and for 32 months overseas.

Upon his return from the US Army, Garland was his appointment. In 1946, he was appointed to the four churches on the Snow Hill Charge. After four years, Calvary and Tabernacle became the Snow Hill appointment, so he remained in the same parsonage for eight years. In those days that was most unusual. I was certainly happy about it since it allowed me to enter and complete my high school education in one school.

In 1954, Ann Street Church in Beaufort was his next appointment, and his first time to serve one church. After four years there, Oxford became his next appointment in 1958. Oxford's closeness to Durham provided opportunities to attend many athletic events at Duke University, and the Oxford Lodge #122 of the Masons invited him to join their ranks, which he did and had many fond memories of his times there.

From Oxford to Williamston for four years of service and then on to Cary where he had his first full time associate pastor. Hillsborough became his last appointment and he retired there after having served The UMC and his Lord and Savior for four decades.

His love for Duke University and Duke Hospital led him to purchase a home on Lakewood Avenue that had been one of Coach Bill Murray's homes. Not only was this first home of their very own close to Duke University and Hospital, it was close to Duke Memorial UMC. They joined that church family and participated in all the programs and activities there.

He preached almost as much in retirement as he did while under appointment, because he dearly loved to preach the word of God as it was revealed to him. Until the last few years of his ministry he preached without notes or manuscript of any kind. He preached from the pulpit, but at home and in the community he lived his sermons. Dad always walked humbly with his Lord, he was a godly man, one of deep faith, given to prayer, and the study of God's Holy Word. He was a kind and gentle man and he touched all who knew him with Christ's love. He was loved by many and he loved and cared about the people he served. His ministry was most rewarding and as a family we want to thank the hundreds of people in the NC Conference who made his ministry one of great joy and satisfaction. Above all, I give thanks to Jesus, Dad's personal friend, for all He did for His servant in the ministry of His gospel.

His last years were spent here in High Point in a nursing home, because Rubye, the earthly love of his life had departed this world on August 1, 1985, so she could start preparing for his coming to join her and their heavenly Father.

It is my belief that Alzheimer's disease did not take his life on March 15, 1994, as reported on the death certificate, but rather the grief and sorrow experienced over the loss of his precious Rubye brought his life to an end. So on March 17, 1994, the funeral service for Dad was held at Christ UMC in High Point with the Reverends Hubert Brown and Lloyd Hunsucker officiating, and his four grandsons as pallbearers. The burial in Maplewood Cemetery in Durham was completed by the Masons from Oxford Lodge #122. He now joins Rubye at the feet of Jesus to be together forever. Surviving are his two children, six grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Sam G. Dodson was born July 14, 1924 in Efland. He was the son of Samuel and Sophronia Howard Dodson. Sam was the last of eight children. He was educated in the public schools of Burlington. He attended Pfeiffer Junior College, Elon College, VPI, Duke University Divinity School, and Florida Christian University. He married Sara Marie Foster on August 26, 1950. They had two children and a foster son. He was ordained a deacon in 1955 and an elder in 1959.

Sam served as pastor of the following churches in the NC Conference: Wesley Circuit, Moncure, Norman, Parkwood in Durham, St. Paul in Durham, Goldston, and Seaboard. He served as chaplain at Radford College, Wesley Foundation, and the Methodist Children's Home at Enterprise, FL. He also served as minister of education and youth at Trinity UMC in Birmingham, Chevy Chase UMC in Maryland, and Peachtree Road UMC in Atlanta. He was associate pastor and minister of education and youth at First UMC in Rockingham. Sam was minister of visitation at Parkwood UMC, and then minister emeritus at Parkwood UMC until his death.

About a year before his death, Sam told his minister that he wanted the following scripture read at his funeral: Romans 14:8 & 9, "If we live, it is for the Lord that we live, and if we die, it is for the Lord that we die. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. For Christ died and rose to life in order to be the Lord of the living and the dead." While Sam was in the Navy (05/05/43 to 12/12/45) he came face to face with death and it was then that he knew for certain that if he were to die he would go to heaven because he had invited Jesus Christ to be Lord of his life. It was the living Christ abiding in Sam's life that made him the loving caring person that he was. To know Sam Dodson was to know that you were loved and to share in the love of Jesus Christ. Sam's life was surrounded in love and care.

He is survived by the following: his wife, whom he married April 12, 1986 - Mrs. Georgia Reid Dodson, two daughters - Mrs. Janet D. Hudson and Mrs. Rebecca D. Franklin, both of Durham, a foster son - Mr. George Michael Ragsdale of Live Oak, FL, a sister - Mrs. Myrtle D. Carden of Efland and six grandchildren.

Sam's family remembers him for his loving, caring mannerisms, for his sense of humor and his generosity, and helping to meet their needs, and for the extended care that he gave to anyone in need. Sam loved God with his all; he loved his family and enjoyed celebrating their family traditions, especially on holidays such as birthdays, Christmas, Thanksgiving, Easter, etc., and family cookouts. His generosity was expounded at his funeral service by a letter, written by a niece, that told the many ways he had helped her and her family - spiritually, as a minister, and financially. It was reported that any one of his nieces or nephews could have written that letter.

Sam loved Camp Chestnut Ridge and served there in several capacities. He was a man with many talents: preaching, leading worship, setting up libraries, managing workers, working with youth and adults, teaching recreation and Bible, ceramics, painting, folk dancing, and traveling.

After a long bout with cancer, having fought a good fight, having kept the faith, Sam went on to receive his reward of a crown of life, March 26, 1994. He was in Durham Regional Hospital surrounded by the love of his family when he died.

A Service of Death and Resurrection Celebrating the Life and Work of The Reverend Dr. Samuel G. Dodson, Jr. was held March 29, 1994 at Camp Chestnut Ridge UMC (just as Sam had planned it, even to the printing of the bulletin). The service was conducted by the Reverends David Cumbest, George Johnson, and Frank Lloyd. The Reverend Wesley Brown was the soloist. Pall bearers were the Reverends Mike Sykes, Gray Southern, Norman Fitzgerald, Everett France, Carl Belcher, and Herman Ward.

Sam believed in the resurrection and the gift of eternal life. Early in the morning before Sam died, he awoke to hug, kiss, smile, and tell his family and friends that he loved them. He lived and died knowing that Jesus Christ is the Lord of the living and the dead.

DURWARD THOMAS GOODWIN

1907 - 1994

Durward Thomas Goodwin was born in Harrison County, WV on February 10, 1907. He was the second of three children born to Nathan and Bertha Goodwin.

Durward married Mable Gertrude Brand on August 2, 1933. They had three children: Charles R. Goodwin, White Plains, MD; Ethel L. Crosier, Snow Hill; and Juanita J. Chappell, Jarvisburg.

Durward died March 27, 1994 in the Pitt County Memorial Hospital in Greenville after an extended illness. He was buried in the Snow Hill Cemetery. The Reverend Vance Way of Columbia conducted the graveside service at 2:00 p.m. on March 29, 1994.

Durward received his early education in Harrison County, WV, and attended Salem College after graduation from high school. He then attended West Virginia Wesleyan College, Union Theological Seminary, and Boston University, with post-graduate studies at West Virginia University, West Virginia Wesleyan, Marshall University, Davis & Elkins College and the US Army Chaplains' School.

He began his ministry in May of 1929 when he was assigned as a student to the Mt. Zion charge. In 1937, he transferred to the Oregon Conference, returning to West Virginia in 1940. In July, 1942, he joined the US Army as a chaplain and served in that capacity until February, 1946. He was called to serve his country again, from September 1, 1952 to October 1, 1952, as the chaplain for the state of West Virginia to conduct funeral services for the victims of the Korean War. When he was separated from the Army in 1946, he accepted a temporary charge in New Hampshire until the next Methodist Conference in West Virginia. He transferred to the NC Conference on June 1, 1958 and was assigned to Kinnakeet. During the next 14 years, until his retirement in 1972, he served in Currituck, Swan Quarter, Columbia, Maury-Mt. Herman, Hawkins-Tabor, and Pinetops. He also retired from the US Army Reserves on March 1, 1967, with the rank of Lt. Colonel.

Durward was deeply involved in the churches and communities he served. He was a scoutmaster, a substitute teacher, a chaplain in the Civil Air Patrol, coached local softball teams - and performed a marriage in an airplane in Morgantown, WV.

Durward performed the marriage ceremonies for all of his children and five of his grandchildren. He baptized all 11 of his grandchildren.

Being an "ole country boy" from the hills of West Virginia, Durward loved to raise a garden and grow beautiful flowers. He was always ready to go fishing or hunting, both in West Virginia and North Carolina.

May God watch over his soul.

FLETCHER WOODROW FRALEY

Fletcher W. Fraley, son of Walter Pierson and Maude McCollough Fraley, was born in Lexington, SC, May 12, 1918. Fletcher died April 12, 1994, in Greensboro.

Fletcher Fraley served the following churches: Mamers Charge, Fayetteville District, beginning in 1961. He then served the following churches: Tatum-Hebrane, SC Conference; St. John-Workman, SC Conference; then back to Mamers Charge, Fayetteville District. He transferred to the OK Conference, then returned to Mamers Charge. He next went to St. Paul in Maxton, Rockingham District, then to Wesley Heights in Fayetteville where he retired in 1984.

Fletcher was preceded in death by his first wife, the late Hazel Jean Temple Fraley, whom he married on April 10, 1942. Jean died September 2, 1988.

The funeral for Fletcher was at West Market UMC with the Reverend Earl Gibson, officiating. His body was transferred to Ft. Bragg Military Cemetery, where the Reverend N. B. Hill supervised a service with full military precision. His body was laid to rest in the military cemetery at Ft. Bragg.

He is survived by his present wife, whom he married on April 16, 1989, Melva Lee McNeill Fraley of 910 Avery Place, Greensboro. Other survivors are two daughters: Barbara F. Gregg of Florence, SC, Rebecca F. Reynolds-Duffer of Fayetteville; three sons: Gary F. Fraley of Easley, SC, Dennis L. Fraley of Columbia, SC, Brian S. Fraley of Val Rico, FL; three brothers: Robert and Victor Fraley of Florence, SC, and Nelson Fraley of Darlington, SC; four sisters: Geneva Keesler of Lexington, SC, Louise Sevarance of Timmonsville, SC, Betty Gunter of Florence, SC, and Virginia Hendrix of Millersville, MD; a step-daughter: Lou Ann McNeill of South Africa; a step-son: Gary R. McNeill of Reston, VA; and 10 grandchildren.

Upon Fletcher's retirement from the US Army, his commanding officer said this: "Throughout your career in the Army you have demonstrated a high order of professional ability, and your actions have reflected those other personal attributes which characterize an able and conscientious officer. During your tour of duty with the US Army Artillery and Missile Center, you carried an enviable reputation as the Headquarters commandant. Your sound judgement, mature outlook, and steadfastness won the respect of superiors and subordinates alike. Your vigilant and prudent supervision, exceptional loyalty and devotion to duty contributed immeasurably to the accomplishments of the mission of the US." This was Fletcher Fraley then and also in the service of our Blessed Lord. His tour of duty with The UMC, as a soldier of the cross, carries the same commendation.

Fletcher Fraley was the best loved of Methodist preachers. His lay people praised him in church and abroad. Fletcher learned a secret of life and his church ministry. Romans 12:1 says, "I beseech you brethren by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." Fletcher believed this.

It has been said that there was no order for Noah to put a rudder on the ark. God was the rudder. Fletcher learned how to do this. He sold out to God. He faced the enemy in the US Army, and in the army of the Lord, with God as his rudder. Only full and total abandonment to the perfect will of God will give a preacher perfect rest of the soul.

Fletcher learned this secret of God, and then God could give and give to Fletcher W. Fraley because he had made such a wide opening into his life. Fletcher had open hands.

Matthew 25:21, "His Lord said unto him, well done thou good and faithful servant: thou has been faithful over a few things. I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of the Lord."

Lovingly submitted by a friend,
James R. Lancaster, Jr.

ALLEN RICHARDSON III

The Reverend Allen Richardson III was born on January 15, 1921 in Pawtucket, RI. His early years were shaped by the Reverend Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ingler, under whose ministry he was converted. They wrote, among other songs, "The Pearly White City," - and they also preached it.

In his senior year of high school Allen felt called into the ministry, but having taken a full load of business courses, he continued on this tract until completion. He was graduated from Eastern Nazarene College in Quincy, MA, in 1945. He took his seminary work at Duke University, medical chaplaincy training at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond, and extended correspondence courses to complete his dream and strong desire to serve in the ministry of God.

Allen transferred from the Church of Nazarene in 1962, and was appointed by Bishop Garber to pastor at Shiloh and Zion churches near Wilmington until a chaplaincy position opened. A few years later a position opened in Whiteville at Columbus County Hospital. He then became a member of the American College of Chaplains.

Allen held his chaplaincy position while pastoring at Peace and Mishop Springs churches for several years, and then at Chadbourn and Evergreen churches for many more years. He had accumulated over 22 years in the NC Conference when he retired in 1986.

He died very suddenly of a massive heart attack, having no previous history of heart disease at all. Two weeks prior to his death his doctor had pronounced him in perfect health at the age of 73, and saying, "You'll make it to 80!"

We are assured he entered heaven on June 1, 1994. He was memorialized in the Whiteville UMC and was buried in the Evergreen UMC Cemetery.

One of the favorite songs sung at his funeral was "The Pearly White City John Saw Coming Down," by Arthur Ingler.

Allen is survived by his wife, the former Alice Marjorie Caldwell, whom he married on June 12, 1943, now residing at Myrtle Beach, SC; two daughters, Marilyn Guinn of Houston, TX, and Jan Moorhead of Whiteville; and five grandchildren.

His entire life was devoted to God and his fellowmen. He was a kind and compassionate pastor. Allen gratefully worked with all races, all classes, and all ages, and his ministry was especially versatile - he was evangelistic, home and foreign mission-minded, and he won many souls to the Kingdom.

ADA MAE STOCKER WHITE

1918 - 1993

Ada Mae Stocker White was born February 11, 1918 in Frenchtown, NJ. She was the daughter of John Stocker and Edith Blue Stocker, both deceased. Ada passed away in her own home with all of her family around her on June 16, 1993 after a three-year struggle with cancer. Services were held in the First UMC, Graham, with the Reverend Marshall Old and the Reverend Kenneth Culberson officiating. She was buried in Alamance Memorial Park in Burlington.

Ada married Christian White on April 29, 1942 and they have three children: Faye C. White Stadler of Raleigh, David Christian White of Burlington, and Barbara J. White Crissman of Graham. They are the proud grandparents of nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

In her earlier years, Ada attended college at Houghton College, Houghton, NY from which she graduated in 1940. She majored in studies for the ministry and was especially attracted to the mission field. After her graduation she served two posts in the US in children's ministries.

Ada was a great influence in helping her husband hear God's call to the ministry. In 1947, he became a pastor in The UMC and she served beside him and with him for 36 years. In addition, she had her own special ministries with the women, children, and choirs wherever they were appointed. This lovely and gracious lady served with distinction and love and was honored by all of those who knew her. Her Christian character and gentle love endeared her to all of those who shared in her life. By the time of her death, she had been honored by the United Methodist Women with four life-membership pins.

Ada chose not to work outside of her home and church so that she could give guidance and love to her children, family, and church, and to especially be there for her husband when she was needed.

This remarkable woman used her great abilities to serve Christ and His Church. As someone has said, "She spread the fragrance of Christ wherever she was." She always had an inspired passion for the right, the good, and the holy. Her husband and children and friends "rise up and call her blessed."

As her husband wrote about her:

"Therefore, we do not grieve as those who have no hope, for our hope is in the eternal God.

So with quiet faith and confidence, we trustingly commit Ada into the love and care of our heavenly Father, who is our friend and Savior in life and death."

And this A Prayer, a Tribute, a Witness by her husband was read at her funeral service:

"O, Lord my God and Ada's God: The sinister power of death has broken the vessel of clay that was my beloved.

We have walked Your way together for more than 50 years.

We met under the banner of Your love, We married in the knowledge of Your blessing. We built our home with the spirit of Christ as the Head. We reared our children as a gift from Almighty God; and now they rise and call us blessed: for they also live in the knowledge of Your grace.

Now, Oh Father, You know that our hearts are heavy with the pain of parting. No more will those gentle hands express her ways of kindness and love. No more will we experience those thoughtful and loving things which made her friend to all who shared in her life.

No more will those beautiful eyes express the tenderness of love or the disapproval of wrong. No more will her voice speak words of wisdom or express faith and joy through music.

This lovely and gracious lady will be greatly missed by all of us who love her.

MARY BEATRICE ELIZABETH MURPHY TILLEY

1904 - 1993

Mary Beatrice Elizabeth Murphy Tilley, better known as Bea, was born on December 14, 1904, on the top of the Blue Ridge Mountains near Galax, VA. The seventh of eight children, she received her early education from her father, the teacher in the one-room community school. She and her younger brother, Rudy, rode their horses, Bill and Kate, to school. As nieces and nephews visited the family, they often played that they were riding horses as the young aunt and uncle crawled around the room with would-be cowboys on their backs. Bea became Kate and Rudy became Bill. With the Murphy clan, Bea still is referred to as Aunt Katie.

When she reached high school, Bea spent a year in Lynchburg, VA, with a brother-in-law who ran a business school. His wife, Bea's sister, had died, leaving two small daughters. Bea and another sister helped with the household tasks while they continued their education.

About 1922, Bea entered Glade Valley High School, a boarding academy where students assumed many of the responsibilities of gardening and caring for livestock as well as performing household chores. There she met Lester Archie Tilley, who was a year ahead of her. Valentines from 1923 and 1924, found in her memorabilia, indicate that they courted for several years before their marriage on April 28, 1925.

The young couple went to Durham, where Lester entered Duke in the fall of 1925. While he was an undergraduate, three children, Lester, Jr., Kenneth Grey, and Eloise Grace, joined the family. When Bea and Lester were in Smithfield, they adopted their grandson, Michael Eugene.

With Bea's encouragement and help, Lester received his A.B. in June, 1929, and his B.D. in June, 1935. Their appointments included: Hemp (Robbins), 1929-30; Haw River, 1930-33; Newton Grove, 1933-37; Spring Hope, 1938; Ayden, 1938-42; Roanoke Rapids: First, 1942-46; Morehead City: First, 1946-51; Rockingham: First, 1951-56; Smithfield: Centenary, 1956-60; Jacksonville: Trinity, 1960-64; and Raleigh: Longview Gardens, 1964-68. After retirement in 1968, they moved to Garner. In 1969, Lester became minister of visitation at Raleigh: Edenton Street until declining health forced him to stop in 1973. He died June 2, 1974.

Throughout her lifetime, Bea enjoyed gardening; and many people thought that she had a green thumb. Often at church events, she supplied flowers, vegetables, and fruits that she had grown in her yard. Perhaps a handwritten note found in her Bible after her death best describes her. It is dated July, 1988.

"I am 82 years old, and I enjoy every minute of my life. If I can have good health, I would like to live to be 90 and then try for 100.

There are not enough hours in the day to accomplish everything I want to do. I live alone (most of the time). I do all my housework. I have a garden and enjoy growing a variety of vegetables and flowers. I love being outside in God's beautiful world watching things growing - a rose bud opening in the morning dew, seeing squash and cucumbers growing in length and size each day, watching a tomato change color, and to know how God works His wonders everywhere and to know He loves us.

I don't have time to think about dying. I'm much too busy living. I believe the quality of life can improve with age for those who have good health and a positive outlook. God loves His own!!"

An addendum added at an unspecified later date continued, "I want to be packed and ready to take the most wonderful journey that God has prepared for me and all who love, care, pray, live for others. God loves us."

Bea died on October 9, 1993, at the home of her niece, Lila Day, in Durham. She is interred at the cemetery at Lester's home church, Walnut Grove UMC in Orange County, near Hillsborough.

She is survived by two sons, Kenneth Grey of Raleigh, and Michael Eugene of Lander, WY; a daughter, Eloise Sampley of Maitland, FL; 11 grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

MARTHA ALICE SAUNDERS SHAW

1901 - 1993

Martha Alice Saunders was born September 20, 1901 in Wilmington to George and Martha Johnson Saunders. Mr. Saunders was a carpenter by trade but had many other talents as well. He was editor of a small area newspaper for several years. Martha attended the Wilmington area schools until, during the time of World War I, Mr. Saunders moved his family to Hopewell, VA, to work in a government war plant there. It was in Hopewell that Martha met William Carroll Shaw, who also had moved to Hopewell to work as a bookkeeper in the war plant. They actually met in a community church Sunday School and, thus, began their special Christian relationship together.

They were married November 19, 1916, and became the parents of five children. Over the years Mr. Shaw held many varied positions - as soldier, lawyer, teacher, court clerk, etc., but a strong call to the ministry drew him back to preaching again and again. Mrs. Shaw displayed many talents herself, utilizing her fine musical voice, and in cooking and sewing.

In North Carolina, this vital couple served the Guilford Circuit, then Four Oaks in another denomination, followed by churches in the NC Conference including the Bath Circuit, Bynum Charge, and Mamers Charge. These spiritually productive years for the Shaws also were wonderful family years together, and are remembered by the family with many fond memories.

Mr. Shaw died suddenly of a massive heart attack on April 27, 1956, and Mrs. Shaw moved to live with her children. She remained active for many years, until about five years ago when she was forced to move to a nursing home after suffering several strokes. Mrs. Shaw may have lost many of her capacities and a lot of her hearing, but her eyes were still excellent to the very end. She died December 21, 1993 the way we all wish to go, after living a long, full, happy, and spirit-filled life.

A memorial service was held in Jamestown, TN, then a final funeral celebration was held in the Mount Hope Community near Greensboro where two of her grandsons officiated, a granddaughter sang, other grandchildren and family members participated, and her grandsons were pallbearers. She was buried at Mount Hope Cemetery beside her husband.

Surviving are her three sons, Reverend Settle McKinley Shaw of Jamestown, TN, Thomas Carroll Shaw of Bay St. Louis, MS, and Bynum Gillette Shaw of Winston-Salem; two daughters, Hazel Valeria S. (Mrs. Frank) Dowdy of Colfax, and Rose Ann S. Stephens Dodd of Anaheim, CA; 19 grandchildren; and numerous great-grandchildren.

BERTHA CHARLOTTE
SPENCER LITTLE ALFORD

1909 - 1994

Bertha Charlotte Spencer Little Alford was born February 29, 1909 in Anson County, a daughter of the late Eli and Nezzie Capel Spencer. Bertha died on Monday, January 17, 1994 in Hamlet Hospital.

The funeral service was conducted at Philadelphia UMC in Rockingham with the Reverend Doris T. Fox, officiating. Interment was at Lincoln Memorial Park in Rockingham.

Bertha received her education in her home town. Moving to Richmond County during the "Great Depression," she met the late Isiah Little, Sr., whom she married. To this union, four children were born: Isiah Little, Jr., the late Henry L. Little, Pecolia Little Hoke, and the late Youtha Mae Little Brandy.

Bertha was a loving, devoted, Christian wife and mother through the years of this marriage. After the death of her husband, she spent many more years working and caring for her children.

In later life, Bertha was remarried to the Reverend James L. Alford, a member of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. Reverend Alford served as pastor of the Philadelphia Methodist Church where he and his family made their home in the Philadelphia Community for many years. At a later time, they moved to 109 Kinney Street in Rockingham.

Bertha was very active with the United Methodist Women, the church choir, other areas of the church, and civic organizations.

She leaves behind in the glow of her love: one son, Isiah Little, Jr., of Aliquippa, PA; one daughter, Pecolia Little Hoke of Schodack Landing, NY; one brother; three sisters; nine grandchildren; and other caring family and good friends.

IN THE HOLLOW OF HIS HAND

He lead me through the lifetime of my days.
He taught me in countless little ways.
He guided me on so many paths unknown.
He guarded me as a shepherd keeps his own.
He shielded me, though I may not always see.
The many ways my Lord delivered me.
He lifted me when I fell and helped me stand.
He held me in the hollow of his hand.

JULIA LOUISE GRAYSON HARRISON

1908 - 1994

Julia Louise Grayson Harrison, wife of the Reverend Russell Sage Harrison, Sr., was born April 15, 1908 in Rutherford County. She was the daughter of John Kenneth and Lucy Mae Walker Grayson.

Her long and eventful life of almost 86 years ended on January 31, 1994.

Julia began a career in teaching in her home county of Rutherford. Many young lives were touched by her as a teacher, and many were the duties of a teacher when she entered this profession. She enjoyed recalling the young Methodist minister proposing marriage; he declared they together entered into ministry "as green as grass." Their first appointment was on the NC coast to the Dare Circuit and then to the Currituck Charge. Julia's love of teaching carried over into the Sunday Schools of Russell's charges, as did her love of music. Julia was known to have a "dramatic flair" and made some otherwise dull settings, lively and interesting. She was one who pondered the deep things of the scripture and was asking searching questions before later scholars asked these same questions. At times this caused raised eyebrows, but provoked a great deal of thought.

Russell and Julia were married on May 30, 1938 and were blessed with three children, Hope now of San Diego, CA, where she supervises Child Protective Services, Jon now of Michigan State University where he is librarian and oversees the criminal justice and law divisions, Russell, Jr., now of Rutgers University where he is a political science professor and a consultant for the City of Philadelphia. As a mother, she felt a sense of joy and thankfulness about the chosen careers of her children.

Russell and Julia came back to Durham, to Epworth Church where Russell was pastor from 1965 - 1969. Julia lived to experience the problems that come in life with aging, but this adversity never changed the cheerful welcome visitors received in her home. The faithful ministry of the "Care Group" from Epworth Church sustained her; she always welcomed them with appreciation for their visits, cards, flowers, and "goodies."

A service of Death and Resurrection at Epworth Church in Durham was conducted by the Reverend Bess G. Hunnings and the Reverend W. Rickman Pinner on February 3, 1994. Interment was at Chapel Hill Memorial Cemetery.

A long eventful life well-lived is one we can thank God for, and retain in our memories forever.

Bess G. Hunnings

KATE ELIZABETH HOLMES PEARCE1908 - 1994

Kate Elizabeth Holmes was born on May 27, 1908 in Mecklenburg County, VA. She was the daughter of John Joseph and Sarah Elizabeth Whitt Holmes. As a small child she moved with her family to Franklinton where she married Clyde Pruitt Pearce on May 8, 1933.

During her husband's active ministry, Mrs. Pearce lived in various towns and cities in these NC Conference appointments: Whiteville, Perquimans, St. Paul-Trinity, Marshallberg, Cobb Circuit, Bynum, Newton Grove and Holly Springs. After her husband's retirement from the ministry in 1974 they resided in his home town of Wake Forest.

Mrs. Pearce was a very active and energetic person who cared for her home and family. Her hobbies included cooking for her family and friends, of which she had many, because they all knew how much she loved people. After her husband's death on October 6, 1980, Mrs. Pearce made her home with her son in Redding, CA.

She passed away on Monday, February 28, 1994 in Redding, CA. Funeral services were conducted in Redding, CA, by the Reverend Jim Smith. Her body was placed to rest in Youngsville Cemetery in Youngsville on March 3, 1994. Graveside services were conducted by the Reverend David Southern of East Bend.

She is survived by two children, Clyde P. Pearce, Jr., of Redding, CA, and Mrs. Jean Pearce Eason of Whiteville; and two sisters, Mrs. Eunice Hill of Youngsville, and Mrs. Charlotte Pearce of Franklinton.

PHELIA ELLIS HUNT LOWRY

1900 - 1994

Phelia Ellis Hunt Lowry was born December 28, 1900, in Robeson County, the daughter of the late Hensdale and Florence Ophelia Hunt. She died on March 9, 1994 at Pemberton Retirement Home in Pembroke. Prior to moving to Pemberton, she lived at Wesley Pines Methodist Retirement Home from 1977 to 1991.

Mrs. Lowry was educated in the Robeson County Schools. She later attended Western Kentucky Teachers College and returned to Pembroke State University to finish her teacher's degree. She taught school in Robeson County for over 30 years and was known as an educator par excellence.

On November 25, 1942, she married Mr. Doctor Fuller Lowry, a pastor who was the founder of several UM churches among the Lumbee Indians. Mrs. Lowry was very active in the Women's Society and was an ideal Christian who constantly communed with her Lord through prayer and Bible study. As one frequented her home, she was found with her Bible meditating on spiritual things. One of her favorite passages of scripture was, "If you have been raised with Christ, seek those things which are above where Christ is..." She did precisely that because of her love for her Master.

Having toiled in this life as a faithful servant, she is now at rest with the one she served, Jesus, the Christ. She stood tall in this life as a loving wife, an educator and model Christian. But we believe she stood taller in the eyesight of our Lord. She is indeed an honored guest in the heavenly home that has been prepared for her.

Mrs. Lowry's husband preceded her in death on August 13, 1977. She is survived by three step-children, Earl Lowry, Des Moines, IA; Quida Bailey, Green Valley, AZ; and Bruce Lowry, Dallas, TX; and two sisters, Dora Lowry, Rowland; and Leitha Hammonds, Lumberton.

The following words from a grand old hymn are so descriptive of her life as a Christian:

Jesus is all the world to me, my life, my joy, my all,
He is my strength from day to day, without Him I would fall.
When I am sad, to Him I go. No other one can cheer me so.
When I am sad, He makes me glad. He is my friend.

LULA EVELYN HILL BLOUNT

1910 - 1994

Evelyn Hill Blount, widow of the late Reverend George Wood Blount, was born on April 16, 1910 in Enoree, SC, to James Carlisle and Eunice Lanford Hill. She died on March 10, 1994 at Rex Hospital in Raleigh of cancer.

The funeral service was held at Edenton Street UMC in Raleigh where she had been a member since 1963. The Reverend William C. Simpson, Jr., officiated, and was assisted by the Reverends Robert Edwards and J. W. Lineberger. Internment followed at Montlawn Cemetery next to her husband.

The oldest of eight children, she graduated from Woodruff High School, Woodruff, SC, in 1927, and then attended and graduated from Winthrop College in Rock Hill, SC, in 1931. From 1931 and 1939 she was a public school teacher in Pacolet and Woodruff, SC.

On December 28, 1939, she married George Wood Blount in the Duke Chapel at Durham. Together they served churches of the NC Conference of The UMC in Spring Hope, Selma, West Burlington, Carthage, Louisburg and Raleigh until 1963. In 1957, they moved to Raleigh where they served his last appointment and he retired. Raleigh was their home thereafter and they both enjoyed an active retirement there.

Two children survive the Blounts. They are George Wesley Blount of Fleetwood, and Susan Hill Blount Johnson of Raleigh. There are three grandchildren, Susan Blount Johnson Fordham of Apex, Jeff D. Johnson IV and Ellen Beaman Johnson of Raleigh. Mrs. Blount also is survived by one sister and two brothers.

Mrs. Blount was always active in the service of her husband's churches, especially in organizing and supporting the work of the women of the church. She gave unselfishly of her time, her energy, and her cheerfulness. She was known for her beautiful smile and pleasant disposition always.

It is most suitable that one of her favorite poems was entitled, "What is the Value of a Smile," author unknown.

"A smile costs nothing but creates much. It enriches those who receive without impoverishing those who give. It happens in a flash, and the memory of it sometimes lasts forever..."

And if at any time you meet someone who fails to give you a smile, may we ask you to give him one of your own? For nobody needs a smile so much as he who has none to give..."

ADDIE FLORENE JONES WILLIAMS

1898 - 1994

Addie Florene Jones Williams was born June 6, 1898 in Lenoir. She was the daughter of the late Ramseur and Mamie Jones. She died March 11, 1994 at the Smith Building, Union Memorial Hospital in Monroe, where she spent three years recovering from an illness.

Funeral services were held at Central UMC in Monroe. The Reverend Fleming Byrd, pastor of Mt. Olive A.M.E. Zion Church, Monroe, officiated. Mrs. Williams was a member of Mt. Olive Church. She was buried in Hillcrest Cemetery, Monroe.

Mrs. Williams was educated in the Caldwell County school system, Lenoir. She met the late Reverend Daniel Arthur Williams while he was pastoring and operating an upholstery business in Lenoir. They were united in holy matrimony and to this union were born 15 wonderful children in which they instilled spiritual guidance and leadership qualities in all walks of life.

Mrs. Williams is survived by 11 of her children: David Andrew Williams, Jones M. Williams, Hubert O. Williams, Arthur Roosevelt Williams, Henry Williams, Mrs. Lillian Redfern, Mrs. Lucy McMurray, Mrs. Ellen Polk, Mrs. Geneva Winfield, Mrs. Martha Morrison, all of Monroe, and Mrs. Pecolia Helms of Atlantic City, NJ; one son-in-law, Therman Helms of Atlantic City, NJ; four daughters-in-law, Mrs. Lillie M. Williams, Mrs. Jasper Williams, Mrs. Pauline Williams, and Mrs. Amanda Williams, all of Monroe; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Mary Jones of Thomasville and Mrs. Elizabeth Jones of Lenoir; a loving and caring niece and nephew, Mrs. Doris Moody of Charlotte and Mr. Fred Jones of Atlanta, GA; other nieces and nephews; 70 grandchildren; 164 great-grandchildren; 71 great-great-grandchildren.

During the years of her husband's pastoring, Mrs. Williams was an inspiration to him and always expressed a genuine concern for their congregations. She was a loving and devoted wife as well as a caring mother of four generations of her family. Mrs. Williams was always concerned about the welfare of her family and friends. She accompanied her minister husband on his assignments to different churches and traveled across the state: Charlotte, Wilmington, Lenoir, Franklin, Boone, and Goldsboro. She worked on missionary boards, sang in church choirs, and helped as much as possible for the betterment of the ministry and the community.

Aside from being the wife of a pastor and performing her duties as first lady, Mrs. Williams established welcoming committees in her neighborhood and was a member of the Monroe Ladies Society. She would set up worshipping services in her home for daily spiritual guidance for family and friends. She taught her children that a good spiritual background makes a person strong like a solid foundation that will not fail. Anyone touched by the warmth of this special lady knows that she would go out of her way to fulfill the needs of others or give comfort where she could. She was a lover of people and made friends from all walks of life. The Williams were truly blessed by the presence of such a special woman who meant so much to all of us as a mother, grandmother, leader, source of inspiration and most of all, a good friend.

In her later years, Mrs. Williams became a homemaker with unique skills and an outstanding sensitivity. She remained home and spread her love throughout her family. She unselfishly volunteered her time and efforts for the betterment of her community until her health prevented her from doing so.

Mrs. Williams was a lover of music, and played the piano at family gatherings. Her hobbies consisted of cooking, sewing, and gardening. She loved green plants, and always planted a flower bed of roses. She took pride in the beauty of her flowers and always wanted to share them with friends, and place them in the church. Her favorite hymn was "Peace in the Valley." Her daily motto was "Love, live at peace, share, and be kind to your fellow man."

SOLACE

"How sweet it is at evening, at the close of a well-spent life,
To turn one's face to the sunset and quietly sink into rest,
That knows no waking except in the presence of God."

Lovingly submitted for the Williams Family,
Martha Morrison, Lillian Redfern, Lucy McMurray,
Ellen Polk, Geneva Winfield, Pecolia Helms, Doris Moody,
David, Jones, Hubert, Roosevelt, and Henry Williams, Shawn Morrison

GEORGE LEA HARPER, JR.

Dr. George Lea Harper, Jr., who was called Lea by family and friends, died March 18, 1994 after a lengthy battle with cancer. Had he lived until his birthday on April 26 he would have been 49 years old. Lea grew up in a Methodist parsonage. Over the years he itinerated with his parents, the Reverend George and Mildred Surrency Harper, who served a number of appointments mostly in the small towns of central Florida. Lea was the oldest of six children. The remaining five live around the country: Tom in Texas, Naina in Virginia, Jane in Kansas, David in New York, and Jody in Florida. His parents have retired to the place of Lea's birth, Gainesville.

Having graduated summa cum laude from Hillsborough High School, Lea left for Randolph Macon College where he was awarded the Phi Beta Kappa and received his B.A. degree in 1967. From there he attended Yale University in pursuit of the B.D. degree which was granted to him in 1970. While at Yale he did an internship working with troubled teens in downtown Utica, NY. This ministry was to mark the beginning of a lifetime of concern for God's children who often have been forgotten by society.

Prior to graduation from Yale, Lea was ordained a deacon in the FL Conference and in 1973 was ordained an elder. He served as the associate pastor at St. Luke's UMC in St. Petersburg in 1970 and in 1971 became the associate pastor of North Hialeah UMC.

On August 13, 1972 he married Ruth Elizabeth Mook from St. Petersburg and together they moved to Durham, where Lea began work on a Ph.D. in Theology. In 1978, he received his doctorate but not before receiving a teaching position at Pembroke State University and being granted his D.A.D. Eric George was born in 1976, just 10 days following the move to Pembroke. In 1980 Nathan Lea joined the family. Currently Eric is a student at Duke University and Nathan is attending high school at Lawrenceville School in New Jersey.

Lea is perhaps best known internationally for his book, Living With Dying: Finding Meaning in Chronic Illness, which was published in 1992 by William B. Eerdsman Publishing Company. He also has published articles in Circuit Rider, Religion and Intellectual Life, and Christian Century.

Ruth, a 1969 graduate of Florida Southern College, completed her M.Div. from Duke Divinity School, was ordained an elder in the NC Conference, pastored churches, and presently serves as the district superintendent of the Wilmington District.

On March 25, 1994, immediate family members gathered for a service of burial at a small community cemetery at the foot of the beautiful Peaks of Otter near Bedford, VA. The service was led by long-time friend, Reverend James C. Lee. Two days later, on Palm Sunday, a service of celebration and thanksgiving was held at Grace UMC in downtown Wilmington. 500 people gathered for the memorial service which was led by Reverend Lee, Dr. Robert Gustafson, former head of the Pembroke State University Religion Department, and Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr. A combined choir sang triumphantly, "It is Well With My Soul."

In tribute to their beloved professor, former students are establishing an endowed scholarship in the name of George Lea Harper, Jr. Those wishing to make contributions may send them to: PSU, Development Office, 2030 Main Building, Pembroke, NC 28372.

Lea was an accomplished tennis player, enjoyed backpacking, jogged when able, and found delight in boating on lake or on sea. Although cancer shortened his earthly existence, it did not diminish his living. It did not defeat Lea or thwart his determination to discover God's purpose for his life.

A month prior to his death from his hospital bed Lea reflected on Psalm 139. This Psalm spoke succinctly to his 10 year struggle with cancer and his approaching death, and so Lea wrote these words, "...I am relearning one of those age-old truths. The Lord is greater than my conceptions or imaginings. Cancer and maybe maturity bring me back to this God who searches and knows me, in my circumstances today. This God who is acquainted with all my ways, even before a word is on my tongue. 'For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb.'" (Psalm 139:13) "I do not understand," Lea concluded, "but today I feel the touch of the inescapable God."

How grateful we are for the "touch of the inescapable God" that came to Lea and has been expressed through Lea.

NORMA AILEEN BLUE DUNN

1914 - 1994

Norma Aileen Blue Dunn was born August 14, 1914 in Hoke County, the daughter of Neil C. and Nancy Kelly Blue. She died on May 19, 1994 in Lumberton. Her funeral was officiated by the Reverend Wade Goldston, and she was buried beside her late husband, the Reverend J. C. "Chick" Dunn in the Pinetops Community Cemetery.

A dedicated Christian wife and mother, Aileen is survived by three children, Carolyn D. Marlowe of Long Beach; J. C. Dunn, Jr., of Champaign, IL, (deceased August 9, 1994); and J. Lamon Dunn of La Crescenta, CA; 12 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Aileen was married on July 17, 1937 and, always a dedicated partner to her husband, she joined her husband in service to the Lord when he became director and chaplain of the Good Shepherd Home for Alcoholics at Lake Waccamaw in 1960. She not only faithfully served as bookkeeper, but she was "Mama" to the men and their families whose lives were touched by this special couple's ministry and love.

We recall this mother, who previously had sacrificed for her own children's music lessons, at the age of 48, diligently taking lessons herself to be able to provide music for the weekly Bible studies, religious services, and testimonials at the home.

Her Christian faith, joy, and love was steadfast through the 16 years they served side by side at the Good Shepherd Home and while serving the churches of Council-Trinity, Old Dock-Shiloh, Clarkston-Bluefield, Bolivia-Supply, and Hallsboro in the NC Conference.

Though her husband was forced to retire from the Conference in 1978, Aileen still ministered faithfully - this time to her husband, who remained an invalid until his death in 1982.

In 1984, Aileen moved to the Wesley Pines Retirement Home in Lumberton where she lived until her death. Her generous spirit and love for God's children kept her busy during these years in efforts to assist and cheer her fellow residents. She felt she could never do enough. On the day she was hospitalized with her final illness, Aileen was driving other ladies to the beauty shop, an ongoing example of her service to others and to her God.

Her faith lives on!

"We think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched...for nothing loved is ever lost...and she has loved so much."

MARGUERITE JENKINS TOWNSEND

1919 - 1994

Mrs. Marguerite Jenkins Townsend closed her final chapter of uncertainty on Sunday evening, May 22, 1994 at Scotland County Memorial Hospital in Laurinburg. In departing this life, she leaves a legacy of love, understanding, high esteem and deep devotion to her family and friends.

On February 3, 1919, she was born in St. George, SC, to the late Reverend Lawrence Ralph B. Jenkins and Mrs. Emma L. Rhodes Jenkins.

Her church affiliation began in her early childhood in St. George. For many years she was a member of Galilee UMC.

Mrs. Townsend was joined in holy matrimony on June 29, 1939, to the late Reverend Samuel Lloyd Townsend, Sr., who preceded her in death on February 13, 1983.

Marguerite's formal education was received at South Carolina State University in Orangeburg, SC, and at New York University where she earned a Master of Education degree.

Her teaching career of over 40 years touched the lives of many students in Alabama, Georgia, Virginia, and North Carolina. She retired from the Scotland County school system in 1981.

Professionally, she was a member of many organizations and boards: NC Association of Education, NC Teachers Association, NC English Teachers Association, and the Scotland County Retired School Personnel.

Being an enthusiastic civic, religious and social leader, Marguerite exemplified her concern for humanity by serving as president of the NC Federation of Business and Professional Women, president of the Ministers' Wives Association, a member of La Neville, Robeson County branch of the National Association of University Women, the Federation of Garden Clubs of NC, the Oleander Garden Club, the NC Sheriff's Association, a Scotland County precinct registrar, and a member of the Laurinburg Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Alumnae Chapter.

She leaves to bask in her infinite love and wisdom, one son: Mr. Samuel Lloyd Townsend, Jr.; two sisters-in-law: Mrs. Everta Thomas and Mrs. Doris Chavis, both of Maxton; nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

YOUR GENTLE FACE

Your gentle face and patient smile with sadness we recall,
 You had a kindly word for each and died beloved by all.
 The voice is mute and stilled the heart that loved us well and true.
 Oh, bitter was the trial to part from one so loved as you.
 You are not forgotten, loved one, nor will you ever be,
 As long as life and memory last, we will remember thee.
 We miss you now, our hearts are sore, as time goes by, we'll miss you more,
 Your loving smile, your gentle face, no one can fill your vacant place.

1994-1995 CONFERENCE MEMBERS IN FULL CONNECTION, ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORDS OF

NOTE: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, Southeastern
Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances - modified cash basis of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, as of December 31, 1993, and the related statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in fund balances - modified cash basis for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1 of the notes to financial statements, the Conference's policy is to prepare its financial statements on a modified cash basis. Consequently, certain supplemental appropriations and other revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, assets, liabilities and fund balances of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, at December 31, 1993, and its revenue, expenses or distributions and changes in fund balances for the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business:

The Conference was established to handle transactions for the operations and programs sponsored by approximately 840 churches in eastern North Carolina. The Conference also administers the Annual Conference and collects funds from the general and jurisdictional conferences and forwards these funds to the designated recipients. Fund transactions included within this report represent all funds administered by the Conference Treasurer, except for the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. and the Board of Missions, Inc.

A summary of the Conference's significant accounting policies follows:

Basis of presentation:

The Conference's financial statements are prepared on a modified cash basis of accounting. Consequently, certain supplemental appropriations and other revenue and related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned.

Fund accounting:

To ensure observance of limitations placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes.

The assets, liabilities and fund balances of the Conference are reported in two Council on Finance and Administration-designated self-balancing fund groups:

- Annual Budget Funds, which are represented by various annual funds, are determined by the Annual Conference. These funds are raised by member churches.
- Special Funds are funds created by the Conference for special purposes.

Other accounting policies:

Land, buildings and equipment are recorded at cost since 1983. Prior to 1983, if historical costs were unavailable, another reasonable basis was used.

Church properties assumed by the Conference as well as land donated to the Conference are stated at their estimated fair value at the time of receipt.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Buildings	30 - 40
Improvements to buildings	10 - 40
Furniture and equipment	5 - 15

Investments are recorded in the financial statements at the lower of aggregate cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value. The cost of securities sold is determined using the specific-identification method.

The expenditures for each year are financed principally by funds received from revenue from apportionments of the previous year. Accordingly, the revenue shown in the accompanying Statement of Revenue, Expense or Distribution and Changes in Fund Balances will be available for operations budgeted for the ensuing year.

Note 2. Cash

Arrangements with banks for investment of excess funds require minimum cash balances of $300,000 to be maintained. All cash deposits are legally subject to withdrawal without penalty. Funds invested in this program each business day. The amount invested in this program at December 31, 1993 was $1,719,000. The Conference places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limits.

Note 3. Investments

Investment cost and market values are summarized as follows:

	Cost	Market

	$25,500,817	$29,998,308

The Conference's investment in the United Methodist Foundation represents approximately 61 percent of the equity of the Foundation. The Foundation's net assets were approximately $39,700,000 at December 31, 1993 and consisted primarily of common stocks, fixed income securities and real estate mortgage loans.

Note 4. Property and Equipment

A summary of Property Funds assets is as follows:

Land and land improvements	$ 634,736
Buildings and building improvements	3,286,638

Inventory	6,671
Church properties and donated land held by Conference Board of Trustees for resale	547,880
Other	404
	$ 857,842

Note 6. Pensions

In 1981 the Conference began participating in multiemployer pension plans provided by the General Board of Pensions. Two defined contribution plans provide benefits for Clergy as follows for all service after December 31, 1981.

The Ministers Pension Plan provides monthly retirement benefits for Bishops of The United Methodist Church elected by a Jurisdictional Conference, clergy members of an Annual Conference and local pastors of The United Methodist Church under episcopal appointment or those eligible for appointment to a charge. Funding in 1993 is based on 12% of plan compensation.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides death, disability and educational benefits for all individuals eligible to participate in the Ministers Pension Plan. Funding is based on 4.4% of actual plan compensation.

Beginning January 1, 1990, the employers of plan participants collect the required contributions for the defined contribution plans described above from the plan participants and remit all collections directly to the General Board of Pensions.

The plans also provide defined benefits in accordance with their predecessor plan, The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. All plan participants as of December 31, 1981 entitled to receive benefits from The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund will receive upon retirement a monthly retirement benefit, disability, surviving spouse and surviving children benefits. Benefits are based on years of service and an approved pension rate. The pension rate is based on a percent of the Conference Average Salary. Benefits are subject to certain reductions if the participant retires before reaching age 65.

The Conference agreed to fund the prior service liability for service years prior to 1982. On January 1, 1994, the net unfunded liability based on a pension rate of $320 was $27,224,324. Current expense for prior service liability was $2,003,812. The amount paid to fund the unfunded prior service liability is determined annually by the General Board of Pensions. The Conference amortizes prior service cost over a 30-year period.

Note 7. Related Party Transactions

United Methodist Foundation, Inc.:

The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church. Accounts payable of $2,005,798 represent cash held by the Conference on behalf of the Foundation. Accounts payable of $2,820,609 to the Foundation represent payments of 1993 pension expense by the Foundation on behalf of the Board of Pensions. Transfers for these balances are made according to the unit investment policies of the Foundation.

Board of Missions, Inc.:

The Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repair of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to churches established in eastern North Carolina. Accounts receivable from the Board at December 31, 1993 was $42,427.

Note 8. Commitments

The Conference provides group health, life and dental plans for Conference employees and local church pastors and lay employees. The Conference has elected to self-insure the health and dental plans with an administrative services only (ASO) contract. Under this program the Conference paid claims of $2,927,628 in 1993. As of December 31, 1993, the Insurance Fund has designated fund balance in the amount of $725,100 for incurred but unreported claims.

Note 9. Restatement of Fund Balances

Effective January 1, 1993, the Conference changed its basis of accounting from generally accepted accounting principles to the modified cash basis of accounting. As a result of this change in the basis of accounting, fund balances were decreased by $1,227,387 from amounts previously reported in the 1992 financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON THE SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, Southeastern
Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Unitholders of United Methodist Foundation, Inc.
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 1993 and 1992, and the related statements of operations and changes in net assets for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., as of December 31, 1993 and 1992, and the results of its operations for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations:

United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. The Foundation also receives gifts and bequests on behalf of the member organizations.

A summary of the Foundation's significant accounting policies follows:

Valuation of securities:

Investments in fixed income securities and common stocks are stated at market value, based on closing prices reported on National Securities Exchanges on December 31, or at the last bid price, for over-the-counter securities. Investments in real estate mortgages are stated at the lower of aggregate cost or market.

General:

The Foundation follows the accounting practice of "equalization" whereby undistributed investment income per unit is unaffected by sales or redemptions of units.

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on the first-in, first-out basis.

Note 2. Securities Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities for the year ended December 31, 1993 and 1992 were as follows:

	1993	1992
Cost of purchases:
Short-term investments	$ 8,557,767	$14,899,002
Other securities	5,967,732	9,207,531
	$14,525,499	$24,106,533
Proceeds from sales:
U.S. Government securities	$ -	$ 1,095,000
Short-term investments	8,785,740	16,946,765
Other securities	6,733,822	4,694,966

Note 3. Restricted Assets and Obligations

During 1990, the Foundation established a separate Annuity fund to record the investment of funds upon which certain restrictions have been placed. In connection with these investments, the Foundation purchased three annuity contracts and established an annuity payable representing the present value of the payments to the annuitants over their remaining life expectancies.

The Foundation also established during 1990 a separate Cash Surrender Value fund for 16 life insurance policies which place certain restrictions on the use of the proceeds at the death of the donor. Three additional policies were recorded during 1991 and five additional policies were recorded during 1992.

Since the earnings on these investments are not available to all unitholders, they have been accounted for as restricted assets, liabilities and fund balance.

Note 4. Net Asset Value Per Outstanding Unit

The net asset value per outstanding unit was $1.83 at December 31, 1993 and $1.72 at December 31, 1992.

Note 5. Income Taxes

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Note 6. Credit Risk

The Foundation places its cash with a high quality financial institution. At times, such cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limit.

Note 7. Subsequent Event

Subsequent to December 31, 1993, the Foundation approved and disbursed an additional real estate mortgage in the amount of $215,000.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC. STATEMENT OF INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated is to maintain a balance between the current income needs of the Foundation and growth of principal and income in the future.

Safety of Principal

Although safety of principal is an important consideration, bonds or other debt instruments are to be used primarily for current income and common stocks are to be used primarily for principal enhancement.

Specific Quantifiable Objective

The specific quantifiable return of objectives of the Foundation shall be a minimum total return of 6% per year, net after expenses, over a reasonable period of time, which, under normal market conditions, is expected to be achieved over any cumulative five year period. Current income on an annual basis shall not be less than 6 percent.

Directed Commissions

The use of directed commissions is a helpful and sometimes necessary mechanism in order for the Investment Manager to secure information from outside sources, and it is not the intention of the Foundation to hamper the Investment Manager's use of these resources.

Asset Distribution

Except as noted under "Prohibited Transactions", investments are to be made in quality securities which, in the opinion of the Investment Manager, can best achieve the expected investment performance. The Foundation feels that a normal Equity-Debt ratio of 50/50 would be appropriate for their needs. However, this ratio may be varied at the discretion of the Investment Manager as long as the specified quantifiable objectives are realized. Any major shift of 20% or more must be discussed with the Investment Committee in advance. Fixed income securities are to be used to the extent necessary to provide relative portfolio stability and a high stream of current income. The bond portfolio should be strengthened to a maximum level of 60% of the total portfolio. Equities are to be used to provide potential for growth in principal and income.

Diversification

Although the Investment Manager has full discretion over the portfolio, the Foundation feels that individual investments, on the basis of cost, should not exceed 30% of the portfolio in any one industry or 10% of the portfolio in any single security. At the discretion of the Investment Manager, investments that have appreciated above these limits may continue to be held.

Delegation of Authority

It is expected that the portfolio under the Investment Manager's control will be invested in a manner consistent with the expressions in this statement. Within those limits, he has full control of assets. The Foundation does not expect to direct the purchase or sale of investments, but may advise when it has information regarding specific situations.

Quality of Securities

Only new purchase of bonds or other instruments of debt which are rated by Moody's and/or Standard & Poor's as "A" quality or above are to be used. Common stock holdings and/or common stock equivalents should be in (1) companies that have been rated in quality as "B" or above by Standard & Poor's, or (2) companies that are actively followed by the Investment Manager and are rated on a quality basis equal to or greater than Standard & Poor's rating of "B".

Measurement of Return

Investment performance should be measured in terms of total return, and not dividend and interest income alone. It is recognized that realized losses will occur in individual securities, even though each investment in the Foundation was made in the expectation of dividend income and/or capital appreciation. However, the measure of fund performance will be a total realized rate of return figure. The total Foundation, as well as the fixed income component and equity component, will be measured by using the time-weighted rate of return method.

Liquidity

From an investment standpoint, (i.e. accumulating cash equivalents in anticipation of better investment opportunities), the Investment Manager may invest up to 25% of the account in short term liquid assets.

Prohibited Transactions

Investments or trading in private placements, letter stock, commodities, venture capital, puts, calls, straddles, hedges, shortsales, or transactions on margin are specifically prohibited. Covered options trading on no more than twenty (20) percent of the equity portfolio may be used at the discretion of the Investment Manager. No investments are to be made in companies whose principal business is gambling, or the manufacturing or distribution of tobacco products or alcoholic beverages.

Investment Review

The Investment Manager shall meet semi-annually with the Foundation and may meet quarterly with the Investment Committee with time and place of meetings to be designated by the Foundation. Special meetings may be called as necessary.

Payment of Income

Income to be generated by the account is to be paid to the Foundation quarterly. At any time the income is insufficient, the Investment Manager will be advised.

Realized Losses

The maximum realized losses may not exceed $75,000 in any one year.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees
Board of Missions, Inc.
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of the Board of Missions, Inc., as of December 31, 1993 and 1992, and the related statements of revenues, expenses or distributions and fund balance for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Board's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Board of Missions, Inc., at December 31, 1993 and 1992, and the revenues, expenses or distributions and fund balance for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations:

The Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repairing of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to churches established in eastern North Carolina. All loans are collateralized by a first deed of trust on the Church property.

A summary of the Board's significant accounting policies follows:

Fund accounting:

The accounts of the Board of Missions, Inc. are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting.

Other accounting policies:

Cash:

The Board places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC limit.

Investments:

Investments are represented in the financial statements in the aggregate at the lower of cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value. The cost of securities sold is determined on a specific-identification basis.

Property:

Property is capitalized at cost or at fair market value as of the date acquired when received by gift. Depreciation of buildings is computed using the straight-line method over the assets estimated useful life.

Note 2. Investments

All investments are deposited with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Cost and market values as of December 31, 1993 and 1992 were as follows:

	1993	1992
Cost	$ 825,155	$ 255,670
Market value	846,148	256,650

Note 3. Property

A summary of property is as follows:

	1993	1992
Undeveloped land	$ 882,335	$ 831,827
Land	340,845	340,845
Buildings	85,210	85,210
	$1,308,390	$1,257,882
Less accumulated depreciation	5,326	3,195
	$1,303,064	$1,254,687

Note 4. Notes Payable

Line of credit:

During 1991, the Board of Missions entered into a one-year financing agreement with a bank to borrow up to $1,000,000, subject to review and renewal annually. The agreement was renewed in 1993. This agreement is collateralized by deeds of trust on certain real property located in eastern North Carolina and by various loans receivable.

These funds are to be utilized by the Board of Missions for the specific purposes of granting loans to churches for building programs and acquiring undeveloped land for future church sites. The bank must approve the use of the loan proceeds which the Board distributes.

At December 31, 1993 and 1992 the balance on the line of credit was $183,000 and $62,265, respectively. Interest on the outstanding balance is paid at prime plus .5%. The rate was 6.5% at December 31, 1993 and 1992, respectively.

Note payable:

In addition, in 1991 the Board issued a note payable with a face amount of $350,000, collateralized by property in the Fayetteville district, in the acquisition described in Note 7. The note is due in six annual installments plus interest at the rate of 8% per annum.

At December 31, 1993 and 1992, the unpaid balance on the note payable was $167,980 and $243,500, respectively. Aggregate maturities during the next three years are 1994 $75,562; 1995 $75,607; 1996 $16,811.

Note 5. Donated Services

The Board of Missions receives all management and administrative services from the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. Because of the difficulty in placing a value on such services, no contribution revenue or related expense has been recorded.

Note 6. Commitments

As of December 31, 1993, the Board of Missions had approved approximately $748,500 in new loans to churches which had not been disbursed.

Note 7. Restatement of Fund Balance

During 1991, the Board purchased a tract of land for $426,055 with two buildings as an intended church site. A note for $350,000 (Note 4) was issued to the seller. A down payment of $75,000 was paid by the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference) as a grant to the Board of Missions. The remaining purchase costs were expensed by the Board in the year paid. Subsequent to the purchase, payments in the amount of $132,500 in 1991 and 1992 were made on the note by the Conference as additional grants. These transactions were not recorded by the Board of Missions.

In order to properly reflect the asset and the related note payable, the beginning fund balance at January 1, 1992 has been restated as follows:

Adjustment for property purchased	426,055
Adjustment for note payable and related accrued interest	(338,000)
Fund balance, January 1, 1992, as restated	$4,253,054

As a result of this restatement, grant revenues for 1992 were increased by $107,500, interest expense was increased by $22,740 and depreciation expense was increased by $3,195 from amounts previously reported.

Note 8. Future Reporting Requirements

The Financial Accounting Standards Board has issued SFAS No. 117, Financial Statements of Not-For-Profit Organizations, which the Board has not been required to adopt as of December 31, 1993. The Statement, which will be in effect for the Board's fiscal year beginning December 31, 1994 will require the presentation of financial information in a format different from that currently permitted for not-for-profit organizations. The Board currently utilizes a "fund balance" approach for accounting and reporting its financial information. SFAS No. 117 requires the presentation of a statement of financial condition and a statement of activities that displays three classes of net assets; permanently restricted, temporarily restricted, and unrestricted, and their changes during the period. SFAS No. 117 will also require the presentation of a cash flows statement. Although the Statement will require a radical departure from the Board's current financial statement presentation, SFAS No. 117 does not require any new accounting treatment for the recognition or measurement of financial elements.
